Pioneer in the renaissance of Eastern Medicine, In the forefront of Service to Humanity

Natural herbs and minerals work naturally to treat and cure the human body. That is why physicians have used them for centuries.

Hamdard committed itself to the renaissance of this ancient science by proving its efficacy through modern research, and gaining recognition for it worldwide, as a respected branch of alternative medicine. Its research laboratories continue this process.

Hamdard also dedicated itself to serving humanity — service to both body and mind. Its charitable clinics and fleet of free mobile dispensaries help bring health to the poor and needy.

Hamdard's service to the mind lies in its dedication to education. Shaheed Hakim Mohammed Said founded Madinat al-Hikmah — City of Education, Science and Culture — containing Hamdard Public School, Village School, University, its affiliated Colleges and Institutes, and library. There is a national network for education, scholarships and other philanthropic activities.

Hamdard stands for Health and Service to Humanity.

AUTHOR'S NOTE

Prior to embarking upon this study we need to spell out the impulse that has induced us to go into the subject.

The driving force behind the effort is our faith in the guiding principle of our organization "Idara-e-Ittehad-e-Ummah". These principles are based on the ideal of unity among Muslims ordained in the holy Quran by Allah, the Almighty.

All our actions and expressions are therefore motivated by these sublime principles. We stand for a united front of Muslim countries, an economically strong and militarily powerful bloc, having a nuclear umbrella, to ensure security and sovereignty, freedom and faith of the Ummah. It is imperative for all Muslim states to help develop their own nuclear armaments, singly and collectively. Nuclear power is the name of the game. It is the way to ensure peace in the world. Peace is possible among equals. The weak always attracts aggression from the strong. It is a militarily lopsided world, any talk of peace, non-violence and justice is simply meaningless. Non-proliferation of nuclear arms is a sham, designed to dupe the weak. It also means that a few countries having the capability to produce nuclear or other lethal arms will continue to dictate and rule the world while the non-nuclear states will continue to remain subservient. This is blatantly a negation of justice, fairplay and against human nature. Every country must have an opportunity to defend itself.

Unity and glory of the Muslim Ummah and cordial relation with the West is our motto, and this point we have always been emphasizing in our writings. When forced by circumstances we have often been obliged to criticize those who flourish on conspiracies against us. But whatever we have written against any one, though with much disgust, there has always been an authority in its support.

At present the Zionist conspiracy against the Goim (non-Jews) is the key note of this book.

.It is the age of Media and the country that leads the media also leads the world. There is no two opinions about the fact that the Zionists control and lead the world of media and they conveniently succeed in defending their mischiefs' conspiracies and foul designs. The event of 11th Sept is a living example.

We, however, sincerely believe that the solution of all the human problems lies not in war but in peaceful negotiations. This would be possible only with dialogue between the Muslims and the Christians whom we may trust.

We are, of course for friendship with the Christian world, but at the same time we are also cautious of the dangers of the Zionist Illuminati, who are out to create rift between the followers of Islam and Christianity.

In this connexion please see the sub-heading of chapter 2 entitled 'Union between Islam and Christianity' which calls for union between the two, since we believe that Islam and Christianity may go together against their common enemies, the Zionist Illuminatis.

The book is of course a review of Muslim Ummah in the modern world. It is intended to communicate between scholars dedicated to the task of determining and solving the problems of the world in modernity. It is also expected to act for exchange of ideas between thinkers holding different views.

We invite scholars of all nationalities, castes, colours and creeds to come forward and perform their role in reshaping the modern world as a blissful abode for all the humans living on earth.

WORLD THINK ABOUT IT!

"The Core Issue of Muslim World Today" is the title of a new book authored jointly by Professor S. M. Mahfuz Ali and Mr. Khursheed Warsi. Both have a rich literary, academic, research and intellectual background and have to their credit many invaluable books and publications. Mr. Khurshid Warsi's main area of interest and concern is Islam and the Islamic World and threats to the Ummah from Jewish conspirators. His book "Iran Today", "The Cobweb" and "The Hidden enemies of India" have been widely acclaimed at home and abroad. Professor S. M. Mahfuz Ali is a well-known scholar who writes on a variety of subjects but his main area of interest is Islam, Islamic World, Pakistan Affairs and literature. His book "Islam Aur Pakistan" is one of the books recommended by the Karachi University for Degree classes.

The learned authors view the threat facing the Islamic World with a different perspective and come out with a different but reasonable solution. After giving a historical view of the Jewish conspracies and designs against the world of Islam and their present domination of the western media and the corridors of the politics and powers, the authors express the view that the Jewish web has already entangled the western societies which need be liberated from the menace of the Jewish control. This would be possible only as a result of a genuine and meaningful dialogue between the worlds of Christianity and Islam. The book contains – timely warning to the people and governments of European countries in general, and America in particular, to sense the deadly threat from the Jewish conspirators. If they did not pay heed to such saner voices, no power on earth shall save them from a total annihilation. Every step that the West takes under the Jewish influence to destroy the Muslims, is itself a step forward towards their social, political and cultural disintegration.

Saudi Arabia and Iran are the principal targets being the hub of the world of Islam and its enemies feel that by subjugating them they can lay their yoke upon the entire Muslim World. The question that arises here is, whether the world of Christianity is aware of the threats about their own survival? The book attempts to give an answer to this, through various examples of how the US Presidency and the Congress are surrounded by the Zionist forces and how they force the US government to take steps against the general public opinion that prevails in USA and Europe.

The book contains valuable information about the Zionist designs against Muslims. The authors have successfully established a nexus between the current unfortunate international situation vis -a vis the Muslim World and the designs and ambitions of the Zionists whose principal target, no doubt are the Muslim states, but the Christian West is being used for the realization of Jewish goals. One has to understand the root causes of this unholy alliance and as soon as the non-Jewish world realized this, it will be better for whole of the humanity. It has also lessons for the people and leadership of Pakistan who are facing challenges to their sovereignty in the backdrop of US action in Afghanistan and Iraq.

The book is a commendable effort to remind the Muslims that security of the Islamic World becomes the divine duty of every Muslim state to come forward to defend the frontiers of Islam.

Preview of the book “The Core Issue of Muslim World Today”

Dr. S. Z. Qasim Naqvi

It's a genuine effort to save mankind from the vicious and evil jaws of Jewish monster, the evil Jaws which are about to swallow the only planet of hum-an inhabitants. This book has offered the only solution available for the non-Jewish world to survive and live with honour and dignity. To implement and project this solution is as urgent a call of the time as S.O.S. of a sinking vessel. I, with due reverence to the human conscience, like to appeal personally and I beg to crave the indulgence of the same for kind perusal. "Please do unite and join hands in order to stop this Zionist malice against the whole human race. It's already late, but not too late for Christians and Muslims to unite economically, ethically, politically and socially. The immediate danger that threatens the world today is not only the economic slavery, but also a spiritual malignancy, which is about to shatter all norms of moral values of Muslim and Christian faiths altogether. Modern phraseology of the old and settled problems facing mankind is nothing other than deception in disguise- a conspiracy to create illusions in the Divine Scriptures. The Bible, has already been molested by the Jews under-covers of so-called clergyman of the Christians especially the watch-tower Bible and Tract society based in Brooklyn, N.Y. in the U.S.A.

The two pronged conspiracy engineered by the Jews is hitting Christians and Muslims simultaneously, and is already well deeply shaking the roots of Muslim Societies. After bringing the Muslim world down to its knees the Jews have a plan very much ready to wipe-out the Christian faith from the face of the earth. For this I refer to the Book, "The Holly Blood the Holly Grail" written some years back in Mid 80s by two senior correspondents of B.B.C. In the book, just mentioned, it is concluded that the legal heir to the throne of the kingdom of God is alive and is descendent of Jesus - Christ. In the book it is almost convincing that Jesus, the Christ was not unmarried. But on the contrary he was married, as they write, to a woman named Maria of Magdalia. By the result of this marriage, a son was born, who fled to France, alongwith his mother, Maria of Magdalia right after the so-called crucification of Jesus Christ. There they ("Mother and the Son") survived and lived in France and their race-tree has been traced from Jesus down to day. The present era is about to be glorified by the proclamation of the throne of divine kingdom. Hence the Christianity is hijacked by this conspiracy against Jesus. This way a Jew is about to establish the supremacy of their race over all the races, because this so-called legal heir to the throne of kingdom of God will of course be a Jew.

I fully agree with the analysis of the authors and the foreword written by Mr. M. I. Bari, Associate Professor, Department of Mass Communication, University of Karachi, and would like to quote its last para as my own concluding remark:

"The book is a commendable effort to remind the Muslims that security of the Islamic world becomes the divine duty of every Muslim State to come forward to defend the frontiers of Islam."

Note: The author of this preview has obtained a degree of Ph.D. in Metaphysics from California University, USA.,

CHAPTER 1

The Core Issue

Exposing the Jewish Conspiracy

Exposing the Jewish conspiracy of fomenting war between Christians and the Muslims is in fact the core issue of this book. We have already thrown some light on this subject in our note, but we shall discuss it in detail here.

The third world war

The hysteria of War fomented by Zionist Illuminati shall result into a most disastrous world war ever fought on earth since it will be a nuclear war.

Theatre of war

Most probably the theatre of war shall be the Arab Countries versus America and its Allies.

The Zionist/Illuminatis have set the initial stage of war and already prepared President George Bush for this. The Arab Countries shall be the main target and has started from Iraq. The world shall get divided on this point. The Zionist shall try their level best to get all Muslim Countries destroyed one by one with the help of US armed might. (For details please see Appendix 1 under the sub-heading "Illuminati plan for world domination.")

It is interesting as well as astonishing to see that the Zionist Money Barons in U.S.A. shall keep equal contacts with both the warring parties and also support both of them with financial aids, loans as well as weapons as they have been doing since the American Civil war of 1861 – 65 till today. They do this to grab the profit of wars from both sides, and the remain safe during the war from the attacks of both the warring parties.

How can this war be averted?

In this predicament, the Muslims world must first of all gird up the loins to face the challenge and see what it can and what it ought to do in this fast changing political scenario of the world. First of all we would suggest an immediate accord in policies of Muslim Countries and a move towards the creation of the Commonwealth of Muslim nations. The Arab and the Muslim world must merge their identities immediately keeping faith and confidence in Almighty Allah to face the common enemy i.e. the Zionist – led block successfully.

It is through the Zionist dominated media that a propaganda campaign against Islam and the Muslim world has been going on to bring America in conflict with the Muslim world but we find ourselves as well as our media too weak to fight out the issue successfully. On one side we must accelerate our propaganda campaign and on the other we ought to convince U.S.A. of our point of view.

The only Solution

The only solution of the problem is to initiate and hold dialogue immediately with America representing the Christian world.

For a full discussion of the dialogue please see the next chapter captioned; 'Dialogue with U.S.A.'

CHAPTER 2

Dialogue with USA

(A few excerpts from the book "Iran Today" written by Khursheed Warsi Pages 58 - 59)

We ought to have a dialogue with America so that we may tell the American people who is their friend and who is their foe. And this is possible only when we sit with them on the negotiating table. We cannot make them understand our point of view while treating them as our enemy and keeping distance from them. They shall thus remain under the shadow of Israeli lobby and continue to work with them according to their anti-

Islamic world policy. The world Trade Center event is a living example of their conspiracy against the Muslim World. They entrapped the Christians to carry on crusade against Muslims. They executed the W.T.C. plan but blamed the Muslims for that.

It is extremely necessary that at this critical moment we must have a dialogue and try to bring America round to our point of view. In this respect one of my booklet viz.

“Disintegration of U.S.A. in Offing.” (Appendix) shall be immensely helpful.

There can be no plan successful without a dialogue with the Christian America.

If we execute a dialogue with the Christian America as was done by the holy Prophet with the Quraish keeping in mind the strategy of the Khaiber fort, it will be quite Islamic to do that. It was the peace treaty of Hudaibeya which brought the future victory of Khaiber, since it had succeeded in getting the Jews separated from the infidels. Since the signing of the treaty of Hudaibeya, the Jews could not execute any conspiracy against the Muslims, by involving infidels in their plan.

What is real Islam?

It is a pity that certain elements have intentionally or unintentionally failed to present Islam in its true perspective before the West which has created confusion and misunderstanding between Muslims and the West. We feel that it should go so that a proper understanding may develop on right lines.

For this purpose we reproduce here an article written by a well known Muslim scholar of Philippine published in “Silsilah Bulletin” of Oct – Dec / 2000 issue.

Understanding Islam

Editor's Note: The year 2000 issue of Silsilah Bulletin published from Philippine, features understanding Islam with lessons prepared by Ustadh Wadja K. Esmula, erstwhile Dean of the University of the Philippines Institute of Islamic Studies and now faculty member of the same Institute, and Silsilah Muslim Spiritual Leader. Understanding Christianity is featured in the 1999 issue. This issue of October – December 2000 focuses on Islam: Its meaning and principle. In here are featured some of the important questions Christians ask of Muslims about Islam, which the lesson answers. (Editor-in-Chief, Mr. Evelyn C. Linceria).

ISLAM: ITS MEANING AND PRINCIPLES

Islamic Concept of Creation

It is a fact that all creation was made by the will of God. However, the presence of any negative aspects of life like hunger, environmental destruction, civil strife, etc. are not in accordance with His will but because humanity has broken the laws of God without eminently taking into consideration that creation serves as a sign of Him for those who wish to know. It is only by sincerely wishing to know Him that man will be guided.

Man's Role on Earth

Obviously man has been created by God in the best mould; i.e. with enormous capacity for good and for achieving the highest degree of excellence and perfection both externally and internally.

Man's role on Earth as Khalifat Allah Fil Ard (Viceregent of God on Earth) is that he has been designated in charge of the earth to implement God's Law (Kerry Brown.987, p. 134). In every action and use of the mundane resources, he has to follow the Islam accords woman honor and dignity and requires that she be treated with respect. Her femininity should not be exploited in any way nor may she be treated as "sex object." Rather, she is to be regarded and treated as human individual, who deserves full respect, kindness and protection. The children that she bore are considered as precious treasures, gifts from God that utmost love and care should be accorded to them.

A child has to be given total training: training in Islamic concepts, principles, attitudes, values, morals, manners and behavior so that a young person-man or woman of high quality be produced.

An illustration of the unity of the purpose of human creation and the design of the universe naturally leads to an illustration of the relationship between mankind and all other objects of the universe.

The Holy Qur'an asserts that everything on earth is not only created for man, but it is also made subservient to him. In order to establish harmony between human beings and the objects in the universe, a direct link is established so as to help man achieve his ideal of attaining highest moral ideal. Creation does not serve as barriers to check human aspiration but rather act as booster to accelerate the pace of man's efforts towards the attainment of the ideal which is the sole purpose of creation. The Qur'an says:

It is He who created for you all things that are on earth (2:29)

In another verse, the Qur'an says:

And He has subjected to you whatever is in haven and whatever is on earth, behold, in that are the signs for those who reflect (Qur'an, 45: 13).

Almighty's Commandments. It can be treason to assume sovereign power himself or to obey someone other than God. However, God in His infinite wisdom granted man limited freedom, choice and acquisition. He has manifested in His law what is lawful and what is unlawful that man has to choose between them. In case of wrong choice, then he is accountable to it. Accordingly, his obedience to God is the result of self-discipline and continuous efforts to seek knowledge and improve his moral quality. Thus, if he succeeds he has reached the highest achievement of man in God's creation. Consequently, salvation through obedience to God serves as the central message of Islam.

The story of Satan's disobedience and threatened revenge is told many times in the Qur'an as a warning to man that he is ultimately responsible for his downfall. Satan (Iblis) cannot tempt him if he is sincere in his faith. An integral part of Islamic teachings, is the idea that temptation is always there, and is part of God's creation, to test one's fortitude and faith. Nonbelievers are already ensnared by Satan and even believers face Satan's daily attempts to trap them. But Satan cannot tempt beyond the limits permitted by his Creator, as he himself admits in the Qur'anic verse:

"Allah said: This way of my sincere servants is indeed a way that leads straight to me. For you shall have no authority over my servant excepts those who put themselves in the wrong and follow you. And truly Hell is the promised abode for them all (Qur'an 15:41-43)."

In as much as mankind is from Adam and Eve, man and woman, the woman is the co-equal of man, created from the same soul with the same moral nature and with a vital role to play in society. In her role as childbearer and nurturer, she deserves the greatest reverence from man.

From the Qur'an and Hadith number of conclusions can be drawn regarding creation:

- 1) All human beings are created on an egalitarian basis and are vested, with an identical nature at the time of birth:
- 2) Human nature is perfectly good. Its genesis is positive and it is basically free of evil and malice;
- 3) There is no variation, exception or discrimination at all to this principle of creation. This signifies the eternal consistency, homogeneity and equality of human beings:
- 4) The creation of man is not an exercise in futility and obscenity. But rather created for the realization and fulfillment of a definite purpose in this world to: worship not to commit mischief.
- 5) The primary human ideal is to acquire the highest level of moral perfection by conducting a persistent battle against the forces of immorality;
- 6) The purpose of creating life and death is the evaluation and assessment of human beings on the basis of their actual performance and not on the basis of any abstract speculation:
- 7) The purpose of creating the universe and the objects which comprise it is to furnish irrefutable guarantees of harmony and compatibility in the struggle for the realization of the human ideal of moral perfection;
- 8) Mankind has been accorded a preferential and exceptional treatment over all creatures. It is blessed with honor, glory, dignity and superiority over them on account of the comprehensive and positive character of its nature;

- 9) On account of the supremacy of human nature, man has been designated as the successor and viceregent of God on earth;
- 10) Therefore, any intrinsically evil or inherently criminal proclivities or tendencies are incongruent with the creation of human nature because it is framed by God on positive lines.

Islam's attitude toward other faiths

This phenomenon is traceable to the time of the prophet when he established the Islamic state of Madina. A covenant was formulated giving equal opportunity and privileges to all the constituents of both Jews and Christians of Najran. Jewish law, religion and institutions became a trust, whose protection, safekeeping and perpetuation became a Muslim responsibility imposed by Islam itself who in turn should cooperate with the Muslims to defend Madina against aggression. Like, the Christians of Najran the Jews also came to Madina following the prophet's launching of the Islamic state. The Prophet received the delegations with honor and respect and granted them the same autonomous status accorded to the Jews, loaded them with gifts and sent them home under the protection of Muslim bodyguards. The Prophet designated one of his trusted companions Mu'adh ibn Jabal to look after their affairs, solve their problems, serve their interest (Altaf Gauhar (ed.) the Challenge of Islam 1978, p.103).

When Islam spread to the Byzantium, Persia and India, large number of Jews, Christians, Zoroastrians, Hindus and Buddhists came under the dominion of Muslims. The recognition granted by the Prophet to the Jews and Christians were likewise implemented by the khalif to every man – Muslim religious community. Jerusalem served as the best example of the Muslim tolerance and goodwill on the religious level as well as on the social and cultural. When it came under the Muslim control during the Caliphate of Omar, he drew a chapter that reads.

In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful, this Chapter is granted by Omar, Servant of Allah and Prince of the believers, to the people of Aelita. He grants them security for their persons, and their properties for their churches and their crosses, the little and the great, and for adherents of the Christian religion. Neither shall their churches be dispossessed nor will they be destroyed, nor their substances or areas, nor their crosses or any of their properties, be reduced in any manner. They shall not be coerced in any matter pertaining to their religion, and they shall not be harmed. Allah attest to the contents of this treaty, and so does His Prophet, his successors and the believers.

Signed: Omar ibn al-Khattah Witnessed: Khalid ibn al Walid, Amr ibn al-As, Abd Al Rahman Bin Awf and Mu'awiyah Ibn Abud Sufyan. Executed in the Year 15 A.H. (Thomas W. Arnold, The Preaching of Islam, 1961, pp. 56-57).

Islam's liberal attitude towards other faiths provides Muslims with the best foundation for a religious world-ecumenism in which religions honor one another's claims wit'out denying their own. It likewise furnishes Muslims with legitimate foundation for seeking the religious unity of mankind. If inter religious dialogue is to move beyond the exchange of information and courtesies, it has to have a religious norm in the present life to promote better understanding among peoples of different beliefs. Islam finds this norm in din al fitrah (natural religion). It is also essential that parties in dialogue feel a measure of freedom vis-à-vis their historical religious traditions.

The Islamic stand towards the other faiths has three distinct categories:

First, it is not only tolerant, but assumes the Holy of other religions to be holy, their prophets, prophets of God and their revelations to come from God.

Secondly, the Islamic stand towards the other faiths, having considered all faiths under din al fitrah (natural religions) satisfies the condition for constructive dialogue and interrelation. Under it all differences between religions are analogous to family squabbles. Criticism, argument and counter-arguments mutually affect all members on account of this organic relationship in which Islam has bound them to one another.

Third, and finally, the Islamic stand, constitutes a new humanism because it is founded on a concept of equality and brotherhood of men. Their differences in color, race, tribes and nationality is part of God's creation not to be despised, but to know, understand and cooperate with one another.

What Islam Provided to Humanity

Islam as religion and a way of life has provided answers to both spiritual and secular questions and offered to humanity not only a metaphysical outlook, but a comprehensive program of revolution in human life-both in its individual and social aspects. It comprehends the whole life-its pattern of thought and behavior. It posits the ideal of life in which from the cradle to the grave, not a single moment is spent not provided for by a religious ruling (Khurshid Ahmad, 176, p.200)

Islam provides no distinction between the religious and secular, but views the entirety of man in totality. The philosophy of ethics, law and morals, manners and mores, arts and sciences, forms and social, political and economic organization including the nature of family and marriage are all within the concepts of Islamic dogma; worship and theology. The Qur'an calls upon Muslims to totally dedicate to God. Saying.

Verily my prayers and my sacrifices and my life are all for God (Qur'an 6:163)

The verse clarifies that the whole life of man in all its spheres should be an expression of complete submission to God. The term: "Ibadah" does not only signify worship in matters of prayer, but the entire activities of man should be performed for the sake of the Rightful Master.

The Islamic concept of religion as a complete Code of Life has spiritualized all aspects of human existence. It teaches man to live with assertion and will. It exhorts man to be an active participant in the struggle of life by which world of matter or that of the senses is not to be despised or hated, but shaped according to the will of God. Islam does not consider the world as a torture cell where an elementary wicked humanity lives for the purgation of its soul (Khurshid, p.203).

The world and all its resources are sacred trust from God where man should show his true worth by taking care of it not to destroy or spurn it. Primarily Islam impresses the mind of the people that their world and all that exists in it have been created not for mere trebling but have been brought into existence with infinite aims and purposes.

The Holy Qur'an says:

And we created not the heaven and earth and what is between them for sport. Had we wished to take pastime, we would have it from before ourselves, but by no means would we do (Qur'an, 21:16-17)

In another verse:

We created not the heavens and earth and all between merely in (idle sport) We created them not except for just ends; but most of them do not understand (Qur'an 44:38-39)

Everything that has been created by God Almighty has not only a divine purpose to serve, but it has been shaped into perfect form. There is no flaw or defect in it. The beauty of creation from the smallest atom to the brilliant stars and huge planet in the realm of matter all speak to the Lord's perfect Wisdom (Ibid, p.104)

The Holy Qur'an says:

Such is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Mighty, Merciful who made beautiful everything that He created (32:6-7)

A strong indication of man's function as vice-regent of God on earth, implies the importance of knowledge in which every individual is urged to take. to prove his worth. All branches of knowledge are unsealed for him. Consequently, Islam affirms reality, not divorced from the external world, but by active and intimate contact with it to promote socio-economic, politico religious development for the welfare of mankind.

Islam generates no conflicts between body and soul. Physical drives or desire are integral part of man's nature; not the result of original sin. It is a positive aspect, God given forces to be acknowledged and sensibly used for spiritual growth of man. Piety in Islam does not consist in suppressing the demands of the body; it aims at coordinating them with the demands of the spirit in such a way that life might become brimful and righteous The Holy Qur'an informs a Muslim not to forbid himself the use of the bounties of God:

Say: who has forbidden the beautiful gift of God, which He has brought forth for His servants and the things, clean and pure, which He has provided for sustenance. My Lord hath indeed forbidden: shameful deeds whether open or secret; sins and trespasses against truth or reason; assigning of partners to God, for which He hath given no authority; and saying things about God of which ye have no knowledge (Qura'an 7:32-33).

These verses elucidate that demands of the body are the integral part of human personality and man's spiritual growth is intimately linked up with all other aspects of his nature. The denial of the bounties of God in the form of material world is no virtue in Islam, but the real virtue lies in avoiding and rejecting everything that God has prohibited. Islam does not condemn outright the appetite of man; it justifies them to the extent where man can eschew them, control them according to his moral consciousness and thus use them for spiritual and socio-economic development free from any negative aspects of life.

Since the president of the USA and the Prime Minister of the UK are both practising Christians we are, therefore, quoting below the opinion of Martin Luther, the 16th century founder of Protestantism, regarding the Jews. Also quoted is the opinion of the present Rev. Bishop of Rochester, England, about Muslims, in order to prove that the real enemies of the Christians are the Jews and not the Muslims which is the main point to be discussed during the dialogue between the Muslim world and the USA.

Opinion of Martin Luther about the Jews

A few excerpts from his famous book titled

"THE JEWS AND THEIR LIES"

"They are the real liars and bloodhounds, who have not only perverted and falsified the entire Scriptures from beginning to end and without ceasing with their interpretations. And all of the anxious sighing, longing and hoping of their hearts is directed to the time when some day they would like to deal with us as heathen as they dealt with the heathen in Persia at the time of Esther... O how they love that book Esther, which so nicely agrees with their bloodthirsty, revengeful and murderous desire and hope!(1)

The sun never did shine on a more bloodthirsty and revengeful people as they, who imagine to be the people of God, and who desire to and think they must murder and crush the heathen. And the foremost undertaking which they expect of their Messiah is that he should stay and murder the whole world with the sword. As they at first demonstrated against us Christians and would like to do now, if they only could; have also tried it often and have been repeatedly struck on their snouts". (p.17)

Their breath stinks for the gold and silver of the heathen; since no people under the sun always have been, still are, and always will remain more avaricious than they, as can be noticed in their cursed usury. They also find comfort with this: 'When Messiah comes, he shall take all the gold and silver in the world and distribute it among the Jews.'(2) Thus, wherever they can direct Scripture to their insatiable avarice, they wickedly do so. (pp 27 & 28)

"Therefore know, my dear Christians, that next to the Devil, you have no more bitter, more poisonous, more vehement an enemy than a real Jew who earnestly desires to be a Jew. There may be some among them who believe what the cow or the goose believes. But all of them are surrounded with their blood and circumcision. In history, therefore, they are often accused of poisoning wells, stealing children and mutilating them; as in Trent, Weiszensee and the like. Of course they deny this. Be it so or not, however, I know full well that the ready will is not lacking in them if they could only transform it into deeds, in secret or openly.(3) (pp 28 & 29)

A person who does not know the Devil, might wonder why they are so much at enmity with the Christians above all others; for which they have no reason, since we only do good to them.

They live among us in our homes, under our protection, use land and highways, market and streets. 'Princes and government sit by, snore and have their maws open, let the Jews take from their purse and chest, steal and rob whatever they will. That is, they permit themselves and their subjects to be abused and sucked dry and reduced to beggars with their own money, through the usury of the Jews. For the Jews, as foreigners, certainly should have nothing from us; and what they have certainly must be ours. They do not work, do not earn anything from us, neither do we donate or give it to them. Yet they have our money and goods and are lords in our land where they are supposed to be in exile!

If a thief steals ten gulden he must hang; if he robs people on the highway, his head is gone. But a Jew, when he steals ten tons of gold through his usury is dearer than God himself! "(PP 29 & 30).

"Do not their *Talmud*¹ and rabbis write that it is no sin to kill if a Jew kills' a heathen, but it is a sin if he kills a brother in Israel? It is no sin if he does not keep his oath to a heathen. Therefore, to steal and rob (as they do with their money lending) from a heathen, is a divine service... And they are the masters of the world and we are their servants—yea, their cattle! " (p31)

"I maintain that in three fables of Aesop there is more wisdom to be found than in all the books of the Talmudists and rabbis and more than ever could come into the hearts of the Jews...

Should someone think I am saying too much—I am saying much too little! For I see in writings how they curse us Goyim and wish us all evil in their schools and prayers. They rob us of our money through usury, and wherever they are able, they play with us all manner of mean tricks... No heathen has done such things and none would do so except the Devil himself and those whom he possesses—as he possesses the Jews.

Burgensis, who was a very learned rabbi among them and by the grace of God became a Christian (which seldom occurs), is much moved that in their schools they so horribly curse us Christians (as Lyra also writes) and from that draws the conclusion that they must not be the people of God." (P.33)

"Now behold what a nice, thick, fat lie it is when they destroyed more than 1400 years ago and during that time we Christians have been tortured and persecuted by the Jews in all the world. On top of that, we do not know to this day what Devil brought them into, our country. We did not fetch them from Jerusalem! (P.36) Yes, we have and, hold them captive, as I would like to keep my rheumatism, and all other diseases and misfortunes, who must wait as a poor servant with money and property and everything I have! I wish they were in Jerusalem with the other Jews and whomsoever they would like to have with them. (p. 37 & 38)

Now what are we going to do with these rejected, condemned Jewish people?(P 39) Let us apply the ordinary wisdom of other nations like France, Spain, Bohemia, et. al., who made them give an account of what they had stolen through usury, and divided it evenly; but expelled them from their country. For as heard before, God's wrath is so great over them that through soft mercy they only become more wicked, through hard treatment, however, only a little better. Therefore, away with them! (pp 45 & 46)

"How much more unbearable it is, that we should permit the entire Christendom and all of us to be bought with our own money, be slandered and cursed by the Jews, who on top of all that be made rich and our lords, who laugh us to scorn and are tickled by their audacity! (P.47)

What a joyful affair that would be for the Devil and his angels, and cause them to laugh through their snouts like a sow grinning at her little pigs, but deserving real wrath before God" (Von die Juden und ibren lügen) (p40)

"May be mild-hearted and gentle Christians will believe that I am too rigorous and drastic against the poor, afflicted Jews, believing that I ridicule them and treat them with much sarcasm. By my word, I am far too weak to be able to ridicule such a satanic brood. I would fain do so, but they are far greater adepts at mockery than I and possess a god who is master in this art. It is the Evil One himself" (P 62-)

"Even with no further evidence than the Old Testament, I would maintain, and no person on earth could alter my opinion, that the Jews as they are today are, veritably a mixture of all the depraved and malevolent knaves of the whole world 'over, who have then been dispersed in all countries, similarly to the Tartar; Gypsies and such folk, to afflict the different nations with their usury, to spy upon others aid to betray, to poison wells, to deceive and to kidnap children—in short, to practise all kinds of dishonesty and injury." (Von Schem Hamphorasr)" (P- 62)

Luther did not live long to continue the expulsion campaign he had taken upon himself. "As soon as my principal business has been accomplished, I shall have to devote myself to the expulsion of the Jews," he wrote to his wife shortly before his death. His last sermon, preached at Eisleben in February of 1546, demanded that very thing. A few days later, he was dead. There had been no previous illness. (1) Esther relates the story of the murder of seventy-five thousand Persians to forestall an attack that they were rumoured to be planning against the Jews. Judaism still celebrates this rather bloody triumph today—thousands of years later—in the yearly Purim holiday. (2) This is a paraphrase of numerous passages in the Zohar (Kabbalistic 'Bible') and other millennialist Jewish literature that inculcates genocide and enslavement of the non-Jew. (3) The ritual murder question has been a ticklish issue for the Jews, since this was the political dynamite that blew them out of every major European country in past centuries. Luther's is a prestigious testimony. (See Arnold Leese Jewish Ritual Murder for the general survey, as well as the more than thirty other declarations by notable persons corroborating the charge, cited in this book.) Opinion of Rev. Bishop of Rochester England, about the Muslims:

(An excerpts from Appendix 1, written by Khursheed Warsi)

Now I reproduce here an excerpt from an article, by Clearance Rufin, published in the English daily "Dawn" on 12.04.1998, under the caption, "A Pakistani Making History in Britain" about an outstanding personality of modern time, the Right Rev. Michael Nazir Au, the 106th Bishop of Rochester, England.

