TA'-QIBAT

Ta'-qib means to pursue and follow. After completing the obligatory prayer (wajib salat) - instead of being immediately wrapped up in worldly affairs, games or pastime, to stay in the presence of the almighty Lord under the umbrella of His grace to call, invoke or request Him through supplication is ta'-qib.

According to a most reliable tradition every ta'qib is du-a'a:

The almighty Lord says in the holy Quran:

And when My servants ask you about Me, then (say to them that) verily I am very near - I answer the prayer of the supplicant when he beseeches Me. [ Al Baqarah : 186 ]

According to the Holy Prophet the essence of salat is du-a'a.

There are several rewards Allah promises to bestow on those who recite ta'-qibat. For example those who recite ta'bih' of Fatimah Zahra after every salat receive recompense of a thousand rak-at and other countless blessings.

In fact it is the decoration (zinat) of salat.

Verses 190 and 191 of Aali Imran say that: Men of understanding remember (pray to) Allah standing, sitting and reclining. Verse 62 of Naml says: Allah answers the distressed when he calls (prays) to Him, and removes the distress. Verse 186 of al Baqarah says: I (Allah) answer the prayer of the supplicant when he cries unto Me. So recite ta'-qibat after wajib salats to seek pleasure of Allah and to beseech Him for His favours and bounties.

THE KEY

Arabic text of du-a'as are written in Roman script for those who do not know Arabic.

Some Arabic alphabets seem to sound alike, but each letter has its distinctive sound. As there is only one English letter with which two or more similar sounds are to be indicated, apostrophe, one or two after the letter, are used, to distinguish one from the other.

Arabic alphabets (consonants) move (pronounced) with the help of vowels, known as desinental signs in Arabic. Each consonant has a vowel after it, and when there is no vowel after the consonant, it becomes stationary, like 'N' in 'GUN' and 'D' in 'BAD' etcetera.

Arabic is read in syllables. Every syllable must begin with a consonant. A syllable consists of a consonant and a vowel (short or long) or one consonant plus one vowel (short or long) and another consonant. The last consonant is always stationary.

To the best of our ability the sounds of Arabic consonants and vowels have been indicated in the 'How to voice' column, but it is preferable to learn the sounds from an Arabic-knowing person.

Only consonants of phonetical symbols of A-I-U group (1) sometimes becomes syllable if the consonant coming immediately after it has its own vowel.

- (iii) You shall be kept safe from the ordeals every human being faces in the grave.
- (8) Recite Surah al Waaqi-a'h.

SALAT OF GHUFAYLAH

- (i) Imam Jafar bin Muhammad as Sadiq said:
"Whoever prays salat ghufaylah and beseeches Allah for fulfilment of his legitimate desires, receives positive response from Him."
- (ii) Whosoever prays salat ghufaylah secures a home in the land of peace and honour, the paradise.
- (iii) Salat ghufaylah is a two rak-at salat. It is prayed between Maghrib and Isha. In fact it is prayed in place of the 4 rak-at nafilah of Maghrib salat.

Recite verses 87 and 88 of Al Anbiya after al Fatihah in the first rak-at:

Then We responded to him and delivered him from grief, thus do We deliver the believers.]

In the second rak-at recite verse 59 of al

[Allah! There is no god save He, the everliving, the self-subsisting. Slumber does not seize Him nor does sleep. Unto Him belongs whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth. Who is he that can intercede with Him save by His permission? He knows what is in front of them and what is behind them while they cannot comprehend anything out of His knowledge save what He wills. His throne includes the heavens and the earth; the preservation of them does not tire Him. He is the most high, the greatest.

There is no compulsion in religion. Indeed truth has been made manifest from error; therefore he who rejects the rebels (false gods), and believes in Allah, has indeed taken hold of the strongest handhold which will not break off and Allah is hearing, knowing.

Allah is the guardian of those who believe; He brings them out of darkness into light; and those who disbelieve, the rebels are their guardians who take them out of light into darkness; they are the inmates of the (hell) fire, therein shall they abide.]

