In the Name of Allah, The All-compassionate, The All-merciful

Praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of all being; the All-compassionate, the All-merciful; the Master of the Day of Judgement; Thee only we serve, and to Thee alone we pray for succour;

Guide us in the straight path; the path of those whom Thou hast blessed, not of those against whom Thou art wrathful, nor of those who are astray.

O' Allah! send your blessings to the head of your messengers and the last of your prophets, Muhammad and his pure and cleansed progeny.

Also send your blessings to all your prophets and envoys.

كانت أمنيّة تجيش بها صدورناً بأقوى ما تجيش به الصّدور، و نحمدالله على أن وققنا إلى أن نخطو أولى الخطوات لتحقيقها...

إِنَّ مَن أُعَرِّ أَمانِينا و أَحلى آمالنا و أُخلص أهدافنا و أصدقها، أن نوفق الى نقل أمّهات التراث الاسلامي الأصيل المروى عن أثمّة أهل البيت (عليهم السلام)، وعن طريقهم عن النّي (صلى الله عليه و آله و سلم)، إلى لغات تمكّن غير العربي من الإستفادة و الإستفادة، وتفتح أمامه أبوابا واسعة على هذا العالم الزّاخر والفيض المتدفق، وتعينه على أن يواجه بنفسه ثاني المصادر الأصيلة والصّحيحة – بعد القرآن الكريم – لفهم الإسلام في صورته الصّحيحة عقيدة و شريعة، تاريخا و سيرا، خلقا و سلوكا، أحكام عبادات و قوانين معاش و تجارة، منهاجا فرديًا و أنظمة بيت و أسرة و مجتمع ... تفتح تلك الأبواب المغلقة – بكل أسف – على من لا يحسن اللغة العربيّة ولا يفقه النصوص في لغتها الأصليّة.

وانَّ من أهم هذا التراث كتاب (الكافي) تأليف الشيخ أبي جعفر محمّدبن يعقوب الكلينيّ الرَّازي (- ٣٢٩/٣٢٨ = ٩٤١/٩٤٠). و قد أغنتنا المقدّمة التي جاءت في فاتحة (كتاب العقل والجهل) عن التعريف به و بمؤلفه العظيم و قيمته الدينيّة والمركز الذي يحتلّه في جملة ما وصل إلينا من تراث أثمّة أهل البيت (عليهم السلام).

و نحمدالله سبحانه على أنّ هذه المحاولة لترجمة (الكافي) الى الإنجليزية قد نجحت ونجزت، وقد جرينا فيها شوطا لم يكن لنا، لولا أن تداركنا رحمة من ربّنا، أن نبلغه، فقد تم ترجمة (كتاب العقل والجهل) و (كتاب فضل العلم) و (كتاب التوحيد) و نشر من قبل جنّدنا كل ما نملك – بحول الله و قوّته – لتحقيق العمل و إنجازه، فكم من خطوة خطوناها، ثم بدا لنا أنّ فيها نقصا ولو بعض النقص فنتدارك، وكم من صيغة وضعناها ثم وجدنا أنّ غيرها قد يكون هو الصّحيح، او الأصحّ، او الأكمل فنستبد له بها، و هكذا إلى أن اتخذت شكلها الحاضر. و تأكّدنا في حدود ما وسعنا من صحّة الترجمة، و سلامة التعبير، واستعنا في ذلك بكلّ من أمكنتنا الإستعانة به، سواء أكان في سلامة لغة الترجمة، أم في عرضها على النّص العربي والتأكد من صحّة النّقل و سلامة التعبير.

وهذا هو (كتاب الحجة) من (أصول الكافي) نبدأ اليوم بنشر اجزائه المترجمة الى الانجليزية، والحال فيه قد تغيّرت عمّا كانت عليه يوم أن بدأنا العمل، فان هذه الترجمة قد أسندناها الى أحد الاخصائيين الإنجليز في الترجمة، الذي قد جمع الى أن كانت الانجليزية لغة الأمّ له، أنّه أخصائي في الانجليزية و آدابها، وكان عملنا - بادئ الأمر للانجليزية لغة الأمّ له، أنّه أخصائي في الانجليزية و آدابها، وكان عملنا - بادئ الأمر يتلخّص في مراجعة ما قام به المترجم السابق، الا أنّه سرعان ما ارتأى و ارتأينا معه أن نركز الجهد على الترجمة المباشرة من النص العربي، وعلى هذا جرى عملنا و بهذا يصتح لنا أن نقول بأنّا فق الترجمة لغة كاتب انجليزي المولد خبير بلغته، و بهذا يمكننا أن نقول بأنّا - ولله الحمد في ذلك كله - قد خطونا خطوة أخرى الى الأمام في هذه السبيل.

ومع هذا فاننا لا ندّعي الكمال في ذلك، وكلّ ما قمنا به، و نحمدالله على إنجازه، أنّنا نعدّ أنفسناأن قد خطونا الخطوة الأولى، و نحن واثقون بأنّها ستتعقّبها خطوات – منّا أو من غيرنا – تصحّح فيها الأخطاء، و يتكامل فيها التّعبير، و تصدق التّرجمة، و يسلم النّقل أكثر فأكثر.

وقد ارتأينا أن نسرع الى طبع و نشركل ما أنجزنا ترجمته وسنصدره تباعا بصورة أجزاء صغار ذات صفحات محدودة، الى أن تكمل ترجمة كلّ جزء من أجزاء (الكافي) ويكمل طبعه ، وحينئذ ستنضم هذه الأجزاء بعضها مع البعض الآخر فتكون وحدات تمثّل كلّ وحدة ترجمة كاملة لجزء من أجزاء الكتاب. وقد أرفقنا بالترجمة الانجليزية، النّص العربي للكتاب بصورته الكاملة، فوضعنا في أعلى كل صفحة قدر ما يطابق الترجمة التي ادرجت في تلك الصفحة. و لابد لنا من التّاكيد على أنّ كتاب (الكافي) و ان آمنًا و آمن معنا ، بقيمته العلميّة و قداسته المذهبيّة و مركز مؤلّفه العالي من الثقة والاعتماد كلّ من درس الكافي و مؤلّفه و مركزه من التّراث الإسلاميّ الرّفيع – و نحن مؤمنون بهذا أعمق الايمان – اقول : لابد لنا من التّأكيد على أنّ (الكافي) لا تتساوى أحاديثه، وليست أسانيد رواياته ولا رواة أحاديثه متساوون في الوثاقة والصدق، ولا يجري عليهم كلّهم حكم واحد.

ونظرة واحدة على كتاب (مرآة العقول) - الذى هو شرح للكافي - للعلامة الكبير المجلسي محمد باقر علماء الحديث و المجلسي محمد باقر (١٩٠٠/١٠١١ - ١٦٢٨/١٠١١) و هو من أبرز علماء الحديث و من أخلصهم للكتاب ومؤلفه العظيم وأشدهم إيمانا واعتقادا، ووثوقا واعتمادا، لتكشف للدّارس هذه النقطة التي لم نرد أن نستعرضها الأباشارة مجملة نؤكد عليها دون الدّبخول في التّفاصيل.

و لهذا السّبب و غيره احتفظنا بأسانيد الأحاديث كاملة ، كما جاءت في النّصّ الأصليّ ، لم نحذف منها شيئا، لا أصل السّند ولا حلقة من حلقاته. فلابدّ للكشف عن حال سند أيّ حديث من الرّجوع الى كتب الرّجال الّتي تشرح حال الرّاوي و تبيّن مركزه الدّينيّ والخلقيّ و تقيّمه فيما يروي و يحدّث.

ونؤكد ثانيا على أنّ استخلاص أيّة عقيدة دينيّة أومذهبيّة، أوأى رأى فقهى من هذه الأحاديث لايصّح ولا يتّم إلا بعد عرض الرّوايات – بأسانيدها – على كتب الرّجال، و بعد عرض بعضها على البعض و تحكيم القرآن الكريم في ذلك والأهم من هذا كلّه الإحتكام إلى قواعد و أسس وضعها العلماء المختصّون، والّتي لايستغنى عنها في هذا المجال بأيّ حال.

اذن لابد للباحث من الرجوع الى كتب العقيدة والكلام، أو الرجوع الى كتب الفقه والشريعة، الكتب الني تعنى بالناحية الإستدلالية و تقيم الحجة على أي مبدأ عقدي او رأي فقهي، ان أراد الباحث لبحوثه و دراساته أن تكون منهجية، و للنتائج التي ينتهي اليها أن تكون سليمة صحيحة موثوقا بها، ترضى ضميره العلمي وتلزم غيره وتضطره الى الأخذبها.

وهذه نقطة أغفلها – بعمد أو بغير عمد – كثير من الباحثين، ننّبه عليها هناكي لاينزلق غيرهم الى المنحدر الذي انزلقوا اليه ولايقع في الأخطاء التي وقعوا فيها.