Although, he is a Protestant clergyman yet he has strongly supported and corroborated the views of his Catholic counterpart in respect of unity and interaction between Islam and Christianity. He says:

"That interaction between Christianity and Islam has continued and continues today. But can this interaction lead to harmony among the two groups? Yes. When the first Muslims were experiencing persecution from pagans they fled to a Christian country which we now call Ethiopia. It was called Abyssinia at the time. And they were received with great hospitality there. The constitution of Madina gave freedom to people of different religions to live together in harmony and the Prophet himself had a regular dialogue with the Christians of Arabia, in places like Najran. And for centuries in different parts of the world Christians and Muslims have lived peacefully together and there's no reason why they should not do so again, provided people lay aside fanaticism and intolerance."

Armageddon

Reviving the Crusading Spirit

"The battles of Crusades by the Christian world, against the Muslims, enjoy a special place in the history of religious wars. When the poor Christians fighting a "holy war" actually became the instruments in the hands of the enemies of Christ and practically helped in establishing a Jewish kingdom of King Geodfroy in Jerusalem.

A true Crusader will be the helper and the follower of the Christ, and will do what the Christ did, and wage war only against those whom Jesus had fought with. As we have already seen in Bible Mark 11, "When Jesus goes to Jerusalem", he actually waged war against the moneylenders and drove them out of the temple, because according to the Law (Psalms, 12: v15) moneylender was not allowed in the temple. Muslim law against usury has already been explained in the Book. So the question is why do the Christian world, in the name of helping Jesus, always tend to fight Muslims when their own Christian backyards are swarming with monstrous moneylenders whom Jesus had actually fought with? The only logical explanation is that the followers of a corrupted religion always tend to fall prey to the vested interests of their actual enemy, who can by virtue of its evilness, redirect the energies and emotions of that religion to a far off and make belief enemy. And as far as Christians are concerned that make belief enemy is Muslims and only that's how the common enemy; of both Christians and Muslims, can not just hope to survive but also dominate the world.

Conflict between the Innocent and the Ignorant

Money lender is the common enemy of both, Muslims and Christians, or as a matter of fact, of all humanity. His ultimate victory would be to pitch the Christians against the Muslims and thereby try to weaken the Islamic world so that the Muslims may lose the impetus to rid the humanity of his evil designs. Muslims are the only group he is really afraid of, as their "Deen" and their Book is not corrupted. And the best way to weaken the Islamic world is to revive the Crusaders spirit and hurl the ignorant Christian masses against the innocent Muslim populace.

And this is exactly what is being promoted today through the Jewish controlled media and press. Crusaders spirit is running high, and according to the Christian beliefs, the stage is being set for the final battle of Armageddon. We, as Muslims; only ask the Christian community to first clean their own backyards and temples of the real enemies of the Christ before they decide to launch their Crusades against the hypothetical "Muslim Anti-Christ". After really helping the Christ in getting rid of the Jewish moneylenders, if Christians may still feel, they can let their Knights loose on the Muslims. We assure them that we will be waiting for them then.

Otherwise Christians should not really play the game of "Crusades as Crusades actually mean helping the Christ against REAL enemies, not against innocent Muslims who love and respect Jesus as their own Prophet, and have suffered equally at the hands of the Jewish money-lenders as the Christians themselves. It would be a war between the innocents and the ignorant and the only beneficiary would be the common enemy, 'the Zionist Jews.'

Dajjal the Anti—Christ

According to the Muslim's belief the final battle, called by the Christians, 'ARMAGEDDON' shall be fought between the followers of Dajjal, the Anti—Christ i.e. the Jews and the followers of Jesus Christ (A.S.) i.e. the Christians and the Muslims who are religiously bound to join hands with the Christians to destroy Dajjal and his followers, under the leadership of the Holy Christ, Hazrat Issa (A.S.)

Union between Islam and Christianity

It is also in the interest of the Muslim world too that it ought to ally with Christians against the Zionist /Illuminati, and other idolaters, since the following Quranic verse of Sura Almaida (the Table Spread) also supports such an idea.

"Those wilt find the most' vehement of mankind in hostility are those who believe (to be) the Jews and the idolaters and those will find the nearest of them in affection to those who believe (to be) those who say: Lo' we are Christians. That is because there are among them priests and monks, and because they are not proud." (5:82)

(Translated into English by Marmaduke Pickthall)

Every Christian ought to read these lines and should not be misguided by the false and baseless propaganda launched by the Zionist / Illuminati against the Muslims since long.

It is high time that Christians should rise to the realities of the moment and revise their knowledge of Islam by proper study and by casting off old prejudices and wrong notions disseminated by the Zionist/Illuminati writers.

WILL A UNION BETWEEN ISLAM AND CHRISTIANITY BE A GREAT POLITICAL ASSET, IS A QUESTION FOR THE WESTERN STATESMEN TO CONSIDER?

Jesus in the Holy Quran

The creed of Islam is given here in a nutshell:

"Say ye: We believe in Allah,
And the revelation given to us,
And to Abraham, Ismail, Isaac,
Jacob, and the Tribes,
And that given to Moses and Jesus
And that given to (all)
Prophets from their Lord:
We make no difference
Between one and another of them:
And we bow to Allah (in Islam)".

Christians Unaware

The Christian does not know that the true spirit of charity which the Muslim displays, always, towards Jesus and I mother Mary spring from the fountainhead of his faith the Holy Quran. He does not know that the Muslim do not take the holy name of Jesus, in his own language without saying Hazrat Eesa (meaning revered Jesus) Eesa alai-his-salaam (Jesus, peace be upon him).

Every time the Muslim mentions the name Jesus (pbuh) without these words of respect, he would be considered disrespectful, uncouth or barbaric. The Christian does not know that in the Holy Quran Jesus (pbuh) is mentioned by name five times (5 x) more than the number of times the prophet of Islam is mentioned in the Book of God. To be exact — twenty five times as against five. For example:

"... WE GAVE JESUS THE SON OF MARY CLEAR SIGNS AND STRENGTHENED HIM WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT". (HOLY QURAN 2:87)

"O MARY! GOD GIVETH THEE GLAD TIDINGS OF A WORD FROM HIM: HIS NAME WILL BE CHRIST JESUS, THE SON OF MARY..." (Holy Quran 3:45)

"... CHRIST JESUS THE SON OF MARY WAS (NO MORE THAN) AN APOSTLE OF GOD..." (Holy Quran 171)

"AND IN THEIR (the previous prophets') FOOTSTEPS WE SENT JESUS THE SON OF MARY.." (Holy Quran 5:49)

"AND ZAKARIYA AND JOHN, AND JESUS AND ELIAS: ALL IN THE RANKS OF THE RIGHTEOUS:" (Holy Quran 6:85)

Jesus — his Titles

Though Jesus is mentioned by name in twenty-five places in the Holy Quran, he is also addressed with respect as: "Ibne Maryam" — son of Mary; as Masih —(Heb) Messiah — translated as - Christ; "Abd-ullah" —servant of Allah; "Rasul-ullah" — Messenger of Allah.

He is spoken of as "the word of God", as "the spirit of God", as a "sign of God", and numerous other epithets of honour spread over fifteen different chapters. The Holy Quran honours this mighty Messenger of God, and the Muslims have not fallen short over the past fourteen hundred years in doing the same. There is not a single disparaging remark in the entire Quran to which even the most jaundiced among the Christians can take exception." Would the Christians reader compare the above teachings with those contained in Talmud, whose unmaking resulted in the killing of the great martyr of truth — Rev. Father I. B. Pranaitis? (See Appendix 3)

The Holy Bible & The Jews

The New Testament, Holy book of the Christians, comprises four Bibles called the Gospels of Saint Matthew, Saint Mark, Saint Luke and Saint John. From all these four Gospels, I have quoted only those verses which throw light on the conduct of the Jews in connection with the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. The following verses have been reproduced from the "Holy Bible" published by the Gideon International in 1977, which is known as the authorised (King James) version.

The Gospel According To Saint Matthew Chapter 26

14. "Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests.

15. And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17. And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caia-phas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

18. But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

19. Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

Chapter 27

1. When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

12. And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

18. For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19. When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21. The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that! release unto you? They said, Barab'bas.

22. Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23. And the governor said, why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25. Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26. Then released he Ba-rab'bas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

The Gospel According To Saint Mark Chapter 14

43. And immediately, while he yet spoke, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44. And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45. And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, master, master; and kissed him.

46. And they laid their hands on him, and took him:

53. And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

64. Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

Chapter 15

1. And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

9. But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye say that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11. But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Ba-rab'bas unto them.

12. And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13. And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14. Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

The Gospel

According To Saink Luke

Chapter 22

52. Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

66. And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67. Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68. And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69. Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70. Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71. And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

Chapter 23

1. And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

13. And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14. Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15. No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16. I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17. (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18. And they cried out all at once, saying, away with this man, and release unto us Ba-rabbas:

19. (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20. Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.
21. But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.
22. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.
23. And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.
24. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.
25. And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

The Gospel According To Saint John Chapter 5

16. And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.
17. But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.
18. Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

Chapter 18

12. Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus. and bound him,
14. Now Cai'a-phas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Chapter 19

12. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this go, thou art not Caesars friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.

13. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gab'ba-tha.

14. And it was the preparation of the pass-over, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15. But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.

16. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Gol'gotha:

18. Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek and Latin.

21. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews; but that he said, I am king of the Jews,

22. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written."

THE SUFFERINGS OF THE CHRIST

By

Nayyar Zaidi

Representative of Jang in USA.

An eventful event – a novel film with a novel discourse:

As a matter of fact both the Christians and the Muslims have been eagerly waiting for the arrival of Christ and the news of Christ's next arrival had spread like fire of the wood. His lovers had been keen of his arrival, whereas the heretics of Hollywood threatened that if the Christ passed that street, he would be crucified again.

It may be stated here that whichever film had I seen about his life and crucifixion, the whole past of that film covered the sensuous life of the Roman Kings; and at the close of the films, the Christ could be seen passing through the overcrowded passages along with his cross; and the film of his crucifixion was hardly the matter of a minute or so since the whole film was covered in one or two close-ups. In the next scene the body of Christ was seen missing from the cave like tomb where the Christ had been shown laid to rest. On the third day when the stone of the cave was removed, one could see his shroud only. Next! a few days latter, the Christ had been seen meeting with all of his apostles and giving them the golden tidings that their Massiah who had been lifted up by his Creator would be sent once again amongst them.

In almost all films of Hollywood, the audience are told that it were the Romans who had crucified the Jesus Christ, whereas if any hero was shown being crucified, his crime had been first related and the names of the party as well as that of the judge were mentioned clearly. Not only that! Even the names of the witnesses and the punishment awarded by the court etc were also notified from time to time.

It's interesting to note that when the famous and gallant Director of Hollywood declared to produce a film entitled 'The Passion of the Christ', there arose a storm of criticism in the Media across the length and breadth of the globe against this film only. Here the word passion denotes the sufferings of Christ. Even since the martyrdom of Christ people or the playwrights displayed the sufferings of Christ through dramatic performances. These dramas were popularly known as "passion Plays". Mr. Gibson did not waste time in emphasising Jesus and his times, he rather preferred to give prominence to those twelve hours that he passed with his apostles and partisan ending with his move towards the gallows.

One could notice a distinct variation displayed in the scenes of his crucifixion in the two films. The old films looked like the films of an injured person shown from a distance of some fifty feet. One would also see spots of blood there, whereas the deep wounds would look like simple scratches. But if you show the close-up of the body of this type, the vileness of every attack, the depth of every horrible wound and the facial anguish shall become an unforgettable imprint.

Those at the helm of Hollywood's affairs were fully aware of it. Immediately after the declaration of (Samuel) Gibson, they announced that the film was neither anti Semitic nor would it be allowed to go anti-Semitic, whereas if it turned out anti- Semitic, it would not be released at all. Those who are not aware of the Traits of Samuel Gibson it may be related here that this person has a name engraved for lethal weapon films and he has produced several such popular films. He has already obtained Oscar Award for his film Braver Heart as the best film and as the best direction By now he, as a film star had already earned both money as well as fame by then to his full-content and he was under no pressure of Hollywood. He also knew full well that the money barrons of Hollywood would not at all spare a penny for such a film for him. He therefore planned to cast such a film from his own pocket which would cost him nearly 25 million dollars.

It was filmed in Italy since the Italians had a close affinity with the scenic backgrounds of such films and they were not at all averse to it. Besides, it may be added that the story of this film had a great semblance with the faith of the majority of Roman Catholics. We see that such a policy facilitated filmization of the scenes of film. Crowds.

James Kawizel, a thirty five year old actor played the part of Jesus Christ, He was the first who had been noted for his position after a successful role in the film Count of Mounticest.

Before it released it was generally felt that the big distributors would not buy it and only ordinary cinema houses would display it as a documentary film. But its opponents had already retreated on 25th February before its opening ceremony whereas this film was released in 4600 (four thousand and six hundred) screens and it earned 25 million dollars on its first day. In other words it may be stated that the huge amount of ~~10~~ 25 million dollars which Mr. Gibson had invested returned to him on its first day release from the Box office.

This film was released on Wednesday the 25th of February. It's worth noticing that the month of February is generally regarded as the slowest and the duller month for the release of any film. Big films are released at the close of November or in December. Since the next period that follows from the last week of May to 4th July is covered by school holidays and the film fans are not available during this period. Thus we see that the period from Wednesday to Sunday during the month of February had been the worst period for the release of any film whatsoever. But Mr. Gibson had chosen Wednesday since the holy festival of Ash Wednesday fell that day. We notice that the right choice of the release of the film earned 117 million dollars for him whereas its experts had forecast the limit upto 200 million dollars. We see that its earning went upto 160 million dollars during the period. Wednesday to another Wednesday i.e. eight days; whereas it went upto 200 million during eleven days only. It's worth noticing that it hasn't been released across the length and breadth of the world; whereas it shall go further throughout America for quite some time as yet. This film has been cast into Aramaic language spoken during the life time of Jesus Christ whereas all titles are the English titles.

It is for the first time that the attention of the people has been drawn with full force towards the tyranny practised upon the holy Christ and over and above that towards hypocritical policy adopted all the time in this respect. ^{error} Nevertheless its rating has its limitations since the youngster under seventeen are not allowed to see without their parents; hence people generally hesitate to take their children in the film but in the theatre hall with even quite a number of smaller children the people justify themselves saying that the film in question had not at all been a routine and casual film of the R type; it was on the contrary a film that would teach them what sacrifices did the holy Christ give for the sake of his true follows. A very peculiar and notable point about this film is that a Jewish supreme Court sat in the darkness of night and declared Christ a criminal for claiming illegitimate prophethood on the strength of false witnesses.

It is, in fact the point which obliged the Jews to oppose the creation and the display of this film.

(Akhbar-e-Jehan February 25, 2004)

If the ^{not} say that their present generation is responsible for the crimes committed by their ancestors, then what about the teachings of TALMUD, their religious scripture! (For details please see appendix No. 3.)

In Revelation Chapter 18. Ayat 23, the Holy Bible says about the Jews:

"..... FOR BY THY SORCERIES WERE ALL NATIONS DECEIVED."

IS THE HOLY BIBLE ANT - SEMITIC?

CHAPTER 3

TERRORISM AND THE HIDDEN TERRORISTS

(This article, written by Khursheed Warsi, was published in the month of September, 2001, just after the attack on America.)

In the Quranic terminology the Islamic view of terrorism is that of a "Fasad", which means all sorts of terrorist activities, whereas the Holy Quran strictly forbids its followers from causing 'Fasad' on land and Islam is more averse to it than any other religion of the world since it is a religion of peace as the word Islam means peace. On the other hand a well known tradition of the Holy Prophet (SAW) says that "killing an innocent person tantamounts to killing the entire mankind." As such an act of terrorism is strictly forbidden in Islam. How can any good Muslim dare to kill an innocent person or destroy the property of any person or country in the wake of the commands of Allah and the holy prophet (SAW).

It is, of course, a fact that all Muslims are not good and responsible Muslims as are in other nations as well on this present - day globe which inhabits more irresponsible and godless people, committed to one or the other religions, than the good ones. But one may guarantee that a good believer shall never commit terrorism or lawlessness particularly of the type witnessed on September 11, 2001, resulting in the total destruction of the World Trade Centre in USA.

We see that all the Muslims of the world have condemned this act of terrorism without reservation and offered their full cooperation for its eradication.

STRIKING AT THE ROOT CAUSE OF TERRORISM

In this respect the first proposition will be to determine the parameters of terrorism and then to strike at its root cause through a consensus of all peace-loving nations of the world or else it shall never eradicate.

Sources of injustice, suppression of one's freedom, tyranny upon the weak and denial of fundamental rights are some of the hallmarks of terrorism.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN TERRORISM AND FREEDOM MOVEMENTS

We shall have to distinguish between terrorism and the freedom movements. Struggle for the freedom of the people of Kashmir, the people of Palestine, the Moro struggle for their independent identity as a Muslim nation etc., are not acts of terrorism at all. The act committed leading to the catastrophe of the World Trade Center is of course, a terrorist act. We shall have to be crystal clear about the case and then by a consistent, logical and just planning execute the programme. This is exactly what General Pervez Musharraf, President of Pakistan, has repeatedly said on the national hook-up and press statements.

THE HIDDEN TERRORISTS

The aforesaid act of terrorism has been perpetrated secretly since no party or person has acknowledged it so far. Here we shall have to see who those hidden terrorists are or are likely to be? For this purpose we shall have to search, locate and probe who they possibly may be. For this purpose we shall have to refer to such religio-political literature that not only permits but also encourages its followers to acts of violence and terror for the achievements of their goal. At this moment I am instantly reminded of Talmud, the so-called commentary on Torah, a religious scripture of the Jews and their protocol No. 24 that are reproduced below in support of my assertion:

1. He who sheds the blood of the goyim (non-Jews) offering a sacrifice to God. (Talmud, Jalqut Simeoni.)
2. God has given the Jews power over the possessions and blood of all nations. (Talmud) Seph. Jp.92.1

Protocol

"24. Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right TO REPLACE THE HORRORS OF WAR BY LESS NOTICEABLE AND MORE SATISFACTORY SENTENCES OF DEATH, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just, but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State: not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty. For the sake of victory, we must keep to the programme of violence and make - believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves than by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection to our super government. It is enough for them to know that we are too merciless for all disobedience to cease."

Besides their terrorist activities to conquer the world, they also employ a very subtle technique of lending money on usury - a device to conquer the world by peaceful means as well. The methodology of the technique is given below:-

PROTOCOL NO.20, A DEVICE TO CONQUER THE WORLD BY PEACEFUL MEANS.

"30. What also indeed is, in substance, a loan especially a foreign loan? A loan is-an issue of a government bill of exchange containing a percentage obligation commensurate to the sum of the loan capital. If the loan bears a charge of 5 percent, then in twenty years the State vainly pays away in interest a sum equal to the borrowed, in forty it is paying a double sum, in sixty-treble, and all the while the debt remains as unpaid debt.

31. From this calculation it is obvious that with any form of taxation per head the State is bailing out the last coppers of the poor taxpayers in order to settle accounts with wealthy foreigners, from whom it has borrowed money instead of collecting these coppers for its own needs without the additional interest.

32. So long as loans were internal the goyim only shuffled their money from the pockets of the poor to those of the rich, but when we bought up the necessary person in order to transfer loans into the external sphere all the wealth of States flowed into our cash-boxes and all the goyim began to pay us the tribute of subjects."

UNMASKING THE REAL JEWS

According to a report published in the "Jewish world", on December 14, 1922, the Jew remains a Jew though he changes his religion, a Christian who would adopt the Jewish religion would not become a Jew because the quality of a Jew is not in the religion but in the RACE. A Free-thinker and Atheist always remains a Jew." Hence an Illuminati is also a Jew provided he belongs to the Sematic Race.

After this introduction I would like to discuss the tragedy of the World Trade Centre that took place on 11th September, 2001.

THE AMERICAN TRAGEDY AND THE MUSLIMS

In this respect I reproduce below a report of Mr. Peter Roberts, a member of our organisation, PLUS International.

He says "Hi every - one - I give my point of view on the above subject hereunder:

What happened in lower Manhattan, NY city on Sept. 11, 2001 was devastating and totally unacceptable by anyone who profoundly understands the value and the importance of a human life.

Thousands of innocent people(including several MUS-LIMS) lost their lives that day. My heart and prayers go out to everyone who lost their loved ones because of this tragedy.

Right after the "ATTACK ON AMERICA" happened, the media deliberately started projecting that this heinous crime was perpetrated and committed by the MUSLIMS NAMELY (Usama Ben Laden). Also, that Muslims in America and all around the world are the culprits and are responsible for this inhuman act of terror.

Q. Were these hijackers MUSLIMS? If yes, what kind of Muslims?

A. Not very good and TRUE Muslims. There is a good reason why I believe that(if and only if they were Muslims) they were not good and true Muslim. So, WHO IS BEHIND ALL OF THIS?

Let me give you the following reasons and hints to who is behind this tragedy:

1. Who controls the media in America? And is n't this true that most of the ordinary and average people like us believe whatever we SEE, HEAR, and READ thru media.

2. Why didn't the hijackers Muslims as projected) care about over 3000 good Muslims who worked in the twin towers on a daily basis? If their motive was to bring these buildings down, they could have done that over the weekend or at night time when very few people are in the buildings. WHY DO THIS IN THE MORNING HOURS? Everyone watching in real time on TV's all around America.

3. Who was that gentleman on the street at about 9:08 a.m. with a cam-coder in his hands making the video, which captured and recorded the incident of the first plane hitting the tower? HOW come he was there at the right place, at the right time? MEDIA Involvement, planned out act of terror, and again WHO controls the media?

Chain of the events happened in U.S. gradually, momentarily and step by step. Moments after the attack and collapse of the WTC, media showed PALESTINIAN kids and one female in HIJAB (symbols of Muslim women) clapping, singing, and celebrating. Different TV channels reported to the American viewers that Palestinians are happy and loving American loss while the entire America is mourning this tragedy. MY Q? HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO GATHER HUNGRY AND ABANDONED BUNCH OF KIDS TO CLAP, SING, AND JUMP UP AND DOWN in front of the camera IN PALESTINE. DID ANY ONE NOTICE THE TIME ZONE; IT WAS MORNING HERE AND SAME DAYLIGHT TIME IN PALESTINE (VERY INTERESTING).

4. FBI and FEMA reported that one of the suspects Mr. Mohamed Atta and others were on the list for most wanted in CAR and BUS bombings in Israel. At one time the Israeli army captured this person and few years later he was released by them. WHAT HAPPENED WHEN HE WAS IN ISRAELI JAIL? BRAIN WASHED FUNDED AND HARBORD FORCED SET UP PAYED OFF IN MIGHTY $$$$.

My Q? How in the world Mr. M. ATTA and his associates come inside the U.S. borders, lived on the U.S. soil, received training to fly planes openly when he was on the FBI wanted list, without the protection, umbrella, and a free ticket by someone very POWERFUL in U.S. to roam around without any problem.

5. FBI received a tip from a passenger who boarded a different plane and reached his destination safely that he had a confrontation with two Middle Eastern gentlemen at the Logan airport in Boston, Ma. He gave them the exact location of their stranded car parked in the lot, where FBI found the (MANUAL ON HOW TO FLY A PLANE) in ARABIC LANGUAGE. Also, they found the information leading to the rental car and credit card information with which the 2 plane tickets were purchased from Boston to LA.

My Q? People capable of plotting and executing such a sophisticated plan would leave the ARABIC language manual and other information in the rental car to be found later by the FBI. HOW DUMB is that BY PROFESSIONAL TERRORISTS.

6. FBI reported that they traced the attackers to Florida where the FBI was told by the bar owner/manager that the two suspects came into the bar couple of days ago and drank LIQUOR heavily (GOOD TRUE MUSLIMS AND DRINKING, WELL YES I KNOW SOME (M) DO DRINK ALCOHOL BUT TRUE (JIHADI) MUSLIMS?.... NAHHHHHHH).

My Q? Drinking and fighting with the bar manager over the bill, possibility to get the police involved, be in position to get caught, blow up and jeopardize their well thought out and long awaited plan. I DON'T THINK SO.

7. One report said, struggle in the plane, which crashed in PA. Phone calls were made from the plane.

One man called his mother in California for (1 full minute) in which he told her that the plane has been hijacked, he loves his mother and family very much, also that hijackers have sharp knives. NO description given at all about the ethnic background, race, color etc. Flight attendant called her family and told them that hijackers have knives, she is being stabbed, and even told them the SEAT numbers of the hijackers BUT NO DESCRIPTION GIVEN AT ALL.

My Q ? Were the HIJACKERS hiding their faces? WHY THESE BOTH CALLERS COULD NOT SEE OR JUDGE AND IDENTIFY THE HIJACKERS IDENTITY?

8. Plane tickets were purchased by credit card of Mr. M.ATTA, leading FBI and SWAT teams to the WESTIN HOTEL where 3 of the helpers were waiting AFTER almost over 29 hours of the initial attack on WTC. HOW IDIOTIC IS THIS FOR PEOPLE WHO ARE ASSIGNED AND TRAINED TO PULL OFF AN ATTACK AND DESTROY (WTC) THE LANDMARK OF SUCCESS AND FREEDOM OF AMERICA.

Some said that while the associates of hijackers were waiting for the FBI to show up and arrest them, they ordered PIZZA WITH BLACK OLIVES AND TOOK TURNS TAKING SHORT NAPS.

9. In 1993, unsuccessful WTC bombing happened, 6 people died, over 1000 injured. Several Arabs were arrested including Mr. Mohamed Ramzi Yusouf in Pakistan. Still in jail in Colorado awaiting his punishment. HBO movie in 1995 (ROAD TO PARADISE) in which the story of the WTC was told and at the end of the movie Mr. Ramzi Yusouf was quoted locking at the Twin Towers, "NEXT TIME WE WILL BRING THEM BOTH DOWN".

My Q? Who the hell made that movie and predicted in the movie that this will happen some day in the future and how did they reach this conclusion? Again, who controls and operates the MEDIA and the MOVIE BUSINESS?

IN CONCLUSION:

There is a good reason to believe that Prime Minister of ISRAEL Mr. Ariel Sharon and ISRAELI INTELLIGENCE is behind this tragedy. So far they have been very successful in killing not on 1, not 2, but three birds with only one bullet.

Create hostile conditions for Muslims in the U.S. and all over the world. Have U.S. bomb and stop any kind of AID to the 3rd world MUSLIMS countries like Palestine, Afghanistan and Pakistan. Biggest threat to ISRAEL in Middle Eastern region(Usama Ben Laden) and Make U.S. public, U.S. Government, and the entire world believe that he is the MASTER MIND behind the American tragedy and have him killed by the U.S. military. HAVE Usama KILLED ON ANY PRICE.

Basically, create chaos between Muslims & Christians, sit back and watch over and benefit from the chain of events and destruction among Muslims & Christians. PRIME EXAMPLE : THREATS OF RETALIATIONS AND ATTACKS HAVE ALREADY BEGUN ON MOSQUES , IN SCHOOLS, AND AT WORKPLACE. Good and true Muslims are being called TERRORISTS, FOLLOWERS OF OSAMA & SADAAM, harassed for something they have no control OR influence over. As an American, I hope that whatever happens in the coming days, months, and years brings peace and calm to our beautiful world. Be safe, show that you care, and watch your back at this sad time in America.

Well done MR. SHARON AND ISRAEL, THE MASTERMINDS BEHIND THE AMERICAN TRAGEDY."

REPORT NO. 2

SUBJECT : FOUR THOUSAND JEWS DID NOT GO TO WORK AT WORLD TRADE CENTRE ON SEPTEMBER.11, 2001.

AL-MANAR Television Special Investigative Report Beirut, Lebanon- Monday, September 17, 2001. 4,000 Israeli Employees in WTC Absent the Day of the Attack with the announcement of the attacks at the World Trade Center in New York, the international media, particularly the Israeli one, hurried to take advantage of the incident and started mourning 4,000 Israelis who work at the two towers. Then suddenly, no one ever mentioned anything about those Israelis and later it became clear that they remarkably did not show up in their jobs the day the (four passenger aircraft hijacking and crashing incident at the World Trade Center, Pentagon and Pennsylvania took place (on Tuesday, September 11, 2001) . No one talked about any Israeli being Killed or wounded in the attacks. Arab diplomatic sources revealed to the Jordanian al-Watan newspaper that those Israelis remained absent that day (Tuesday, September 11, 2001) based on hints from the Israeli General Security Apparatus. The Shabak, the fact which evoked unannounced suspicions on American officials who wanted to know how the Israeli government learned about the incident before it occurred, and the reasons why it refrained from informing the U.S. authorities of the information it had.

Suspensions had increased further after Israeli newspaper Yadiot Aharonot revealed that the Shabak prevented Israeli premier Ariel Sharon from traveling to New York and particularly to the city's eastern coast to participate in a festival organized by the Zionist organizations in support of the "Israel". Aharon Bernie, the commentator at the newspaper, brought up the issue and came up with a negative conclusion, saying "no answer". He then asked about the clue behind the Shabak's position in preventing Sharon's participation, and again without giving an answer. Bernie added that Sharon, who was delighted for having his speech on top of the festival agenda, asked the head of the organization to mediate and convince the Shabak to change its position, but his attempts were in vain. The next day after Sharon's secretary officially announced that Sharon would not participate the incident (at the World Trade Center) took place. For its part, the Israeli Ha'aretz newspaper revealed that the FBI arrested five Israelis four hours after the attack on the (World Trade Center) Twin Towers while filming the smoking skyline from the roof of their company's building. The FBI had arrested the five for "puzzling behavior." They are said to have been caught videotaping the disaster in what was interpreted as cries of joy and mockery.

The Zionist/Illuminati first directed all the ill-effects of the attack on World Trade Centre towards the Muslim world thus bringing USA into direct conflict against the Muslim world in general and Afghanistan and Usama bin Ladin in particular through their powerful media, and succeeded in persuading America to invade Afghanistan. They later directed their media against America, by highlighting protests against American invasion on Afghanistan, in Germany, U.K. etc.

This policy is a part of their game to get America involved into a third world war, so that they may grab all the benefits of such a war e.g., loans on interest, sale of arms and income from postwar projects.

Blind to Israel's crimes

Even though war has not yet begun, Israel has already achieved one of its goals: the peace process has been finally buried. The world no more hears about it. Even the lip service that America used to pay to it has ceased. In fact, long before the Iraqi crisis reached its present spine-chilling level, the Arab Israeli process had begun to be sidelined by American Israeli diplomacy. The emphasis was no more on pushing the peace process forward but on a reform in the Palestinian Authority. Nothing made this deliberate shift in emphasis more apparent than President George Bush's "peace initiative" last summer. His speech on the subject was singularly devoid of any reference to the Palestinian people's right to self-determination. Instead, the focus was on giving the Palestinians a leadership "not compromised by terror." It was delivered at a time when Israel had reoccupied the West Bank, there were demolitions and massacres, the Palestinian offices had been destroyed, and Yasser Arafat was in virtual captivity in Ramallah — a state he is still in. On that occasion, when the world expected the US president to condemn Israel for its atrocities and for reducing the Oslo peace process to shreds, all that President Bush said was the Palestinian needed reform. Once this was done he said the Palestinians could have "a provisional state".

Apparently there is no change in US policy on this issue even now when Washington is keen to secure Muslim support for the attack on Iraq, for Bush's speech last week again was characterized by a blatantly Pro-Israel line and an utter disregard for the legitimate struggle of the Palestinian people for Freedom. While the military and diplomatic situation about Iraq is moving towards a denouement, Israel has continued with its genocidal policy in the occupied territories. On Monday, Israeli troops murdered nine more Palestinians, destroyed more houses and, in the process, damaged a mosque. Apparently, such atrocities do not constitute a crime in Washington's eyes, for Bush's speech last week made no reference to these.