[There is no god save Allah, the one and only God. We willingly surrender to Him. There is no god save Allah. We do not worship (any one) but Him. We sincerely follow His religion, however much the polytheists are averse. There is no god save Allah, our Lord and Lord of our forefathers. There is no god save Allah, one, single, unique. (He) fulfilled His promise, helped His servant, honoured his group, and destroyed the opponents. Belongs to Him sovereignty and praise. He creates the breath of life and deprives of life, He puts to death and brings to life (again). He is everliving. In His hand is (all) good. He is able to do all things.]

[O Allah, I beseech You in Your well-guarded, cherished, holy and auspicious name, and I beseech You in Your majestic name, and in Your almighty eternal sovereignty, to send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad. O He who gives many liberal presents and rewards. O He who sets free people from servitude and bondage. O He who liberates people from the clutches of the flames of the fire, send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, and stop my drift unto the fire, let me depart from this world well-equipped, in peace, and allow me to dwell in the land of eternal bliss safe and sound, and make the beginning of my prayer a means to get salvation, the middle liberation, and the end goodness. Verily You are knower of the unseen.]

[O Allah! O Lord of the ever-preserving light, Lord of the highest heaven, Lord of the seas, moving up and down, back and forth, in unbroken line; who sent down Tawrah, Injeel, and Zabur, Lord of restful nights and warm busy days; who sent down the meaningful Quran; Lord of the favourite angels, prophets and messengers. O Allah, I beseech You, in the name of Your kind "ways and means" in the name of the light of Your brilliant superior-most being, and Your ever-existing kingdom. O Ever-living, O Ever-existing, I beseech You in the name of Your name, which gives light to the heavens and the earths; and in the name of Your name, which sets the people (of all times) on the right path, from the beginning to the end. O Ever-living who was (ever) there before life was created (by Him). O Ever-living who shall (for ever) be there when life (of all kinds) shall die. O Ever-living who is ever existing even when no life shall exist. O He who brings the dead to life, and puts the living to death. O Ever-living, there is no god except You. O Allah convey to our mawla, the rightly guided Imam, blessings of Allah be on him, and on his pure forefathers, from all the believing men and believing women, living in the easts and the wests, in the valleys, over the mountains, on the land, over the seas, and as well as from me and my parents, blessings as sublime as the throne of Allah, and as comprehensive as the words of Allah which His book contains. O Allah, I turn to him again, on the morning of this day, I always cling to the pledge, the promise and the bargain, I made with him, inclined towards him, solicitous for his help, neither turning my eyes, nor ever letting it go waste. O Allah, include me among those who will help him, assist him, rally round him, and will in no time, carry out his commands; and strictly follow his directions, out of love and reverence for him, and will try to overtake one another to serve his purpose and will pronounce the profession of faith in his presence. O Allah, if death comes first in between me and him, because death is an inevitable certainty for Your servants, raise me from my grave, wearing the shroud, my sword in my hand, fully protected by reason of my obedience to Allah, answering to the call of the summoning authority, inviting all people living near and far. O Allah, give me the opportunity to look at the face of the rightly guided guide, the dawn of a new awaited era; and make me see clearly the face of the kind and loving divine administrator. (Please) send him just now, make easy his arrival, give him full powers to carry out Your purpose, put into circulation his thesis and assertion, establish his authority, stand up for his motive and creed. O Allah, fill Your land with him, bring to life again Your servants. Verily You said, and Your words are true and certain: "Corruption and mischief appear on land and sea because (of the evil) which men's hands have done." O Allah, make distinctly visible for us Your appointed authority, the son of the daughter of Your prophet, named Muhammad, after the name of Your messenger so that he rests not after getting the better of the forces of evil, until he tears them to pieces, makes clear the truth, and fulfills his duty in letter and spirit. O Allah, make him the ultimate refuge of the oppressed mankind; the helper of those who dispute not in the truth that there is no helper save You; who deals with everything according to the prescribed laws, never putting aside the commandments of Your book and gives convincing facts and grounds, always relying upon the knowledge of Your religion, following the way of life of Your prophet, blessings of Allah be on him and on his children. O Allah, keep him safe from hostility of adversaries. O Allah, make happy Your prophet,