ولا عتبارات شتى لم نشأ أن نثقل الكتاب بالهوامش والشّروح، الأ ما وجدناه ضروريًا الى حد نشد معه عن هذا المبدأ الذي اتخذناه حينما عزمنا على ترجمة الكتاب و نشره. إنّ أمس كتب الكافي بعقيدة الشيعة الإمامية في الإمامة انّما هو (كتاب الحجّة) الكتاب المخصّص لبيان معنى الإمامة و حدودها و معالمها، والاثمّة (عليهم السلام) و خصائصهم و ميزاتهم، و من الواضح أنّ هذا الجانب من عقيدة الإمامية هو أهم ما يمتازون به عن غيرهم من إخوانهم المسلمين فمن الطبيعي أن يكون (كتاب الحجّة) هي النقطة المركزيّة التي تتوجّه اليها أنظار المؤمنين بالإمامة والمنكرين لها على سواء. و لهذا رأينا أن نؤكّد على مايلي :

أ-التأكيد مرّة أخرى على النّقاط الّتي عرضناها في الفقرة النّالثة من هذا التّصدير،
 و أنّ ما قلناه هناك لابدٌ و أن يراعى بكلّ دقة عند الرّجوع الى أحاديث (كتاب الحجّة) و خاصّة حينما يراد استخلاص عقيدة الاماميّة.

ب- إن كثيرا من أحاديث (كتاب الحجّة) قد أسي فهمها، أومن الممكن أن يساء فهمها، اما على أساس الأخذ بمقاييس و أسس غير معترف بها عند الإمامية، أو لعدم الدّقة في استعمال المقاييس المعترف بها عندهم، أو الإندفاع وراء إيحاءات مذهبية غير شيعية، بل ومخاصمة للشيعة عامة و للإمامية منهم خاصة، و هذا في رأينا أهم هذه العوامل الثلاثة.

فلهذا كله اضطررنا إلى أن نخرج على الأصل الذي اتّخذناه كمبداً، وهو عدم إثقال الكتاب بالهوامش والشّروح - كما تقدم - فعلقنا و فسّرنا في موارد كثيرة بما يرفع كثيرا من نقاط الإبهام و يعين على تجنّب الأخطاء و نؤكد هنا و نصر على هذا التّأكيد أنه لابدٌ في فهم أحاديث (كتاب الحجّة) من الرجوع الى تلك الشّروح والملاحظات التي يرجع بعضها إلى أحاديث خاصة، وبعضها الآخر، وهوالأكثر، يرجع إلى تفسير مجموعة من الأحاديث، بل ومجموعة من أبواب الكتاب.

و هذه الملاحظات قد جاءت كلّها بالإنجليزية ، فليس لقارئ النّص العربيّ الأ أن يرجع اليها في نصّها الانجليزيّ، ولا يكتفي بمراجعة النّصّ العربي وحده.

راعبنا الصّيغة الإسلامية والنّطق العربي للأعلام والأسماء الّتي وردت في الأحاديث، ولم نكتف في الترجمة بصيغها كما جاءت في العهدين. ف(موسى. عيسى. مربم. جبريل...) قد ضبطناها في الترجمة حسب النّطق الإسلامي، خاصة الأعلام التي جاءت في القرآن الكريم، ووضعنا صيغتها (البايبلية) بين قوسين.

والذي دعانا الى هذا حرصنا، أشدالحرص، على الإحتفاظ بالطّابع الإسلاميّ الأصيل حتى الإبتعاد –كلّ الإبتعاد – الأصيل حتى في الأعلام والأسماء، والظّهور بمظهر الأصالة، والإبتعاد –كلّ الإبتعاد – عن التّبعيّة والذّيليّة ولوكانت في النّطق والتعبير.

و نستعين بهذا الجدول على تفسير التّعابير المبهمة – ولو لغير المختصّين – الّتي ترد ضمن رواية الحديث.

Y - جدول يحتوي على رموز وضعناها لمصطلحات في رواية الحديث يستعملها علماء الحديث، ونشرح في هذا الفهرس أيضا بعض تلك المصطلحات التي لم نجد له صيغة مختصرة في الانجليزية، فنشرح ذلك المصطلح هنا، وحينما يأتي في موضعه نذكره بنصه العربي ولكن بالكتابة اللاتينية.

راجع مثلا: (رفعه) في لهذا الفهرس وألحقنا بكل جزء فهارس ثلاثة :

مثلا: جاء في فهرس هذا الجزء:

(٧) – ابوجعفر، ٤٣٨، ٤٣٩... الخ

فإنّ رقم (٧) الوارد قبل الاسم (أبوجعفر) يشير الى أنّ المروى عنه انّما هوالإمام أبوجعفر محمّد بن علي الباقر (عليهما السلام) الذي يحمل هذا الرقم في الجدول المذكور، والأرقام بعد الاسم، انما هي ارقام أحاديث الكتاب (حسب تسلسلها) الّتي روبت عنه، فقد روي عنه الحديث ٤٣٨... و هكذا.

٢ فهرس للأعلام (أسماء الأشخاص) تلى كل إسم أرقام التسلسل للأحاديث التي جاء
 فيها ذكره. وقد اكتفينا بالأعلام التي جاءت في متون الأحاديث وأغفلنا أسماء الرواة.

٣- فهرس لأعلام الأماكن، وأسماء القبائل والطوائف، والمذاهب.

وهذه الفهارس الثلاثة الأخيرة تأتي ملحقة بالجزء الأخير من أجزاء (كتاب الحجّة). و بعد، فالله سبحانه هوالذي نستعين به و نتوكّل عليه و نستهديه و نستمد منه أن يوفقنا لإكمال ما بدأتا، و يسدّدنا لإنجاز ما عزمنا، انه وليّ التّوفيق، و هو سبحانه نعم المولى و نعم النّصير.

In our continuous effort to propagate Islam through our numerous publications, we have persistently endeavoured to include amongst our publications translations of the most important reference books recognized by the Shi'ah. To be able to publish such key books in the Shi'ite heritage in foreign languages not only gives us great pleasure and pride but conforms very well with out wishes and our sincere objectives. No doubt non-Arabic-speaking researchers will now have better access to the true Islamic heritage, since such books contain the aḥādīth (traditions) of the holy Imāms (peace be upon them) and the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him and his progeny). Moreover these books constitute the second source — the holy Qur'an being the first — whereby one may obtain a better understanding of Islamic beliefs, jurisprudence, history, biographies, morals and behaviour, laws pertaining to worship, business, considerations for the individual, family and society etc.

One of the important books in question is al-Kāfī whose author was ash-Shaykh Abū Ja'far Muḥammad ibn Ya'qūb al-Kulaynī ar-Rāzī (d.328/329 = 940/941). We do not need to introduce either the book or its author since the preface (in The Book of Reason and Ignorance) takes care of that and also shows the religious significance and the status of this book in our heritage, namely the heritage transmitted to us through Ahlu 'l-bayt (the Household of the Holy Prophet — peace be upon them).

We give thanks to Allah for the fact that this translation of al-Kāfī has been undertaken and carried through to its realisation. And we must here say in all sincerity that if it had not been for the help of Allāh we should not have arrived at this point. Thus the translation of Kitābu 'l-'aql wa 'l-jahl (The Book of Reason and Ignorance), Kitābu faḍli 'l-'ilm (The Book of the Excellence of Knowledge) and Kitābu 't-tawḥīd (The Book of Divine Unity) have already been finished, printed and published. It is a matter of fact that we have had to utilize all the means at our disposal and rely on Allāh's un limited strength in order to accomplish this translation. Indeed, we have had to do a lot of screening before deciding upon this version. Furthermore, we made every possible effort to ensure that the translation was satisfactory and acceptable as regards accuracy and grammer.

Now we are starting the publication of the translation of the parts of Kitābu 'l-ḥujjah (The Book of Divine Proof) which will be published separately. The style of this translation will be observed to be different from that of the previous volumes, for we have here had the assistance of a native English speaker who not only can claim this language as his mother tongue, but has also specialised in the language and its literature. We started by having this person review and change the translation of the original translator where necessary, but we soon discovered that it was going to be much more satisfactory to work from the original Arabic text. Thus we changed after a short while to a completely new and direct translation from the original. We can therefore claim that this is a translation by a native English speaker with the above qualifications. We can furthermore claim that, through the help of, and with praise to Allāh, we have made another step forward in the perfecting of our work. We do not wish to claim perfection in this humble effort to translate this book al-Kāfī. Nevertheless, we have taken another step and we are confident that subsequent steps will be taken, either by us or by somebody else, both to remove any errors and to perfect the translation so that exactness in the translation process is improved.

We have decided to speed up the printing and publication of these translated sections of al-Kāfi. The other sections, it is hoped, will be published in due course on a one-by-one basis; this process will be continued until all the sections of al-Kāfi have been translated and published.

You will note that we have also included along with the English translation, the complete original Arabic version, this being placed at the top of each page with the corresponding English translation below.

Along with all those who study it, we believe that al-Kāfī is of such a high status as a source of religious knowledge and so sacred in the Shi'ite circles that the author may be considered highly honest and highly reliable. However, we should emphasize that neither are the aḥādīth (traditions) equal in value and significance nor are the chains of the ascriptions of al-Kāfī's traditions nor the supporters of the authorities on which its tradition are based equal in terms of reliability and credibility and one can in no way regard them as equally dependable. A glance at the book entitled Mir'ātu 'l-'uqūl (Reflection of the Minds) will reveal this very point to the researcher in more detail. Mir'ātu 'l-'uqūl is an explanatory book to al-Kāfī and comes from the pen of the great scholar Muḥammad Bāqir al-Majlisi (1037/1628 – 1111/1700) who was one of the prominent scholars of ḥadīth (tradition) and among the most loyal and faithful to the book of al-Kāft and its great author, and among those who have been most confident in and have relied greatly on al-Kulayni and his traditions.