Instead, the US president said the end of the Iraq war would enable the Palestinians to choose "new leaders." The only redeeming feature was his reference to the ultimate emergence of a Palestinian state. Beyond this there was no indication of how the peace process would be revived and how the Palestinians would have a state of their own. He made no promise to revive the Oslo 'process' – something shocking, because America is its co-sponsor and the agreements laying down a time-table for Israeli withdrawals were signed on the lawns of the White House. This is the American attitude when the war against Iraq has not yet begun. One can well imagine how a victorious America would behave towards the Arabs in general and the Palestinians in particular. In such a setting, there will be no revival of the peace process, and Washington will in all likelihood help Israel force the Palestinian people to either live in their present subhuman conditions or abandon their homeland. This would help Tel Aviv achieve what the Iraqi war is really all about; annexing the occupied territories to realize Zionism's age-old dream – a Greater Israel. In the eyes of history, America will be an accomplice in this crime."

Greater Israel

How Israeli terrorism and American treason caused the September 11 Attacks

By David Duke

National President

European-American Unity and Rights Organization (EURO)

If Osama bin Laden is the man behind the attack that caused the death of thousands of Americans on September 11, I, like most Americans want to him to suffer the ultimate punishment for his crime. No person or nation that commits terrorism against America should escape punishment.

But now I am going to make a statement that may well shock you. If you agree that those who commit terrorist acts against America should be punished, then America should put Israel at the top of our hit list; for in this article, I will prove that Israel has committed deliberate acts of murderous terrorism and treachery against America.

Israel's acts of terrorism and treachery against America have not only gone unpunished, but have been rewarded by politicians who have treasonously betrayed the United States.

I will show that Israel has committed more continuing terrorism in the last half century than any other nation on earth. Then, I will expose Israel's terrorism and treachery against the United States of America. Finally, I will show the shocking (and proving that Israel deliberately sought the death of thousands of Americans on September 11.

Why was America attacked?

No one would argue that whatever his motivations, if bin Laden was behind the horror of the WTC attacks, he deserves punishment for killing so many innocent people. At the same time, it is vital that we know why bin Laden and millions of others around the world have come to hate America. Why are so many willing to risk or even sacrifice their lives to get at us? I certainly hope no one reading this is so naive as to believe that the growing millions who hate America do so because we are free., That canard has to be the most ridiculous notion ever sold to the American people since the pet rock.

To end the threat of terrorism against the American people, we must know the true reason why we are so hated. Modern technology makes mass murder and terrorism so ridiculously easy that just about anyone can do it. It cannot be stopped by military might. In fact, even the brute force we are using in Afghanistan supposedly to wipe out terror-- already shows signs of whipping up enough world-wide hatred against America to give rise to a thousand new terrorists for every one terrorist we might kill.

I also wonder what the kill ratio is in Afghanistan. Perhaps one member of the al-Qaida network is killed for every 10 run-of-the-mill Afghan soldiers and civilians who are basically just trying to get through their own lives like the rest of us. Or maybe it's one terrorist for a 100 Afghans. I suspect the real figure is more like a 1000 non-terrorists dead for the life of 1 genuine terrorist who might ever bother America.

Perhaps we should have enough courage to consider the possible reasons why so many might hate us. Only when we have all the facts, rather than cute little cliches like "They were attacking freedom," can we decide the best way we can protect our people in the future.

By the way, how do we define an "attack on American freedom?" I would say that a real "attack on freedom" is trashing the Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States. The Ten Amendments are the very core of what American freedom actually is. George Bush and the U.S. Congress, armed with the newspeak U.S.A. Patriot Act, did infinitely more to take away our Constitutional freedoms than bin Laden ever could.

The real reason we have suffered terrorism

The real reason we have suffered the terrorism of the WTC attack is shockingly simple.

Too many American politicians have treasonously betrayed the American people by blindly supporting the leading terrorist nation on earth: Israel.

The American mass media and the government cannot have it both ways. If they are motivated to attack Afghanistan for giving aid and comfort to terrorists, then some Palestinians naturally find motivation to attack America for giving aid and even military support to Israel, a nation that has committed unrelenting terrorism against them.

Israel Controls the U.S. Senate

Traitors to the United States have allowed a terrorist foreign nation to control the United States Government. Some readers might think it preposterous for me to assert that that a foreign nation controls America. But consider the fact that the former head of the United State Senate Foreign Relations Committee, William Fulbright, said precisely that. He asserted on CBS'S Face the Nation television program that Israel Controls the United States Senate.¹ And, Senator Fulbright was no dummy; it is in name that the brightest students scramble after the so-named "Fulbright scholarships. Not only did Senator Fulbright make this powerful indictment, bid the former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, George Brown, as we as many others, have said essentially the same thing.

"We can say we can't possibly get the Congress to support a (Israeli) program like this. And they say don't worry about the Congress. We will take care of the Congress. This is somebody from another country, but they can do it. They own, you know, the banks in this country, the newspapers. Just look at where the Jewish money is".... (General George S. Brown, former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff)

Of course General Brown actually understated the Jewish control of the American media. It is true that they control the most influential newspapers in America including the top three: The New York Times the Washington Post and the Wall Street Journal. They also own the top three newsmagazines Time, Newsweek and U.S. News and World Report But, even more importantly, they thoroughly dominate the television and broadcast media, the two largest media conglomerates being Time-Warner and Disney, and their domination includes the network news executives of the main three networks' ABC, CBS and NBC. Control of the media by pro-Israeli partisans another subject for another time; but if you would like complete documentation, please go to my website www.davidduke.com and pull up a chapter from my Awakening called "Who Runs the Media." The extreme pro-Israeli partisanship of the media is why mod Americans are woefully ignorant of Israel's terrorist record. All this article needs to do is apply just a tiny pinprick into the balloon of Israeli propaganda, for it will take only a few good jabs to burst the balloon of lies surrounding Israel.

I will show you documentary evidence that during the last 50 years Israel has engaged in more murderous terrorism than any other nation in the world; and that by supporting its criminal behavior, America is now reaping the fanatical hatred of hundreds of millions of people around the globe. Support for Israel's terrorism has directly led to the terrorism now going on against the United States. Most Americans don't even realize the magnitude and scope of Israeli terrorism because of the Jewish media control mentioned by General Brown. A pertinent example of their incredible media power is their ability to propagate the Big Lie that the WTC attack had nothing at all to do with Israel: that the kamikaze attackers hated and attacked Americans because we are "free."

The Big Lie

The Jewish-dominated American mass media and the Israeli-controlled politicians do not want the American people to fully realize the incredibly high price America pays for blindly supporting Israel. In the aftermath of the attacks on September 11, 2001, even President Bush repeated the absurd lie, alleging the attack happened because they hate the fact that we are free. If as the media says Bin Laden is behind the terrorism then they know that the attack occurred not because he hates freedom. Just three years ago, ABC television and PBS Frontline interviewed bin Laden during the time of the Clinton administration. Bin Laden clearly stated why he opposed America:

"They (Americans) have put themselves at the mercy of a disloyal government, ... it is Israel inside America. Take the sensitive ministries such as the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense and the CIA, you will find that the Jews have the upper hand in them. They make use of America to further their plans for the world

For over half a century, Muslims in Palestine have been (by the Jews) slaughtered and assaulted and robbed of their honor and of their property. Their houses have been blasted, their crops destroyed...This is my message to the American people: to look for a serious government that looks out for their interests and does not attack other people's lands, or other people's honor."

Notwithstanding any of his alleged crimes, bin Laden has never in his entire life uttered a word against Democracy! The media invented the lie about attacking Democracy to hide the real truth: that America is being attacked in retaliation for the American governments support of Israel's terrorist policies in the Mideast. The unanimity of the media in propagating this huge lie without contradiction should make every thoughtful person suspect that Americans are not getting the whole truth from the media.

First, let us take a look at Israel's terrorism against the Palestinians.

Israel: a mass murderer as Head of State

Israel's Prime Minister Ariel Sharon, is one of the world's most bloodstained terrorists. He is responsible for the cold-blooded slaughter of at least 1,500 men, women and children in the Beirut refugee camps of Chatila and Sabra. Even a formal Israeli commission found Sharon personally responsible for the Lebanese massacres.

In 1982, as Israel's defense minister, Sharon directed Israel's invasion of Lebanon and the carpet bombing and devastation of the city of Beirut (In Lebanon five times more women and children died than in the September New York attack). This terror bombing was carried out by Jews using jet fighters and bombs supplied by the United States.

After the Israeli military devastation and occupation. Sharon forcibly removed Palestinian resistance fighters from Lebanon. Many Palestinian women, children and old people were left behind in refugee camps near Beirut. The United States publicly guaranteed their safety and promised that they would quickly be reunited with their loved ones. When Sharon plotted their murder, he not only planned a bloody act of terrorism against the refugees; he knew it was an act of treachery against the United States that would raise intense hatred against America.

On the night of September 16, 1982, Sharon sent Phalangist murder squads into two Palestinian refugee camps, Sabra and Chatila.

With Israeli tanks and troops closely surrounding the camps to prevent any of the Palestinians from escaping, the murder squads machine-gunned, bayoneted, and bludgeoned Palestinian civilians all that night, the next day and the following night; all while the Israelis surrounding the camps listened gleefully to the machine gun fire and screams coming from inside. Sharon then sent in bulldozers to hide as much of the atrocity as he could. At least 1500 Palestinian men, women and children were butchered, and perhaps as many as 2500. (An official Lebanese investigation set the figure at 2500) Even after the efforts of Sharon's bulldozers, many Palestinians remained unburied, and Red Cross workers found whole families; including hundreds of elderly and little children, with their throats cut or disemboweled. Uncounted numbers of women and girls were also raped before they were slaughtered.

Ariel Sharon is sought for trial by the Hague Tribunal, the same body that succeeded in extraditing former Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic for charges of crimes against humanity in Kosovo. Sharon will not travel to Belgium for fear of arrest by the International Court for the massacre.⁵

Although he is sought for his Chatila and Sabra murders, Sharon could be tried for any of a dozen other massacres committed during his sterling career, crimes against humanity that go back at least as far as 1953. The Israeli newspaper, Ha'aretz, recalls Sharon's leading of a massacre in the village of Kibya in 1953, "The soldiers of Major Ariel Sharon killed 70 Palestinians in the reprisal raid, most of them women and children."⁶

America, which clamored for the Hague Tribunal to arrest and try Milosevic, pretends to be unaware of Sharon's mass murder. Instead of handing Sharon an arrest warrant for mass murder and putting him in the shackles that he deserves, President Bush greets Ariel Sharon with handshakes and hugs! How the world must snicker in disbelief when Bush confers with Sharon on "fighting terrorism."

If President Bush is truly serious about punishing nations that support or harbor terrorists, he will have to begin with Israel, a nation that elected one of the world's worst terrorists and mass murderers as its the Head of State. Does America's Israel-controlled Senate punish Israel for harboring terrorists? No, instead we supply their terrorists with billions of American taxpayers dollars and the very weapons with which they kill!

Israel's murder of the Palestinian refugees after the United States had publicly guaranteed their safety was not only a crime against humanity, but also one of treachery against America. Sharon and the others involved were completely aware of America's well-publicized promise of the refugees' safety.

The Beirut Sabra and Chatila Massacre was the chief motivation of the Lebanese suicide bombing attack that killed 241 American Marines in Beirut less than a year later, and it clearly demonstrates how American support of Israeli terrorism leads to terrible consequences for the United States. The Los Angeles Times, in discussing a revealing book by a former agent of the Israeli Mossad (secret service), showed that the Mossad had foreknowledge of the terrorist attack on the Marine barracks in Lebanon in 1983, but treacherously did not warn America.⁷

Among Ostrovsky's more shocking allegations are that Mossad failed to share with the U.S. detailed intelligence that might have averted the 1983 suicide bombing of the Beirut Marine barracks that killed 241 U.S. servicemen:...

Israel: Founded by terror against the British and Palestinians

In their effort to wrest control of Palestine from British control, the Zionists waged a campaign of relentless terror, including the bombing of the King David Hotel, which killed 93 people. They ruthlessly murdered British officials and soldiers. The Zionists assassinated anyone in their way, including the world-respected U N. mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, who dared to tell the world of the Zionist terror and murder campaign. A favorite tactic of the Irgun and Stern terrorist gangs was to kidnap British soldiers and slowly torture them to death. Israel was also the first nation to employ the modern terrorist technique of the letter bomb, and over the years sent out hundreds of them, killing dozens of their enemies and many bystanders all over the world. The current terrorism of mailing anthrax infected letters is simply a logical stepchild of the letter bomb.

The terror of Deir Yassin

The Palestinians, of course, have been the greatest victims of this half a century of Israel terror. In fact, Israel carved its state out of Palestine through a deliberate policy of mass terror against the Palestinians. It was the method by which they drove 800,000 of them from their homes, businesses and farms. In his book The Revolt, former Prime Minister, Menachem Begin, boasts about his role in the massacre of the 254 Palestinians at Deir Yassin. (Most of the victims were elderly men, women and children who remained in the Israeli-occupied village) In his book, Begin points out that Deir Yassin and other massacres caused panic among the residents, causing them to flee in terror from their homes. This intentional mass terror enabled the Zionists to take control of Palestine. And, it should be noted that the refugees are still not permitted to return home after more than half a century.

What did the Zionist terrorists actually do at Deir Yassin and at other villages that caused the Palestinian people to flee in fear? A Red Cross doctor, Jacques de Reynier, chief representative of the International Committee of the Red Cross in Jerusalem gave a shocking account of the massacre in his official report.¹¹

De Reynier arrived at the village on the second day and saw the mopping up," as one of the Israeli terrorists put it to him. It had been done with machine guns, then grenades, and was finished off with knives. The Jews-decapitated some of the victims and fatally maimed 52 children in sight of their mothers. They cut open 25 pregnant women's wombs and butchered the babies in front of them.

Israelis present at Deir Yassin have confirmed these atrocities. After his retirement in 1972, Israeli Haganah officer, Colonel Meir Pa'el, stated the following about Deir Yassin in Yediot Ahronot, a major Jewish publication:

"The Irgun and LEHI men came out of hiding and began to clean' the houses. They shot whoever they saw, women and children included, the commanders did not try to stop the massacre...they were taken to the quarry between Deir Yassin and Giv'at Shaut, and murdered in cold blood..."

The commander of the Haganah unit that controlled Deir Yassin after the massacre, Zvi Ankori, made this statement in the Israeli newspaper Davar:

"I went into six to seven houses. I saw cut off genitalia and women's crushed stomachs. According to the shooting signs on the bodies, it was direct murder."

Have you seen any TV documentaries or any Hollywood movies about the Israeli terror of Deir Yassin or of many thousands of other Israeli acts of terror against the Palestinian people? You have heard plenty of violin music for Jewish victims of Hitler, but have you heard any violins for the women at Deir Yassin who had their babies cut from their wombs by Jewish Supremacists? Have you heard any violins for any of the other thousands of Palestinian victims of Begin, Shamir, Barak, and Sharon? Befitting Israel's long record of terrorism against the Palestinian people, Israel has the nasty habit of electing its most notorious terrorists and mass murderers as its Head of State.

The United States has a whole division of the Justice Department dedicated to hunting down Nazis who have committed crimes against humanity. While America doggedly pursues elderly suspected German war criminals, American Presidents have state dinners honoring Jewish ones!

Mr. Bush is fond of talking about wiping out evil terrorists yet was not a massacre such as Deir Yassin clearly an act of consummate evil?

As Begin points out in The Revolt, terror against Palestinians was a crucial factor in establishing Israel. It established the Jewish state and it truly set the tone for a half century of ongoing terror against the Palestinian people.

52 years of Ongoing Terror against Palestinians

Since 1948, Palestinians have faced ongoing terrorism from Israel. Hundreds of villages have been obliterated and literally wiped from the map. Tens of thousands of homes have been bombed, bull-dozed or dynamited during peacetime! Tens of thousands of men, women and children have been killed. Even greater numbers have been blinded, crippled, disfigured and maimed. Hundreds of thousands have been imprisoned and/or tortured.

In going after Palestinian resistance to Israeli occupation, Israel has never been shy about bombing refugee camps full of women and children. Israeli tanks, helicopters and even jet fighters are used to drop bombs or fire missiles into the heart of Palestinian neighborhoods and refugee camps packed with women and children. These weapons cannot discriminate between a supposed terrorist or an eight-year-old little girl. Such a weapon can kill a child as surely as it can kill enemies of the state.

Palestinians suspected of actively opposing Israel's occupation of the West Bank or Gaza, have had their homes and families attacked by Israeli tank cannons, missiles or bombs. And after their suspect is killed or imprisoned, the Israeli army bulldozes or dynamites their family's home. Thousands of homes have been destroyed in this fashion.

Israel has also killed hundreds of Palestinian leaders by assassination and terroristic attacks. These attacks often kill innocent bystanders. Many of those assassinated have never been associated with any terror or violence of any kind; they simply were poets, writers, or clerics who by their words have inspired in their countrymen the desire for freedom. The Israeli Prime Minister previous to Ariel Sharon was Ehud Barak. In 1972, during peacetime between Israel and Lebanon, he led an Israeli commando death squad into Beirut, Lebanon where he personally murdered Palestinian writer Kamal Edwan. In the middle of the night, using silenced submachine guns, he and his team slaughtered Edwan while he slept in his bed. When the newly elected Israeli Prime Minister, Ehud Barak, came to New York and Washington, the Jewish-controlled press treated this murderer, as though he was a conquering hero.

The double standards never seem to end. When an Israeli cabinet official, Rechavam Zeevi, was assassinated by Palestinians in October of 2001, Sharon and some U.S. officials denounced it as "terrorism." If the shooting down of Zeevi is indeed terrorism, what should we call many years of Israeli assassinations of hundreds of Palestinian political figures, philosophers, clerics and poets? Why doesn't the press point out that Zeevi was himself a Jewish Supremacist who described Palestinians living and working illegally in Israel as "lice" and a "cancer in our midst."¹ Zeevi himself was a terrorist who advocated the forcible expulsion of all Palestinians from the occupied territories and the assassination of all those who resist Israel occupation. He even publicly called for the assassination of Yassir Arafat. Yet, the same press that calls his assassination "terrorism" never calls the pro-assassination Zeevi a terrorist or even a Jewish Supremacist. The Zeevi assassination itself was in direct response to the Israeli assassination of a Palestinian leader a few weeks before.

In 1991, at an Israeli cabinet meeting, Zeevi said that President George Bush, by pressing Israel to peace talks, was "an enemy of Israel and that America was plotting a second Holocaust."¹ With a supposed "ally" like this, does America need any enemies?

The power of the Jews in the world media keeps many from fully grasping the terror of hundreds of Israeli assassinations. In fact, even before the WTC terror attack in September, the BBC instructed their reporters to call Israel's assassination of their enemies as "targeted killings", rather than exactly what they are: assassinations.¹ However, the BBC (which has a heavily Jewish executive staff) referred to the Zeevi killing as an assassination, and not a "targeted killing." The public has been subjected to this kind of sanitized and distorted media treatment of Israel for years. It is no wonder that few Britons and even fewer Americans are little aware of Israel's record of terrorism. It is for this reason that I cannot blame most Americans for their ignorance of Israeli terrorism.

The terror of Israeli torture: at least 150,000 victims

The brutal torture of thousands of one's enemies must be classified as a particularly vicious form of terrorism. Tens of thousands of Palestinians have been tortured in Israeli jails. A Jewish human rights group in Israel confirmed in a 60-page report that 85% of Palestinian detainees undergo torture while in custody.¹⁷ And make no mistake about it; many of the tortures endured by these Palestinian victims are the stuff of one's worst nightmares. Israeli torture includes everything from choking victims with urine and feces soaked bags tied over their heads, to using electric cattle prods for anal rape and mutilation. Israel often doesn't even admit to who they are holding, so if they decide to kill or torture a Palestinian to death while he is in custody, his body will simply disappear, or they will later claim that they died in a battle with Israeli police before capture. Many thousands of Palestinians and Lebanese have died while in Israeli custody.

A feature article by Joel Greenburg in the very pro-Israel New York Times stated matter-of-factly that Israel tortures 500 to 600 Palestinians every month.⁽¹⁸⁾ That figure, which is probably too low as it comes from the pro-Israel New York Times, means that each year at least 6,000 Palestinians are tortured in Israel. Torture of Palestinians has been going on in Israel since 1948 (53 years to date). Even if one uses just one-half of the number of Palestinians that Mr. Greenburg says suffer torture each year — at least 150,000 human beings have been tortured in Israeli jails since the founding of the Jewish state.

Bowing to Israel's public relations problems because of its legalized torture, in 1999 the Israeli Supreme Court made an intentionally vague ruling that torture is sometimes illegal but Israel and Palestinian rights groups offer much evidence that the ruling was just a public-relations veneer. They offer evidence that torture continues just as did before the ruling.¹⁹

Following Israel's lead, Jewish journalists are now beginning to advocate the use of torture in America! A recent issue of Newsweek headlined an article entitled "Time to think about torture; it's a new world, and survival may well require old techniques that seemed out of the question." Even a supposed Jewish champion of civil liberties, Alan Dershowitz, now advocates it.²¹

Victor Ostrovsky, a former Israeli Mossad agent, wrote two books about Israel's terror against their enemies. In one of them, he discusses the fate of Palestinians who illegally cross the border in search of work in Israel. Many thousands of these young men simply are never heard from again after being captured by Israel's forces. Some of them are taken to the ABC research facilities where they endure the indescribable terror of chemical, nuclear or biological warfare.

ABC standing for atomic, bacteriological, and chemical. It was where our top epidemiological scientists were developing various doomsday machines .. should there be an all-out war in which this type of weapon would be needed; there was no room for error. The Palestinian infiltrators came in handy in this regard. As human guinea pigs, they could make sure the weapons the scientist were developing worked properly and could verify how fast they worked and make them more efficient.

Terror against the Lebanese People

During the Israeli invasion and occupation of Lebanon from 1978 to 2000, at least 15,000 civilians died. An example of Israel terror was its intentional bombing of the UN center in Qana, Lebanon that occurred just five years ago. The following article was not written by a Palestinian, Arab or even a Muslim, but by Englishman Robert Fisk, one of the most respected British journalists working in the Mideast. He writes for the London newspaper, The Independent. If an American wants to understand the hatred that Israel is generating toward America dare to read this gruesome account and dare to take a close look at the pictures showing the realities of Israeli terror.

"Most Americans have read countless gory accounts Jewish Holocaust atrocities or even stories about the Israeli victims of Palestinian suicide bombers. They have seen dozens of the most gruesome movies or documentaries about Jewish victims, but most Americans have never read even one account like the one quoted here. You won't read such accounts in American newspapers or news magazines.

"Qana, southern Lebanon - It was a massacre. Not since Sabra and Chatila had I seen the innocent slaughtered like this. The Lebanese refugee women and children and men lay in heaps, their hands or arms or legs missing, beheaded or disemboweled. There were well over a hundred of them. A baby lay without a head. The Israeli shells had scythed through them as they lay in the United Nations shelter, believing that they were safe under the world's protection. Like the Muslims of Srebrenica, the Muslims of Qana were wrong.

In front of a burning building of the UN's Fijian battalion headquarters, a girl held a corpse in her arms, the body of a gray-haired man whose eyes were staring at her, and she rocked the corpse back and forth in her arms, keening and weeping and crying the same words over and over "My father, my father." A Fijian UN soldier stood amid a sea of bodies and, without saying a word, held aloft the body of a headless child.

...When I walked towards them, I slipped on a human hand...

Israel's slaughter of civilians in this terrible 10-day offensive - 206 by last night - has been so cavalier, so ferocious, that not a Lebanese will forgive this massacre. There had been the ambulance attacked on Saturday, the sisters killed in Yohmor the day before, the 2-year-old girl decapitated by an Israeli missile four days ago. And earlier yesterday, the Israelis had slaughtered a family of 12 - the youngest was a four-day-old baby - when Israeli helicopter pilots fired missiles into their home.

Shortly afterwards, three Israeli jets dropped bombs only 250 meters from a UN convoy on which I was traveling, blasting a house 30 feet into the air in front of my eyes. Traveling back to Beirut to file my report on the Qana massacre to the Independent last night, I found two Israeli gunboats firing at the civilian cars on the river bridge north of Sidon...

A French UN trooper muttered oaths to himself as he opened a bag in which he was dropping feet, fingers, pieces of people's arms...

We had suddenly become not UN troops and journalists but Westerners, Israel's allies, an object of hatred and venom. One bearded man with fierce eyes stared at us, his face dark with fury. "You are Americans", he screamed at us. "Americans are dogs. You did this. Americans are dogs."

President Bill Clinton has allied himself with Israel in its war against "terrorism" and the Lebanese, in their grief, had not forgotten this. Israel's official expression of sorrow was rubbing salt in their wounds. "I would like to be made into a bomb and blow myself up amid the Israelis", one old man said."

If every American read the above article by Robert Fisk, it would help them to understand why America is so hated and why we now face terrorist kamikazes. If you would like to know the real motivations of terrorists like Osama bin Laden, The Nation magazine, did an interview with him on September 21, 1998. It describes his reaction to the Israeli Qana massacre.

When I last saw bin Laden, he was still obsessed with the Israeli massacre of 107 Lebanese refugees sheltering at the UN camp at Qana in April 1996. Israel claimed it was a 'mistake,' the UN conceded otherwise and President Clinton called it only a 'tragedy' -as if it was a natural disaster. It was, said bin Laden, an act of international terrorism.' There must be justice, he said, and trials for the Israeli perpetrators. Clinton used almost exactly the same words about bin Laden and his supporters in August. But the deaf, as usual, were talking to the deaf."²⁴

Most Americans will never see any such accounts like the one by Robert Fisk about Qana. The Israelis tight grip on the American press and the American government has successfully suppressed much of the ongoing story of Israeli terrorism against Palestinians. I will now show that they have also been able to cover up murderous Israeli acts of war and terrorism against the United States of America.

Israeli terrorism against America

In 1954, the Israeli government launched a secret operation of terror against the United States called Operation, Suzannah. It plotted to murder Americans and blow up American installations in Egypt. Their plan was to leave false evidence that the Egyptians did it, so as to make America go to war against Egypt on the side of Israel. Jewish agents succeeded in blowing up some post offices and American libraries in Cairo and Alexandria. On the way to blow up an American movie house, the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer theater, an Israeli's agent's bomb went off prematurely. Thankfully, for both Egypt and or America, the plot was then exposed and stopped in its early stages.

Because of the capture of the Israeli agents, the world learned of this Israeli treachery and the Israeli Foreign Minister, Pinhas Lavon was later forced to resign. The whole episode became known as the Lavon Affair. Today, the Jewish.. dominated American media and publishing establishment deftly cover up this Israeli treachery against us. Most Americans know nothing about it. For instance, only a slight mention of the Lavon Affair is found in the popular Encarta Encyclopedia. It is in an article about Ben Gunon authored by the pro Zionist, Bernard Reich. By the way, the articles author illustrates a typical media pattern. When Americans suppose they are reading unbiased Encyclopedia or news magazine accounts, they more often than not are reading distorted accounts written by ardent Jewish Zionists.

Ben-Gurion returned to politics in 1955 to replace Minister of Defense Pinhas Lavon who resigned after a failed attempt to sabotage Egypt's relations with the West.'

Note how the article meekly says, "a failed attempt to sabotage Egypt's relations with the West." What does this mean? "Sabotaging relations" sounds as though Israelis have just said a few nasty things about Egypt and America behind each other's back. The intentional deception used in this article by its Jewish author is typical of the distortions that go on countless times in the mass media.

The line in Encarta should read:

".... who was forced to resign after Israel was caught committing terrorist bombings against the United States to treacherously incite America to war against Israel's enemy.

I am sure that ninety percent of those who read this have never heard of it. Some may think I am making this all up. Well, If you still might doubt that Israel has committed these terrorist acts against America in Egypt, here is a quote from a recent article appearing in the Jewish magazine Moment, written by Samuel Katz and meant for its small Jewish audience. It is more forward, yet still omits the provocative word terrorism, a word Israel uses when Palestinians blow up libraries and cinemas.

And the failures were as common as the spectacular successes. In the mid '50s, A'man (the Jewish Defense Agency) suffered a serious setback during the infamous Operation Suzannah," when Israeli agents provoked Jews in Egypt to attack American and British targets and incite anti-Western sentiment. Many Jews were arrested, and some were executed, The bungled operation was a severe embarrassment for the government of Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion and his defense minister, Pinhas Lavon.

So, in the Lavon Affair we learned how our so-called "best friend in the Mideast," Israel, rewards the United States for its unconditional monetary and military support: by committing terrorism against us! Think about the fact that most Americans have never even heard about this Israeli terrorist attack against us.

If the Egyptian government had been behind this terror against America, we would have rightly considered it an act of war and we would have attacked Egypt right back, just as we have done against Afghanistan. And the press; they would have clamored for such attacks just as they demanded attacks against Afghanistan. In fact, we attacked Afghanistan on far less grounds than we have for attacking Israel. No evidence exists that Afghanistan approved of or even knew anything about the attack on the World Trade Center; but in the Lavon Affair, the Israeli government committed a direct act at war against the United States. We, of course, did not bomb Tel Aviv in retaliation. We did not sever our diplomatic relations. In fact, we did not even cut off our billions of dollars in monetary and military aid!

Let me be perfectly blunt. Those Americans in government who continued our support of Israel after it had committed terrorist acts against the people of the United States — clearly committed treason against our country.

Any American government official who would have given aid to the Japanese after the attack on Pearl Harbor would have been prosecuted as a traitor to the United States.

If America's leaders, after Israel's terrorist attack against us in the Lavon Affair, would simply have stopped their treasonous aid to Israel, there would have been no subsequent acts of terror against us such as the World Trade Center and Pentagon" attacks.

Israel's terrorist attack on the USS Liberty

In 1967, during the Six Day War, Israel again committed a grievous terrorist act against the United States of America. On June 8, Israel used unmarked fighters and torpedo boats to launch an hour and one-half attack on the American Navy ship the USS Liberty, costing 34 American lives and 171 wounded²⁷. The Israelis first attacked the liberty's radio towers in an attempt to stop the Sixth Fleet from learning that the Israelis were the attackers. After unmarked Israeli fighters horrendously bombed and strafed the liberty, Israel sent in torpedo boats to finish the job. They even machine gunned the deployed life rafts in an effort to ensure that there would be no survivors (witnesses) who could expose them.

Only by the heroism and ingenuity of the captain and crew of the USS Liberty kept the Israeli plan from succeeding. They were able to keep the ship afloat as well as contact the fleet and let it know that Israel, rather than Egypt that had attacked the ship. Knowing that its plan had been exposed, Israel withdrew and meekly claimed that their attack was a case of mistaken identity. They said that they mistook the USS Liberty for an Egyptian ship.

The United States Secretary of State at the time, Dean Rusk, and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Admiral Thomas Moorer, both say the attack was no accident, that Israel deliberately attacked the USS Liberty. For instance, it was clear day with a stiff breeze and the Liberty sported both a huge American flag and large international identification numbers on her hull. Israeli jets buzzed the USS Liberty long before the attack, flying so close that the members of the Liberty crew could even see their hand waves as they passed. Just as in the Lavon Affair, Israel hoped to blame this act of war on their enemy, the Egyptians. This time, only the courage and resourcefulness of the Liberty's crew prevented a further compounding of the travesty.

Learn more about the attack on the USS Liberty by reading

"The attack on the Liberty and the War on Freedom" by David Duke

The Jewish-dominated American media expressed no outrage for the attack and supinely accepted the specious Israeli excuse for it. Even though our own Secretary of State and our own Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff said the Israeli attack was deliberate, the Jewish Lobby was even able to prevent a formal Congressional inquiry into the attack. In contrast, the USS liberty's sister-ship, the USS Pueblo. Was captured by North Korea the following year (1968) with the loss of only one life, yet within a year the U S Congress launched a formal inquiry into that attack. There still has been no formal inquiry into the attack on the USS Liberty. The Liberty's commanding officer, Captain William McGoriagle. Was awarded America's highest honor, the Congressional Medal of Honor, for his splendid courage during the Israeli attack. But, he was given the award in a quiet ceremony in the US Navy Yard. Rather than the White House (as is customary), so as not to hurt the image of the very enemy who killed 34 of his comrades and wounded him and 174 more Americans on the Liberty!