Muhammad, blessings of Allah be on him and on his children, by making known his beautiful aspect and vision, and let those, who obey his call, also rejoice in him, and bind us to his loyalty as soon as he comes in this world, O Allah put an end to the sufferings of people by his physical presence, and take us quickly to his promised kingdom. "Verily they behold it afar off, while I behold it nigh", through Your mercy, O the most merciful.]

Now recite the following 3 times:

الْعَجَلُ الْعَجَلُ يَا مَوْلَايَ يَا صَاحِبَ الزَّمَانِ

AL-A'JAL AL-A'JAL YAA MAWLAAYA YAA
S'AAH'IBAZ ZAMAAN

Come quick, come quick, O our Mawlaa, O
Imam Sahibuz Zaman.

[In some books the reciter is advised to strike his/her right thigh with the palm of the right hand at every recital.]

 [My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection, on the day when they shall not stay behind for a moment, nor can they go in advance. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection , from the agony of death, when soul departs and at the time of seeing death face to face. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection from the detaining on (the day of) resurrection, from the stopping before You (for reckoning). My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection, from the terror of the day of judgement and its hardships. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection , on the day when human beings shall be like scattered moths. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day when all the human beings will stand before the Lord of the worlds. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day when (some) faces will be bright and (some) faces will be black. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day when man will flee away from (desert) brother, mother,
 father, as well as his wife and children because every one of them on that day will have concern (enough) to make him heedless (of others). My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day whereon the spirit and angels shall stand arrayed; they shall not speak except whom the beneficent Lord gives permission, and he will speak the truth. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day when man shall see what his two hands had sent before, and the disbeliever shall say: "Woe to me! Would that I were dust!" My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day whose measure is fifty thousand years; so (let me) persevere (that day) with becoming patience. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day the guilty would like to ransom himself from the punishment of that day by (offering) his children, his wife, his brother, his kindred who gave him shelter, and all that are in the earth - that this might deliver him. By no means, for, verily it is the flaming fire that will skin the scalp. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day whereon the quaking will quake, and there will follow it the second (trumpet); hearts will pound loudly on that day, eyes will be humbly downcast. My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day the angels will say: "There is no glad tidings for the guilty. (Enjoyment) is forbidden (to You) altogether." My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day when the unjust shall bite his hands saying: "Would that I had taken the path with the messenger (the Holy Prophet). Woe to me! Would that I had not taken so and so as my friend." My God, (again and again I seek Your) protection on the day when neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail, save to him who comes to Allah with a submissive heart. (I seek Your protection again and again) through Your mercy, O the most merciful. There is no god save Allah who exists (is present) in every age. There is no god save Allah who is worshipped in every place. There is no god save Allah who is well known for His gifts and free bounties. There is no god save Allah who protects. O He who is celebrated since eternity to eternity. O He who is bestowing benefits and gifts since eternity. O He who shows the right path to those who wander in the wilderness of ignorance. We worship You alone and from You only we seek help. O forgiving protector, through Your mercy (forgive me and protect me), and send blessings on Muhammad and on all his children.]