Because of this - that is, the question of unequal credibility of the aḥādīth, narrations and narrators - and for the sake of completeness we have retained the complete chain of narration of the ahādīth as in the original Arabic text. We have neither omitted any chain for any hadith, nor neglected the links in the chain of narration. In order to reveal the credibility, or otherwise, of the chain of narration for a particular hadith, one must refer to (special) books dealing with the biography and the religious and moral status of the narrator/s; such books also carry an appraisal of what the narrator transmits and relates. We would like to re-emphasize that the inference of any religious or ritual doctrine or any law pertaining to jurisprudence from these ahādīth is a long process. To start with, the researcher must refer the narrations along with their supporting chain of narration to the special biographical books referred to above. The narrations must be cross-checked against one another. Later on the researcher must consider all other declarations and citations on the same topic from other references and then use the holy Qur'an as the arbitrator. Of greater importance still, one has to abide by the conventions laid down by the specialist in these matters, which conventions can never be ignored.

Therefore, the researcher must go back either to the doctrinal and theological ('ilmu 'l-kalām') books or to the books of jurisprudence and legislation, that is, those books which cover the ways of demonstration and evaluation of the various proofs and evidence used to substantiate any principle of belief or jurisprudence. This is the approach to be adopted if one wants his research to be systematic and if one wants the results to be sound, accurate and reliable, thus satisfying his scientific conscience and persuading others to honour and follow such methods.

This point has been ignored — intentionally or otherwise — by many researchers and we are stressing it here in order that other researchers should neither make the same mistake of ignoring it nor suffer from the same delusion.

We have also, for several reasons, refrained from introducing unnecessary explanatory notes, except where it was absolutely necessary, so as to remain true to our original aim of merely translating and publishing the book.

The largest book contained in Uṣūl of al-Kāfī pertaining to the beliefs of the Imāmite Shī'ah Muslims is The Book of Divine Proof, for it is in this book that the question of the Imāmate, the Imāms and their attributes and specific characteristics is dealt with. There can be no doubt that the question of the Imāmate is the most important one which distinguishes the Imāmite Shī'ah from the other sects of Islam, and thus the subject is of special importance both to those who believe in it and to those who disagree with it. Thus it is necessary to mention here one or two points by way of introduction concerning this particular book of al-Kāft.

- a) We must emphasize that the points we made concerning the reliability of hadith and their narrations in part three of this introduction should be particularly attended to in The Book of Divine Proof. And this is especially relevant in the application of these ahādīth to the ascertaining of the beliefs of the Imāmite Shī'ah.
- b) In this book there have been, and possibly may be, many errors in the understanding of many of the aḥādīth. This may be for one of three reasons. Either the principles and criteria of analysis and understanding of the aḥādīth which are applied do not correspond to those accepted by the Imāmite Shi'ah; or else these principles and criteria are those accepted by them but are incorrectly applied; or, finally, the researcher may come to his analysis of the aḥādīth with some preconceptions which are at variance with a sympathetic understanding of Shi'ite beliefs, especially Imāmite beliefs, and may even be hostile to them. This final reason is, in our opinion, the most serious obstacle to a correct understanding of these aḥādīth. Thus, in apparent contradiction to our early promise not to insert too many explanatory notes to the translation, we have here made an exception (though it is not really so, since it is entirely necessary) and have added in several places quite extensive commentaries to guide to a correct understanding of various points which occur in the ahādīth.

Some of them concern specific ḥadīth, while others concern points which occur repeatedly in many aḥādīth or in many chapters; the latter are in the majority. It must be noted that these notes are only given in English; but a correct understanding of the Arabic can only be undertaken in consultation with these English notes.

In the translation we have retained the Islamic format and Arabic pronunciation of the names and proper nouns encountered in various aḥādīth. We were not entirely satisfied with the Biblical equivalents, but, instead, retained the Islamic articulations in the text, following each proper noun or name (especially those mentioned in the holy Qur'ān) like Mūsā (Moses), 'Īsā (Jesus), Maryam (Mary), Jibril (Gabriel)... with its Biblical equivalent in parentheses.

We took this measure because we strongly believe in preserving the original Islamic character even with respect to names and proper nouns. We believe in originality even when it comes to appearances, and we shall completely avoid imitation and copying even if it is merely as regards pronounciation and expression.

We have included two tables at the beginning of each section:-

1. A chronological list of the Holy Prophet, his daughter and the twelve Holy Imāms, giving general particulars and information in tabular form about them. For each of them we have assigned a number according to their sequence.

It is hoped that this table will help the reader — even the non-specialist — to understand some important expressions encountered in the chains of narration of each hadith (tradition).

2. The index containing symbols for terminology commonly encountered in the process of narration of hadith. We have introduced these because scholars of hadith often use them. In this index we have also explained some of those terminologies for which no simple English equivalent can be found. We have explained such terminology in the index and when it appears in the text. We also mention the Arabic text in the Latinized form: for example, "rafa'ahu" — (see List of technical terms and special signs used in the traditions).

Furthermore, we have included three indexes at the end of each section:-

a) The first index lists the originators of the aḥādīth to be found in that section — the Holy Prophet and the Imāms.

It begins with a number corresponding to the serial number of the originator of the hadith, the originator being the Prophet or one of the Imams. The serial number has already been assigned in the table at the beginning of the section.

After the number, the form of the name used in the hadith appears.

After that, the serial number/s of aḥādith related to the originator is/are listed. For example, in the first index of this section: (7) — Abū Ja'far: 438, 439, etc.

The number (7) preceding the name (Abū Ja'far) indicates that the originator is Imām Abū Ja'far Muḥammad ibn 'Alī al-Bāqir (p.b.u.t.) who was assigned with this number in the table at the beginning of the section. The number following the name is the serial number of the aḥādīth in the book (or section) related to him, for example, the 438th and the 439th ḥadīth are related to him, etc.

b) Index of the names of key personalities. Following each name the serial numbers of aḥādīth in which such a name appears are cited. We were content with citing only those names that appeared in the texts of the aḥādīth proper and ignored the names of narrators.

c) Index of key places, names of tribes, families, sects and books.

These last three indexes will be included in the last part of The Book of Divine Proof.

Finally, it is Allah, the Almighty, from Whom we seek help and guidance and upon Whom we rely for the success of our efforts. Moreover, we pray that He may pave the way for us to complete what we have commenced and to guide our steps, so that we may achieve what we have set out to do. We firmly believe that He is the Reconciliator and that He is the best Guide and the best Artisan.

CHAPTER 15

CONCERNING EXTRAORDINARY (AḤĀDĪTH) AND THOSE WHICH BRING TOGETHER THE EMINENCE OF THE IMĀM AND HIS QUALITIES

523-1. Abū Muḥammad al-Qāsim ibn al-'Alā' — may Allāh be merciful to him (rafa'ahu) — that 'Abd al-'Azīz ibn Muslim said: "We had been with ar-Riḍā (p.b.u.h.) at Marw.¹ We gathered at the Friday mosque on Friday, when we had just arrived (in Marw), and they discussed the matter of the Imāmate, and they discussed the many differences among people in this matter. Then I came into the presence of my master (p.b.u.h.). I informed him about the various things the people had said respecting him. He (p.b.u.h.) smiled, then said: 'O 'Abd al-'Aziz! The people do not know, and have been deceived in their opinions. Verily, Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, did not take away (the life of) His Prophet (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) until he had perfected the religion for Him, and had sent down on him the Qur'ān in which is the clarification of all things. He completely clarified in it what is lawful and what is unlawful, the restrictions (hudūd) and the commands, and all that people need. He to Whom belong Might and Majesty said: We have neglected nothing in the Book. (al-An'ām, 6:38). And He sent down in the Farewell Pilgrimage, which was at the end of his (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) life: Today I have perfected your religion for you, and I have completed My blessing upon you, and I have approved Islam for your religion (al-Mā'idah, 5:3).

"'And the matter of the Imamate is one of the things by which the religion is completed. He (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) did not pass away until he had clarified the guiding principles of their religion to his community and made plain their path for them, and he left them pointing in the direction of the path of the truth. And he established 'Alî (p.b.u.h.) for them as a sign and as Imam. He (Allah) has not left for them anything which the community needs without clarifying it. Hence, whoever imagines that Allāh to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has not perfected His religion has surely rejected the Book of Allāh, and whoever has rejected the Book of Allāh, is an unbeliever in it.

"Do they know the value of the Imāmate and its position in the community that their selection could be allowable in this matter? Verily, the Imāmate is too sublime among values, too great among ranks, too high among stations, too impenetrable on all sides, too profound among the depths, for people to reach it with their intellects, or to grasp it with their opinions, or to establish an Imām by their choice. Verily, the Imāmate is that in which Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has distinguished Ibrāhīm, the Intimate Friend (al-Khalīl), after Prophethood and Intimacy, as a third degree, and an eminence with which He honoured him and by which He raised his renown, and He said: "Behold! I make you an Imām for the people." Then the Intimate Friend (p.b.u.h.) said out of delight in this: "And of my seed." Allāh, the Blessed, the Sublime, said: "My covenant shall not reach the evil-doers" (al-Baqarah, 2:124). Thus, this verse has abolished the leadership (imāmah) of all evil-doers till the Day of Resurrection, and it has become for the select ones. Then Allāh, the Sublime, bestowed honours on him, by establishing it in his seed, the ones who are selected and purified (by Allāh). An He said: And We gave him Isḥāq and Ya'qūb in superabundance, and everyone made We righteous and appointed them to be Imams guiding by Our commands, and We revealed to them the doing of good deeds, and to perform the prayer, and to pay zakāt, and Us they seved (al-Anbiyā', 21:72-73).