How did the political leaders of the United States respond to this Israeli act of war against it? Did America bomb Tel Aviv as it did Kabul, Afghanistan? No, the Israeli-controlled American government along with the Jewish-controlled media committed a clear case of treason against America by covering up this vicious terrorist attack, and continues to send billions of American tax dollars to Israel in military and monetary aid.

Again. I invoke the example of Pearl Harbor. Any American government official who would have given aid or comfort to Japan after the attack in 1941 would have been prosecuted as a traitor to the United States. I charge that those American government officials who collaborated with the Jewish Lobby and media in continuing to support Israel after its attack on the USS Liberty — are traitors against the United States of America!

If, after Israel's treacherous attack on the USS Liberty, we would have simply stopped treasonously supporting the Israeli terrorist state: we would surely not have suffered the terrorism of September 11, 2001.

Israel: A nation that spies on America and sells our secrets to our worst enemies

In the 1980s, Israel recruited an American Jew, Jonathan Pollard, to spy against the United States. After his apprehension, Israeli officials at first claimed he was a "rogue agent," but later they admitted that Pollard was working for them from the beginning. Other than the Jewish spies Ethel and Julius Rosenbergs who gave our atom bomb secrets to the Soviets probably no spies have ever done more damage to our country than that which was done by this single Israeli spy: Jonathan Pollard.

Israel's use of Pollard's information not only destroyed our intelligence operations in the Mideast; it practically destroyed our intelligence apparatus in the Soviet Union and the Eastern Bloc.²⁸ Many of America's most loyal and best agents in the Communist world were executed because Israel sold or bartered Pollard's stolen information to the Soviets? As the article below by Eric Margolis shows, our "wonderful friend and ally" Israel would not even allow the United States to debrief the Mossad agents who handled the Pollard spying so as to help determine the full extent of the damage done to the United States and the dangers posed to American agents overseas.

Some of the enormously sensitive secrets stolen by Pollard may have been either sold, or bartered, by Israel to the Soviet Union.

A number of key CIA agents in the East Bloc were allegedly executed as a result of Pollard's spying. The KGB likely gained access to top-secret U.S. codes - either directly from Israel, or through spies in Israel's government. In short, Pollard's treachery caused one of the worst security disasters in modern U.S. history.

So Israel which receives billions of American aid, has treacherously spied on and harmed the very security of the United States. To further demonstrate their contempt for us, they even bartered the top secret information they had J stolen from us — to America's worst enemies. Even after Israel's public relations apologies for the Pollard spying, it has continued to spy on us. The Los Angeles Times in 1997 reported that an American Jew named David A. Tenenbaum "admitted to divulging secrets to Israel." To quote the Los Angeles Times, "A civilian engineer working at an Army command facility near Detroit has admitted divulging classified military information to Israeli officials over the last 10 years."

Even after Israel proved its willingness to spy on us and critically damage America's intelligence operations, President Clinton appointed a dedicated Zionist Jew to Chairman of the National Security Council, the highest intelligence position in the White House. Even the Israeli daily Maariv referred to Berger as a "warm Jew," meaning that he is devoted to Israel first (31). Appointing Berger as National Security Council chief after the Pollard Spy Case is pure insanity.

The fact that Israel could commit these outrages against the United States without suffering scathing media attacks or even the end of aid to Israel, shows their extreme power over us and the treason that reaches into the highest echelons of the American establishment. It is no wonder that Ariel Sharon could make the following statement to Simon Peres when he suggested that Israel might lose American aid if it did not pull back recent Israel incursions Sharon responded:

"Every time we do something you tell me America will do this and will do that . . . I want to tell you something very clear: Don't worry about American pressure on Israel We, the Jewish people, control America and the Americans know it." — Ariel Sharon, October 3, 2001 32

It is not only Jonathan Pollard who has committed treason against America. All those in the American government who would continue to monetarily and militarily support a foreign nation that spies on us and severely damages our intelligence operations (along with causing the deaths of American agents) have committed treason against the United States of America. In response to these ongoing acts of treachery against the United States, a truly patriotic American Government would have (at the very least) ended our support for Israel. Supporting a foreign nation after it willfully commits such acts of treachery against America is nothing less than treason.

The World Trade Center Attack

So, the record is clear. Israel is the worst terrorist rogue state on earth. Israel and its terrorist leaders such as Begin, Shamir and Sharon have committed a half-century of relentless ethnic cleansing, bombings, shootings, torture and murder against the Palestinian people.

Israel has also committed numerous acts of treachery and terrorism against the United States of America as I have clearly shown in documenting the Lavon Affair, the Pollard Spy Scandal and the Attack on the USS Liberty.

Because of overwhelming Israeli power in media and government, traitors to the United States continue to support, with little fear of punishment, this rogue terrorist nation.

In fact, these traitors to the United States supplied to Israel the very weapons it used to commit the terrorist attack on the Liberty!

Through the efforts of Jewish and other traitors to the United States, the American government has embarked on a foreign policy that has repeatedly betrayed America's true interests. Massive American military and monetary support has enabled Israel to continue its relentless terrorism against the Palestinians. American treasonous support of Israel's terror has thus caused tremendous hatred against the United States, greatly hurt American economic and strategic interests, and ultimately spawned the terrorism now rising against us.

The traitors who sold out America to Israel are as guilty of causing the loss of 5,000 American lives on September 11 as those who actually hijacked and crashed the planes into the World Trade Center and Pentagon.

Israel wants Arabic terrorism against Western nations

Over the last two years, Israel has suffered the worst public relations disaster in its history. The election of mass murderer, Ariel Sharon as Prime Minister was the last straw for millions of decent minded people the world over. The UN Conference on Racism which labeled Israel an "Apartheid state," also signaled growing disapproval of Israel.

Then, suddenly, the attack on the World Trade Center changed the world's mood back to Israel's favor. Was this just a fortunate coincidence for Israel?

As I have shown in this article, Israeli leaders have launched terrorist attacks on America disguised as Arab attacks, because they knew that any Arab terrorist attack on America advances their own aims. They are fully aware that the bigger the attack against America; the more carnage, the better it is for Israel. Ariel Sharon learned an important lesson in Beirut. Rather than to directly commit atrocities against America as it did in the Lavon Affair and the attack on the Liberty, it is much easier and safer for Israel to continue to commit atrocities, such as Sabra and Chatila against Arabic people, so as to drive their Islamic enemies to terrorism against the West. That's precisely what occurred in the retaliatory bombing of the American Marine and French Paratrooper contingent in Beirut, and it is continued Israeli terror that has motivated the Trade Center Attacks.

What was Israel's role in the WTC attack?

The Washington Times ran a story on September 10, 2001 about a 68-page study issued by the U S Army School for Advanced Military Studies (SAMS). The study, issued by the elite Army officer's school, detailed the dangers of a possible U.S. Army occupational force in the Mideast. Here is the article's comment about the study's view of the Israeli Mossad:

Of the Mossad, the Israeli intelligence service, the SAMS officers say: "Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target U.S. forces and make it look like a Palestinian / Arab act."

Ironically, within 24 hours of the story's publication, the World Trade Center and the Pentagon was attacked. Could the "ruthless and cunning Mossad," as the U.S. Army officers describe it, covertly have been behind the attack?

The Mossad is the most ruthless terrorist organization in the entire world. It is also one of the largest and most sophisticated intelligence organizations. No other nation comes even close to its scope and power in the Mideast region. It prides itself on infiltrating every sizable militant Palestinian and Arabic organization on earth. Knowing these facts, there can be little doubt the Mossad has deeply penetrated one of the oldest, largest and what is considered the most dangerous Arabic terrorist organization on earth: bin Laden's al-Qaida.

Furthermore, the FBI and the CIA have clearly stated that the attack on the WTC and Pentagon was a huge covert operation using an international network of at least a hundred terrorists, spanning three continents. Could Mossad agents in al-Qaida as well as the rest of Mossad's vast network of thousands of infiltrators and informants, not have known about the most extensive and ambitious Arabic terrorist operation in history?

It is, of course, extremely difficult to prove the precise role of a secretive, foreign intelligence organization, such as the Mossad, in a terrorist act; they don't brag about their exploits on the Internet. But, powerful evidence is mounting that Israelis had foreknowledge of the September 11th attack on America. And, if indeed they had foreknowledge of these murderous acts of terrorism — and then had the cold-blooded mentality not to warn the United States because they saw a horrendous massacre of thousands of Americans as good for Israel — it follows that they would have felt no restraint from actually instigating and covertly aiding this terrorist plan through their own agent provocateurs. Let us look at the hard evidence indicating the Mossad had foreknowledge of the September 11 attack.

Evidence of Mossad Treachery in the WTC Attack

The day after the attack on the World Trade Center, the Jerusalem Post, the most respected and famous Israeli newspaper in the world, reported that 4000 Israelis were missing in the attack on the WTC. The Foreign Ministry compiled the number from Israeli relatives, who in the first few hours after the attack, contacted the Israeli Foreign Ministry and gave the names of Israeli friends and relatives who worked in the WTC or who had business scheduled in it or its adjacent structures. Even without seeing the article in the Jerusalem Post, logic alone would tell you that there would be many hundreds, if not thousands of Israelis in the World Trade Center at the time of the attacks. The international Jewish involvement in banking and finance is legendary. For instance, two of the richest firms in New York are Goldman-Sachs and the Solomon Brothers; and both firms have offices in the Twin Towers. Many executives in these firms regularly commute back and forth to Israel. New York is the center of world-wide Jewish financial power, and the World Trade Center is at its epicenter. One would naturally expect the Israeli death toll to be catastrophic. The Jerusalem Post certainly thought so on September 12, 2001. Here is the beginning of its article:

Thousands of Israelis missing near WTC, Pentagon

The Foreign Ministry in Jerusalem has so far received the names of 4,000 Israelis believed to have been in the areas of the World Trade Center and the Pentagon at the time of the attack. (The headline and first sentence of the Jerusalem Post article)

When George Bush made his speech before Congress, it turns out that he made a significant error other than saying that the WTC attackers did it because they "hated freedom." Bush made a point to say that in addition to thousands of Americans, 130 Israelis died in the WTC. The implication was to say that Israel shared in our suffering, and that we and Israel are in this thing together. Upon hearing the number of 130 Israeli dead, it seemed suspiciously low to me. If 4000 Israelis were at the WTC and the WTC death toll was about 4500 (about 10 percent of the 45,000 people normally in the buildings at that time), the Israeli toll should have statistically been around 400 and not 130.

As a place for doing business and for employment, the world Trade Center was not a minimum wage or a MacDonald's kind of place: it had highly paid, high tech and high level jobs and executive positions primarily in international finance, banking and stock trading. I asked myself how there could be only 130 Israelis dead, while there were an estimated 199 dead from Columbia and 428 from the Philippines?

In previous articles I wrote on the September 11 terror. I did not allude to these suspicions, because I have always taken pride in not writing anything I could not firmly substantiate. But, while researching this article on Israeli terrorism against Palestine and America, I discovered the most shocking fact I have ever run across in all my years of research and writing. I discovered a simple fact that has enormous ramifications in regard to the September terror attack.

Searching through hundreds of articles trying to track down the true Israeli death toll, I found a New York Times piece that clarified the precise number of Israelis who died in the World Trade Center attack. It turned out that of the 130 Israelis President Bush claimed had died in the World Trade Center, 129 of them were still alive. Only one Israeli had actually died. I was incredulous. "Good God," I said to myself. "only one Israeli." Here is the pertinent excerpt from the NY Times:

"But interviews with many consulate officials on Friday suggested that the lists of people they were collecting varied widely in their usefulness. For example, the city had somehow received reports of many Israelis feared missing at the site, and President Bush in his address to the country on Thursday night mentioned that about 130 Israelis had died in the attacks.

But on Friday, Alon Pinkas, Israel's consul general here, said that lists of the missing included reports from people who had called in because, for instance, relatives in New York had not returned their phone calls from Israel. There were, in fact, only three Israelis who had been confirmed as dead: two on the planes and another who had been visiting the towers on business and who was identified and buried." (New York Times, Sept. 22)

The very low death toll of 130 suggested that a number of Israelis at the Trade Center had been warned before the attack. When I found out the truth that only one Israeli had died, there could be no doubt that there had been a prior warning for many Israelis. Having only one Israeli casualty among the 4500 dead at the WTC is simply a statistical impossibility. Even if the Israeli Foreign Ministry and the Jerusalem Post had grossly overestimated the number of Israelis in the World Trade Center by say 3,000 (400 percent), there still should have still been 1,000 Israelis there at the time of the attacks. Again, even if only a few hundred Israelis were present at the time of the attack, only one Israeli death occurring there is statistically absurd. Either September 11 had to be a big Jewish holiday, or a number of Israeli citizens had some advance warning of the impending attack.

Prior Warning to Israelis

The next thing I researched was to see if there were any confirmed warnings to Israelis prior to the attack. I quickly found an article in Newsbytes, a news service of the Washington Post, titled "Instant Messages To Israel Warned of WTC attack." The Israeli daily, Ha'aretz, also confirmed the prior warnings to Israel and confirmed that the FBI is investigating the warnings? The articles detailed that an Israeli messaging firm, Odigo, with offices in both the World Trade Center and in Israel, received a number of warnings just two hours before the attack.

Instant Messages to Israel Warned of WTC Attack

Officials at instant-messaging firm Odigo confirmed today that two employees received text messages warning an attack on the World Trade Center two hours before terrorists crashed planes into the New York landmarks.

But Alex Diamandis, vice president of sales and marketing, confirmed that workers in Odigo's research and development and international sales office in Israel received a warning from another Odigo user approximately two hours prior to the first attack. (From the Washington Post's Newsbytes)

So now we have powerful and convincing evidence from impeccable sources that Israel had foreknowledge of the attack. First, without a prior warning, there could not have been only a single Israeli victim at the World Trade Center. Secondly there is clear confirmation that a company with offices in both Israel and the WTC received warnings immediately prior the attack.

Who would have warned Israelis of the impending attack if not Israel's Mossad? The fact that Israel's government had prior knowledge of the pending attack and had warned potential Israeli victims, but then deliberately let thousands of Americans die — makes the Israelis just as responsible for the carnage as the Arab attackers of the WTC.

What's good for Israel is bad for America

You can be sure that joy rose in the hearts of all Israeli terrorists as they witnessed the smoke plume from the twin towers. The FBI even arrested five Israelis on a rooftop nearby the twin towers, videotaping and cheering the entire event. They knew that American and world resistance to Israel's Supremacism and terrorism plummeted right along with the collapse of the towers of the World Trade Center. Perhaps the most telling statement was when a NY Times reporter questioned the former Israeli, Benjamin Netanyahu, a man every bit as radical as Ariel Sharon. Here are the words of the excited former Israeli Prime Minister:

Asked tonight what the attack meant for relations between the United States and Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu, I former prime minister replied, "It's very good." Then he edited himself: "Well, not very good, but it will generate immediate sympathy."

The World Trade Center Attack was obviously very good for Israel; In fact, Israel is the only nation who benefited from it. Israel's fifty-year record of unrelenting terrorism became completely overshadowed by the horror and the visual magnitude of this one spectacular terrorist attack. When the Jewish-dominated American media repeatedly showed a few, long-suffering Palestinians celebrating the attacks, Palestinians became unfairly painted as behind the Trade Center terror, even though every Palestinian organization condemned it, and not a single Palestinian was proven to be involved.

Of course, it was America that suffered most of all, with almost 5000 dead, a wrecked economy, and the worst restrictions against Constitutional liberties in American history. The Lavon Affair, the Attack on the Liberty, and the spying of Janet Pollard, and the murder of 5000 Americans on September 11th —were all good for Israel, but terribly bad for the United States.

When will America come to finally understand that what is good for the terrorist state of Israel is destructive and even' deadly for the United States of America?

When will we get the backbone to put a stop to the Israeli agents and American traitors who have orchestrated fifty years of support for Israeli terrorism and fifty years of treason against our own country?

My life is dedicated to a free, secure and sovereign America, an America dedicated to our own people and our own interests; not the criminal purposes of a foreign, terrorist nation.

Whatever the cost to me personally, I will continue to pursue that path.

I urge you to join with me. I beseech you not to purchase your security at the cost of your freedom and your honor.

Courageously share the information of this article with other Americans and the rest of the world. Let us tell the truth about the worst terrorist nation on earth: Israel. In doing so, you will help save not only the Palestinian people, but the lives freedom of the American people as well.

Zionists introduced terrorism: Mahathir

By Muhammad Ali Siddiqi
KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 24:

Prime Minister Mahathir Mohammad of Malaysia on Monday launched a strong attack on Israel and its backers, accused the Zionist movement of introducing terrorism to lands outside Europe, and said the Jewish militias had used terrorism to make Britain create the state of Israel.

Addressing the opening session of the 13th summit of the Non- Aligned Movement at the Putra World Trade Center, the Malaysian prime minister made a speech that could be the envy of Yasser Arafat in his heyday.

The speech was characterized by brilliance, by uninhibited criticism of Israeli terrorism and its western supporters and by references to the history of Christian persecution of the Jews for 2000 years.

There was, he said, "no systematic campaign of terror outside Europe until the Europeans and the Jews created a Jewish state out of Palestinian land."

Pointedly accusing the Zionist terror gangs Haganah and Irgun Zvai Leumi of terrorism, the Malaysian prime minister, who steps down in October, said these two terrorist militias were the first to use terrorism "to persuade the British to set up Israel."

Observers noted that the Malaysian prime minister did not refer to Nazi crimes alone — a usual Western technique to confine the persecution of Jews to the Germans alone. Instead, he accused Europeans of persecuting the Jews by declaring:

"The Israelis demanded European support to atone for European crimes against them in the past."

Tracing the history of terrorism in the Middle East, Mr. Mahathir Mohammad said the Palestinians were ejected from their "homes and country" and were forced to live in refugee camps for more than 50 years.

Their struggle to regain their land led first to "conventional wars, then civil protest and eventually violent demonstrations." In desperation, he said, the Palestinians resorted to "what is described as acts of terror."

The world rightly condemned the acts, he said, but it did not condemn as "acts of terror the more terrifying acts of the Israelis — the massacres in Sabra and Shatila, the shooting and killing of children, the use of depleted uranium-coated bullets, the bulldozing of Palestinian homes while the occupants are still in them, the helicopter gunships, etc. And Israel is now threatening to use nuclear weapons."

He condemned "these blatant double standards" and said if Iraq could be linked to Al Qaeda, "is it not more logical to link the expropriation of Palestinian land and the persecution and oppression of the Palestinians with September 11?"

Religious differences did not motivate those who attacked the World Trade Centre in New York, he said. Instead, "it is simply sympathy with and anger over the injustice and the oppression of the Palestinians, and Muslims everywhere" that led to these crimes.

What led to these attacks, he said, was support to "terrorism as practised by Israel and others." If Israeli terrorism was a response to Palestinian terrorism, then Palestinian terrorism and terror acts by their sympathizers must be due to the expulsion of Palestinians from their land, the further occupation of Palestinian territory and the open support for Israeli intransigence and terrorism by the Europeans."

He asked: "If the innocent who died in the attack on Afghanistan and those who have been dying from lack of food and medical care in Iraq are considered collaterals, are not the 3,000 who died in New York and the 200 in Bali also just collaterals whose deaths are necessary for the operations to succeed?"

Admitting that the world "is in a terrible mess," Mr Mahathir Mohammad said the international community must ask why this was so. "Why is there terrorism? How do we explain the pogroms, the inquisitions and the holocaust which characterized Christian Europe for almost 2000 years. Why did the Jews choose to seek haven in Muslim countries whenever Christian Europeans persecute them? Do people seek safety in the land of terrorists?"

The Christians too were terrorized, he said, "but not by Muslims but by fellow Christians who condemned them as heretics. They were persecuted, tortured, burnt at the stakes for their beliefs and forced to emigrate. It seems that the Muslims did not have a monopoly of terrorism, certainly not at the scale of the holocaust, the pogroms and the inquisition."

Criticizing UN sanctions against the Iraq, Mr Mahathir Mohammad said applying sanctions, denying access to medicine in order to force the acceptance of democracy were hardly democratic methods of achieving aims. Millions had died, he said, because "they have not converted to the new religion of democracy".

The Malaysian prime minister who on Monday took over as NAM chairman from South African President Thabo Mbeki, launched a frontal attack on globalization and said., "The capitalist free traders have ceased to show a friendly face, because they did not have to compete with the communist world. Their greed knows no bounds and they are not above cheating and corruption" What was the meaning of competition, he said, "if cannot win at all?"

There were "currency traders who destroyed the economies of half the world, threw tens of millions out of work, bankrupted banks and thousands of businesses, caused the collapse of governments and precipitated anarchy; all so that half a dozen individuals can make billions for themselves.

"Now the rich give no more aid. They do not lend either. And all the time the international agencies they control try to strangle the debt-laden poor countries which had been attacked by their greedy market manipulators." Globalization, the prime minister said must not be confined to the exploitation of the wealth of earth only. Globalization, he said, "must include the multilateral protection of countries threatened by war or hegemony."

He said NAM must strive to create a world where democracy is not confined to the internal governance of states only but to the governance of the world. We must work for the revival of the United Nations and multilateralism. We must work to modify the powers of the victors of a war fought half a century ago."

He said international lending agencies monitored human rights in a globalized world, then an agency "beholden" to the UN General Assembly should oversee the military budgets of all countries.

Mahathir's remarks about Jews anger West

All accused him of Anti-Semitism

Putrajaya, Oct 17: "The United States, Israel, the European Union and Australia all accused Malaysian Prime Minister Mahathir Mohammad of blatant Anti-Semitism on Friday, prompting him to fire back a charge of double standards.

The veteran leader, who retires on Oct 31 after 22 years in power, provoked an outcry with comments to a gathering of the 57 member Organization of the Islamic Conference.

He told delegates to sue for peace after decades of conflict with Israel, but laced a typically blunt speech with jibes about the influence of Jews over Western Powers.

"The Europeans killed six million Jews out of 12 million. But today the Jews rule this world by proxy," he said.

Israel's foreign ministry said in a statement that Mahathir's reference to the Holocaust was a "desecration of the memory of six million innocent victims of anti-Semitism".

"It is a shame that in the course of a speech ostensibly dedicated to solving problems in the Muslim world... Dr. Mahathir Mohammad could not restrain himself from resurrecting vile invectives, innuendoes and outright lies taken straight from classic anti-Semitic propaganda," the ministry said.

US State Department spokesman Adam Ereli condemned Mahathir's comments. "Let's be clear, the remarks were offensive. They are inflammatory and we view them with the contempt and derision they deserve."

"It's not the first time we've seen comments like this from that official... We will certainly make our views known," Ereli told reporters.

Mahathir Unapologetic

Mahathir was unapologetic when asked about the furore his comments had caused among Western critics.

"The fact is that they are biased, most of them are biased. They think while it is proper to criticize Muslims and Arabs, it is not proper to criticize Europeans and Jews." He told a news conference after closing the summit.

"If the Muslims can be accused of being terrorists, of course others can accuse the Jews of being terrorists also."

Australia's Prime Minister John Howard described Mahathir Mohammad's comments as "offensive" and "dangerous".

Italy, which holds the rotating European Union presidency, said it would ask the EU summit to condemn Mahathir's remarks formally.

"Europe profoundly deplores statements by the Malaysian prime minister in his opening speech to the Islamic conference in Malaysia," Italian Foreign Minister Franco Frattini told a news conference at the EU summit on Thursday.

In his opening speech, Mahathir, 78 told OIC delegates the Jewish people's global influence far outweighed their numbers.

"This tiny community have become a world power, We can not fight them through brawn alone. We must use our brains as well."

"Read the whole speech": Arab leaders said, "Mahathir was simply telling it like it is.

"I don't think they are anti-Semitic at all. I think he was stating the facts." Yemeni Foreign Minister Abubakr al Qirbi said.

"There are people wanting to create trouble, invent problems that do not exist," said Egyptian Foreign Minister Ahmed Maher.

"I would advise them to read the whole speech."

Malaysian Foreign Minister Syed Hamid said "most foreign media missed Mahathir's main point, that Muslims should make peace as they could not win the Palestinian conflict through violence.

"We do not agree with suicide bombing, and he has said this," the Malaysian minister said."

West is unaware of the fact that most Zionist are not true Semites

It appears from the aforesaid reaction of the west, on the remarks of Mahathir Mohammad about the Jews, that they are unaware of the fact that most of the Zionist, who are at the helm of affairs in Israel, are not true SEMITES. – Please see chapter 4 for details.

Mahathir shrugs off US criticism over remarks

Shrugging off US condemnation, Malaysian premier Mahathir Mohammed renewed his attack on "arrogant" Jews on Tuesday saying the reaction to his recent controversial comment confirms they do "control the world"

The veteran leader, who retires later this month, launched his latest salvo despite US president George W. Bush chiding him at a Pacific Rim summit here on Monday for his "wrong and divisive" charge that Jews rule the world.

In an interview with the Bangkok Post, Mahathir also criticised Western media who he said took his comments at last week's summit of the Organization of the Islamic Conference (OIC) in Malaysia out of context.

"In my speech I condemned all violence, even the suicide bombings and I told all Muslims it's about time we stopped all these things and paused to think and do something that is much more productive," he said.

"That was the whole tone of my speech, but they picked up one sentence where I said that the Jews control the world.

"Well, the reaction of the world shows they control the world."

The comments attracted a volley of international criticism led by Bush and Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon, who on Monday slammed the remarks as "slanderous".

However, Mahathir denied the white House's claims that the US leader "pulled him aside" to rebuke him during the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) meeting which concluded here on Tuesday.

"All he told me was: I regret having to use strong words against you. He did not rebuke me at all and after that, we were walking practically hand-in-hand," he said.

In his fresh broadside aired in the Bangkok post, Mahathir accused the West of double standards in its outrage over his comments.

"The Europeans and the Americans and others want to condemn me when, in fact, one chap said all muslims are terrorists. (Italian Prime Minister Silvio) Berlusconi himself made a statement that Muslims are terrorists.

"Did the European Union pass a resolution to say that this is against Muslims?" he asked "Why is it that when people condemn Muslims the European Union does not try to say anything?"

"Israel is a small country. There are not many Jews in the world. But they are so arrogant that they defy the whole world. Even if the United Nations say no, they go ahead. Why? Because they have the backing of all these people."

European Union leaders meeting for a summit in Brussels on Oct 17 attacked Mahathir's comments but the denunciation was made in a statement from the Italian presidency of the EU, and not in the conclusions of the summit.

French President Jacques Chirac was accused of having it blocked, which sparked a separate controversy.

Mathathir, known for his forthright style, told the Post that he believed his comments at the OIC summit were only partially reported by the Western media because "many newspapers are owned by Jews".

"Only their side of the picture is given now. The Muslims, we are pictured as terrorists, unreasonable people, unable to administer our countries, unable to develop our countries." He also had some words of advice for Bush on the way he is handling the war on terror, which dominated the APEC summit much, to the annoyance of Mahathir who believes the meeting should remain a trade and economic forum.

Asked in the interview whether Washington was capable of resolving the campaigns it had started, he replied: "Not in the way they are approaching conflicts.

"Using force to make people democratic, I think is wrong," he said.-

In support of Mahathir's bold and factual remarks, about the Jews, we quote below a famous stanza from a poem of Dr. Allama Iqbal, the poet of the East, which reads as under:-

افرنگ کی رگِ جاں پنجہ یہود میں ہے

(The jugular vein of the west is under the clutches of the Jews.)

If Mahathir's aforesaid remarks are anti-Semitic then what about the present contents of the Holy Bible and the remarks of Martin Lather? Are the Holy Bible and the founder of Protestantism anti-semitic?

Mahathir hit a raw nerve

SYDNEY: Malaysian Prime Minister Mahathir Mohammed's contention that Jews "rule this world by proxy" getting 'others to fight and die for them' has cannoned down the world's corridors of Power.

Mahathir, who resigns at the end of this month after 22 years in the job has been censured by the European Union, the United states, Israel and Australia.

Prime Minister John Howard, breaking a longstanding habit of not commenting on blasts from the iconoclastic and combative Mahathir, joined in a chorus accusing the Malaysian prime minister of trying to drive wedge between Jew and Muslims.

"It's offensive," Howard said. "Let me make it clear: any invocation of rivalry between Jews and Muslim is unhelpful."

As with their elected leaders, so with most Australians: Mahathir's tirade was declared out of order in letters to the press and in calls to talk radio.

A sampling of letters from the Australian, the country's only national daily reveals that Mahathir has struck a nerve.

"Dr Mahathir Mohammed's rhetoric reek of the same paranoia and victim complex that pervades much of the Muslim world," wrote Doron Berger. "His hateful and divisive word will inspire intolerance."

Others praised the feisty Mahathir' candour, his willingness to say out loud what others thinks in silence.

"There is one thing to be said for Dr Mahatir's shamefully anti-Semitic comments," wrote Jason Stokes. "He has said publicly what many leaders in the Muslim world believe privately."

But not all were outraged by what the 77-year-old leader told a gathering of Muslim Political leaders in Putrajaya. Some saw wisdom in last week's rhetoric. Others urged a closer reading of his actual words.

"Let's not rush to condemn Mahathir," wrote Chris Strakosch. "He said only what was obvious. A few million Jews have made enormous contributions to modern society, while the 1.3 billion Muslims, the glory of the world 1,000 years ago have done almost nothing."

Some, like Jessica Gosnell, blamed the press for focusing on the most controversial section of Mahathir's speech.

"He is calling on Muslims to desist from bloodshed as it achieves nothing except more hatred. He also exhorts Muslims to get back to the true faith and become, as before, great scientists, scholars, Physicians and astronomers. We should be extolling his message, not misinterpreting his words," she wrote.

The Tragedy of Lebanon

"The events in Lebanon showed the whole world that the crimes of Begin and his henchmen hardly differ from the atrocities perpetrated by the Nazis. The crimes of the Israeli military in Lebanon aroused the indignation of honest people in all the countries of the world — both Jews and the non-Jews. There were even mass demonstrations in Israel itself.

* In continuation with the article written by Mr. David Duke reproduced earlier please see the above Eleventh Chapter of the book, titled "The Cobweb — World — Wide Designs of Satan", edited and compiled by Khursheed Warsi whose first edition was published in 1991 and the fourth edition in 1993. Opinion of Rev. Father David of America about the book may be seen at the end of Appendix 1.

The aggressive and expansionist line of the Zionists can be seen more clearly and more distinctly today. Zionism surfaced at the end of the last century. The ideology of the World Zionist Organization, became the official doctrine of Israel who determined its aggressive policies in the Middle East. The Zionist's are the real sponsors of the wars of aggression and the genocide in Deir Yassin, Sabra and Shattila due to their pathological hatred not only against the Muslims but against all the 'Goyims' (non-Jews) of the world. Their aims are to rule the world by destroying all the religions and established governments of the world, firstly through their well Planned psychological war and secondly by military adventurism.

What is happening in Israel? In all these years of its existence millions of Jews from all over the world moved to this state. But about one third of them are reported to have left it — simply fled. What is this if it is not a new exodus"? The incredible growth of inflation in Israel is also one of the reasons prompting people to leave Israel. Other reasons include the atmospheric of chauvinistic Intoxication, the pressure or religious circles and, finally, the state of permanent war, when not one family know, which of its members will be lost during the next aggression. The Israeli parliament was discussing the question of sanctions against those who try to leave the country. I think this speaks more eloquently than any words about the Zionist myth.

Before the existence of Israel, the Zionist gave an Impression to the Jews of the world through their propaganda machinery that a Jewish state in the promised land of Palestine shall be a paradise on earth for them. But when they went there they found it quite different and against their expectations as a result of which most of them returned to the countries from where they had arrived.