 [My Allah, who created the heavens and the earth out of nothing, knows the unknown and the visible, and (He is) the beneficent, the merciful. Verily I bind myself to You with (tashahhud)-verily I bear witness that there is no god save You, (you are) single, there is no associate with You; and (I bear witness that) Muhammad (blessings of Allah be on him and on his children) is Your servant and Your messenger; and (I bear witness that) the hour (resurrection) shall certainly come to pass, there is no doubt in it, You will give life to those (who are lying dead) in the graves. (I bear witness that) certainly there will be accountability, there is paradise, and all the bounties Allah has promised (to give His servants in the paradise such as) delicious food, appetizing drinks, conjugal intercourse (will certainly be available there); the fire of hell is certain, faith is certain. (I bear witness that) din is as praiseworthy as (You) have described it, Islam is just as (You) have enacted it, whatever You said comes true just as it was (rightly) made known, and the holy Quran is an ever true book just as it was revealed. (I bear witness that) You are Allah, positively real, and I further bind myself to You in this world (with the declaration that) verily I am happy with You as my Lord, I am pleased with Islam as my din (religion), with Muhammad (blessings of Allah be on him and on his children) as my prophet, with Ali as my Imam, and the holy Quran as my book, with Ahl ul Bayt of the prophet (peace be on him and them ) as my Imams. O my Allah, I rely on You (whenever) I find myself in hardships, I make ready myself (with your assistance) to cope with the affairs which confront me. You are my guardian whenever I am blessed with bounties. You are my Allah and my parent's Allah, send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, and let not me for a twinkling of an eye ever succumb to my nafs (carnal desires), comfort me in loneliness, and make my binding (I have just announced) to You a privileged testimony on the day of resurrection.]

[O Allah, in the early morning and during this day, I seek Your forgiveness for those (who are in need) of Your mercy, and take refuge with You from those whom You curse and condemn. O Allah, I take refuge with You during this day and in this early morning from those polytheists who surround us and from those whom they have been worshipping. Verily they were evil people, perverse. O Allah, make whatever You send down from the heavens on the earth during the day and in the early morning a source of bliss and happiness for Your friends and a punishment for Your enemies. O Allah love those who love You and be hostile to those who commit injustice unto You. O Allah, let me be in peace and faith to the end of (this day) from sunrise to sunset. O Allah forgive me and my parents and have mercy on them just as they nourished me when I was small. O Allah, forgive the believing men and the believing women, Muslim men and Muslim women, (whether) they are alive or dead; verily You know well their place of movement and their place of rest. O Allah, protect the Imam al Muslimeen (the living Imam) for the preservation of the faith; grant him a prevailing triumph, an easy victory, and give him and us from Your presence authority which always succeeds. O Allah, curse and condemn (those) who determined and expounded differently in opposition to Your messenger (the Holy Prophet), then to the

Ulil Amr (Imam Ali) after Your messenger (the Holy Prophet) and then to the holy Imams (of the Ahl ul Bayt) after him, and their shi-ahs. I ask You for many favours, and belief in that which the Holy Prophet brought from You, and submission to Your commands, and fulfillment of what You have commanded. I want nothing in exchange for it nor to sell it for anything. O Allah, guide me like those whom You guided aright, and save me from the evil of what You have decreed, verily You decree, (no one) decrees (anything) against or for You. Whom You befriend is never disgraced. You are blessed and exalted; glory be to You O the Lord of Ka'-bah. Grant me my prayer and all that good with which I seek Your nearness and increase it many times and give us great reward. My Allah how nice is the state You have put me in and how great is that which You have given me as a reward! How long You have provided safety to me and how often concealment! So praise be to You in plenty, pure and blessed, equal to the measure of the earth and the earth itself, and the measure of what my Lord wills and is pleased with, and of what befits the (supreme) being of my Lord who is great and mighty.]

[Had We sent down this Quran on a mountain, you (O Muhammad) would certainly have seen it humbled and rent asunder for fear of Allah. We propound such similitudes unto mankind that haply they may reflect.

He is Allah: there is no god save He, the knower of the unseen and the seen. He is the beneficent, the merciful.

He is Allah, there is no god save He, the king, the holy, the peaceloving, the bestower of conviction, the guardian, the everprevalent, the supreme, the great absolute. Far too exalted is Allah from what they associate (with Him).

He is Allah, the creator, the maker, the fashioner. His are all the beautiful names. Whatsoever is in the heavens and the earth glorifies Him. He is ever-prevalent, all-wise.