"'So it (the Imāmate) did not leave his seed; one of them inheriting it from another, generation after generation, till Allāh, the Sublime, caused the Prophet (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) to inherit it. And He, the Majestic, the Sublime, said: Surely the people standing closest to Ibrāhīm are those who followed him, and this Prophet, and those who believe; and Allāh is the Master of the believers (Āl 'Imrān, 3:68). So it (the Imāmate) belonged to him particularly, and hence he (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) invested 'Alī (p.b.u.h.) with it by the command of Allāh, the Sublime, in the way in which Allāh had made obligatory. So it came to be in his ('Alī's) selected seed, those to whom Allāh has given knowledge and faith, as in the words of He Who is the Sublime: But those who have given knowledge and faith shall say, "You have remained in Allāh's Book till the Day of Upraising" (ar-Rum, 30:56). Thus it will be within the sons of 'Ali (p.b.u.h.), especially, till the Day of Resurrection, since there is no prophet after Muhammad (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.). So from where have these ignorant people got (the right) to select?

"'Verily, the Imamate is the position of the Prophets, and the heritage of the successors. Indeed, the Imamate is the vicegerency (khilāfah) of Allāh and the vicegerency of the Messenger (p.b.u.h.a. h.p.), and the station of Amīr al-mu'minīn (p.b.u.h.) and the inheritance of al-Ḥasan and al-Ḥusayn (p.b.u.t.).

"'Truly, the Imamate is the reins of the religion, the state of order of the Muslims, the rectitude of the world, and the might of the believers. Verily, the Imamate is Islam's growing root, and its lofty branch. Through the Imam the prayer, zakāt, fasting, hajj and jihād (exerting oneself, striving in the way of Allah, whether by means of one's property, one's life, one's knowledge, or by any other means) are perfected, the general wealth (of the Muslims, fay') and charity (sadaqāt) are increased, the restrictions and the commands are put into practice, and the frontier-posts and borders are protected.

"'The Imam allows what Allah allows, and prohibits what Allah

"'The Imam is like the risen sun which covers the world with its light and which is in a place where no hand or eye can reach it. The Imam is the radiant moon, the shining lamp, the brilliant light, and the star that guides in the heavy darkness, and in the middle of inhabited lands, deserted regions and the high seas. The Imam is sweet water for the thirst, the pointer towards true guidance, and the delieverer from destruction. The Imam is the fire on the heights (which guides those far away), and which warms those who seek the heat, and an indicator in dangers. He who moves away from him will perish.

"'The Imam is the rain-bearing cloud, the rainfall that covers everywhere, the shining sun, the covering that shades, the prairie, the overflowing spring, the pool and the meadow. The Imam is the gentle, close friend, the sympathetic father, the blood-brother, the mother who is tender to her small child, a place of refuge for mankind from perilous disaster. for His slaves, His vicegerent in His lands, a caller towards Allah and the defender of Allah's precincts. The Imam is the one who is purified from sins, free from all shortcomings, characterized by knowledge, distinguished by forbearance, the state of order of the religion, the might of the Muslims, the one who enrages the hypocrites, and the doom of unbelievers. The Imam is unique of his time, no-one can approach his rank, no man of knowledge is comparable to him, there is no-one who can take his place, nor is there anyone similar to him or the same as him. He is characterized by every (kind of) eminence, without his seeking it or acquiring it, rather it is a characteristic from the Bestower of eminence, the All-giving. So who is there who can arrive at knowledge of the Imam, or have the ability to select him? How far from the truth is it! Intellects have lost (themselves), imaginations have gone astray, minds have become perplexed, eyes have turned away, the great have been made small, the wise have confounded themselves, those who reflect forever fall short, orators falter, the intelligent become ignorant, poets become expressionless, prosodists incapable and the eloquent stammer, in describing one of his aspects, or

How can anything concerning him be understood? Who can be found to take his place and to give what he can give? No! How and where? And He to Whom belong Might and Majesty has said: It is not for any believer, man or woman, when Allāh and His Messenger have decreed a matter, to have the choice in the affair (al-Ahzāb, 33:36). And He has said: What ails you then, how you judge? Or have you a Book wherein you study? Surely therein you shall have whatever you choose! (Muhammad, 47:24), or has Allah set a seal upon their hearts, so they understand not (see at-Tawbah, 9:87, al-Munāfigun, 63:3. A seal has been set upon their hearts, . . .), or they say: "We hear," and they hear not. Surely the worst of beasts in Allah's sight are those that are deaf and dumb and do not understand. If Allah had known of any good in them He would have made them hear, and if He had made them hear, they would have turned away, swerving aside (al-Anfâl, 8:21-23), or they said, We have heard and we disobey (al-Bagarah, 2:93). But that is the bounty of Allah; He gives it to whom He will, and Allah is of bounty abounding (al-Hadid, 57:21; al-Jumu'ah, 62:4). How can they have (the right) to choose of an Imam? Aspersion cannot be cast on him in relation to his parentage, no-one can approach him in honourability (or nobility: ḥasab). He is in the noble house of the Quraysh, at the summit of (Banū) Hāshim, of the offspring of the Messenger (p.b.u.h. a.h.p.) and the one accepted by Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty. He is the nobility of the noblest men, and the true branch of 'Abd Manāf (the father of Hāshim and Umayyah); the one whose knowledge forever grows and whose patience is perfect, who is completely acquainted with the Imāmate, entirely knowledgeable in statesmanship. Obedience to him is obligatory, the one who establishes the affair of Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty. He is the sincere adviser to the slaves of Allāh, the protector of the religion of Allāh.

And Allāh is All-embracing, All-knowing (al-Baqarah, 2:247). And He said to His Prophet (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.): Allāh has sent down on thee the Book and the Wisdom, and He has taught thee that thou knowest not: Allāh's bounty to thee is very great (an-Nisā', 4:113). And He says about the Imāms from the Ahlu 'l-bayt of His Prophet, his progeny and his seed, may Allāh bless them: Or are they jealous of the people for the bounty that Allāh has given them? Yet We gave the progeny of Ibrāhīm the Book and the Wisdom, and We gave them a mighty kingdom. trusts to his heart the fountains of wisdom, and profoundly inspires him with knowledge. So, after this, he does not stammer in answers, and he does not deviate from the truth in them. Thus, he is infallible $(ma';\bar{u}m)$, supported (by Allāh); he is accomodated (to the right path, his steps being) firmly guided; he will be safe from errors, slips and stumblings. Allāh distinguishes him by this, because he is His Proof over his slaves, and His witness over His creatures — that is the bounty of Allāh, He gives it to whom He will, and Allāh is of bounty abounding (al-Ḥadīd, 57:21; al-Jumu'ah, 62:4).

"'So, do they have the power to do the like of this, so that they can choose him? Or can the one that they choose have this attribution so that they may prefer him? By the House of Allāh, they have transgressed against the truth, they have rejected the Book of Allāh behind their backs as though they did not know, and in the Book of Allāh there is guidance and cure. So they have rejected it, and they have followed their own desires. Therefore, Allāh has found fault with them, detested them and caste them down, as He, to Whom belong Majesty and Sublimeness, has said: And who is further astray them he who follows his own caprice without guidance from Allāh? Surely Allāh guides not the people of the evil-doers (al-Qaṣaṣ, 28:50). And He has

He makes a rope to stretch up to heaven, whose provisions are not cut off from him. Nothing can be obtained from what is with Allah except by means of him, nor does Allah accept the good deeds of His creatures except through their recognition of him. Thus, he knows (with certainty) what reaches him of the ambiguities of darkness, the obscurities of the paths and the complications of disturbances. Allah, the Blessed, the Sublime, has not ceased to select them for His creatures from the sons of al-Husayn (p.b.u.h.) after each Imam. He prefers them for this and chooses them, He approves them for His creatures and is well pleased with them. Whenever one Imam from them passes away, He sets up an Imam after him for His creatures, as an evident sign, a brilliant light, a custodian leader (Imam) and a knowledgeable Proof. They are Imams from Allah, who guide to the truth and by it act with justice (al-A'raf, 7:159,181). They are the Proofs of Allah, the callers to him and His shepherds for His creatures through whose guidance the people practise the religion.

Places of habitation are lit up by their light, what they (people) have from old is revived through their blessing (increase, barakah). Allah has made them life for the created beings, lamps for the darkness, keys for speech and pillars for Islam. Allah's determining for them occurred in this way with certainty.

CHAPTER 19

CONCERNING THE FACT THAT BEING WITH THE IMAMS, ON WHOM BE PEACE, HAS BEEN MADE AN OBLIGATION BY ALLAH, TO WHOM BELONG MIGHT AND MAJESTY, AND HIS MESSENGER, MAY ALLAH BLESS HIM AND HIS PROGENY

536 – 1. al-Ḥusayn ibn Muḥammad (—) Muʻallā ibn Muḥammad (—) al-Washshā' (—) Aḥmad ibn 'Ā'idh (—) Ibn Udhaynah that Burayd ibn Muʻāwiyah al-'Ijlî said:

"I asked Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) about the words of Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty: Fear Allāh, and be with the truthful ones (at-Tawbah, 9:119). He said: 'He means us.'"

537 – 2. Muḥammad ibn Yaḥyā (-) Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad that Ibn Abi Naṣr said:

غَلْبَا الله عن قول الله عن وجل : « يا أيها الدين آمنوا اتقوا الله وكونوا مع الصادقين ، قال : الصادقون هم الأئمة و الصديقون بطاعتهم .