The fact that the chauvinistic ideology of modern International Zionism and the criminal political practice by the ruling circles of Israel, constitute a repetition of raciest ideas and misanthropy of Nazis.

The Prime Minister of Greece, Andreas Papandreon, called Israel a fascist state and the London Magazine "Middle East International" believes the Israel regime to be akin to the dictatorial facist regimes in Latin America.

It is well known that voices are being heard, more often, in Israel itself which condemns the adventurist policy of the Israeli government. There are more than enough evidence showing that arrant Anti-Jews sentiments are flourishing in the United States itself. Indeed it is rapidly flourishing under the complete tolerance of the local authorities. Discrimination in employments, the existence of clubs to which Jews are barred entry, the burying and bombing of synagogues, the defilement of Jewish cemeteries, the daubing of swastika on houses where Jews live and the bashing of teenagers all this has become everyday way of life in America. As the newspaper "USA Today" testifies the number of anti-Jews demonstrations aimed against both individual citizens and Jewish organizations is growing day by day. The situation has reached to a point that school children in Massachusetts formed an organization of Americans who hate the Jews and the blacks.

During the invasion of Lebanon the Israel, military used barbaric weapons, such as the explosive devices which looked like toys. Even the Nazis did not think up of such devices. They were a barbaric "innovation" of Tel Aviv, whose victims were children, old men and women. Actually, Israel was at war with the civilian population of Lebanon and Palestinian refugees. The path of the aggressors in Lebanon was strewn with corpses of innocent men, women and children. I would like to recall the Israeli artillery's bombardment of West Beirut, the bloody slaughter in the Palestinian camps of Sabra and Shattila and the Israel, airforce bombing of Baalbek, which is. a barbaric act.

When the truth became known about what the aggressors were doing in Lebanon the world was horrified. The Second World War nightmares were revived in people's memories of Khatyn, Oradour, Treblinka, Oswiecim and Buchenwald. The world public reacted indignantly.

Several International Commissions were set up to investigate the crimes of the Israeli army in Lebanon and accounts and materials of the commissions' hearings were published. One of the International Commission of Inquiry into Israeli crimes was headed by a well known English lawyer and Queen's counsel, John Platts Mills. His report, in the form of a booklet, entitled "Accused of Crimes" was published in Moscow in 1983 in Russian, English and French. The second book was a report by the International Commission which was headed by the famous Irish politician Sean McBride, who holds the international Lenin prize for strengthening peace among the people and the Noble Peace Prize.

The action of the Israeli army against the Palestinians and Lebanese civilian population during military operations can only be defined as genocide. The mass extermination of the Palestinian Arabs in the Sabra and Shattila camps and the torture in the Ansar concentration camp will remain for ever in peoples memories as one of the most dreadful crimes against humanity.

The journalists, writers and publishers were condemning Zionism. The publication of several interesting books and collections, of documents was an evidence. One of them is "I Witness". It was published in London in 1983 and gives the material of 91 photographic correspondents. The photograph album "Cod Cried" by Tony Clifton and Catherine Leroy was also published there. The Japanese journalist R. Khirokava released a photograph album which has become a denunciatory document of colossal force exposing the crimes of Israel. It is entitled "From the Israeli Invasion to Murders in the Palestinian Camps of Sabra and Shattila" and was published in Tokyo in 1982.

In January 1984, a new book came out in Rome dedicated to the tragedy of Lebanon. It is entitled "Sabra and Shattila — Photographic Evidence of Genocide", (R. Napoleon publishers) and is based on rich factual material containing many photographs...

Since the atrocities perpetrated by the Zionists on the innocent civilians of Lebanon and Palestine are in accordance with their Protocols, it may be asserted that this notorious document is not a concocted one as claimed by the Zionist for their actions, the teachings contained in the Talmud and the events recorded in the history have proved its genuineness.

I reproduce here a few excerpts from their Protocol number one which will shed light on their policy of force, violence and cruelty aiming to bring all the established government of the world into subjection to their super-government whose establishment is the main objective of the Zionists game plan.

"23. Our countersign is — Force and Make-believe. Only force conquers in political affairs, especially if it be concealed in the talents essential to statesmen. Violence must be the principle, and cunning and make-believe the rule for governments which do not want to lay down their crowns at the feet of agents of some new power. This evil is the one and only means to attain the end, the good. Therefore we must not stop at bribery, deceit and treachery when they should serve towards the attainment of our end. In politics one must know how to seize the property of others without hesitation if by it we secure submission and sovereignty.

"24. Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right to replace the horrors of war by less noticeable and more satisfactory sentences of death, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State: not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty, for the sake of victory, we must keep to the programme of violence and make-believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves than by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection to our super-government. It is enough for them to know that we are too merciless for all disobedience to cease”.

In view of the above facts David Duke is justified to say that “Israel is the worst terrorist nation on earth and the support given to them by the USA administration tantamounts to treason against America.’

Israel — The Worst Terrorist Nation on Earth

At the end of this chapter we would like to repeat a few lines from the remarkable article of Mr. David Duke, reproduced earlier, as a concluding remark:

The World Trade Center Attack was obviously very good for Israel; in fact, Israel is the only nation who benefited from it. Israel’s fifty-year record of unrelenting terrorism became completely overshadowed by the horror and the visual magnitude of this one spectacular terrorist attack. When the Jewish-dominated American media repeatedly showed a few long suffering Palestinians celebrating the attacks, Palestinians became unfairly painted as behind the Trade Center terror, even though every Palestinian organization condemned it, and not a single Palestinian was proven to be involved.

Of course, It was America that suffered most of all, with almost 5000 dead, a wrecked economy, and the worst restrictions against constitutional liberties in American history. The Lavon Affair, the attack on the Liberty, and the spying of Jonathon Pollard, and the murder of 5000 Americans on September 11th — were all good for Israel, but terribly bad for the United States.

When will America come to finally understand that what is good for the terrorist state of Israel is destructive and even deadly for the United States of America?

When will we get the backbone to put a stop to the Israeli agents and American traitors who have orchestrated fifty years of support for Israeli terrorism and fifty years of treason against our own country?

My life is dedicated to a free, secure and sovereign America, an America dedicated to our own people and our own interests; not the criminal purposes of a foreign, terrorist nation.

Whatever the cost to me personally. I will continue to pursue that path.

I urge you to join with me. I beseech you not to purchase your security at the cost of your freedom and your honor.

Courageously share the information of this article with other Americans and the rest of the world. Let us tell the truth about the worst terrorist nation on earth: Israel. In doing so, you will help save not only the Palestinian people, but the lives and freedom of the American people as wells.

CHAPTER 4

Psychological War

Zionists Achille's Heel

(A few excerpts from the book "The Cobweb" written by Khursheed Warsi, pages 110 to 113)

"Knowledge and understanding of the Zionist psychological war is the greatest weapon in the armoury of non-Jews. If they keep a tab on the Zionist machination and wield the weapon of knowledge effectively, there is no reason why they cannot face the enemy on his own ground. It is a part of Zionist strategy to create an atmosphere of invincibility, a mighty halo around them, to terrorise non-Jews and keep them perpetually under threat of their might. The strategy is also meant to create a sense of defeatism, frustration and disillusionment among the non-Jews. The world is awed by Israel as a full-fledged nuclear power. The Arab states being non-nuclear have given up their military option against Israel and have occupied a position of permanent weakness. This complex of inferiority and fear has to be overcome first if the Arabs want their honour and their rights to be restored.

The Zionists are not super humans as they would like the world to believe. They also have the same weaknesses, the same frailties, and the same deficiencies as others have. In short they are also vulnerable if their weak points are thoroughly studied and understood. Then only can they be confronted with the same psychological weapons which they have been using against the non-Jews for long.

To explain the point in greater details we reproduce here some of the excerpts of "A Special Report by the Committee for Truth in History", UK edition 1979 published by the Historical Review Press, UK, under caption "Most Zionists are not true Semites":

Ant-Semitism – its reality

But this peculiar war of words rises to a final pitch of bewilderment in the fact that the people who angrily fling the epithet anti- Semite in all directions are definitely not racial Semites themselves. This includes the great majority of the Zionist Jews who have seized lands held for thousands of years by Arabs in Palestine, in order to form the modern Israel entity.

These so-called Jews are actually descendants of a Mongolian people from Central Asia, who adopted Judaism by conversion around 740 A.D. They have no lineal connexion with the Biblical Hebrews, and hence only a squatters' claim to the crossroads of the Near East thousands of miles from where they originated. The name of this oriental tribe is the Khazars and their history is extremely interesting. They are also known as Polish Jews or Russian Jews, and in Hebrew as Ashkenazim (from the Hebrew word for Germany). The descendants of the original Old Testament Jews of ancient Judea are called Sephardim or Spanish Jews and there has been over the years considerable ill feeling between these two sectors.¹

The Sephardics have always affected a social snobbery toward the Ashkenazim, but In approximately the past century and a half, the more forceful and numerous neo-Khazars have seized control of world Jewish affairs, largely through the financial activities of the Rothschilds and the half-dozen banking dynasties allied with them, in Europe and particularly in America. This is also the element that has provided the terrorist architects and present power structure of the Zionist seizure of Palestine.

Somehow, this extraordinary situation of the Semitic Palestinian people (i.e. Arabs) being overrun, slaughtered and finally driven out of their homeland by the non-Semitic "Russian Jew" Zionists of Khazar descent — who then trumpet to the world that opposers of this crime are "anti-Semitic" — begins to take on the proportions of a scenario in the contemporary "Theater of the Absurd."

The prominent Jewish writer, Arthur Koestler, grapples with this tragicomic affair in his 1976 study of "the Khazars entitled The Thirteenth Tribe. Pointing out that the large majority of surviving Jews in the world is of Eastern European — and thus perhaps mainly Khazar — origin," he correctly observes that this logically makes the term anit-Semitism void of meaning. With huge understatement, Koestler declares that "the story of the Khazar Empire, as it slowly emerges from the past, begins to look like the most cruel hoax which history has ever perpetrated." We would only quibble on one point: "the hoax was not perpetrated by history."

In the foregoing excerpts there is a notable sentence that reads:

"... there has been over the years considerable ill-feeling between these two sectors."

The existence of the two sectors among the Jews referred to above is also pointed out in the Holy Quran, Surah Al-Baqara (The Cow) in verse 83, when it says:

"And remember We took A covenant from the children of Israel (to this effect);
Worship none but God;
Treat with kindness
Your parents and kindred;
And orphans, and those in need;
Speak fair to the people;
Be steadfast in prayer;
And practice regular charity;
Then did ye turn back,
EXCEPT A FEW AMONG YOU,
And ye backslide (even now)."

The words "except a few, among you" are referred to the undefiled Jews at the time of revelation and the same may be said of those among the present day Jews who still live in Palestine with their distinct mode of dress, their culture, their way of life and their uprightness and who offer prayers regularly. There is no dispute whatsoever between these native Jews and the Arabs or the Muslims at large. Throughout the history, the Arabs or the Muslims never thought of evicting the local Jews living in Palestine or Syria. Friction started only when the European Jewish capitalists landed in Palestine and evicted the Arabs with the help of Britain and America to establish the state of Israel. This immigrant population included some crafty politicians whose credo has been that "politics is an art of governing mankind by deceiving them." Their way of governance applies not only to the world at large but also the native original Jews. Since the establishment of Israel, the local ethnic Jews have resented the heretical non-conformist ways of the immigrant Jews whose ideas have nothing to do with Judaism. These convert Jews from abroad are non-Semitic by race and are the founders of Zionism, the architects of the notorious Protocols and are responsible for the decadence of Judaism. It is the immigrant Jews, the rulers of Israel, who have enslaved the Biblical Hebrews, the residents of Palestine.

Although the Zionists have suppressed the local Jews effectively and have built a strong fortress around them, they are still not impregnable. There may be a "Trojan Horse" in the ranks of the native Jews who may one day rise to hit the Zionist's Achilles's heel, and set at rest all the conspiracies hatched by Zionist International Jewry."

An effective measure to meet the Zionist's Challenge

A T.V. Channel and a Radio Station may be established in any Muslim Country for launching a regular propaganda campaign on the basis of the aforesaid facts in order to pay the Zionists/illuminati in the same coin.

CHAPTER 5

The Solution

The article below, by author John le Carre, was published in The Times (London) on January 15, 2003.

The United States of America has Gone Mad

America has entered one of its periods of historical madness, but this is the worst I can remember: worse than McCarthyism, worse than the Bay of Pigs and in the long term potentially more disastrous than the Vietnam War. The reaction to 9/11, is beyond anything Osama bin Laden could have hoped for in his nastiest dreams. As in McCarthy times, the freedoms that have made America the envy of the world are being systematically eroded.

The combination of compliant US media and vested corporate interests is once more ensuring that a debate that should be ringing out in every town square is confined to the loftier columns of the East Coast press. The imminent war was planned years before bin Laden struck, but it was he who made it possible. Without bin Laden, the Bush junta would still be trying to explain such tricky matters as how it came to be elected in the first place; Enron; its shameless favouring of the already-too-rich; its reckless disregard for the world's poor, the ecology and a raft of unilaterally abrogated international treaties. They might also have to be telling us why they support Israel in its continuing disregard for UN resolutions.

But bin Laden conveniently swept all that under the carpet. The Bushies are riding high. Now 88 per cent of Americans want the war, we are told.

The US defence budget has been raised by another $60 billion to around $360 billion. A splendid new generation of nuclear weapons is in the pipeline, so we can all breathe easy. Quite what war 88 per cent of Americans think they are supporting is a lot less clear. A war for how long, please? At what cost in American lives? At what cost to the American taxpayer's pocket? At what cost – because most of those 88 per cent are thoroughly decent and humane people – in Iraqi lives?

How Bush and his junta succeeded in deflecting America's anger from bin Laden to Saddam Hussein is one of the great public relations conjuring tricks of history. But they swung it. A recent poll tells us that one in two Americans now believe Saddam was responsible for the attack on the World Trade Centre. But the American public is not merely being misled. It is being browbeaten and kept in a state of ignorance and fear. The carefully orchestrated neurosis should carry Bush and his fellow conspirators nicely into the next election. Those who are not with Mr. Bush are against him.

Worse, they are with the enemy. Which is odd, because I'm dead against Bush, but I would love to see Saddam's downfall – just not on Bush's terms and not by his methods. And not under the banner of such outrageous hypocrisy.

The religious cant that will send American troops into battle is perhaps the most sickening aspect of this surreal war-to-be. Bush has an arm-lock on God. And God has very particular political opinions. God appointed America to save the world in any way that suits America. God appointed Israel to be the nexus of America's Middle Eastern policy, and anyone who wants to mess with that idea is (a) anti-Semitic, (b) anti-American, (c) with the enemy, and (d) a terrorist. God also has pretty scary connections. In America, where all men are equal in His sight, if not in one another's, the Bush family numbers one President, one ex-president, one ex-head of the CIA, the Governor of Florida and the ex-Governor of Texas.

Care for a few pointers? George W. Bush, 1978-84: senior executive, Arbusto Energy/ Bush Exploration, an oil company; 1986-90: senior executive of the Harken oil company. Dick Cheney, 1995-2000 chief executive of the Halliurton oil company. Condoleezza Rice, 1991-2000: senior executive with the Chevron oil company, which named an oil tanker after her. And so on.

But none of these trifling associations affects the integrity of God's ever-democratic Kingdom of Kuwait to receive thanks for liberating them, somebody tried to kill him. The CIA believes that "somebody" was Saddam. Hence Bush Jr's cry: "That man tried to kill my Daddy." But it's still not personal, this war.

It's still necessary. It's still God's work. It's still about bringing freedom and democracy to oppressed Iraqi people. To be a member of the team you must also believe in Absolute Good and Absolute Evil, and Bush, with a lot of help from his friends, family and God, is there to tell us which is which. What Bush won't tell us is the truth about why we're going to war.

What is at stake is not an Axis of Evil – but oil, money and people's liberty granted.

Saddam's misfortune is to sit on the second biggest oilfield in the world.

Bush wants it, and who helps him get it will receive a piece of the cake.

And who doesn't, won't. If Saddam didn't have the oil, he could Torture his citizens to his heart's content. Other leaders do it every day – think Saudi Arabia, think Pakistan, think Turkey, think Syria, think Egypt. Baghdad represents no clear and present danger to its neighbours, and none to the US or Britain. Saddam's weapons of mass destruction, if he's still got them, will be peanuts by comparison with the stuff Israel or America could hurl at him at five minutes' notice. What is at stake is not an imminent military or terrorists threat, but the economic imperative of US growth. What is at stake is America's need to demonstrate its military power to all of us – to Europe and Russia and China, and poor mad little North Korea, as well as the Middle East; to show who rules America at home, and who is to be ruled by America abroad.

The most charitable interpretation of Tony Blair's Part in all this is that he believed that, by riding the tiger, he could steer it. He can't.

Instead, he gave it a phoney legitimacy, and a smooth voice. Now I fear, the same tiger has him penned into a corner, and he can't get out. It is utterly laughable that, at a time when Blair has talked himself against the ropes, neither of Britain's opposition leaders can lay a glove on him. But that's Britain's tragedy, as it is America's : as our Governments spin, lie and lose their credibility, the electorate simply shrugs and looks the other way.

Blair's best chance of personal survival must be that, at the eleventh hour, world protest and an improbably emboldened UN will force Bush to put his gun back in his holster unfired. But what happens when the world's greatest cowboy rides back into town without a tyrant's head to wave at the boys?

Blair's worst chance is that, with or without the UN, he will drag us into a war that, if the will to negotiate energetically had ever been there, could have been avoided; a war that has been no more democratically debated in Britain than it has in America or at the UN.

By doing so, Blair will have set back our relations with Europe and the Middle East for decades to come.

He will have helped to provoke unforeseeable retaliation, great domestic unrest, and regional chaos in the Middle East. Welcome to the party of the ethical foreign policy.

There is a middle way, but it's a tough one: Bush dives in without UN Approval and Blair stays on the bank. Goodbye to the special relationship.

I cringe when I hear my Prime Minister lend his head prefect's sophistries to this colonialist adventure. His very real anxieties about terror are shared by all sane men. What he can't explain is how he reconciles a global assault on al-Qaeda with a territorial assault on Iraq. We are in this war, if it takes place, to secure the fig leaf of our special relationship, to grab our share of the oil pot, and because, after all the public hand-holding in Washington and Camp David, Blair has to show up at the altar.

"But will we win, Daddy?"

"Off course, child. It will all be over while you're still in bed."

"Why?"

"Because otherwise Mr. Bush's voters will get terribly impatient and may decide not to vote for him."

"But will people be killed, Daddy?"

"Nobody you know, darling, Just foreign people."

"Can I watch it on television?"

"Only if Mr. Bush says you can."

"And afterwards, will everything be normal again? Nobody will do anything horrid any more?"

"Hush child, and go to sleep."

Last Friday a friend of mine in California drove to his local supermarket with a sticker on his car saying: "Peace is also Patriotic". It was gone by the time he'd finished shopping.

Madness Needs Psychological Treatment

The United States of America has gone mad!" Literally it means that President George Bush and his colleagues too who control America have gone mad. One may curiously ask who turned them mad? It's a common place to note that such a case generates sympathy and not hatred for the victim, and efforts are made to cure the disease. Let us be frank to say that the Zionist / Illuminatis are the source or all these ills. Let us see what can be done to put an end to this evil.

Since madness needs psychological treatment, we shall refer to its treatment here.

The times, London, is managed and run by the Zionists, but we note that it often bluntly criticises American policy in its articles and comments. They do so since they follow a double edged policy to suit their purpose. These Zionist money barons always believe in double dealing and they never speak out their intentions and policies clearly.

It is astonishing to note that the Zionist money barons keep equal contacts with both the warring parties as they have been doing since the American Civil War of 1861 – 65 till today. They do this to remain safe during the war from the attacks of both the warring parties.

What all this suggests is that these money barons work both for and against the situation so that they may benefit cent per cent under all circumstances.

In this present case one of their groups first aired the fumes of third world war violently, but there is yet another group which is working adversely and criticizing U.S.A. through its media for its war-mongering.

We would say that Muslims who wish to see U.S.A. involved in the third world war are playing the Zionist's game, whereas we wish that this war should not see the light at all. For this purpose our methodology is to enter into dialogue with America and for this purpose we have no two opinion to suggest the name of Mahathir Mohammad, Prime Minister of Malaysia and President NAM, who we think, is well qualified to plead the case of Muslim world boldly and well.

Let it be noted that if the aforesaid war starts, it shall destroy both the 'winner' and the 'defeated' and the surviving Zionist/ illuminates shall see their long cherished dream come true since they shall be (being fresh) in a position to establish their long cherished World Order by overcoming the two exhausted war-squads. Thus they will establish their cherished State of Israel all over the world.

Treatment of the aforesaid madness

In fact this book offers full treatment of the aforesaid madness, the following two question however, occur that are worth considering:

- 1) Shall president Bush be prepared to discuss this issue with us?
- 2) Supposing he does, shall we be able to win him over to our side?

We would say that reply to these two questions shall be in the affirmative due to the following reasons.

Let us see how the holy Quran guides us in this problem.

We first refer to the following verses of Ayats 102-3, Al-Baqra, which reads as under:-

102. And follow that which the devils falsely related against the kingdom of Solomon. Solomon disbelieved not; but the devils disbelieved, teaching mankind magic and that which was revealed to the two angels in Babel, Hirat and Marot. Nor did they (the two angles) teach it to anyone till they had said: We are only a temptation, therefore disbelieve not (in the guidance of Allah). And from these two (angels) people learn that by which they cause division between man and wife; but they injure thereby non-one save by Allah's leave. And they learn that which harmeth them and profiteth them not. And surely they do know that he who trafficketh therein will have no (happy) portion in the Hereafter; and surely evil is the price for which they sell their souls, if they but knew.

103. And if they had believed and kept from evil, a recompense from Allah would be better, if they only knew.

Let us see what the Holy Bible says in this respect?

In Revelation Chapter 18, Ayat 23, the Holy Bible says:

“..... FOR BY THY SORCERIES WERE ALL NATIONS DECEIVED.”

In view of the above facts, it is obvious that the aforesaid madness of president George Bush is caused by the magic of the Jews, while its full treatment is provided in chapters Al-Falaq (The Daybreak) and an-Nas (Mankind) of the Holy Quran, the early Meccan revelations to protect mankind from the spells of Jewish witchcraft till the dooms-day.

Hence, if we want President George Bush to give us a patient hearing and agree to our point of view we will have to get him cured first by the remedy provided by Allah, the Almighty, in the Holy Quran.

Conclusion

It needs no comments to assert that the Jews are the sole custodian of Print and the Electronic media which helps them twist the opinion of the West against the Muslim world and in this context, they have achieved brilliant success in building up a powerful front of lies against them. Things have come to such a pass that the Muslims cannot justify even their just stand. In this war of mind they are the top scorer

Under the circumstances, the Muslim have no alternative but to resort to psychological war to defend themselves and refute their false charges. How are we to cope with such a situation? The book in question deals with the procedure and methodology of our scheme and it's a two-point programme only.

- To write books and booklets about their intrigues.
- To arrange a dialogue with U.S.A. as representative of the West.

The necessary and effective substances, proofs and evidences needed for a dialogue with U.S.A. which leads the Western world today have been furnished in this book and we are also pretty certain that we shall succeed in bringing our point home to them. We wish to ascertain them (the (Christians) that their real enemy is the Jew who got Christ (peace be on him) hanged. This historical truth is reaffirmed by the present religious scripture and Talmud appendix 3 which treats the Jews as much the enemy of Christians today as were they during the life time of Jesus Christ (A.S.)

But the question here arises whether the Christian world is aware of the threats of their own survival? The book most certainly attempts to give answer to such and other similar questions. It contains valuable information about the Zionist designs against both the Muslim and the Christian world. It further unfolds the enemy's designs vis a vis the Muslim world and also the designs and ambitions of the Zionists whose principal target is the Muslim world but it is notable that the Christian West is being used for realizing their objectives. This typical American behaviour is, in fact under the influence of their Charm which they practise to turn U.S. against the Muslims. The Jews have always been seen addicted to practising charm since the time of king Soloman. History offers examples that the Christian leaders, rulers and Churches have more than often burnt the witches for practising sorcery.

Let it be noted that magic is a reality that cannot be denied. Mostly all the religions confirm it. The Jews are a well-known indicator of this crime against humanity. God has revealed two surahs An-Nas and Al Falaq to ward off all sorts of magic and spells. The man who goes to have a dialogue with the President may quietly recite these two surahs and repel the spells. Consequently the matter shall set right, and our point of view, suggestions, assertions shall become acceptable to the addressee. Let it be noted that spells and charms have always been practised by them since they came to this world.

On the ongoing economic warfare against the people of America, one of the reputed American authors Des Griffin has exposed how the money barons manipulated things to capture the American finance and economy. Des Griffin has written in his book "Descent Into Slavery" the following remarks:

"Digging deep into their bag of deceitful practices, the international bankers pulled off their greatest coup to date – the creation of the privately owned Federal Reserve System, which placed control of the finances of the United States securely in the hands of the power crazed money monopolists. Paul Warburg became the Fed's first Chairman. Des Griffin further adds: Through their front men C. Mandell House, the 'mysterious' son of one of Rothschild's agent in the South, Jacob Schiff, the top Rothschild front in the United States, and Berned Baach, Jewish Wall St. speculator, the Money Monopolists selected Wilson and financed his campaign for the presidency of the United States in 1912 ...

Through their puppet president, the Illuminati were able to push through Congress a couple of Acts that spelled disaster for the nation. On December 23rd, 1913, when many of the nations's lawmakers had left Washington for their Christmas vacations, they rammed through the nationally destructive and totally unconstitutional 'Federal' Reserve Act which placed our nation's money supply and credit firmly in the hands of those Rothschild controlled International Bankers. The Congressional Record shows that Congressman Charles Lindbergh described the newly created monstrosity as "the invisible government by the money power". Henry Cabot Lodge Sr. stated "the privately owned 'Fed' would submerge the nation in a flood of irredeemable paper currency." The same money power' also financed the campaign for the introduction of a graduated income tax. This Act was not designed to make the wealthy pay for the running of the country. It's specific purpose, as Ferdinand Lundberg points out in 'The Rich and the Super Rich' was for it to become "a siphon inserted into the pocket books of the general public" (p350).

With the passage of these two unconstitutional 'laws' in 1913, the way was cleared for the economic rape of the United States.

It is, therefore, suggested that the Federal Reserve Act be repealed and according to the advice of William Guy Carr, the issue of money and the control thereof be placed back in the hands of the Government to which it rightfully belongs.

It would not be out of place to mention here that during 1939 and 1983, some of the patriotic Congressmen introduced Bills in the Congress several times for the repeal of the Federal Reserve Act and to vest in the Government of the United States the full, absolute, complete and unconditional ownership of the twelve Federal Reserve Banks presently controlled by the Jewish financiers under the aforesaid Act, but the 2½% Jews, who have managed to occupy 10% seats of the Senate and 6% seats of the Congress, were so influential and powerful that all those Bills were not passed by the Congress, the Money Masters produced by Pataiek S. J. Carmack and Bill still (Monetary Reform Legislation p 94 – 133) which clearly shows the helplessness of the American people before a handful of Jewish Money Barons who are said to be the invisible Government of USA.

Despite the warnings, in 1913 President Wilson approved the Federal Reserve Act concentrating control of America's money in the few men who dominate this private corporation. A few years later he reflected:

"I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated Governments in the civilized world-no longer a Government by free opinion, no longer a Government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a Government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men." (descent into Slavery' P.301)

The Real War Aim in the Middle East

On 27th February in his much awaited policy speech on Iraq, President George W. Bush, defending the goal to bring democracy to the Islamic world said, "it was presumptuous and insulting to suggest that a whole region of the world or the one-fifth of humanity that is Muslim was somehow untouched by the most basic aspirations of life. Human cultures can be vastly different, yet the human heart desires the same good things everywhere on earth."

Constitution of U.S.A.: According to the constitution of U.S.A. interference of the state in the religious affairs of any nation is strictly prohibited. Since modern democracy of the West is totally against the tenets of Islam and tantamounts to infidelity, hence any attempt by America to introduce Western democracy in Muslim countries shall not only be illegal according to their constitution but also unjustified.

In view of the recent policy speech of President George W. Bush, it has now become necessary for us to explain the Islamic view on this issue. For this purpose we quote below a few excerpts from the book entitled 'Film Jinnah and Democracy' written by Khursheed Warsi that are comprehensive and relevant to the issue in question:

Secularism and Western Democracy: Secularism is interpreted as something unspiritual and godless, but its not so at all. The basic concept of this faith is: 'There's no God but the human' this philosophy of human worship reshapes itself politically into a democratic state and economically as a capitalistic system. In other words western democracy and capitalism are the reflections and expressions of human worship. The objective of the establishment of democracy is therefore an explanation and causation of the independence of man as creator of that system. In a western democratic system, it is the General Will which is supreme. The decisions of the General Will replace and cancel the Divine decrees. It is the General Will that decides what is good and what is evil, what is permissible and what is impermissible. Since the General Will changes with the passage of time, it cannot reconstruct any durable concept or system of morality. Consequently its social order turns into a nursery of debauchery. Human wishes and aspirations go out of bound and since there is no lasting criteria for judging or assessing the human wishes, the General Will remains an expression of individual will. In absence of a permanent criteria for assessing the human wishes, every individual opinion or wish has to be treated on par with that of the other and the objective of political activities gets confined to the acquisition of maximum satisfaction of the maximum people.

Search for independence is in fact search for rights. Human wishes get satisfied after getting their rights. A common man of a modern democratic state is the slave of his wishes. He is overwhelmed with lechery, rage and selfishness and he turns into a slave of selfishness. Consequently slavery of Allah and godliness vanish as democracy gains strength.

Thus an individual of a western democratic state determines increase of his wealth as a means for the satisfaction of his limitless wishes and aspirations. His social status and freedom increase with increase in his investment.

The capitalistic intellect which is an absolute madness overcomes the society and latter it comes to dominate the world. This capitalistic system takes away the human in man and turns him into a diabolical human who then begins to worship the Satan.

Let it be noted that the Christian interpretation of secularism is liberalism. There is no restraint on the limits of the means of acquiring it. But the Jews have adopted both i.e. capitalism and the western democracy as a means to achieve their ends. Promotion of capitalism and the democracy are a source of their dynastic superiority. They develop their systems of democracy and capitalism in a way that they may keep up the supremacy of their leadership i.e. Illuminati in both the economic and the political fields while at the same time upholding the propriety and justification of their acts and policies. For this end in view, they use all means to uphold modern democracy and they enjoy a superior position in America today on this account only.

The Cult of Western Democracy: In the West democracy has almost replaced the religions of the West and also of all other non-Muslims inhabiting the Globe. It is generally believed that democracy is a government of the people', 'for the people' and 'by the people'. It is nothing but a false fallacy.

It is generally believed that democracy is representative of the wishes and requirements of a great majority of people. If we impartially analyse it we see that it represents a very small but powerful section of the society. Let us analyse it.

Suppose there are four candidates in a certain constituency in which one gets 23%, votes the other three 24%, 25% and 28% respectively. In such a contest, the candidate getting only 28% votes of the total votes cast gets elected, whereas he does not represent the 72% who voted against him. How can such a government be regarded as government of the people, by the people and for the people when his actual activities are even confined to much less than the 28% people due to his selfishness, power and limited contacts and interests.

Such a system is cent per cent against the laws of Islam and the Divine Will.

