AMAAL OF ABBAS BIN ALI
In the name of Allah, the beneficent, the merciful. Who is he that can intercede in His presence except His permission?” [Baqarah : 255]

By virtue of the status acquired through his martyrdom, Maula Abbas (a.s.) is one of the finest samples in relation to this Ayat.

He is often referred to as Babul Hawaij (the gateway to the fulfillment of desires).

If we beseech Allah through his intercession, Inshallah all our legitimate desires will be fulfilled.

The aamals in this booklet have been contributed by Khanum Tayyaba Bukhari, a reknown scholar from Pakistan, who visited Toronto in Safar 1423/ April 2002 to recite Ashra-e-Zainabia Majalis.

She started her career at the tender age of 8, reciting Majalis in Islamabad. Thereafter, she studied in Qum for sixteen years, specialising in Quran Tafsir (commentary).

Maula Abbas (a.s.) is the answer of Imam Ali's (a.s.) prayer, so that he may support Imam Husayn (a.s.) in Karbala and may be a symbol of security to women and children of the Ahl ul Bayt.

Being a faithful, true supporter to Ahl ul Bayt and standard bearer of Islam in Karbala, he gave his life for the true religion.

He is also known as Babul Murad (door on which supplications are recommended) as Almighty Allah had bestowed him with this quality as a reward. Therefore whatever is supplicated by his name is responded with favour - acceptance.