٣/٥٣٨ أحد بن من و مح بن يحيى ، عن مح بن الحسين ، عن مح بن بنعبدالحميد عن منصور بن يونس ، عن سعد بن طريف ، عن أبي جعفر عَلَيْ قال : قال رسول الله عن منصور بن يونس ، عن سعد بن طريف ، عن أبي جعفر عَلَيْ قال : قال رسول الله عَبْدُ الله عنه أحب أن يحيى حياة تشبه حياة الأنبياء ، ويموت مينة تشبه مينة الشهداء ويسكن الجنان التي غرسها الرحن فليتول علياً وليوال وليه ولية تدبالا أمة من بعده ، فا نهم عترتي خلقوا من طينتي ، اللهم الزقهم فهمي و علمي ، و ويل للمخالفين لهم من أمتي ، اللهم لاتنلهم شفاعتي .

"I asked Abu'l-Ḥasan ar-Riḍā (p.b.u.h.) about the words of Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty: O you who believe! Fear Allāh, and be with the truthful ones (at-Tawbah, 9:119). He said: 'The truthful ones are the Imāms who are righteous in their obedience (to Allāh).' "(This refers to an-Nisā', 4:69: Whoever obeys Allāh and the Messenger — they are with those whom Allāh has blessed, Prophets, just men, martyrs, the righteous; good companions they!)

538-3. Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad and Muḥammad ibn Yaḥyā (-) Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥusayn (-) Muḥammad ibn 'Abd al-Ḥamid (-) Mansur ibn Yūnus (-) Sa'd ibn-Tarif that Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) said:

"The Messenger of Allāh (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) said: 'Whoever desires to live a life which is like the life of the prophets, to die a death which is like the death of the martyrs, and to dwell in the Gardens which the Most Merciful has planted (this means they were created out of Allāh's great affection for those whom He placed in these Gardens), must take 'Alī as his master and must take as his sincere friend the one who takes him ('Alī) as his master, and must emulate the Imāms after him, since they are my descendants who have been created from my clay. Allāh, endow them with my understanding and my knowledge, and woe be upon their opponents among my community; O Allāh! Do not allow my intercession to reach them (i.e., their opponents).'"

539 – 4. Muḥammad ibn Yaḥyā (—) Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥusayn (—) an-Naḍr ibn Shu'ayb (—) Muḥammad ibn al-Fuḍayl that Abū Ḥamzah ath-Thumāli said:

"I heard Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) say: 'The Messenger of Allah (p.b. u.h.a.h.p.) said: "Verily, Allah, the Blessed, the Sublime says: 'My Proof against the wicked ones of your community has been made complete against the one who had abandoned the mastership of 'Ali and has taken his ('Ali's) enemies as his master, and who denies his eminence and the eminence of the successors after him. Since your eminence is their eminence, obedience to you is obedience to them, your rights are their rights and disobedience to you is disobedience to them. They are the Imams of right guidance after you. Your spirit has flowed to them, and it is your spirit which has flowed into you from your Lord. They are your descendants (made) from your clay and (they are) your flesh and your blood. Verily, Allah, to Whom belong Might and Majesty has continued in them (His) wont with you and (His) wont with the prophets before you. They are My treasurers over My knowledge after you. It is a fact for Me, since, truly, I have selected them, chosen them, made them sincere (to Me) and approved them. He who loves them, takes them as his master and submits to their excellence, is saved.' Verily, Jibril came to me with their names, and with the names of their fathers and those who love them and those who have submitted to their excellence."'"

٥٥٥٠ – عدة من أصحابنا ، عن أحمد بن محد بن عيسى ، عن الحسين بن سعيد ، عن فضالة بن أينوب : عن أبي المغرا ، عن محد بن سالم ، عن أبان بن تغلب قال : سمعت أباعبدالله عَلَيْ الله عن عدد الله على الله عن عدد أباعبدالله عَلَيْ الله عن أراد أن يحيى حياتي، ويموت ميتتي و يدخل جنة عدن التي غرسها الله ربتي بيده ، فليتول علي بن أبي طالب وليتول وليته ، وليعاد عدو ه ، وليسلم للا وصياء من بعده ، فا نتهم عترتي من لحمي ودمي ، أعطاهم الله فهمي وعلمي ، إلى الله أشكو [أم] أمني ، المنكرين لفضلهم ، القاطعين فيهم صلتي ، وأيم الله ليقتلن ابني لا أنالهم الله شفاءتي

540-5. A group of our associates (-) Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn 'Īsā (-) al-Ḥusayn ibn Sa'id (-) Faḍālah ibn Ayyūb (-) Abu 'l-Maghrā (-) Muḥammad ibn Sālim that Abān ibn Taghlib said:

"I heard Abū 'Abdillāh (p.b.u.h.) say: 'The Messenger of Allāh (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) said: "Whoever desires to live my life and to die my death and to enter the Gardens of 'Adn (Eden), which Allāh, my Lord, has planted with His hands¹, must take 'Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib (p.b.u.h.) as his master, must take as his sincere friend the one who takes him ('Alī) as his master, must take as his enemy the one who is his ('Alī's) enemy, and must submit to the successors after him, since they are my descendants from my flesh and my blood; Allāh has bestowed on them my understanding and my knowledge. To Allāh I make complaint against (the deeds of those of) my community who deny their excellence and who sever what joins them to me. I swear by Allāh, they will kill my son (i.e., al-Imām al-Ḥusayn). May Allāh not allow my intercession to reach them." "

The meaning of 'hands' here, is according to the sense of the expression "(He) planted" which occurred previously in hadith 538. As we pointed out there, these expressions which emphasize the personal action of Allah are intended to show the great affection He thus shows for those for whom He has done this thing, or the great importance which He attaches to the particular act. The expressions "His hands", "by His hands" etc., which occur frequently in the Qur'an and hadith, are all intended to convey the same sense.

7/081 – مجل بن يحيى ، عن عبر بن الحسين ، عن موسى بن سعدان ، عن عبدالله بن القاسم ، عن عبدالقهار ، عن جابر الجعفي ، عن أبي جعفر عَلَيْكُ قال : قال رسول الله عَلَيْكُ : من سر ، أن يحيى حياتي ، و يموت ميتتي ، و يدخل الجنة الذي وعدنيها ربعي ويتمسك بقضيب غرسه ربني بيده فليتول علي بن أبي طالب عَلَيْكُ وأوصيا ، من بعده ، فا نهم لا يدخلونكم في باب ضلال ، ولا يخرجونكم من باب هدى ، فلا تعلموهم فا نهم أعلم منكم وإني سألت ربني ألا يفر ق بينهم وبين الكتاب حتى يردا على الحوض هكذا _ وضم بين أصبعيه _ وعرضه مابين صنعا ، إلى أيلة ، فيه قدحان فضة وذهب عدد النجوم

Jabir al-Ju'fi that Abu Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) said:

"The Messenger of Allāh (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) said: 'Whoever desires to live my life, to die my death, to enter the Paradise my Lord has promised to me, and to grasp the stick (i.e., to reach, and remain firmly in, the place from which the special Mercy of Allāh on His chosen ones flows), which my Lord has planted with His hands, must take 'Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib (p.b.u.h.), and his successors after him, as a master, because they will never cause you to enter the gates of misguidance, nor will they put you out at the gates of right guidance. Never teach them, since they are more knowledgeable than you. I have asked my Lord not to separate them from the Book even until they come to me at the Pool (hawd)¹, like this'—he brought together his two (first) fingers—'Its width extends from San'ā' (in Yemen) to Aylah (the modern Elat), and at it are cups of silver and gold as numerous as the stars.'"

^{1.} The Pool (hawd) is the place from which the Holy Prophet will give the righteous to drink on the Day of Resurrection. The dimensions are beyond reckoning, and to indicate this the Holy Prophet has compared its width to the northerly and southerly extent of the trading caravans of the pre-Islamic Arabs of Mecca, thus to the extent of their known world. Likewise, the cups from which righteous will drink there are so numerous that their number has been likened to the number of the stars.

542-7. al-Ḥusayn ibn Muḥammad (-) Muʻallā ibn Muḥammad (-) Muḥammad ibn Jumhūr (-) Faḍālah ibn Ayyūb (-) al-Ḥasan ibn Ziyād that Fudayl ibn Yasār said:

"Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) said: ('The Messenger of Allāh — p.b.u.h. a.h.p. — said:)¹ "Deliverance, comfort, victory, help, success, blessing, honour, forgiveness, relief, ease, glad tidings, good pleasure, nearness, triumph, empowerment, hope and love from Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, are for the one who takes 'Alī as his master, follows him, repels his enemy, submits to his eminence and (that of) the successors after him. It is a duty for me to include them in my intercession, and it is due from my Lord, the Blessed, the Sublime, to accept me concerning them. Thus, they are followers of me, and whoever follows me, he is surely from me.""

In Mir'ātu 'l-'uqūl (vol.2, p.425) al-'Allāmah al-Majlisī has pointed out that this phrase has been omitted, and that the reason for this becomes evident at the end of the hadīth.