'There is no law (command) but that of Allah' (Surah Yusuf Ayah 4) As regards the question of majority, Allah says:

If you will follow the majority, it shall turn you against Allah (Surah Al anam Ayah 116)

In the light of this Ayah, Western Democracy is heresy. Allama Dr. Iqbal criticises western democracy on the Quranic lines. He rejects the old Western System of democracy since it hides the voice of dictatorship in its system and the Giant of tyranny may be seen in action wearing the cloak of democracy. We have mistakenly taken the giant of tyranny as the sapphire fairy. Next he says:

“Western Democracy is a form of government in which people are simply counted and not adjudged.” (Film Jinnah and Democracy pp 27 to 29 and 42 to 44 by Khursheed Warsi)

Now we shall offer a comparative study of western democracy and the Islamic democracy from the book entitled “Constitution of an Islamic State” written by Khursheed Warsi:

- “Western Democracy is self-made human system of governance; whereas Islamic democracy introduces a system designed by the Divine will and based on the Book (the Holy Quran) and the Prophet’s (S.A.W) Sunnah.
- In western democracy the supreme authority rests in the General Will i.e. men, whereas Allah is the sole Authority in the Islamic state.
- In a western democratic system, the representatives of the people may pass any law; they may even declare the forbidden (Haram) as permissible (Halal); (as was done in U.K. in respect of SODOMY;) whereas in Islam not to talk of simple majority, even the whole nation of believers cannot enact a single ordinary law which is un-Islamic.

In western democracy, an atheist, a debauch, an ignorant and a least qualified man or even woman may get elected on the strength of wealth, influence, false propaganda and fowl means, and acquire power to make or unmake any law according to his whims and wishes. But on the other hand in an Islamic State, the first and the foremost condition for the candidate is Taqwah (Fear of Allah), and the ability. Next he is bound by Shura – the consultant assembly. According to the Article 62 of the present constitution of Pakistan and the decision of the Shariah court, a candidate must be a God fearing (Muttaqi) person i.e. who follows every command of Allah in all of his deeds.

Western Democracy looks after the human wishes and aspirations whereas Islamic democracy looks after the requirements and interests of man.

In western democracy power-seeking and efforts for its achievement are permissible, whereas it is forbidden in Islamic democracy (Surah Al Qasus Ayah 28).

In western democracy the political parties present their own manifesto of the election; whereas the Book and the Sunnah are the manifesto of an Islamic democracy.

Western Democracy gives birth to a capitalistic system and a secular society whereas, the God – fearing Muttaqi leadership introduces an Islamic society based on the Book and the Sunnah which results into mutual love, equality and trust.”

One must rethink how such a Western democracy can benefit the Muslim countries which Gerge W. Bush has decided to enforce on the gun point in the Muslim countries only.

In the concluding remarks we can't say anything better than quote the remarks of S. J. Carmack and his co-author Bill Still well-known scholars of the West on modern democracy.

"We must work to establish a just balance, and things are horribly out of balance right now, thanks to the corrupting influence of wealth, hiding under a candy coating of "democratic" government, which is easily manipulated by the "Money Changers" mass media. The apparent response of "Democratically" elected leaders to the will of the public is illusory. The reality is that modern democracies and the will of the people is carefully conditioned to conform to the will of the plutocrats." (The Money Masters P77. Published by Royatly Production Company, Box 114 Piedmont, OK 73078, U.S.A.)

Mr. George Bush, the President of U.S.A. the biggest democracy of the world, looks inclined to see western democracy prevail all the world over, particularly in the Muslim World. We wish he were to take notice of the remarks of two of his compatriots quoted just above about his covetous democracy and should better exempt the Muslim World at least from such a favour.

WOULD, THE LEADERS OF THE MUSLIM WORLD, WHO ARE IN FAVOUR OF WESTERN DEMOCRACY, ALSO THINK ABOUT IT?

Uncle Moses: Just a fencing bout ...
Uncle Sam: Fencing bout hell. This is a fight to a finish.

INTRODUCTION

By

Tariq Majeed

Commodore, PN (Retired)

The Zionist International Jewry (ZINJRY), whose front body is the World Zionist Organization, is the dictatorial central leadership that controls all the Jewish people in the world and uses them to advance the interests of the State of Israel and its own aims of global control. By operating secretly and deceptively over a period of centuries, the ZINJRY has come to control the major spheres of international power i.e. international finance, banking, communication and electronic and print media.

By a long-term strategy of infiltrating the organs of State, such as political institutions, legislature, executive administration, military judiciary, and educational centres, in the Western countries including the United States, Canada, Europe and the former Soviet Union, the ZINJRY has brought the local Jews to positions of power in these countries. Therefore, it has been in a position to make and execute such policies in these countries which were essentially in the ZINJRY's interest and against the national interest of these countries but because of the power wielded by the Jews, the masses in these countries could not oppose the policies. Besides, the ZINJRY has employed deceptive and misleading measures to camouflage the policies, and, at the same time, has kept the masses and the patriotic elite sectors in these countries embroiled in numerous hardships, conflicts, scandals, and economic and social diversions. So, the result is that the Zionist Jews have gone on consolidating their position while ruining the conditions within these countries.

It is the ZINJRY which had overthrown the monarchy in the Russian Empire in 1917 and, after creating immense destruction and bloodshed, had imposed Communist rule and established the State of Soviet Union. It is also the ZINJRY which about 75 years later, through methodical scheme, broke up the Soviet Union. Similarly it has broken up a number of other countries such as Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia. It is aiming to break up several other countries because that fits in with its bigger aims of creating a One World Super-government. One of its main targets is the United States of America.

Mr. Khursheed Warsi has come out with a timely warning to the American people to wake up to the danger that is fast engulfing them. The warning is, of course, also applicable to the rest of the world including the people of Pakistan. Did the soviet people realise the danger, when their State was nearing the point of disintegration? We cannot be sure of the answer.

However, the parallel current condition of the United States can give an indication of the answer. The United States is moving close toward its own point of disintegration as the title of Mr. Warsi's writing as well as some parts of the text also suggest. Yet, on observing the American scene, one does not see any clear sign that the American masses realise that their country is heading towards disintegration.

The reasons for this unawareness have in fact been indicated above. The Zionists would never allow such a writing as this one by Mr. Warsi to see the light of print in the United States or for that matter in Europe or in Russia. The American people even do not know that President Bill Clinton is surrounded, by Zionist Jews. The US Secretary of Defence, William Cohen, Secretary of State, Ms. Madeleine Albright, Secretary of Treasury, James Rubin, Attorney General, MS. Janet Reno, National Security Advisor, Samuel Berger, Director CIA, George Tenet are all Zionist Jews.

Mr. Warsi's booklet also contains a lot of other information which throws light on the cunning nature and schemes of the Zionist Jewry. However, the ZINJRY's Global Game is a highly complex and deceptive phenomenon. There are, as they say, wheels within wheels and snares around snares.

Creating a big conflict between Christians and Muslims in all countries around the world is another very sinister scheme of the ZINJRY. While the Muslims must take measures to prevent this conflict, they need not act apologetically. The fact is that the Christians are being more easily instigated by the Zionist propaganda against so-called fundamentalism, and thus are coming into the Zionist snares easily and indulging in hostility against Muslims. It is a commendable effort on the part of the sensible elements on both sides to undertake efforts to maintain peace and harmony between Christians and Muslims. Mr. Warsi has quite rightly also drawn attention to this very important matter.

The bitter reality is that the Muslims, Christians and the rest of the humanity have a common enemy the Zionist Jews, who are seeking to establish the satanic order in the world. This has to be realized by all the people so that they can form a joint front against the Zionist enemy. Mr. Khursheed Warsi deserves credit for drawing attention to this matter.

DISINTEGRATION OF USA IN OFFING

All the U. S. Presidents, from Trueman to Bill Clinton, have treated the Jews with empathy and catered to every whim of their leaders. The presidents did everything in their power to appease, please and pamper these privileged elite but stopped short of supporting their sinister plan to dismember the United States. Perhaps the Presidents conscience, sense of patriotism and their Christian faith held them back from betraying their own country and religion. Notwithstanding the favours, the Jewish peril has not abated. On the contrary it is assuming more dangerous dimensions day after day. Downsizing America has been on the cards for a very long time, and the Zionist leadership has not given up its efforts to break the United States into smaller units that could be taken care of by the Zionist/Illumination and dictated terms favourable to the money barons.

FIRST ATTEMPT TO DIVIDE THE USA

The first attempt to divide the United States had precipitated the American Civil War of 1861-65 between Northern States (known as the Union) and southern States (known as the Confederate States). Both were financed by the Jews. The southern states helped by the Jewish financiers wanted to secede on the issue of slavery and their rights. President Abraham Lincoln however smelled a rat and acted resolutely. He eventually managed to unite and save the country from falling apart. Immediately after the Civil War ended, Lincoln was assassinated in 1865 by a fanatic who was a half Jew according to Booth family biographer Stanley Kimmel who wrote the Mad Booths of Maryland.

Otto von Bismarck (a renowned statesman) and Chancellor of Germany at the time, had said "the division of the US into two federations of equal force was decided long before the Civil war by the high financial powers of Europe." These bankers were afraid that the US, if it remained as one nation, would attain economical and financial independence, which would upset their financial domination over the world. The bankers foresaw tremendous booty if they could substitute two feeble democracies indebted to the Jewish financiers instead of one vigorous republic, confident and self-providing. Abraham Lincoln perceived the machinations of the Jewish financiers, the Rothschilds, and decided to eliminate the international bankers by establishing a system of loans, allowing the states to borrow directly from the people without intermediaries by selling state bonds. By so doing he saved the country and the people. According to Bismarck the assassination of Abraham Lincoln was a great disaster for Christendom. Bismarck remarked "I fear the Jewish bankers will soon bring under their control the fabulous wealth of America and will use it to corrupt modern civilization. The Jews will not hesitate to plunge the whole of Christendom into wars and chaos in order that the earth should become the inheritance of Children of Israel."

Since the Jews in recent years acquired a commanding influence over the US Government and captured all the levers of power including the policy making organs, they find themselves in a better position to implement their cherished plan to disintegrate the United States which their elders had visualised for world domination. Today they effectively control the capital and through it, the economy of the country. They monopolize banking and finance, the basic trades and industry, besides the press and electronic media. Armaments, film and the hotel industry is their exclusive preserve. Most of the gambling and prostitution dens are owned by them. Patronising the underworld, the drug Mafia and the Yahoo culture, they have turned the American society upside down. The Jewish influence has eroded all the human and Christian values of life held dear by simple minded, hardworking, liberal and patriotic Americans.

THE FRANKLIN PROPHECY

The danger faced by the nation today was foreseen by the founding fathers and concerned Americans from time to time. Benjamin Franklin, one of the framers of the American constitution, was the first man to alert the people against the Jewish peril at the Philadelphia Constitution Convention in 1787. His thoughtful words uttered more than two hundred years ago have proved prophetic and his speech has come to be known as "Franklin Prophecy". It reads:

"I fully agree with General Washington, that we must protect this your nation from an insidious influence and impenetration. That menace, gentlemen, is the Jews.

In whatever country Jews have settled in any great number, they have lowered its moral tone; depreciated its commercial integrity; have segregated themselves and have not been assimilated; have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion upon which that nation is founded, by objecting to its restrictions; have built up a state within the state, and when opposed have tried to strangle the country to death financially, as in the case of Spain and Portugal.

For over 1700 years, the Jews have been bewailing their sad fate in that they have been exiled from their homeland, as they call Palestine. But, gentleman, if the world gives Palestine to them, they would at once find some reason for not returning. Why? Because they are vampires and vampires do not live on vampires. They cannot live only among themselves. They must subsist on Christians and other peoples not of their race.

If you do not exclude them from these United States, in this Constitution, in less than 200 years they will have swarmed here in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land and change our form of government, for which we Americans have shed our blood, given our lives, our substance and jeopardized our liberty.

If you do not exclude them, in less than 200 years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish them substance, while they will be in the counting houses rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude Jews for all time, your children will curse you in your graves.

Jews, gentlemen, are Asiatics, let them be born where they will or how many generations they are away from Asia, they will never be otherwise. Their ideas do not conform to an American's and will not even though they live among us ten generations. A leopard cannot change its spots. Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this Constitutional Convention"

Alarmed by the dangerous designs of the Jews and with a view to alert the American public against the Jewish conspiracy, an American industrialist Henry Ford I, founder of the Ford Motor Company published a book titled "The International Jew" in 1920, exposing the machinations of the Jews in the light of their "Protocols" – the Magna Charta of the world Jewry. The book caused quite a furore in America and the Jews violently reacted against Mr. Ford's daring. Later Mr. Ford, in an interview published in the 'New York World' on 17th February, 1921, said, "The only statement I care to make about the Protocols is that they fit in with what is going on ... They have fitted the world situation upto this time. They fit it now."

To check this evil Henry Ford I had suggested, "Get hold of 50 of the wealthiest Jewish financiers, the men who are interested in making wars for their own profit. Control them, and you will put an end to it all. (Cleveland News 20th September 1923)."

Henry Klein, a famous Jewish Lawyer of New York, writes in his book titled 'Zionism Rules the World' (1948), -- "The United Nations is Zionism. It is the super Government mentioned many times in the PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION, promulgated between 1897 and 1905."

In addition to the United Nations, innumerable organizations and Secret Societies are also working for the promotion of Zionism. Their method of operation is so modern and scientific that many intelligent persons from every walk of life are attracted to join them.

One of those secret organization is "Freemasonry" which is 100 percent a product of Jewish brains. All the members of this secret society are, consciously or unconsciously, working for the establishment of a Universal Jewish Government.

Jean Izoulet, a permanent member of the 'Jewish Israelite Alliance Universale, 'in' Parisla Capital Des Relgeons,'a French magazine, published from Paris, writes in 1931.

"The pith of the last century is that 300 wealthy jews, who are office-bearers of Freemasonry Lodges, are ruling over the entire world."

Recently a distinguished American Senator William Fulbright has said "The great majority of the Senate of the United States is completely in support of Israel, anything Israel wants. Israel controls the Senate".

As regards Israel's hold on the U. S. Congress and the Government, former Congressman Paul Findley writes in his famous book, "They Dare to Speak Out":

"Over the years the pro-Israel lobby has thoroughly penetrated the nation's governmental system and the organisation that has made the deepest impact is the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC), to whom even the President of the U. S. turns when he has any vexing political problem. It is no overstatement to say that AIPAC has effectively gained control of virtually all of Capitol Hill's actions on Middle East policy. Almost without exception, House and Senate members do its bidding, because most of them consider AIPAC to be the direct Capitol Hill representative of a political force that can make or break their chances at election time."

In spite of repeated warnings by some highly devoted and patriotic Americans, successive US Governments, all of them sub-servient to the war-mongering Jewish lobby, have kept the peace loving people of America involved in confrontations, conflicts and wars across the globe. With the ascendancy of the Jews in US politics and their hold on power, the US government's attitude towards other nations of the world has become belligerent, arrogant and chauvinistic. The government is playing a hegemonic role.

The world has taken note of the US Secretary of State * Madeleine Albright's bluster at the Ohio "town meeting" called to build public support for a military strike against Iraq. The Secretary declared, "We are the greatest country in the world. What we are doing is serving the role of the indispensable nation, to see what we can do to make the world safer for our children and grand children, and those people around the world who follow the rules. We are the indispensable nation. We stand tall: We see further into the future" Albright's assertions reflect Washington's hegemonic role.

The American people, peace loving by nature, however, do not share such bravado, bombast and boasting. The audience at the "Ohio town meeting" comprising 6000 university students, scholars and other citizens reacted against the government's Iraq policy by raising slogans like "WE DON'T WANT YOUR RACIST WAR". Some questioned America's moral right to bomb Iraq. The US Government doesn't realize that the people of America are always reluctant to get into foreign wars, prefer neutrality and loath shedding of blood, even the enemy's.

WHO ARE THE ILLUMINATI?

It's a remarkable concurrence of events that while the year 1776 witnessed the Declaration of Independence in America, an Order of Illuminati was formed in Europe the same year, dedicated to a counter ideal of the US: total world domination and the establishment of a "NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM" (New World Order).

Always Take!

"The day is not distant when all the riches and treasures of the earth will become the property of the children of Israel."

FOUNDATION OF THE ILLUMINATI (1776)

Out of Germany was hatched a diabolical plot which has deceived untold millions, and which at this present time threatens to destroy western civilization.

The order of the Illuminati was founded on May 1, 1776, by Dr. Adam Weishaupt, professor of Canon Law at Ingolstadt University, Bavaria. Weishaupt (born a Jew and a convert to Catholicism) was a former Jesuit priest who broke with that Order to form his own organisation. Weishaupt and his followers considered themselves to be the cream of the intelligentsia the select of the elect and the only people with the mental capacity, the insight and understanding to govern the world and bring it peace. Their avowed purpose and the goal was the establishment of a 'Novus Ordo seclorum' or New World Order.

The name Illuminati is derived from the word Lucifer, which means the Bearer of the Light or a being of extraordinary brilliance (Isaiah 14.12).

Sir Walter Scott, in the second volume of the Life of Napoleon Buonaparte, points out that the events leading up to the French Revolution were all created by the Money Barons – the Illuminati whose agents then led the mob in implementing the famous Reign of Terror. The initiates who made up the outer rings of the Order were told that the great purpose of the Illuminati was “to make of the human race, without any distinction of nation, condition or profession, one good and happy family”

All initiates were required to take an oath to bind themselves “to perpetual silence and unshakable loyalty and submission to the Order, in the person of my superiors; here making faithful and complete surrender of my private judgment, my own will, and every narrow-minded employment of y own power and am ready to serve it with my fortune, my honor and my blood"... (John Robinson, "Proofs of A Conspiracy", 1797 p 71)

Only at this stage (when he reached the inner circle) was he finally allowed to see the ultimate aims of the Order. (1) The abolition of all ordered governments; (2) Abolition of private property; (3) Abolition of inheritance; (4) Abolition of patriotism; (5) Abolition of all religions; (6) Abolition of family (i.e. morality, marriage, and the proper education of children); and (7) The creation of a New World Order or World Government.

Naturally, all members were never allowed to see the true goals of the Order. They were assured that the sole purpose for the society was to assure the happiness of the human race...

The Protestant princes and rulers of Germany were pleased with Weishaupt's plan to destroy the Catholic Church, and they sought to join the Order. These men brought with them control of the Masonic order, into which they initiated Weishaupt and his co-conspirators in 1777.

On July 16, 1782, at the Congress of Wilhelmsbad, an alliance between Illuminism and Freemasonry was finally sealed. This pact joined together all the leading secret societies of the day and united not less than three million members all over the world. (F.R. pp. 40-54)".

The question may well be asked "How can it be proved that these secret meetings were held?" and "If they were held how is it possible to prove what matters were discussed at such meetings?" The answer is simple. The devilish plot was made known by 'An Act of God'.

AN ACT OF GOD

A German author named Zwack put Weishaupt's revised version of the age-old conspiracy into book form and named it "Einige Original Scripten". In 1784 a copy of this document was sent to the Illuminists Weishaupt had delegated to foment the French revolution. The courier was struck dead by lightning as he rode through Ratisbon on his way from Frankfurt to Paris. The Police found the subversive documents on his body and turned them over to the proper government authorities.

After careful study of the plot the Bavarian Government ordered the police to raid Weishaupt's newly organized lodges of the Grand Orient and the homes of some of his most influential associates, including the castle of Baron Bassus-in-Sandersdorf. Additional evidence thus obtained convinced the authorities the documents were a genuine copy of a conspiracy by which the Synagogue of Satan, who controlled the Illuminati AT THE TOP, planned to use wars and revolutions to bring about the establishment of one kind or another of a One World Government, the powers of which they intended to usurp as soon as it was established.

In 1785, the Bavarian Government outlawed the Illuminati and closed the lodges of the Grand Orient. In 1786, they published the details of the conspiracy. The English title is "The Original Writings of The Order and Sect of The Illuminati." Copies of the conspiracy were sent to the heads of church and state. The power of the Illuminati was so great that this warning was ignored, as were the warnings Christ had given to the world (pp XI-XII, 'Pawns In the Game')

ILLUMINATI PLAN FOR WORLD DOMINATION (1871)

Lest anyone be inclined to doubt the connection between the plans drawn up by the Illuminati in the nineteenth century and the chain reaction of wars in the twentieth, I submit the following passage in Mr. Griffin's "Descent Into Slavery" for scrutiny:

Having consolidated their financial grip on most of the European nations by the middle of the last century, the International Bankers worked feverishly to extend their sphere of influence to the ends of the earth...

In the decades that followed it became apparent that, in order to achieve their goal of world domination, they would have to instigate a series of world wars which would result in the leveling of the old world order in preparation for the construction of the New World Order. This plan was outlined in graphic detail by Albert Pike, the Sovereign Grand Commander of the ancient and accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry and the top Illuminist in America, in a letter to Giuseppe Mazzini dated August 15, 1871. Pike stated that the first world war was to be fomented in order to destroy Czarist Russia – and to place that vast land under the direct control of Illuminati agents. Russia was then to be used as a "bogy man" to further the aims of the Illuminati worldwide.

World War II was to be fomented through manipulation of the differences that existed between the German nationalists and the Political Zionists. This was to result in an expansion of Russian influence and the establishment of the state of Israel in Palestine.

The Third War was planned to result from the differences stirred up by Illuminati agents between the Zionists and the Arabs. The conflict was planned to spread worldwide. The Illuminati, said the letter, planned to 'un-leash the Nihilists and Atheists' and provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, the origin of savagery and of the most bloody of turmoils. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass [direction], anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view, a manifestation which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time (DS?, pp-38-9).

To give the reader an indication of Pike's theological and philosophical "principles", I give below an extract from his most well-known work, Morals and Dogma (1871), and an extract from his instructions to the 23 Supreme Councils of the world on Bastille Day, 1889: (Cited in FR, PP.69-70.)

"Force regulated or irregular, is not only wasted in the void like that of gunpowder burned in the open air, and steam unconfined by science; but striking in the dark, and its blows meeting only the air, they recoil and bruise itself. It is destruction and ruin ... not growth and progress...

The blind force of the people is a Force that must be economized, and also managed, ... It must be regulated by intellect.

To attack the citadels built up on all sides against the human race by superstitions, despotisms, and prejudices, the force must have a brain and a law. Then its deeds of daring produce permanent results, and there is real progress. Then there are sublime conquests... When all Forces are combined, and guided by the Intellect [the Illuminated ones!], and regulated by the Rule of Right, and Justice, and of combined and systematic movement and effort, the great revolution prepared for by the ages will begin to march... It is because Force is ill regulated, that revolutions prove failures". (Morals and Dogma, pp.1-2).

THE THEOLOGICAL DOGMA OF THE ILLUMINATI

"That which we say to the crowd is: We worship a God, but it is the God one adores without superstitions," To you, Sovereign Grand Instructors General, we say this, that you may repeat it to the Brethren of the 32nd, 31st and 30th degrees: The Masonic religion should be, by all of us initiates of the high degrees, maintained in the purity of the Luciferian doctrine.

Yes, Lucifer is God, and unfortunately Adonay is also God. For the eternal law there is no light without shade, no beauty without ugliness, no white without black, for the absolute can only exist as two Gods: darkness being necessary for light to serve as its foil, as the pedestal is necessary to the statue, and the brake to the locomotive.

The doctrine of Satanism is heresy; and the true and pure philosophic religion is the belief of Lucifer, the equal of Adonay; but Lucifer, God of Light and God of Good is struggling for humanity against Adonay, the God of Darkness and Evil." (Le Femme et l'enfant dans la Franc-Maçonnerie Universelle, by A. C. De La Rive, p. 588, and Lady Queen-borough, Occult Theocracy, pp. 220-1, FR, pp. 69-70).

According to a report published in the "Jewish World", on December 14, 1922, the Jew remains a Jew though he changes his religion a Christian which would adopt the Jewish religion would not become a Jew because the quality of a Jew is not in the religion but in the RACE. A Free-thinker and Athiest always remains a Jew." Hence an Illuminati is also a Jew provided he belongs to the Semitic Race.

The insignia of the Illuminati, i.e. a pyramid having a radiating eye at it's top was placed on the American one dollar bill by the Roosevelt Administration in the nineteen thirties. This insignia was adopted by Weishaupt at the time he founded the Order of the Illuminati on May 1, 1776. It was that event that is memorialized by the "MDCCLXXVI" at the base of the pyramid and not the date of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, as the uniformed have supposed. This insignia acquired Masonic significance only after the merger of that Order with the Order of the Illuminati at the Congress of Wilhelmsbad, in 1782." (P 4, 'The New World Order & The Throne of the Anti-Christ' edited by Robert O' Driscoll and Margarita Ivanoff-Dubrowsky, published in Canada on 19 February, 1993).

"The significance of the design is as follows: the pyramid represents the conspiracy for destruction of the Catholic (Universal Christian) Church, and establishment of a "One World," or UN dictatorship, the "secret" of the Order, the eye radiating in all directions, is the "all-spying eye" that symbolizes the terroristic, Gestapo-like, espionage agency that Weishaupt set up under the name of "Insinuating Brethren, to guard the "secret" of the Order and to terrorize the populace into acceptance of its rule.

This organization had its first workout in the Reign of Terror of the French Revolution, which it was instrumental in organizing. It is a source of amazement that the electorate tolerates the continuance of use of this insignia as part of the Great Seal of the U. S."

"ANNUIT COEPTIS" means "our enterprise (conspiracy) has been crowned with success. 'Below, "NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM" explains the nature of the enterprise: and it means "a New Social Order", or "New Deal."

"In fact this seal proclaims to the One Worlders that the entire power of the US government is now controlled by the Illuminati's agentur and is persuaded or forced to adopt policies which further the secret plans of the conspirators to undermine and destroy it together with the remaining governments of the so-called 'Free World and all existing religions, etc., etc., so that the Synagogue of Satan will be able to usurp the powers of the first world government to be established and then impose a Luciferian totalitarian dictatorship upon what remains of the Human Race.

MODUS OPERANDI FOR WORLD DOMINATION:

URBAN RENEWAL & THEATRES OF WAR

In what Mr. Griffin writes below, we see very clearly the Hegelian principles of thesis, antithesis, and synthesis. He states:

The methods used by the International Bankers in their bid to enslave mankind under the shackles of a totalitarian One World Government may be categorized as 'urban renewal' projects which take place in theatres of war.

The basic principle of 'urban renewal' is easy to understand. It involves the leveling of an area that has been condemned by the authorities, and the construction of a new development to take its place.

If a 'developer' is to make a financial killing on an urban renewal project, it is necessary for him to get the authorities to condemn the property in a given area. He then waits until the area deteriorates still further, and the value of the property drops so low that the owners are willing to unload their holdings for a fraction of their real worth just to get them off their hands.

In a local community urban renewal program, the 'leveling' job is carried out by a demolition crew employing bulldozers, wrecking balls, pneumatic hammers and, occasionally, explosives.

From the ruins of the blighted area arises a gleaming new, modern development that is extremely profitable for the backstage manipulators who own a big 'piece of the action.'

On the International level, 'urban renewal' projects involve the destruction of the 'old order' in a variety of countries, to prepare the way for the New World Order.

To make a killing on 'urban renewal' projects internationally, it is necessary for the 'developers' to send in demolition crews at no cost to themselves, and have them level the prime portions of the target areas, so that these may be picked up inexpensively when the countries are defeated and inundated with war debts.

Internationally, these demolition 'jobs' are engineered and brought to fruition by means of war. The programs are carried out by the use of bombs, shells, high explosives and other modern 'tools'. The international 'developers' then step in to seize control of the blighted areas for a pittance, and launch massive redevelopment projects without having paid a cent for the use of the demolition crews. The profits on such international projects are so astronomical that they boggle the mind!

The highly-financed and immensely-profitable 'urban renewal' projects that have taken place on the international scene since the beginning of this century have been staged in theatres of war. Over the last eighty years 'theatres of war' have existed in Europe, Russia, North and Central Africa, the Middle East, Asia and in the Pacific. (DS?, pp 53-4)

In the discussion above Des Griffin has referred to mass destruction in war zones, The urban renewal thereafter is taken up by the international developers, that is the Illuminati, who are in fact international bankers and financiers. It may be added that the second advantage to the Illuminati, the warmongers, is refurbishment of their armament industry which they monopolise all over the world. By supplying arms to both the warring parties, they make fabulous profits. This economic warfare has turned the Illuminati dream into the present day nightmare. A recent Associated press of America (APA) news report published in the Gulf News of Dubai, UAE, dated August 12, 1993 said "In a widening stream that keeps assembly lines rolling from Omsk (Russia) to Oklahoma (USA) weapons exporters have shipped or agreed to ship more than $ 50 billion in heavy armaments to the region of the Middle East in the three years since Iraq invaded Kuwait.

The third and by far the most important advantage the Illuminati conspire to draw from war-mongering, is what the Protocols of the Elders of Zion had set their sight on in Protocol No. 1, paras 24 and 26, which states as follows:

PROTOCOLS

"24. Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right TO REPLACE THE HORRORS OF WAR BY LESS NOTICEABLE AND MORE SATISFACTORY SENTENCES OF DEATH, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just, but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State: not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty. For the sake of victory, we must keep to the programme of violence and make-believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves than by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection to our super government. It is enough for them to know that we are too merciless for all disobedience to cease."

"26. In all corners of the earth the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity" brought to our ranks, thanks to our blind agents, whole legions who bore our banners with enthusiasm. And all the time these words were canker-worms at work boring into the well-being of the goyim, PUTTING AN END EVERYWHERE TO PEACE, QUIET, SOLIDARITY AND DESTROYING ALL THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE GOYA-STATE. As you will see later, this helped us to our triumph: it gave us the possibility, among other things, of getting into our hands the master card- the destruction of the privileges, or in other words of the very existence of the aristocracy of the goyim, that class which was the only defence peoples and countries had against us. On the ruins of the eternal and genealogical aristocracy of the goyim we have set up the aristocracy of our educated class headed by the aristocracy we have established in wealth, which is dependent upon us, and in knowledge, for which our learned elders provide the motive force."

Now I reproduce below a few excerpts from the book "The Talmud Unmasked, written by Rev. I.B Pranaitis which corroborate in part the above referred Protocols.

In Zohar (1.25a) it says:

"The people of the Earth are idolaters, and it has been written about them: LET THEM BE WIPED OFF THE FACE OF THE EARTH. Destroy the memory of the Amalekites. They are with us still in this Fourth Captivity, namely the Princes [of Rome]... who are really Amalekites". (P 80).

In Sepher or Israel (177b) it says:

"TAKE THE LIFE TO THE KLIPHOTH AND KILL THEM, and you will please God the same as one who offers incense to Him." (P 82).

And in Lalkut Sinoni (245c.n.772) it says:

"EVERYONE WHO SHEDS THE BLOOD OF THE IMPIOUS IS AS ACCEPTABLE TO GOD AS HE WHO OFFERS A SACRIFICE TO GOD" (P 83).

This is evident that the authors of the Protocols were not only inspired but were, in fact, acting on the teaching of the Talmud. In the light of the above references, it is now conclusively proved that the Protocols that came to surface in 1906 were a blueprint prepared by the Elders of Zion to conquer the world by dividing mankind into factions and annihilate them one by one to establish the Illuminati's suzerainty and despotic rule of Satanic forces on the basis of the teachings contained in the Talmud.

A comparative study of the Talmud and the Protocols of the Elders of Zion reveals that the majority of precepts contained in the Protocols are in line with the religious edicts of Talmud, the so called commentary on 'Torah'. This identity between the two is a proof, if a proof is required, to confirm that the Protocols are a genuine and authentic document. To claim that this document was fabricated to malign the Jewish/Illuminati holds no water and cannot confuse or misguide the people.

I would like to point out here that the contents of the Talmud, reproduced by Rev. I. B. Pranaitis in his most authentic work 'The Talmud Unmasked', confirm that it is the brain child of the devotees of Satan, later named by Dr. Adam Weishaupt as Illuminati, the present day protagonists of the CONTINUING LUCIFERIAN CONSPIRACY. Their strategy is to wage a relentless economic warfare to enslave mankind and ultimately conquer the world by peaceful means.

IS DEBT A MENACE?

There is a loud cry from many people, in the USA especially from social reformers of many kinds, about the rising debt of the Government. May we ask, is this situation of the Government having a debt of 375 billion dollars a disadvantage to the country?

We are sure that there is a wide-spread misunderstanding in this matter. Debt can ruin a business and also a nation. In the case of the U.S. national debt the people as tax payers have to pay the bill in the form of appr. 6-1/2 billion dollars of interest every year as long as the debt is in existence.

The same people who scoff at the government's debt fail to see the debt of business enterprises. Business has to pay an annual interest of not less than 150 billion dollars upon its debt. The people pay this 150 billion in the prices of the commodities and services.

What we want to emphasize is this: Debt ordinarily is not a menace to a business or a nation. It is the Interest the people have to pay for it that makes debt a menace.

A debt without payment of interest loses its dreadfulness and changes from a menace into a benefit for the debtor.

If credit is interest-free, debt of the government would cease to be a menace. The government could then have a debt of many thousand billion dollars without a tax burden to the tax payers. All credit to governments and businesses is then returned as depreciation without interest. This is a moral, justifiable and human economic condition." (Reproduced from an article published in 1956 in the Magazine 'The Answer', a Free-Economy Publication, California, USA.)

DISINTEGRATION OF USSR

The present day directors of the New World Order, the international money barons, pick up stooges of their choice in the targeted country and use them to destabilise that country and, if need be, to disintegrate it. Recently they found in Mikhail Gorbachov, General Secretary of the Soviet Communist Party (CPSU) and later Soviet President, such a person who agreed to preach the Illuminati doctrine of market economy, wide ranging economic reforms and economic restructuring. Gorbachov called this openness "Glasnost" and restructuring "Perestroika". He radically changed the style of Soviet system of government. He wrote a book named "Prestroika" and was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1990. Thtransition from years's old central planning to open market economy created confusion and chaos in the country. Gorbachov tried to pacify the people but failed. There was an attempted coup against his Government. The angered states finally decided to come out of the Union and fifteen of them declared independence. A former superpower collapsed like a house of cards. All this happened in the name of freedom, democracy and need for higher standards of living. After the removal of price control, there was shortages of food and consumer goods. The restructuring of commerce, industry and military sectors fuelled protests. In the resultant chaos the Jewish flagship IMF (International Monetary Fund) entered the beleaguered country with a package of large loans in August 1992, and a month later in September, the USA offered one billion dollars in food aid.

The Jewish conspiracy to disintegrate the Soviet Union was confirmed by the first Prime Minister of Israel, David Ben Gurion, who said in an interview published in the American magazine "Life" on 16th January 1962:

"I can visualise the world as it would be 25 years from now, that is 1987; the cold war would come to an end in 1987; the masses and the classes in the Soviet Union will exert so much pressure for a higher standard of living that the Soviet Union will collapse".

Was Ben Gurion a prophet who could predict the shape of things to come after 25 years? The fact is that it was a well planned Jewish conspiracy and was discreetly carried out.

There was a great deal of excitement in the US over the dis-integration of the Soviet Union. The people were told their enemy was vanquished. A new dawn of peace and prosperity had emerged. Terms like the New World Order and the Sole Superpower came into circulation giving the impression that the USA was now set to rule the world unchallenged.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE MUSLIM COUNTRIES

Before the euphoria died down, the wily Jewish lobby found another enemy in Islam to keep the Americans emotionally involved. The Jewish owned mass media unleashed a vicious campaign against the Muslim countries and singled out Iraq, Iran and Libya, accusing them of being fundamentalist, terrorist and rogue states. Soon after the demise of communism in Russia, the US Government was goaded by the Jewish lobby to invade Iraq with the deadliest weapons of mass destruction. Iraq was considered a threat to the security of Israel. The adventure failed to dislodge Saddam Hussain, the popular Iraqi president. The US again threatened to bomb Iraq in March 1998 for its refusal to allow UN monitors to inspect the sites suspected of producing weapons of mass destruction. This time the US failed to muster world support. A majority of nations, including three of the five permanent members of the UN Security Council, among them China, Russia and France, did not support aggression against Iraq. Even the US's Arab friends this time refused to allow the US forces the use of their territory against an Arab neighbor.

The Jew as a Physician

"I get my money first."

" Make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christians' lives."

(Signed) Prince of the Jews of Constantinople in 1492 to Chemor, Chief Rabbi of Spain, La Silva Curiosa (1608) page 157.

"Certainly no other religion in the world has offered the world a spectacle as contradictory as malicious, as full of the unreasonableness as Jewish recital of the prayer Kol Nidre during Yom Kippur." Says Samuel Roth, a Jew, in his book "Jews Must Live".

GROWING HOLD OF THE ZIONISTS OVER THE U.S.ADMINISTRATION

The growing hold of the Zionist lobby over the US administration and increased pampering of Israel has turned America into a bully terrorising smaller countries around the world. The resurgence of the United States and its rise to that of the sole superpower, is being viewed by much of the world with anxiety and irritation. The German news magazine 'Spiegel' recently wrote, "Never before in modern history has a country dominated the earth so totally as the United States does today. American idols and icons are shaping the world from Kathmandu to Kinshasha, from Cairo to Caracas. Globalisation now wears a "Made in USA" lable. Washington seems to have abandoned its self doubts from the Vietnam trauma, and is flexing its muscles obtrusively. The arrogant behaviour of the US administration is not acceptable to the international community, and countries, large and small are reacting by snubbing the US high handed policies".

Consequently there is a spirit of defiance developing in the world to counter the US unprincipled policies. Recently the South African president Nelson Mandela on his visit to Libya ridiculed and rebuffed Washington's attempt to impose its dictatorial views on other states. He said, "How can they have the arrogance to dictate to us where we should go or which countries should be our friends? Qaddafi is my friend. He supported us when we were alone, when those who tried to prevent my visit here today were our enemies. They have no morals. We cannot accept that a state assumes the role of the world's policeman."

The fifteen nation-European Union has been outraged by the US efforts to impose unilateral sanctions on countries that trade with Washington's self-declared pariah states. The European officials consider US laws that debar trading with Cuba, Libya and Iran as intolerable forms of American imperialism because they seek to extend the reach of US laws to foreign nations. Europe is also allergic to the dominating role of the US dollar. The European Union's drive to create a single continental currency is also motivated by the desire to develop a counterweight to dollar.

THE DEADLIEST ENEMIES OF A NATION

No country can claim to be invincible on the basis of its military might alone. "Even victors are by victories undone" as John Dryden the English poet had said long ago. Great empires have disappeared in the black hole of history. There is no threat bigger than that posed by the internal enemy. The great American philosopher William James has said, "The deadliest enemies of nations are not their foreign foes; they always dwell within their own borders."

And who are these deadliest enemies dwelling within the US borders. Obviously the Zionist/Illuminati, the money barons, the privileged elite, who rule the US and aspire to rule the world with the help of the American people and their resources. BUT AMERICA IS TOO BIG A COUNTRY TO CONTROL INDEFINITELY. IF THE GIANT WAKES UP, IT MIGHT SMASH ALL THE JEWISH PLANS AND PROJECTIONS. SO, THE MONOLITH MUST BE BROKEN INTO SEVERAL SMALL UNITS TO FACILITAT MANAGEMENT.

ONE HAS TO KEEP IN MIND THE JEWISH FAITH EMBODIED IN THEIR RELIGIOUS SCRIPTURE, THE TALMUD, AND THE 'PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION', A POLITICAL MANIFESTO OF THE ZIONISTS.

BOTH THE DOCUMENTS ENJOIN UPON THE JEWS AS AN OBLIGATION TO DESTROY ALL THE GOYIM OR NON-JEWISH STATES AND ALL THE GREAT RELIGIONS IN ORDER TO RULE THE WORLD. They have already dismembered the Soviet Union, fortified Israel and have laid siege to the oil-rich Muslim countries of the Arab Gulf. Emboldened and confident, they can now turn to USA for the final round.

SECESSION FEVER AND THE USA?

Work on the demolition project appears to have begun in right earnest. An article in the daily 'Baltimore Sun' captioned "Secession fever and the United States" has set the ball rolling. Jointly written by Thomas H. Nyler, professor emeritus of economics and William H. Willimon, dean of the Chapel at Duke University, the article comments:

"Brilliant though the drafters of the American constitution may have been, they could not have anticipated the size and diversity of the United States today. We have created an unworkable meganation that defies central management and control. The time has come to begin planning the national downsizing of America. States such as Alaska, Hawaii, Oregon and Vermont, should be allowed to secede. Big cities like New York and Los Angeles should have the right to break up or become independent city states". The article concludes:

"If Palestine could be divided into a Jewish state and an Arab state, why can't African, Hispanic and Native American states be carved out of "the United States? Just as a nation or a state has the right to form, so too does it have a right to disband, sub-divide itself or secede from a larger Unit,"

Although there is absolutely no sign of secession fever in the United States, the Zionist owned media has begun planting contumacious ideas in the public mind to confuse and incite people to break away from the Centre.

TYRANNY OF USURY

Protocol No. 20, a device to conquer the world by peaceful means.

“30. What also indeed is, in substance, a loan especially a foreign loan? A loan is an issue of a government bill of exchange containing a percentage obligation commensurate to the sum of the loan capital. If the loan bears a charge of 5 per cent, then in twenty years the State vainly pays away in interest a sum equal to the borrowed, in forty it is paying a double sum, in sixty- treble, and all the while the debt remains as unpaid debt.

31. From this calculation it is obvious that with any form of taxation per head the State is baling out the last coppers of the poor taxpayers in order to settle accounts with wealthy foreigners, from whom it has borrowed money instead of collecting these coppers for its own needs without the additional interest.

32. So long as loans were internal the goyim only shuffled their money from the pockets of the poor to those of the rich, but when we bought up the necessary person in order to transfer loans into the external sphere all the wealth of States flowed into our cash-boxes and all the goyim began to pay us the tribute of subjects.”

A careful analysis of the salient points of the above Protocols, clearly focuses on the net result of the financial devices and practices – “all the wealth of States flowed into our cash-boxes and all the goyim began to pay us the tribute of subjects.” However, it may be noted that the above Protocol apparently seeks to promise the ultimate victory of Zionism and the subjugation of the non-Jewish world. But it becomes quite evident that Zionism is used to promote the evil designs of its real authors, the Illuminati as devotees of Lucifer (Satan), whose real mission is to destroy all established revealed religions—Judaism, Christianity and Islam and establish the Luciferian Creed, the rule of the Devil, all over the world, with the help of their agentur.

REMEDIES AND SOLUTIONS

Great leaders and reformers from Jesus Christ, who was crucified by the Jews, to present day, have not only identified the Jewish conspiracy but also suggested solutions to deal with it. The well known Canadian scholar William Guy Carr, inspired by the teachings of the Holy Bible, writes in his book "Pawns in the Game":

"He (Christ) identified the Money Changers (bankers), the Scribes and the Pharisees as the 'Illuminati' of his days. What so many people seem to forget is the fact that Christ came on earth to release us from the bonds of Satan with which we were being bound tighter and tighter as the years rolled by. CHRIST GAVE US THE SOLUTION TO OUR PROBLEM WHEN HE TOLD US WE MUST GO FORTH AND TEACH THE TRUTH REGARDING THIS CONSPIRACY TO ALL PEOPLE OF ALL NATIONS. (John 8:31: 59) He promised that if we did this, knowledge of the truth would set us free (Matt 28:19). THE LUCIFERIAN CONSPIRACY HAS DEVELOPED UNTIL IT IS IN ITS SEMI FINAL STAGE (MATT 24:15:34), SIMPLY BECAUSE WE HAVE FAILED TO PUT THE MANDATE CHRIST GAVE US INTO EFFECT."

A solution by Martin Luther (1483-1546), one of the giants of history, an outstanding theologian and founder of the Protestant Church, focussed on the character and characteristics of the Jews. He suggested:

"The sun never did shine on a more blood-thirsty and revengeful people as the Jews who imagine to be the people of God, and who desire to and think they must murder and crush the heathen... Their breath stinks for the gold and silver of the heathen, since no people under the sun always have been, still are, and always will remain more avaricious than they, as can be noticed from their cursed usury. They also find comfort in believing that "when Messiah comes, he shall take all the gold and silver in the world and distribute it among the Jews."... Therefore know, my dear Christians, that next to the Devil, you have no more bitter, more poisonous, more vehement an enemy than a real Jew, who earnestly desires to be a Jew."

"A person who does not know the Devil, might wonder why they are so at enmity with the Christians above all others, for which they have no reason, since we only do good to them. They live among us in our homes, under our protection, use land and highways, market and streets. Princes and governments sit by, snore and have their maws open, let the Jews take from their purse and chest, steal and rob whatever they will. That is, they permit themselves and their subjects to be abused and sucked dry and reduced to beggars with their own money, through the usury of the Jews. For the Jews, as foreigners, certainly should have nothing from us, and what they have certainly must be ours. They do not work, do not earn anything from us, neither do we donate or give it to them. Yet they have our money and goods and are lords in our land where they are supposed to be in exile." ... "Now what are we going to do with these rejected, condemned Jewish people. Let us apply the ordinary wisdom of other nations like France, Spain, Bohemia, etc., who made them give an account of what they had stolen through usury, and divided it evenly, but expelled them from their country. For as heard before, God's wrath is so great over them that through soft mercy they only become more wicked, through hard treatment, however only a little better. Therefore, away with them."

(Excerpts from the book "Anti-Zion, compiled by William Grimstad, pages 86 to 89).

PROPOSAL FOR THE REPEAL OF FEDERAL RESERVE ACT

On the ongoing economic warfare against the people of America, one of the reputed American authors Des Griffin has exposed how the money barons manipulated things to capture the American finance and economy. Des Griffin has written in his book "Descent Into Slavery" the following:

"Digging deep into their bag of deceitful practices, the international bankers pulled off their greatest coup to date- the creation of the privately owned Federal Reserve System, which placed control of the finances of the United States securely in the hands of the power crazed money monopolists. Paul Warburg became the Fed's first Chairman. Des Griffin further adds: Through their front men C. Mandell House, the 'mysterious' son of one of Rothschild's agent in the South, Jacob Schiff, the top Rothschild front in the United States, and Bernard Barach, Jewish Wall St. speculator, the Money Monopolists selected Wilson and financed his campaign for the presidency of the United States in 1912....

Through their puppet president, the Illuminati were able to push through Congress a couple of Acts that spelled disaster for the nation. On December 23rd, 1913, when many of the nation's lawmakers had left Washington for their Christmas vacations, they rammed through the nationally destructive and totally unconstitutional 'Federal' Reserve Act which placed our nation's money supply and credit firmly in the hands of those Rothschild controlled International Bankers. The Congressional Record shows that Congressman Charles Lindbergh described the newly created monstrosity as "the invisible government by the money power". Henry Cabot Lodge Sr. stated "the privately owned 'Fed' would submerge the nation in a flood of irredeemable paper currency." The same money power' also financed the campaign for the introduction of a graduated income tax. This Act was not designed to make the wealthy pay for the running of the country. It's specific purpose, as Ferdinand Lundberg points out in 'The Rich and the Super Rich' was for it to become "a siphon inserted into the pocket books of the general public" (p 350)

With the passage of these two unconstitutional 'laws' in 1913, the way was cleared for the economic rape of the United States.

It is, therefore, suggested that the Federal Reserve Act be repealed and according to the advice of William Guy Carr, the issue of money and the control thereof be placed back in the hands of the Government to which it rightfully belongs.

It would not be out of place to mention here that during 1939 and 1983, some of the patriotic Congressmen introduced Bills in the Congress several times for the repeal of the Federal Reserve Act and to vest in the Government of the United States the full, absolute, complete and unconditional ownership of the twelve Federal Reserve Banks presently controlled by the Jewish financiers under the aforesaid Act. But the 2% Jews, who have managed to occupy 10% seats of the Senate and 6% seats of the Congress, were so influential and powerful that all those Bills were not passed by the Congress, which clearly shows the helplessness of the American people before a handful of Jewish money Barons who are said to be the invisible Government of the USA.

FAR REACHING MEASURES TO MEET THE ILLUMINATI'S CHALLENGE

William Guy Carr, in his famous book "Pawns in the Game", has suggested some far reaching measures to meet the Illuminati's challenge which are quoted below:

"A. DEMAND MONETARY REFORMS: Because selfishness and greed, and the desire for power, are the roots from which all evils grow, it is only logical that constitutional means be instituted to take away the wealth, and curb the powers of the leaders of all atheistic-materialistic groups who in the first place, usurped it from the governments of the people. This being the truth the tax-payers have a legal right to demand that their elected governments redress the wrongs committed against them; PUT AN END TO ALL FORMS OF USURY; and reimburse their treasury departments to the extent of loans floated during the last century to fight wars fomented to further the interests of those who loaned the money and charged interest on these loans. If this advice is followed the proletariat will have restored true democracy.

B. MONETARY CONTROLS: The electors must insist that the issue of money, and the control thereof, be placed back in the hands of the government to which it rightfully belongs. By government is meant the top level executive body chosen from the elected representative because of their qualifications to conduct the affairs of the nation in an efficient and business like manner, basing their decisions on justice and Christian charity.

C. PUNITIVE ACTION: The electorate can justifiably demand that heavy penalties be imposed on all those found guilty of corruption and graft because these two evil practices are the principal means used by the agents of all revolutionary organizations to subvert or force others into doing their will. ALL SUBVERSIVE ORGANISATIONS MUST BE OUTLAWED and all people, proved to be members, must be made liable to punishment provided by the law. Those who advocate the violent overthrow of constitutional government do so in order that they may usurp wealth and power without having to work for it. Their punishment should therefore consist of performing manual labour and/or public services. Their hours should be extended 25 percent below the rates. The period of their detention should be decided by the way they improve from their negative attitude towards society and religion.

D. DIPLOMATIC NEGOTIATIONS: Because the agents of the international conspiracy always work behind the scenes of government, and always use SECRET meetings and diplomacy to further their own plans and ambitions, secret negotiations should not be allowed under any circumstances. If government is to be 'of the people, by the people, for the people', then the people have every right to know every detail of what is going on."

"E. ACTION: There is no time to lose. In reading this book you have faced the challenge and your response to the action outlined, undertaken with a strong faith in God, will determine the future of humanity and bring about the overthrow of the forces of evil which plot to destroy our Christian democratic way of life. The task is not beyond our capabilities. We must remember that the devil's important nucleus of evil in this world at the present time is centered in no more than three hundred master-minds.

Almighty God had provided the human race all that we need to live. He provided for our comforts and reasonable pleasures. It is our duty to see that members of the human race share equally in the bounties and blessings provided by Almighty God. There should never be a time when the granaries of the western world are bursting at the seams, while the people of the Far East are dying by the millions from starvation. We must share freely and generously with others what we have above our own requirements, because it is certain WE CANNOT TAKE ANYTHING WITH US WHEN WE DIE." (pp. 179-182)"

REACTION OF THE RELIGIOUS ORGANISATIONS

According to a news item published in the American daily 'News Day' and reproduced by the Urdu daily 'Nawai Waqt' on 19th May 1996, the devout Christian clergymen are incensed by the Jewish plan to rule the world, and they are holding the US government responsible for this growing menace. Among the angered clergy Pat Robertson and his lieutenant Ralph Reed are in the vanguard of the movement. In their fiery rhetoric, they are targeting the Jewish lobby and the US government for corrupting American society. They have blamed the Federal Government for negligence and letting down the Christian majority, leaving them at the mercy of the Jews.

Another religious organisation 'Christian Nationalist Crusade' of Los Angeles, California, led by a dedicated clergy man Gerald L. K. Smith, recently published an open letter to Congress asking Congressmen not to let the Zionists seduce Americans into a third world war over the Arab-Israeli dispute in the Middle East. If the Jews succeed in pressurising the Congress, Gerald Smith wrote, "We will go down in history as the criminals of modern civilization." He warned, "If the United States government allows itself to be tyrannized by the Jewish lobby, it is likely to release a world-wide avalanche of catastrophic anti-semitism, like of which humanity has never known, with no barriers left or right."

THE FINAL AND EFFECTIVE SOLUTION

The final and effective solution of the world-wide problem, created by a handful of ambitious and over-zealous Zionist/Illuminati, contemplating a global hegemony for themselves, lies in cooperation, harmony and inter-action of the two great religions – Islam and Christianity.

In this context, I would like to inform our readers that a Muslim-Christian dialogue, for the first time in the history of Pakistan, was held at Multan between the 19th and 24th October, 1992, which was inaugurated by the then ambassador of the Vatican in Pakistan and conducted by Rev. Dr. Archie de Souza, Professor of Islamology, Christ the King Seminary, Karachi.

This conference was attended by some of the most eminent Muslim and Christian scholars from all over the world, who held very pertinent and useful discussions on unity and interaction between the two great religions of the world, and read their invaluable papers on the subject of "Working together for harmony in God's world".

By the grace of God, this conference turned out to be very successful and laid the foundation of Muslim-Christian unity in Pakistan. But unfortunately it could not get proper coverage in the local press nor in the electronic media.

In order to keep the record of this historic event upto date, I have reproduced a group photograph of its participants and a copy of my paper, read in this conference. I hope that it would provide some food for thought to our Christian brethren living abroad, who were deprived of the news of this conference by the foreign press and electronic media, mostly owned or controlled by the Zionist/Illuminati.

On the right side of the Ambassador of Vatican is standing Professor Dr. M. Ayoub of Temple University, Philadelphia, (in black suit) and on the left side is the writer of this article.

THE PAPER, READ BY MR. KHURSHEED WARSII, CHAIRMAN, PLUS INTERNATIONAL, IN THE AFORESAID CONFERENCE.

"If we want to promote harmony in God's world, we will have to go out in God's world to achieve this objective. Here, in this room, we can only discuss and plan our strategies, on scientific lines, to face the evil designs of Satan, Lucifer, who is disrupting the harmony in God's world since so long. One of the delegates of this conference has rightly said that "Harmony cannot be promoted without conflict."

We will have to find out here the common areas of our co-operation. Additionally, we will have to avoid controversial religious issues, as far as possible, if we really want to work together for promoting harmony between the two great religions of the world.

I have pointed out the areas of cooperation in the manifesto of PLUS International already handed over to all the delegates of this conference. The word PLUS is an abbreviation of Peace, Love, Unity and Service of mankind irrespective of religion, caste, colour and creed. The Muslim members of this newly formed organisation have agreed to work together with our Christian brothers for promoting harmony and materialising the resolutions to be passed in this conference as well as the resolutions passed in the conferences held in the past on this subject. Now they are looking forward to the cooperation of their Christian brethren.

It may be pointed out that PLUS International is not against any religion. On the contrary, it is formed to protect all the religions of the world from the evil designs of Lucifer, Satan, and his devotees. It is, of course, against the Satanic forces, the traitors against the Kingdom of God, who are spreading immoralities, materialism, atheism, disruption and discord and thus they are destroying the harmony in God's world.

I know that our task is not easy but if we really want to promote harmony in God's world we will have to do it. Discussion on religious points may be alright but it would be futile if we don't take practical steps in this direction. Frankly speaking it would be a waste of time, energy and money if we don't take practical steps in this connection.

In view of the objectives of our organization, I can only say to my Christian brother 'Be a good Christian' and to a Muslim brother 'Be a good Muslim'.

I hope that the delegates of this conference would consider the aforesaid points and take necessary actions in this respect."

Now I reproduce here an excerpt from an article, by Clearance Rufin, published in the English daily "Dawn" on 12-04-1998, under the caption, "A Pakistani Making History in Britain" about an outstanding personality of modern time, the Right Rev. Michael Nazir Ali, the 106th Bishop of Rochester, England.

Although, he is a Protestant clergyman yet he has strongly supported and corroborated the views of his Catholic counterpart in respect of unity and interaction between Islam and Christianity. He says:

"That interaction between Christianity and Islam has continued and continues today. But can this interaction lead to harmony among the two groups? Yes. When the first Muslims were experiencing persecution from pagans they fled to a Christian country which we now call Ethiopia. It was called Abyssinia at the time. And they were received with great hospitality there. The constitution of Madina gave freedom to people of different religions to live together in harmony and the Prophet himself had a regular dialogue with the Christians of Arabia, in places like Najran. And for centuries in different parts of the world Christians and Muslims have lived peacefully together and there's no reason why they should not do so again, provided people lay aside fanaticism and intolerance."

CONCLUSION

In accordance with a pre-conceived plan of the Zionist/Illuminati, visualized in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, both the Communists and Muslims had to be destroyed with the help of the US [~]armed might.

These hurdles removed, downsizing of the US will be a formality. The great country would be cut to size by the Zionists by arraying one state against the other in the name of freedom and democracy. The people will get involved in parochial matters more than national and international issues. Even civil war conditions may be created by the wily Illuminati to achieve their objective. WHAT IS HOLDING BACK THE ZIONISTS FROM PLUNGING INTO THE VENTURE, IS THE MUSLIM RESISTANCE AND CONFRONTATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST. THE BALANCE OF POWER IS, THEREFORE, INEVITABLE FOR THE SURVIVAL OF THE US. HISTORY IS THE BEST GUIDE TO MEET THE CHALLENGE. THE LESSON OF THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR IS A BEAKON LIGHT.

WOULD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THINK ABOUT IT?

OPINION OF REV. FATHER DAVID OF USA ABOUT THE BOOK ENTITLED
"THE COBWEB-WORLD-WIDE DESIGNS OF SATAN."

JANUARY 18, 1994

Dear Mr. Warsi

Greetings, and we hope that this letter finds you well and in good health. Please know that our prayers are with you as you enter this new year, that it will be a year of health and prosperity, and that you will be especially successful in your writing endeavors. We won't make this letter long, but we wanted to pass something on to you that we believe you will find very encouraging.

Some time ago we sent your books to Father David as he was very interested in the topics you were writing about, and as you know he also has written a great deal of material along similar lines. A short while ago he published a lecture that was circulated within the membership of our communities with comment about some events taking place in the world today in which he referred to your writings. Following are some of the remarks he made and shared with our Family worldwide after reading through your books :

"I have been reading a book called "THE COBWEB" which is a real blast at the jews !The author is a Pakistani, and he uses the Jew's own quotations, all the terrible things they've said about what they are going to do to the World and to the Gentiles. It is all right there in their own writing-he gives the quotes and reference, the work! You can't expose the jews much more then by quoting what they have to say!"

"The author even describes how one newspaper in London came out with some of this stuff and it immediately went out of business. The Jews control the money, so they put that newspaper out of business. That is the way they work

"This book shows how the Jews work and what they really think and what they really say about the non-Jews. It shows you all about how they work and their set-up and their organization. It is really an expose of the Jews and how they are determined to climb their way to control of the World. He quotes them speaking frankly about their "king of the earth ", how he is going to be the king of the Jews, their universal king ,etc.-- And you know who that is, The Antichrist, right! " (see Revelations 13).

As you can see, Father David was not only impressed with your work, but realizes the faith, vision and initiative it took for you to write and publish this factual material. We do hope, Mr. Warsi, that this is an encouragement to you, and want you to know that our prayers are with you for continued strength and courage in all you do.

Sincerely Yours,

Mr. Asaph and Mr. Richard
For The Family.

Decorating the Street Corner

"Most of them (Jews) remain on the street corners of their neighbourhoods and become the petty thieves, , hold-up men, strike-breakers, backstore craps shooters, street corner mashers and petty racketeers, of every peaceful community in America." Writes Samuel Roth (a Jew) in his book "Jews Must Live".

By

Alhaj Syed Khursheed Ali Warsi

The following review on this book by Rais Amrohawi, the famous poet, a literary critic and journalist was published in the Daily Jang of Karachi on 3rd. February, 1984:-

"Sayyid Khurshid Ali Warsi the author of this book, which is at once instructive, insight-giving and a souvenir worthy of admiration, deserves the same spiritual reward which the holy warriors receive (from God) by sacrificing their lives while fighting against the infidels. It may be said that the anxiety and grief which Sayyid Khurshid Ali's soul feels at the sad events related by him in his book can easily be felt by a reader while going through this book.

The author of this book duly deserves thankfulness of the whole Muslim world at this achievement."

The study of this book offers full information to those who wish to know the aims and objects of the "IDARA-I-ITTEHAD-I-UMMAH."

OPINIONS OF A FEW INTELLECTUALS OF USA REGARDING THE JEWS, REPRODUCED FROM THE BOOK 'ANTIZION'

FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN. 18th C. American statesman. Franklin had gone to Holland to dicker with the Jewish international banking firm of De Neufville on a loan to the United States. He was aghast when he learned that a certain modest collateral was expected in return: the entire thirteen states themselves, plus a stiff annual commission on all trade and internal exchange:

I think that keeping us out of the possession of fifty thousands of pounds sterling worth of goods for securing the payment of a demand for damages is not only dishonorable treatment but a monstrous injustice. It seems to me that it is principally with Johann Neufviile of Amsterdam, Holland, that we have to do; and although I believe him to be as much a Jew as any in Jerusalem, I did not expect that, with so many such constant professions of friendship for the U.S. with which he loads all his letters, he would attempt to enforce his demands by a proceeding so abominable. His proposition of terms on which he would borrow money for us stamped his character on my mind with an impression so deep that it is not yet effaced. (Letter from Passy, France, to President John Adams, November 26, 1781. Cited by A. Smythe, The Writings of Benjamin Franklin.)

Franklin's letter to Adams on December 14, 1791, observes that such traits date back to the swindling of Esau by Jacob and the Israelites' treatment of the Canaanites. John Bigelow (Works of Benjamin Franklin) reproduces Franklin's poem on Benedict Arnold. It is replete with references to Arnold's intimate association with such Jews as David Sholesbury Franks.

THE FRANKLIN PROPHECY

I fully agree with General Washington, that we must protect this young nation from an insidious influence and impenetration. That menace, gentlemen, is the Jews.

In whatever country Jews have settled in any great number, they have lowered its moral tone; depreciated its commercial integrity; have segregated themselves and have not been assimilated; have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion upon which that nation is founded, by objecting to its restrictions; have built up a state within the state; and when opposed have tried to strangle that country to death financially, as in the case of Spain and Portugal.

For over 1,700 years, the Jews have been bewailing their sad fate in that they have been exiled from their homeland, as they call Palestine. But, gentlemen, did the world give it to them in fee simple, they would at once find some reason for not returning. Why? Because they are vampires, and vampires do not live on vampires. They cannot live only among themselves. They must subsist on Christians and other peoples not of their race.

If you do not exclude them from these United States, in this Constitution, in less than 200 years they will have swarmed here in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land and change our form of government, for which we Americans have shed our blood, given our lives, our substance and jeopardized our liberty.

If you do not exclude them, in less than 200 years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish them substance, while they will be in the counting houses rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude Jews for all time, your children will curse you in your graves.

Jews, gentlemen, are Asiatics, let them be born where they will or how many generations they are away from Asia, they will never be otherwise. Their ideas do not conform to an American's, and will not even though they live among us ten generations. A leopard cannot change its spots. Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance. and should be excluded by this Constitutional Convention.

NEW YORK CITY POLICE GAZETTE. An article in 1862 said:

The developments of almost every day serve to show the extent to which the German Jews are acting as receivers of stolen goods... A very general suspicion prevails against this people, and it is not surprising. Many of them are professional lifters, burglars and swindlers. Those in business find it difficult to effect an insurance upon their stock because of the frequency with which fires occur in their stores and suspicious circumstances attending them. (Glanz, "Source ,Materials.. ." YIVO Annual of Jewish Social/Science, vol. 6)

MENCKEN, H. L. .20th c. American writer.

The Jews could be put down very plausibly as the most unpleasant race ever heard of. As commonly encountered they lack many of the qualities that mark the civilized man: courage, dignity, incorruptibility, ease, confidence. They have vanity without pride, voluptuousness without taste, and learning without wisdom. Their fortitude, such as it is, is wasted upon puerile- objects, and their charity is mainly a form of display. (Treatise on the gods)

The fact that what are commonly spoken of as rights are often really privileges is demonstrated in the case of the Jews. They resent bitterly their exclusion from certain hotels, resorts and other places of gathering, and make determined efforts to horn in. But the moment any considerable number of them horns in, the attractions of the place diminish, and the more pushful Jews turn to one where they are still nicht gewünscht...

I am one of the few Goyim who have ever actually tackled the Talmud. I suppose you now expect me to add that it is a profound and noble work; worthy of hard study by all other Goyim. Unhappily, my report must differ from this expectation. It seems to me, save for a few bright spots, to be quite indistinguishable from rubbish.