CHAPTER 20

CONCERNING THE FACT THAT THE PEOPLE OF REMEM-BRANCE WHOM ALLÄH COMMANDS THE CREATURES TO OUESTION ARE THE IMÄMS, PEACE BE UPON THEM

543-1. al-Ḥusayn ibn Muḥammad (-) Muʻallā ibn Muḥammad (-) al-Washshā' (-) 'Abdullāh ibn 'Ajlān that Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) said concerning the words of Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty: So question the People (ahl) of Remembrance, if you do not know (an-Naḥl, 16:43 and al-Anbiyā', 21:7).

"The Messenger of Allāh (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) said: 'I am the Remembrance, and the Imāms are the People of Remembrance.'"

And (concerning) the words of Him, to Whom belong Might and Majesty: Surely it is a Remembrance for thee and for thy People; and assuredly you will be questioned (az-Zukhruf, 43:44). Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.) said: "We are his people and we are the ones who will be questioned."

545-3. al-Ḥusayn ibn Muḥammad (-) Mu'allā ibn Muḥammad that al-Washshā' said:

"The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) is the Remembrance, and his Household (Ahlu 'l-bayt - p.b.u.t.) are the ones who will be questioned; and they are the People of Remembrance."

^{1.} al-'Allāmah al-Majlisī remarks about this hadīth that there has perhaps been an omission or a change of one verse for another, either by the narrators or by the copyists (Mir'ātu 'l-'uqūl, vol.2, p.429). The reason for this is that the text of the hadīth does not accord with the verse quoted, for: Surely it is a Remembrance for thee... refers back to the Holy Prophet, and he cannot be a Remembrance for himself. This hadīth accords rather with the verse quoted in the previous hadīth (545-3) So question the People of Remembrance... Either the commentary of the verse: Surely it is a Remembrance... together with the verse: So question the People of Remembrance... have been omitted in this hadīth (546-4), or else the verse has been quoted out of place.

"I wrote a letter to ar-Riḍā (p.b.u.h.), and in a part of what I wrote was: 'Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has said: So question the People of Remembrance, if you do not know; and Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has said: It is not the case that the believers go forth (for jihād) all together; so why do not a party of every section of them go forth to become learned in religion, and to warn their people when they return to them, that haply they may beware? (at-Tawbah, 9:122). So it is an obligation on them to question, but it is not an obligation on you to answer. (Am I right?).' He said (wrote): 'Allāh, the Blessed, the Sublime, has said: Then if you do not respond to thee, know that they are only following their caprice; and who is further astray than he who follows his caprice

^{1.} The most obvious meaning of the Imam's answer is that just as in the time of the Prophet there were people who were motivated by their desires and caprices, so in the time of the Imams these people also exist, and that it is not incumbent upon the Imams to answer those whose questioning is motivated by these unworthy promptings. The duty of the Imams is to answer those who sincerely seek right guidance, and the Imams have the power of knowing who is asking sincerely. The answer was given in this rather elliptical form, so that if the letter of reply had fallen into the hands of persons who wanted to take advantage of it, they could not do so.

555-2. 'Alî ibn Muḥammad (-) 'Abdullāh ibn 'Alī (-) Ibrāhīm ibn Isḥāq (-) 'Abdullāh ibn Ḥammād (-) Burayd ibn Muʿāwiyah that one of the two (p.b.u.t.) "So the Messenger of Allāh (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) is the most excellent of those firmly rooted in knowledge. Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has taught him all that He has brought down to him of the revelation and (its) hermeneutics (ta'wil). And Allāh did not bring down to him anything whose hermeneutic interpretation He has not taught him. And his successors after him know all of it (i.e. the ta'wil).

^{1.} This hadith refers to Ål 'Imran 3:7; It is He Who sent down upon thee the Book, wherein are verses made secure (muhkamat) that are the Essence of the Book, and others ambiguous (mutashabihat: the plural of mutashabih which means something which resembles something else so that the two seem to be the same thing whereas in reality they are completely different). As for those in whose hearts is swerving, they follow the ambiguous part, desiring dissension, and desiring its hermeneutic interpretation (ta'wil); and none know its (true) hermeneutic interpretation, save only Allah and those firmly rooted in knowledge; they say, 'We believe in it; all is from our Lord'; yet none remembers, but men possessed of minds. N.B. The word 'it' in the Imam's words refers to the ambiguous part.

(The verses of) the Qur'ān are specific and general (khāṣṣ wa 'āmun), secure and ambiguous (muḥkam wa mutashābih), abrogating and abrogated (nāsikh wa mansūkh); because of this (only) those who are firmly rooted in knowledge know thic."

Allāh, the Blessed, the Sublime, has said: And We appointed them to be Imāms guiding by Our command (al-Anbiyā', 21:73) not by the command of the people. They (the Imāms) give priority to the command of Allāh over their command, and to the ruling of Allāh over their ruling. He has said: And We appointed them to be Imāms, calling to the Fire (al-Qaṣaṣ, 28:41). They gave priority to their command over the cammand of Allāh, and to their ruling over the ruling of Allāh. They grasp onto their own desires as opposed to what is in the Book of Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty."

CHAPTER 26

CONCERNING THE FACT THAT THE QUR'ĀN GUIDES TOWARDS THE IMĀM

568 – 1. Muḥammad ibn Yaḥyā (–) Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn 'İsā that al-Hasan ibn Maḥbūb said:

"I asked Abu'l-Ḥasan ar-Ridā (p.b.u.h.) about the words of He, to Whom belong Might and Majesty: To everyone We have appointed heirs over that which they leave — parents, kinsmen and those with whom you have sworn compact (an-Nisā', 4:33). He said: 'By this He intended the Imāms. To them Allāh, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has made (you) swear your compacts.'

^{1.} There have been a variety of interpretations of who are the last group of heirs mentioned in this verse, i.e., those with whom you have sworn compact, and, as a result of this, and so as to reconcile these various interpretations with the law, it has at different times been asserted that this verse was abrogated or that it was not. For example, see at Tabari, at Tafsir, vol.5, 7/079 على بن إبراهيم، عن أبيه ، عن ابن أبي ممير، عن إبراهيم بن عبد الحميد عن موسى بن أكيل النميري ،عن العلاء بنسيابة ، عن أبي عبدالله عَلَيْ في قوله تعالى وإن هذا القرآن يهدي للني هي أقوم ٩٦ ، قال : يهدي إلى الإمام .

569 – 2. 'Ali ibn Ibrāhim (—) his father (—) Ibn Abi 'Umayr (—) Ibrāhim ibn 'Abd al-Ḥamid (—) Mūsā ibn Akīl an-Numayrī (—) al-'Alā' ibn Sayābah that Abū 'Abdillāh (p.b.u.h.) said, concerning the words of He Who is Sublime: Surely this Qur'ān guides to the way that is straightest: (al-Isrā', 17:9) "(This means) it guides to the Imām."

pp.33-37, and Ibn Kathir, at-Tafsir, vol.2, pp.251-255. However, the true meaning is the heirs whose right of inheritance follows from their having sworn a legal compact or made a legal contract with the dead person before his death, a category which includes, for example, those who are connected to the dead person by a marriage contract. (For further reference see as-Sayyid Abu 'l-Qasim al-Khū'i, al-Bayan fi tafsiri 'l-Qur'an [an-Najaf al-Ashraf, 1385/1966], pp.351-354). Among these are those with whom a contract or compact is incumbent according to the obligation imposed by Allah, as, for example, the Prophet, to whom allegiance is made and obedience is due. And since the Prophet said, in a hadith which is also narrated by our Sunni brothers: "I am a greater master over every believer than his self, and I am the heir of every one who has no heir." (Abū Dāwūd, as-Sunan, vol. 3, p.163; and see its commentary in 'Awn al-ma'būd, vol.8, pp.106-111; Ibn Majah, as-Sunan, vol.2, pp.879 - 880, 914 - 915; Ahmad ibn Hanbal, al-Musnad, vol.4, p.131; al-Bayhaqi, as-Sunanu'l-kubra, vol.6, p.214; Ibn Hibban, as-Sahih - See Mawaridu'z-zam'an, pp. 300 - 301), and the Imams are the successors to the Prophet, this heirship also belongs to them. On this topic there are many Shi'ite hadith concerning the meaning of which there is no dispute (see Wasa'ilu 'sh-Shi'ah, vol. 17, pp. 547 - 554). Now, since the inheritance of the husband and wife has been clearly stated in a verse preceding this one in the very same surah (an-Nisa', 4:12), it is clear that in this verse special reference is being made to the heirship of the Prophet and the Imams, and for this reason, in the above hadith, the Imam points out that the meaning is the Imams.

CHAPTER 33

CONCERNING THE FACT THAT THE IMÂMS INHERIT THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE PROPHET AND ALL THE PROPHETS AND SUCCESSORS WHO WERE BEFORE THEM

598-1. 'Ali ibn Ibrāhīm (-) his father (-) 'Abd al-'Azīz ibn al-Muhtadī (-) 'Abdullāh ibn Jundab to whom ar-Riḍā (p.b.u.h.) wrote:

"To continue (ammā ba'd), verily Muḥammad (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) was Allāh's custodian over His creatures. When he (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) was taken (by Allāh), we, the Household, were his inheritors. So we are Allāh's cutodians on His earth. With us is the Knowledge of deaths and what happens to people and the genealogies of the Arabs (this concerns the periods before Islam) and those born in Islam; surely we know a man, when we see him, whether he is a real (man) of faith, or really (a man) of hypocrisy. Our followers (Shi'ahs) have been recorded with their names and the names of their fathers; Allāh has taken a pledge from us and them (that we should guide them, and they should follow us). They arrive at the place of our arrival, and they enter where we enter; there is no-one on the right way (millah) of Islam except us and them. We are the saved noble ones, we are the first ones (in acceptance) of the prophets, we are the descendants of the successors (the forefathers of the Prophet were all believers in Allah and thus successors in the religion of Ibrahim - p.b.u.h.). We are the ones distinguished in the Book of Allah, to Whom belong Might and Majesty; we are the worthiest ones of the Book of Allah, we are the closest to the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) and we are those for whom Allah has laid down His religion. Thus He has said in His Book: He has laid down for you - O Al Muhammad (i.e., the progeny of Muhammad p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) - as religion that He charged Nuh (Noah) with - He has charged us with what He charged Nuh - and that We have revealed to thee - O Muhammad - and that We charged Ibrahim with, and Musa and Isa - so He has taught us and we transmit what He has taught us and He has entrusted us with their knowledge; we are the heirs of the ulu 'l-'azm (see note to 435-1) among the messengers. "Perform you the religion - O Al Muhammad - and scatter not regarding it be you as one unit." - Very hateful is that for those who associate those who associate (others) in the mastership of 'Ali - that to which

Truly, 'Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib was the gift of Allāh to Muḥammad, and he inherited the knowledge of the successors and the knowledge of those who were before him. However, Muḥammad inherited the knowledge of the prophets and messengers who were before him.

your ransom! Inform me whether the Prophet (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) was the inheritor of all the prophets?' He said: 'Yes.' I said: 'From Adam till it came down to himself?' He said: 'There is no prophet whom Allah has sent than whom Muhammad (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) is not more knowledgeable." He said: "I said: "Isa, the son of Maryam, used to bring the dead to life by leave of Allah.' He said: 'You are right; and Sulayman, the son of Dawud, could understand the speech of the birds, and the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) had the power of all these degrees." He said: "Then he said: 'Sulayman ibn Dawud said about the hoopoe when he failed to find him and suspected his behaviour: "How is it with me, that I do not see the Hoopoe? Or is he among the absent?" When he failed to find him, he became angry with him, and said: "Assuredly I will chastise him with a terrible chastisement, or I will slaughter him, or he bring me a clear authority (an-Naml, 27:20 -21)." He became angry, for it was he (the hoopoe) who guided him to water. And he it was, even though he was bird, who had been given what Sulayman had not been given. The wind, the ant, the human, the jinn, the Shayāţin (the devils) and the rebellions ones (or the rebel Shayāţîn) were obedient to him, but could not recognize the water beneath the air, although the bird could recognize it. Verily, Allah says in his Book: If only it were a Qur'an whereby the mountains were set in motion, or the earth were cleft, or the dead were spoken to (ar-Ra'd, 13:31). And surely we have inherited this Qur'an in which is that which causes the mountains to be set in motion and the inhabited lands to be cleft and the dead to be brought to life; we know (the place of) the water beneath the air. Indeed, in the Book of Allah there are verses by which matters cannot be wished unless Allah permits them, just as with what Allah has permitted in what the previous ones have written (i.e., the previous revealed Books). Allah has put this for us in the Essence of the Books (Ummu 'l-kitāb). Verily Allāh has said: and not a thing is there hidden in the heaven and earth, but it is in a Manifest Book (an-Naml, 27:75). Then He said: Then We bequeathed the Book on those of our servants We chose (Fatir, 35:32). Thus we are those whom Allah, to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has chosen, and to Whom He has bequethed this, in which is the clarification of every thing.""

الله يقول في كتابه: «ولوأن قرآناً سيرت به الجبال أو قطّعت به الأرض أو كلم به الموتى ١٠٩» وقد ورثنا نحن هذا القرآن الذي فيه ماتسير به الجبال وتقطّع به الملدان، وتحيى به الموتى، ونحن نعرف الما، تحت الهوا، وإن في كتاب الله لآيات ما يراد بها أمر إلا أن يأذن الله به مع ما قد يأذن الله ممّا كتبه الماضون، جعله الله لنا في أمّ الكتاب، إن الله يقول: «ومامن غائبة في السما، والأرض إلا في كتاب مبين ١١» ثمّ قال: «ثمّ أورثنا الكتاب الذين اصطفينا من عبادنا الله فنحن الذين اصطفانا الله عز وجل وأورثنا هذا الذي فيه تبيان كل شي،

It is mentioned in the Qur'an that all these things were at the command of Sulayman. He used the wind to travel from place to place, but when he wanted to alight, since he himself was not keen-sighted enough to spot water, he used the hoopoe to inform him of where the water and the watered places were.

CONCERNING THE FACT THAT THE IMÂMS, PEACE BE UP-ON THEM, POSSESS ALL THE BOOKS WHICH WERE SENT DOWN FROM ALLÂH, TO WHOM BELONG MIGHT AND MAJESTY, AND THAT THEY KNOW THEM DESPITE THE DIFFERENCES IN THEIR LANGUAGES

605-1. 'Alî ibn Ibrāhīm (-) his father (-) al-Ḥasan ibn Ibrāhīm (-) Yūnus that Hishām ibn al-Ḥakam said, in the narration about Burayh,¹ that when he came with him to Abū 'Abdillāh (p.b.u.h.) He (first) met Mūsā ibn Ja'far (p.b.u.h.). Hishām told him (al-Imām Mūsā) the story (of him and Burayh). When he had finished Abu 'l-Ḥasan (p.b.u.h.) said to Burayh:

Burayh was the jāthalīq (the Primate of the Christians in the lands of Islam) of that time who visited Hishām ibn al-Ḥakam and after a religious discussion with him requested him to take him to al-Imām aṣ-Ṣādiq (p.b. u.h.). For details refer to at-Tawhīd, aṣ-Ṣadūq, pp. 270 – 275; al-Biḥār, vol.10, pp. 234 – 239.

لبريه : يا بريه كيف علمك بكتابك ؟ قال : أنا به عالم ، ثم قال : كيف ثقتك بتأويله ؟ قال : ما أوثقني بعلمي فيه ، قال : فابتدأ أبوالحسن عَلَيَكُ يقر الانجيل ؟ فقال بريه : إيّاك كنت أطلب منذ خمسين سنة أو مثلك ، قال : فآمن بريه وحسن إيمانه ، وآمنت المرأة الّتي كانت معه .

فدخل هشام وبريه والمرأة على أبي عبدالله عَلَيْكُ فحكى له هشام الكلام الذي جرى بين أبي الحسن موسى عَلَيْكُ وبين بريه ، فقال أبو عبدالله عَلَيْكُ : «دَر ية بعضها من بعض والله سميع عليم افقال بريه : أنسى لكم النوراة والانجيل وكتب الأنبياء ؟ قال : هي عندنا وراثة من عندهم نقرؤها كما قرؤوها ونقولها كما قالوا ، إن الله لا يجعل حجة في أدضه يسأل عن شيء فيقول لا أدري .

"O Burayh! To what extent do you understand your own Book?" He said: "I am well acquainted with it." Then he said: "To what extent do you trust (your) interpretation of it?" He said: "I am entirely sure of my knowledge of it!" He (Hishām) said: "Abu 'l-Ḥasan (p.b.u.h.) began to recite the Injil. Then Burayh said: 'I have been searching for you for fifty years; or for someone like you.' "He said: "Then Burayh became a believer, and his faith was pure, and the woman who was with him became a believer (too)."

Then Hishām, Burayh and the woman entered into the presence of Abū 'Abdillāh (p.b.u.h.), and Hishām narrated to him what had been said between Abu 'l-Hasan Mūsā (p.b.u.h.) and Burayh. Then Abū 'Abdillāh (p.b.u.h.) said:

"They are the seed one from the other, Allāh is the All-hearing, the All-knowing (Āl 'Imrān, 3:34)." Burayh said: "From where has the Torah, the Injil and the Books of the prophets come to you?" He said: "They are with us as an inheritance from them (the prophets). We recite them as they recited them, and we accept them as they accepted them. Verily, Allāh could not provide a Proof in His earth who, when he was asked about something, would say: 'I do not know.'"

عن بكر بن صالح، عن عن مفضّل بن على وتجد بن الحسن، عن سهل بن زياد، عن بكر بن صالح، عن عن بن سنان ، عن مفضّل بن عمر قال : أتينا باب أبي عبدالله عَلَيَا الله ونحن نريد الاذن عليه فسمعناه يتكلّم بكلام ليس بالعربية فتوهمنا أنه بالسريانية ثم بكى فبكينا لبكائه، ثم خرج إلينا الغلام فأذن لنا فدخلنا عليه فقلت : أصلحك الله أتيناك نريد الاذن عليك فسمعناك تتكلّم بكلام ليس بالعربية فتوهمنا أنه بالسريانية ثم بكيت فبكينا لبكائك ، فقال : نعم ذكرت إلياس النبي وكان من عبد أنبيا بني إسرائيل فقلت كماكان يقول في سجوده ، ثم اندفع فيه بالسريانية فلا والله ما رأينا قساً ولاجاثليقاً أفصح لهجة منه به ثم فسره لنا بالعربية ، فقال : كان يقول في سجوده :

He then said this fluently in Syriac, and by Allāh, we have not seen any priest or jāthilīq (see the preceding hadīth) with a more correct speech than him in it (i.e., this language). Muḥammad ibn Yaḥyā (—) Aḥmad ibn Abi Zāhir (—) al-Khashshāb (—) 'Alī ibn Ḥassān (—) 'Abd ar-Raḥmān ibn Kathīr said that Abū 'Abdillāh (p.b.u.h.) recited the verse: Said he who possessed knowledge from the Book, 'I will bring it to thee, before ever thy glance returns to thee' (an-Naml, 27:40), and then spread out the fingers of his hand and placed them on his chest, and said: "With us, by Allāh, is the knowledge of the Book, all of it."

(-) Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan (-) Whoever mentioned it, both of them
 (-) Ibn Abi 'Umayr (-) Ibn Udhaynah that Burayd ibn Mu'āwiyah said:

"I said to Abū Ja'far (p.b.u.h.): 'What about: Say: 'Allāh suffices as a witness between me and you, and whosoever possesses knowledge of the Book (ar-Ra'd, 13:43)?' He said: 'It is us He means, and 'Alī is the first of us, the most excellent of us, and the best of us after the Prophet (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.).'"

There are several matters which need to be taken into account for an understanding of this chapter, and they are also relevant to several other chapters. i. There is no dispute between scholars, whether they be Sunni or Shi'ah, concerning the fact that Amir al-mu'minin (p.b.u.h.) possessed a special transcription (mushaf) of the text of the Qur'an which he had collected himself. There are also a great number of traditions from Sunni and Shi'ah narrators alike that, after the death of the Holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.), Amir al-mu'minin sat down in his house and said that he had sworn an oath that he would not put on his outdoor clothes or leave his house until he had collected together the Qur'an. (For reference to Shi'ite traditions see the chapter on "The Manner in which the Qur'an was collected" in al-Bihar, vol.92, pp.40 - 77. For other traditions see (Ibn) an-Nadim, al-Fihrist, p.30; Ibn Abi Dawud, al-Masahif, p.10; Abu Nu'aym, Hilyatu 'l-awliya', vol. 1, p. 67; Ibn Fāris, as -Sāhibi, p. 79; Ibn Hajar al-Asqalāni, Fathu 'l-bāri, vol.10, p.386; al-'Ayni, 'Umdatu 'l-qari, vol.20, p.16; as-Suyuți, al-Itqan, vol. 1, p. 165; adh-Dhahabi, Ma'rifatu 'l-qurra'i 'l-kibar, vol. 1, p. 31; al-Muttaqi; Kanzu 'l-'ummal, vol.15, pp.112-113). There are also traditions from the Imams of Ahlu 'l-bayt (p.b.u.t.) which tell us that this was done by Amir al-mu'minin by order of the Holy Prophet (al-Biḥār, vol. 92, pp. 40-41,48,51-52).

ii. This transcription (mushaf) of Amir al-mu'minin had the following particuliarities and special points:

a) It was collected together according to its revelation, i.e., in the order in which it had been sent down. This is the reason that Muhammad ibn Sirin (33/653 – 110/729), the famous scholar and tābi'ī (one who has met the companions of the Holy Prophet), regretted that this mushaf had not passed into the hands of the Muslims, and said: "If this mushaf were in our hands, there is in it a great knowledge." (Ibn Sa'id, at-Tabaqāt, vol.2, pt.2, p.101; al-Balādhurī, Ansabu 'l-ashrāf, vol.1, p.587; Ibn 'Abdi 'l-Barr, al-Istī'āb, vol.3, pp.973 – 974; Ibn Abi 'l-Ḥadīd, Sharḥ Nahju 'l-balāghah, vol.6, pp.40 – 41; Ibn Juzzi al-Kalbi, at-Tas'hīl, vol.1, p.4; al-Itqān, vol.1, p.166; Ma'rifatu 'l-qurrā'i 'l-kibār, vol.1, p.32). It is according to this mushaf that scholars relate that the first sūrah to be sent down was al-Iqra' (al-'Alaq, 96). (az-Zarkashī, al-Burhān, vol.1, p.259; al-Itqān, vol.1, p.202; Fatḥu 'l-bārī, vol.10, p.417; al-Qasṭalānī, Irshādu 's-sārī, vol.7, p.454).

It was for this reason that Amir al-mu'minin repeated in his sermons: "Ask me, for, by Allāh, you will not be able to ask me a question about anything without my informing you. Ask me about the Book of Allāh. By Allāh, there are no verses about which I do not know whether they were sent down at night or during the day, on the plain or in the mountains." (at-Tabaqāt, vol.2, pt.2, p.101; Ibn Ḥajar, al-Iṣābah, vol.4, p.568; Tahdhibu 't-tahdhib, vol.7, p.337; Ibn 'Abdi 'l-Barr, al-Isti'āb, vol.3, p.1107; al-Muḥib aṭ-Ṭabari, ar-Riyāḍu'n-naḍirah, vol.2, p.198).

- b) This mushaf contained commentary and hermeneutic interpretation (tafsir and ta'wil) from the Holy Prophet some of which had been sent down as revelation but not as part of the text. An example of this has occured in the aḥādith in chapter 3 of this book, and many other example will occur in subsequent aḥādith. In addition, it contained indications from the Holy Prophet about which verses were abrogated and which abrogating, which verses clear and which ambiguous (mustashābihāt), which ones general and which specific, one mention of which occurs in hadith no.191.
- c) This mushaf also contained reference to the persons, places etc., about which the verses were revealed, what are called asbābu 'n-nuzūl. Since Amīr al-mu'minīn was aware of these facts, he frequently said: "By Allāh, no verse has been sent down without my knowing about whom or what it was sent down and where it was sent down. My Lord has gifted me with a heart which has a quick and retaining understanding and a tongue which asks many quaestions." (Hilyatu 'l-awliyā', vol.1, pp.67 68; at-Tabaqāt, vol. 2, pt.2, p.101; Kanzu 'l-'ummāl, vol.15, p.113).
- iii. After he had collected this mushaf together, Amīr al-mu'minīn took it and presented it to the rulers who followed the Holy Prophet, but they did not accept it. Thereupon, Amīr al-mu'minīn took the mushaf and concealed it, and after him it passed to the Imāms who also kept it concealed. It remains concealed with the Imāms to this day because they wished there to be only one Qur'an among the Muslims. If the mushaf of Amir al-mu'minin had been accepted, that would have been the one Qur'an, but it turned out otherwise. (For more details, refer to the chapter in al-Bihar mentioned at the beginning of this note.) This gives the meaning of the ahadith in this chapter which say that no-one but Amir al-mu'minin and the Imams have the Qur'an as it was revealed, and that the Qur'an which they have contains "what can be understood of the heaven, etc." and "the knowledge of the Book, all of it," for these are the commentaries and interpretations noted in the mushaf of Amir al-mu'minin from the Holy Prophet.

iv. It is necessary to emphasize here that all the scholars of the Imamite Shi'ahs are in agreement that the Qur'an which is at present among the Muslims is the very same Qur'an that was sent down to the Holy Prophet, and that it has not been altered, either by the addition of anything or the taking away of anything. This fact is so indisputable that Abū Ja'far Muḥammad ibn 'Alī ibn al-Husayn ibn Bābaway, ash-Shaykh aş-Şadūq (309/919 - 381/ 991), in I'tiqadatu 'l-Imamiyah (the Beliefs of the Imamite Shi'ahs, p. 93 of the Arabic text) could say: "Our belief is that the Qur'an which Allah revealed to His Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.a.h.p.) is (the same as) the one between the two covers (daffatayn). And it is that which is in the hands of the people, and is not greater in extent than that. The number of sūrahs as generally accepted is one hundred and fourteen . . . And he who asserts that we say that it is greater in extent than this is a liar." It should be noted that ashShavkh as-Saduq was one of the greatest scholars of hadith among the Imamite Shi'ahs and was given the name of Shaykhu 'l-Muhaddithin (the most eminent of the scholars of hadith), and that since he wrote the above in a book with the name of "The Beliefs of the Imamite Shi'ahs, it is quite impossible that there could be any hadith or scholar of hadith who could have disagreed with what he stated; for, if there had been, some scholar would surely have pointed this discrepancy out. (For a detailed discussion of this question, refer to as-Sayvid Abu 'l-Qasim al-Khu'i, al-Bayan, pp. 214 - 278).

v. Sometimes the word "tahrif" is used in ahadith, and it must be made clear that the meaning of this word is the changing of something from its proper place to another place, or the giving it a meaning other than its true or intended meaning of something. It, therefore, has absolutely nothing to do with addition or substraction from a thing. It is thus with this meaning that the Qur'an says: Some of the Jews pervert (yuharrifuna) words from their meanings (an-Nisa', 4:46). This meaning of "tahrif", i.e., a changing of meaning, as it appears in the Qur'an, has not only been applied in the Muslim community to the verses of the Qur'an but also to the ahadith of the Holy Prophet, even by rulers who have been prepared to use Islam to their own personal advantage. It is this "tahrif", with this meaning, that

As one example, al-Imam al-Baqir (p.b.u.h.) complained of the situation of the Muslims and the corrupt rule that was exercised over them, and said: "One of the manifestations of their rejecting the Book (of Allah behind their backs) (see al-Baqarah, 2:101) is that they have fixed its words, but they have altered the limits (of its command) (harrafu hudūdah). They have (correctly) narrated it, but they do not observe (what) it (says). The ignorant delight in their preservation of its narration, but the knowledgeable deplore their ignoring to observe (what) it (says)." (al-Kāfī, vol.8, p.53; al-Wāfī, vol.5, p.274, and vol.14, p.214). This use of "tahrīf" may be taken as a definition for the word wherever it appears in the aḥādīth of the Imāms.