The Jewish theory that the Goyim envy the superior ability of Jews is not borne out by the facts. Most Goyim, in fact, deny that the Jew is superior, and point in evidence to his failure to take the first prizes: he has to be content with the seconds No Jewish composer has ever come within miles of Bach, Beethoven and Brahms; no Jew has ever challenged the top-flight painters of the world, and no Jewish scientist has ever equalled Newton, Darwin, Pasteur or Mendel. In the latter bracket such apparent exceptions as Ehrlich, Freud and Einstein are only apparent. Ehrlich, in fact, contributed less to biochemical fact than to biochemical theory, and most of his theory was dubious. Freud was nine-tenths quack, and there is sound reason for believing that even Einstein will not hold up: in the long run his curved space may be classed with the psychosomatic bumps of Gall and Spurzheim. But whether this inferiority of the Jew is real or only a delusion, it must be manifest that it is generally accepted. The Goy does, not, in fact, believe that the Jew is better than the non-Jew; the most he will admit is that the Jew is smarter at achieving worldly success. But this he ascribes to sharp practices, not to superior ability. (Minority Report: H. L. Menckens Notebooks)

WALSH, WILLIAM THOMAS. 20th c. American historian.

Ritual murder was one of the chief factors, if not the decisive one, in the decision of Fernando and Isabel for the expulsion of the Jews from Spain. (Isabella the Crusader)

NOAH, MORDECAI M. 19th c. Jewish leader in America.

Jews must be turned aside from the crooked paths of traffic, miscalled commerce, to industry and agriculture. (Address at consecration of Temple Shearith Israel, New York City. 1818)

ORNITZ, SAM. 20th c. writer in America. He seems to have bitterly hated the gauche newly-rich Jews of New York in the early decades of the century. He coined for them: the Allrightniks. Haunch, Paunch and Jowl his principal work of the genre.

ROTH, SAMUEL. 20th c. Jew in America. His Jews Must Live was a sort of autobiographical confession of various things that Jews supposedly do to injure Gentiles—chiefly in the area of questionable business practices.

BROWNE, LEWIS, RABBI. 20th c. writer in America. In his book, How Odd of God, he declared: "We intend to remake the Gentiles—what the Communists are doing in Russia."

YOCKEY, FRANCIS PARKER. 20th c. American philosopher. He gave up his post as a lawyer in the 'war crimes' prosecuting staff at Nuremberg, after World War II, because of the torture and outrages that were being inflicted upon the defendants by the 'Allied' forces of liberty, fraternity and equality. Yockey's magnum opus, Imperium, takes its title from the historical philosophy of Oswald Spengler, who believed that Western civilization was now entering upon an imperialistic phase analogous to that of Rome in the ancient world. At the same time, however, Yockey cautioned that world Jewry is also preparing a bid for world power. His book urges with impressive eloquence that the men of the West seize the initiative.

SATURDAY EVENING GAZETTE (Boston). "It is strange that a nation that boasts so many good traits should be so obnoxious." (1879)

MITCHELL, JOHN AMES. 19th c. American editor, novelist. The founder of Life magazine in the 1880s, which, under his direction, became perhaps the leading humor magazine in the world, and one the finest of any kind ever published in America—a testimonial more than borne out by the increasing practice by modern publishers of 'lifting' cartoons and artwork from it without credit. Yet, so hostile was Mitchell to the Jews—and to the millionaires and venal politicians—that his magazine would be unpublishable in modern America. At the turn of the century, Mitchell wrote in an editorial: "There is little sympathy here in America for the Jew. He has contaminated everything that he has touched."

LOWELL, JAMES RUSSELL. 19th c. American poet, diplomatist. He believed the English Jews were moving close to control of the world (Labor Standard, August 9, 1879, and Henry Cabot Lodge, Early Memories). In a letter on Gambetta, Lowell said: "Where would the Jew be among a society of primitive men without pockets?" Lowell's friend, H. E. Scudder, has recollected many of the disclosures of Jewish activities that Lowell made while he was in the Foreign Service, in his James Russell. Lowell.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR. American newspaper. Commenting on the publication of The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, an editorial said:

It is necessary to plunge into the thorny question as to whether the Jewish Peril, of today, is as much a delusion of its prophets as was the Yellow Peril in its heyday. What is important to dwell upon is the increasing evidence of the existence of a secret conspiracy, throughout the world, for the destruction of organized government and the letting loose of evil....The human mind jeers at the theory of mental manipulation, yet prominent politicians, philosophers and soldiers are found, at critical moments, giving expression to views of an absolutely non-moral description, which are not in accordance with their behavior in ordinary life. It is here that the conspiracy of evil against humanity becomes recognizable." ("The Jewish Peril," June 19, 1920.)

DREISER, THEODORE? 20th c. American writer.

New York to me is a scream—a Kyke's dream of a ghetto. The Lost Tribe has taken the island. (Letter to H. L. MENCKEN, November 5, 1922)

Liberalism, in the case of the Jew, means internationalism. If you listen to Jews discuss Jews, you will find they are money-minded, very sharp in practice. The Jews lack the fine integrity which at least is endorsed, and to a certain degree followed, by lawyers of other nationalities. The Jew has been in Germany for all of a thousand years, and he is still a Jew. He has been in America for all of 200 years, and he has not faded into a pure American by any means—and he will not. (Letter to Hutchins Hapgood, The Nation magazine, April 17, 1935)

An early Dreiser work, The Hand of the Porter, describes the sex-slavery of a little girl -by a young Jew. A Shylock-like Jewish landlord is shown trying to collect rent from the grief-stricken father when the girl's body is discovered in the Jew's house. Dreiser's private correspondence is peppered with the word "kyke" (his spelling). After the rise of National Socialism in Germany, he was encouraged to call for public debate on the Jewish question, and as part of this, the magazine he edited published an anti-Jewish "Symposium" (American Spectator, September, 1933). Dreiser was under heavy pressure to disavow his anti-Jewish sentiments, and Jewish apologists usually claim that he did, although it is often overlooked that the supposed conversion occurred when the then-elderly and ailing author had become ensnared with the Communist Party.

FORD, HENRY. 20th c. American industrialist.

There had been observed in this country certain streams of influence which were causing a marked deterioration in our literature, amusements and social conduct; business was departing from its old-time soundness; a general letting down of standards was felt everywhere. It was not the robust coarseness of the white man, the rude indelicacy, say, of Shakespeare's chancier, but a nasty Orientalism which had insidiously affected every channel of expression—and to such that it was time to challenge it. The fact that these influences are all traceable to one racial source is a fact to be reckoned with... Our work does not pretend to say the last word on the Jew in America. It says only the word which describes his present impress on this country. When that impress is changed, the report can be changed. ... Our opposition is only to ideas, false ideas, which are sapping the moral stamina of the people: (My Life and Work)

Get hold of fifty of the wealthiest Jewish financiers, the men who are interested in making wars for their own profit. Control them, and you will put an end to it all. (Cleveland News, September 20, 1923) territory that he finally attempted to expell the Jews:

I have, long since believed that in spite of all the vigilance that can be infused into post commanders, the specie regulations of the Treasury Department have been violated, and that mostly by Jews and other unprincipled traders. So well satisfied have I been of this that I instructed the commanding officer at Columbus to refuse all permits to Jews to come South, and I have frequently had them expelled from the department, but they come in with their carpet-sacks in spite of all that can be done to prevent it. The Jews seem to be a privileged class that can travel anywhere. They will land at any woodyard on the river and make their way through the country. If not permitted to buy cotton themselves, they will act as agents for someone else, who will be at a military post with a Treasury permit to receive cotton and pay for it in Treasury notes which the Jew will buy up at an agreed rate, paying gold. (Letter to C. P. Wolcott, assistant secretary of war, Washington, December 17, 1862)

1. The Jews, as a class, violating every regulation of trade established, by the Treasury Department, and also Department orders, are hereby expelled from the Department.

2. Within twenty-four hours from the receipt of this order by Post Commanders, they will see that all of this class of people are furnished with passes and required to leave, and anyone returning after such notification, will be arrested and held in confinement until an opportunity occurs of sending them out as prisoners, unless furnished with permits from these headquarters.

3. No permits will be given to these people to visit headquarters for the purpose of making personal application for trade permits.

By order of Major Gen. Grant.

Jno. A. Rawlings, Assistant Adjutant General

(General Order Number 11, December 17, 1862)

The expulsion order was immediately countermanded by the general-in-chief, H. W. Halleck, in Washington. Apparently the expelled Jews had immediately contacted their kinsmen there and had pressure brought to bear.

ADAMS, BROOKS. 19th century American historian.

Here are all the most distinguished officers in Paris brought up by a gang of dirty Jews, and badgered and insulted, and held up to contempt with the connivance of the government. (Letter to Henry Adams, February 14, 1898.)

Adams referred here to the Jewish effort at destroying the credibility of witnesses who, had testified against Dreyfus in the treason trial of that Jewish officer. Adams believed England was as much governed by Jews of Berlin, Paris and New York as by Englishmen. He thought that a syndicate of Jewish bankers controlled most of the world through the British Empire. (See generally T. Anderson, Brooks Adams, Constructive Conservative. For Brooks Adams's letters to his brother, Henry, see W. Ford, Letters of Henry Adams.)

"HEMINGWAY. ERNEST. 20th century. American novelist. He reportedly was ejected from a Jewish-owned film studio in Hollywood for saying to Bernard Hyman, a producer: "You're doing pretty well for a Heeb." (A. Latham, Crazy Sundays). His novel, The Sun Also Rises, portrays a Jewish character, Robert Cohn, not exactly as a villain but as an absurd and unattractive figure working to infiltrate social circles that do not want him. Hemingway was castigated for his "prejudice" by Hutchins Hapgood, editor of The Nation magazine. Hapgood stressed what he called "the extreme sensitivity" of the Jews to this type of portrayal, as if that alone should have kept Hemingway from writing the book as he did. For another author's reply to Hapgood's philo-Judaic scoldings, see THEODORE DREISER.

KEROUAC, JACK. 20th century. American writer.

The real enemy is the Communist, the Jew. (Esquire magazine, March 1970)

Kerouac, as much as any individual, launched the American youth movement that has grown to such dire proportions in the present drug-oriented 'hippie' trend. His book, On the Road, set the tone for the first of these movements, in the 1950s. Yet, ironically, Kerouac ended his days convinced of an immense conspiracy against Western civilization, an upheaval that had used him and then discarded him, and at the heart of which stood the Jew.

LINTON, E. LYNN. 19th century. American socialist writer. Her novel, The True History of Joshua Davidson, Communist, brought Jesus into the modern world as an anti-plutocrat revolutionary much like his former incarnation. Linton observed that "trade is treachery" and that every Jewish banker and pawnbroker was in the advance guard of the wreckers of civilization.

MORTON, J. STERLING, AND WATKINS ALBERT. 9th century American historians. Their Illustrated History of Nebraska was a Populist-oriented work that depicted "the Shylocks of Europe" enslaving "the toilers of America."

FITZGERALD, F. SCOTT. 20th century. American novelist. Down, a tall busy street he read a dozen Jewish names on a line of scores; in the door of each, stood a dark little man watching the passers from intent eyes-eyes gleaming with suspicion, with pride, with clarity, with cupidity, with comprehension. New York—he could not dissociate it from the slow, upward creep of this people—the little stores, growing, expanding, consolidating, moving, watched over with hawks and a bee's attention to detail—they slathered out on all sides. It was impressive—in perspective it was tremendous. (The Beautiful and the Damned)

By 1928, Paris had grown suffocating. With each new shipment of Americans spewed up by the boom, the quality fell off, until towards the end there was something sinister about the crazy boatloads... I remember a fat Jewess inlaid with diamonds, who sat behind us at the Russian ballet and said as the curtain rose, 'That's luffly, they ought to paint a picture of it.' This was low comedy... There were citizens traveling in luxury in 1928 and 1929 who, in the distortion of their new condition, had the human value of Pekinese, bivalves, cretins, goats. (Tales of the Jazz Age)

Fitzgerald was known in his day as a writer who definitely disapproved of the Jewish impress upon the modern world. Yet somehow, in the years since his death, this has all been forgotten by the scholarly and critical apparatus, and generations of Americans have grown up thinking him only another enervated, post-world-war expatriate type. In the private Jewish press, Fitzgerald's finest novel, The Great Gatsby, has been denounced as reading "virtually like an anti-Semitic tract" (M. Hindus, Commentary, June 1947). And in fact the horrible figure of Meyer Wolfsheim, modeled on Arnold Rothstein, the racketeer who 'fixed' the baseball World Series of 1919, is portrayed by the author with no redeeming qualities whatsoever.

LINDBERGH, CHARLES. 20th century. American aviator, writer. Wednesday, August 23, 1939

We are disturbed about the effect of-the Jewish influence in our press, radio and motion pictures. It may become very serious. [Fulton] Lewis told us of one instance where the Jewish advertising firms threatened to remove all their advertising from the Mutual system if a certain feature were permitted to go on the air. The threat was powerful enough to have the feature removed.

Thursday May 1, 1941

The pressure for war is high and mounting. The people are opposed to it, but the Administration seems to have 'the bit in its teeth' and is hell-bent on its way to war. Most of the Jewish interests in the country are behind war, and they control a huge part of our press and radio' and most of our motion pictures. There are also the 'intellectuals' and the Anglophiles,' and 'the British agents who are allowed free rein, the international financial interests, and many others. (The Wartime Journals)

DONNELLY, IGNATIUS. 19th century. American politician, writer. His futurist novel, Caesar's Column made many striking predictions on the rise of Jewish financial power and Zionist imperialism in the 20th century. It was a story of how "the nomadic children of Abraham... fought and schemed their way, through infinite pains of persecution... to 2 power higher than the thrones of Europe." After fomenting a world uprising, the Russian-born leader of the conspiracy absconds to Palestine with countless millions in stolen public funds,

"intending to re-establish the glories of Solomon and revive the ancient splendors of the Jewish race, in the midst of the ruins of the world." But the Jews cannot control the political conflagration they have started for their own ends, and everything explodes into a typhoon of destruction that consumes what remains of civilization. Donnelly was interested in cosmic disasters and great natural calamities, and his books on Atlantis and Ragnarok have been freely mined by such popularizers Immanuel Velikovsky.

ELIOT, T.S. 20th century. American-British poet. Reasons of race and religion combine to make any number of freethinking Jews undesirable. (After Strange Gods) Like EZRA POUND, SCOTT FITZGERALD and other contemporaries, Eliot expressed negative judgments on the Jewish role, in Western culture when he thought it apposite. Some of the greatest and most haunting moments in his work are, in these poems presenting the spiritual ruin of the modern era, with the esoteric yet squalid Jew, as Eliot portrays him, never far from sight. The poet clearly attributes the decay of Venice, and by extension, the entire European world, to Jews.

OPINIONS OF A FEW INTELLECTUALS OF UK REGARDING THE JEWS, REPRODUCED FROM THE BOOK 'ANTIZION'.

SHAW GEORGE BERNARD. 20th c. British dramatist.

This is the real enemy, the invader from the East, the Druze, the riffian, the oriental parasite; in a word the Jew. (London Morning Post, December 3, 1925)

This craving for bouquets by Jews is a symptom of racial degeneration. The Jews are worse than my own people. Those Jews who still want to be the chosen race (chosen by the late Lord Balfour) can go to Palestine and stew in their own juice. The rest had better stop being Jews and start being human beings. (Literary Digest, October 12, 1932)

Man and Superman veers close to the old Jew-as-Devil of the medieval morality plays. Mendoza is the Jewish bandit chief, and loud-mouthed Zionist, who meets the hero, Tanner, in the mountains and reappears in Tanner's dream as Satan. (The Jewish identification of Mendoza is omitted in all stage productions.) Dr. Schutzmacher, in The Doctor's Dilemma, is described as having made a fortune in the East End of London by selling drugs for a sixpence, under the sign "Cure Guaranteed." Shaw was also the appreciative editor of LAURANCE GRONLUND's 'anti-Semitic' socialist classic, The Co-operative Commonwealth. According to the Jewish newspaper, American Hebrew, Shaw was dangerously flirting with National Socialism:

"Mr. Shaw has often been a conundrum to our more ordinary folk, and never more so than with regard to his attitude toward Hitler and nazism. He has indulged in glowing praise of the nazi dictator, has described Auscro-German Anschluss as 'a highly desirable event' and has publicly given the Hitler salute... 'I appreciate,' he declares, 'the political sagacity and courage with which he (Hitler) has rescued Germany from the gutter and placed her once more at the head of Europe.'" (American Hebrew, July 15, 1938)

PRYNNE, WILLIAM. 17th century. English publicist. A Short Demurrer to the Jewes Long Discontinued Remitter Into

England was written by this highly skilled agitator in his campaign to block Oliver Cromwell's plan to reopen England to the Jews. They had been expelled for centuries but were anxious to come back—to the scene of their former 'persecutions.' Prynne is credited with preventing Parliament from rescinding the expulsion order of EDWARD I, although Cromwell finally ducked the issue and accomplished his purpose by simply letting the Jews return on the sly, and they are still in England illegally today. Prynne's book offers a wealth of documentation on the causes of the original expulsion, which centered on a ritual murder controversy. According to him, Jewish methods included 'Usuries and Deceits, clipping and falsifying monies, ingrossing all sorts of commodities into their hands, and usurping the Nations' trades.'

CHURCHILL WINSTON. 20th century. British politician. In 1920, he wrote a long newspaper article on the recent Bolshevik seizure of Russia. After praising what he called the "national Jews" of Russia, he said:

In violent opposition to all this sphere of Jewish effort rise the schemes of the International Jews. The adherents of this sinister confederacy are mostly men reared up among the unhappy populations of countries where Jews are persecuted on account of their race. Most, if not all, of them have forsaken the faith of their forefathers, and divorced from their minds all spiritual hopes of the next world. This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxemburg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (United States), this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilisation and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It played, as a modern writer, Mrs. Webster has ably shown, a definitely recognisable part in the tragedy of the French Revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the Nineteenth Century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworlds of the great cities of Europe and America have tripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire. Now they (the Jews) have gripped the American people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire.

There is no need to exaggerate the part played in the creation of Bolshevism and in the actual bringing about of the Russian Revolution by these international and for the most part atheistical Jews. It is certainly a very great one; it probably outweighs all others. With the notable exception of Lenine, the majority of the leading figures are Jews. Moreover, the principal inspiration and driving power comes from the Jewish leaders... In the Soviet institutions the predominance of Jews is even more astounding. And the prominent if not the principal part in the system of terrorism applied by the extraordinary Commissions for combating Counter Revolution has been taken by Jews, and in some notable cases by Jewesses. The same evil prominence was obtained by Jews in the brief period of terror during which Bela Kun ruled in Hungary. The same phenomenon has been presented in Germany (especially in Bavaria), so far as this madness has been allowed to prey upon the temporary prostration of the German people. Although in all these countries there are many non-Jews every whit as bad as the worst of the Jewish revolutionaries, the part played by the latter in proportion to their numbers in the population is astonishing. ("Zionism Versus Bolshevism: A Struggle for the Soul of the Jewish People," illustrated Sunday Herald, London, February 8, 1920).

The role of the "worldwide conspiracy" mentioned by Churchill finds interesting corroboration in the writings of his Jewish predecessor as English prime minister, BENJAMIN DISRAELI (see especially The Life of Lord George Bentinck and Conings by). Lenin is now believed to have had Jewish-ancestry, on his mother's side: see Stefan Possony, Lenin, the Compulsive Revolutionary, and the articles in Dissent magazine for April 1971. The Mrs. Webster referred to is NESTA H. WEBSTER, still a pre-eminent authority on European subversive societies and conspiracies.

WAUGH, EVELYN. 20th c. British novelist. Decline and Fall, Black mischief, Vile Bodies and Put Out More Flags portray Jews as objectionable, characters. In his recently published Diaries, Waugh speaks ironically about the Jewish claim that they prohibited capital punishment 2,000 years ago, in the light of the Zionist "murder" (Waugh's word) of Lord Moyne and others, which were justified by Jewish propaganda as executions by a sovereign state. He mentions Rufus Isaacs (Lord Reading), as having "lied to the House of Commons in a personal statement on the Marconi case and ascended to high office" (the lord chief justice-ship). Jews are very sensitive on the Isaacs role in the sensational Marconi stock swindle: Waugh obviously believes the Jew culpable. (See also RUDYARD KIPLING.) (The Private Diaries of Evelyn Waugh)

WEBSTER NESTA H. 20th c.. British historian. Of her many important works, Secret Societies and Subversive Movements is perhaps the most valuable, in this present-day context of an emerging attempt at world domination by forces that have highly esoteric affiliations, and which have made full use of the instrument of conspiratorial organization. Webster's earlier works are somewhat hampered by a naive, World War One chauvinism: she regarded Germany as the bad boy of the world and the Jews' partner in crime. Later, she realized that all the nation embroiled in the ongoing tragedies of the century had been victimized by the same small, international clique, and she wrote a strongly pro-Hitler book, Germany and England. WINSTON CHURCHILL praised Nesta Webster's scholarship.

WELLS, H.G. 20th c. British writer.

The Jews looked for a special savior, a messiah, who was to redeem mankind by the agreeable process of restoring the fabulous glories of David and Solomon, and bringing the whole world at last under the firm but benevolent Jewish heel. (The Outline of History)

Zionism is an expression of Jewish refusal to assimilate. If the Jews have suffered, it is because they have regarded themselves as a chosen people. (The Anatomy of Frustration)

A careful study of anti-Semitic prejudice and accusations I might be of great value to many Jews who do not adequately realize the irritations they inflict. (Letter of November 11, 1933)

In 1933, Wells angered many Jews by refusing to join a committee against 'anti-Semitism' because of "a natural reaction to the intense nationalism of the Jews and to the very distinctive role they play in the world of art and business." (Letter of November 11, 1933) His Travels of a Republican Radical in Search of Hot Water was, like Anatomy of Frustration, a double-barrelled blast at Zionism—and it stirred up a minor malstrom of Jewish protest, including angry letters from the presumably non-Jewish Eleanor Roosevelt. Wells was in the habit of referring to KARL MARX as "a shallow, third-rate Jew," and "a lousy Jew" in private correspondence. (Norman MacKenzie, H. G. Wells)

COBBETT, WILLIAM. 19th century. English journalist, reformer.

The Reformation changed England from being the happiest country, perhaps, that the world had ever seen into a land the main body of whose people were poor and miserable, with Jews and paper-money makers the real owners of a large part of it...

With the foundation of the Bank of England in 1694, there arose loans, funds, banks, bankers, bank notes, and a national debt; things that England had never heard or dreamed of before this war [with France] 'for preserving the Protestant religion by law established'; things without which she had a long and glorious career of many centuries (i.e., while the Jews were expelled) and had been the greatest and happiest country in the world... Seeing that to lend money at interest, that is to say, for gain..., was contrary and still is contrary to the principles of the Catholic Church... The Jews did it, but then Jews were regarded as a sort of monsters, who professed to be the lineal descendants and to hold the opinions of those who had murdered the Son of God and the Saviour of men. They were not permitted to practise their blasphemies openly. In degraded wretches like these, usury was tolerated just for the same cause that incest is tolerated amongst dogs...

The people looked back with aching hearts to former happy days, and the nobility and gentry began to perceive with shame and tear that already their estates were beginning to pass quietly from them (as Swift had told them they would) into the hands of the Jews, Quakers, and other moneychangers created by the 'no-popery' war. But it was now too late to look back. (The Protestant Reformation)

Suppose it was proposed to us to admit a race of cannibals to these powers, should we have a right to do it?

Jew has always been synonymous with sharper, cheat, rogue.

This has been the case with no other race of mankind.

(Reply to the House of Commons Bill for the Emancipation of the Jews. 1833. The Cobbett MSS.)

An incredibly prolific journalist and populist agitator, Cobbett relentlessly attacked financial and political crooks—Jewish and 'Goy'—of England and America, and even spent time in English dungeons for his pains. He was the first publicist of consequence to expose the legalized thievery of the Bank of England (still going on—as in every other country with a so-called central bank). He pointed out the heavy Jewish role in that institution in his Paper against Gold. He was also a pioneer conservationist and the first journalist to take up what is now called the ecological issue. See generally his periodicals, Cobbett's Political Register, The Rush Light, and Porcupine's Gazette. Cottage Economy is still a classic of return-to-nature literature.

PARIS, MATTHEW. 13th century. British historian, widely recognized as the greatest English historian of the Middle Ages. His Chronica Majora is full of references to the problems caused to the people by Jews living among them prior to their expulsion. in regard to the ritual murder of Hugh of Lincoln, he wrote:

About the feast of Peter and Paul [in the year 1255], the Jews of Lincoln stole .a child called Hugh, being eight years old; .and when they had nourished him, in the most secret chamber, with milk and other childish aliments, they sent to almost all the cities of England wherein the Jews lived, that, in contempt and reproach of Jesus Christ, they should be present at their sacrifice at Lincoln... And, coming together. They appointed one Lincoln Jew for the Judge, as if it were for Pilate. By whose judgment, by the consent of all, the child is afflicted with sundry torments. He is whipped even unto blood and lividness, crowned with thrones, wearied with spitting and stickings... And after they had derided him in diverse manners, they crucified him. (See also GEOFFREY CHAUCER, Sir RICHARD F. BURTON, and ARNOLD LEESE.)

MARRYAT, FREDERICK. 19th c. British writer. In the book Poor Jack, chapter 18, Marryat speaks of Jewish "fences" in England: "Then we have what we call Jew Carts, always ready to take [stolen] goods inland, where they will not be looked after."

MARSTON, JOHN. 17th c. British dramatist. His play, The Malcontent, was based upon the attempt on the life of Queen Elizabeth by the Spanish Jew, Lopez. In one speech, the Spaniard charged with procuring the crime asks:

Malevole: Excellently—no Jew, pothecary or politician better.

Marston's The Insatiate Countess and Every Woman in her Humour also have degenerate and criminal Jewish characters.

PARKINSON, C. NORTHCOTE. 20th c. British writer.

East and West says Jews are a constant fifth-column in the West, undermining it in an ancient struggle with the East. Left Luggage discusses Marx's Jewish antecedents, maintaining that the founder of communism can't be understood as a German but only as a grandson of rabbis on both sides of his family.

VSOUTHEY ROBERT. 19th c. British writer.

Some of the lowest order let their beards grow, and wear a sort of black tunic with a girdle; the chief ostensible trade of this class is in old clothes, but they deal also in stolen goods, and not infrequently in coining. A race of Hebrew lads who infest you in the streets with oranges and red slippers, or tempt school-boys to dip in a bag for gingerbread nuts¹ are the great agents in uttering base silver; when it is worn too bare to circulate any longer, they buy it up at a low price, whiten the brass again and send it abroad. You meet Jew peddlers everywhere, traveling with boxes of haberdashery at their backs, cuckoo clocks, sealing wax, quills weather glasses, green spectacles, clumsy figures in plaister of Paris, which you see over the chimney of an alehouse parlour in the country, or miserable prints of the king and queen... But when they meet with a likely chapman, they produce others of the most obscene and mischievous kind. Any thing for money, in contempt of their own law as well as of the law of the country... England has been called the hell of horses, the purgatory of servants and the paradise of women; it may be added that it is the heaven of the Jews—alas, they have no other heaven to expect! (Letters From England)

SPRING-RICE, SIR CECIL. 20th c. British politician.

One by one¹ the Jews are capturing the principal newspapers of America. (Letter of November 1914, to Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary. Letters and Friendships)

STEED, H. WICKHAM. 20th c. British journalist, historian. His Hapsburg Monarchy and Through Thirty Years give a great deal of behind-the-scenes information on Jewish influence in European politics, particularly in fomenting wars and revolutions. As a long-time foreign correspondent and managing editor of the Times of London, Steed was one of the most respected reporters of the day.

STERNE, LAURENCE. 18th c. British novelist.

A people with so many testimonies of God's favour who had not profited thereby so as to become a virtuous people, must have been utterly corrupt and so they were. (The Ingratitude of Isra. 1, a sermon)

WILLIAMS, CHARLES. 20th C. British writer. The novel All Hallows Eve, though brilliant and fairly recent, is almost completely unknown today. Similar in concept to many tales of Poe or Lovecraft, the story brings into the 20th century the dreadful figure of Simon Magus, traditional Jewish founder of Gnosticism. This ancient wizard's renewed pilgrimage to destroy mankind by reducing people to the level of mindless vermin is sketched by Williams with great mastery and with such broad strokes that Clerk Simon assumes the proportions of a cosmic destroyer, far beyond mere Svengalis, Fagins or Shylocks. Williams was a protege of T.S. ELIOT, and the latter wrote an appreciative preface. Simon observes at one point that Hitler fought against his movement—in vain: "The war, like Hitler, was a foolery. I am the one who is to come, not Hitler!"

HARRINGTON, LORD. 19th century. British statesman. Opposed admission of Jewish immigrants to England because:

They are the great moneylenders and loan contractors of the world... The consequence is that the nations of the world are groaning under heavy systems of taxation, and national debt. They have ever been the greatest-enemies of freedom. (Speech in the House of Lords, July 12, 1858)

HARRISON, AUSTIN. 20th c. British essayist. Typical of his writings on the Jewish question are his English Review essays, "Which God? Or, The World Battle of the Jews" (vol. 29), and "Russia and Europe" (vol. 39).

POPE ALEXANDER. 18th c. British poet.

Keep us, we beseech thee, from the hands of such barbarous and cruel Jews, who albeit they abhor the blood of black-puddings, yet thirst they vehemently after the blood of the white ones. And that we may avoid such like calamities, may all good and well-disposed Christians be warned by this unhappy wretches woeful example to abominate the heinous sin of avarice. (A Strange but True Relation...)

This is a prose piece on the alleged conversion to Judaism and circumcision of the publisher Edmund Curll. The latter was involved in almost every criminal aspect of publishing, from piracy to pornography. In another connection, he provided ancient Jewish Kabbalistic texts and secret 'grimoires' to Sir Francis Dashwood, the founder of the Satanist-oriented Hell Fire Club. Pope's "blood" references—although intended as sly referrals to a supposed mishap that befell Curll during the rabbis' circumcision process—also embody a subtle hint at ritual murder. Oddly, this piece has been excluded from all but one of the countless 'complete editions' of this great poet's works. (See Bibliography)

GIBBON, EDWARD. 18th c. British historian.

From the reign of Nero to that of Antoninus Pius, the Jews discovered a fierce impatience of the dominion of Rome, which repeatedly broke out in the most furious massacres and insurrections. Humanity is shocked at the recital of the horrid cruelties which they committed in the cities of Egypt, of Cyprus, and of Cyrene, where they dwelt in treacherous friendship with the unsuspecting natives... In Cyrene they massacred 220,000 Greeks; in Cyprus 240,000; in Egypt, a very great multitude. Many of these unhappy victims were sawed asunder, according to a precedent to which David had given the sanction of his example. The victorious Jews devoured the flesh, licked the blood, and twisted the entrails like a girdle around their bodies. (History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire)

SUMMERS, MONTAGUE. 20th c. British 'occult' writer. In his respected History of Witchcraft and Demonology, Summers says that Jews were persecuted "not so much for the observance of Hebraic ceremonies, as is often suggested and supposed, but for the practice of the dark and hideous traditions of Hebrew magic... In many cases; the evidence is quite conclusive that the body and especially the blood of the victim was used for magical ends."

WEIZMANN, CHAIM. 20th c. Zionist leader.

We told the authorities in London: we shall be in Palestine whether you want us there or not. You may speed up or slow down our coming, but it would be better for you to help us, otherwise our constructive force will turn into a destructive one that will bring about ferment in the entire world. (Judische Rundschau, number 4, 1920)

OVERBURY, THOMAS. 17th c. British writer. "A Devilish Usurer" is one of the episodes in his Characters. The figure sketched is a Jew.

OXFORD ENGLISH DICTIONARY. A recent lawsuit, brought by a Jew, was decided in favor of the publishers. The Jew had demanded that the following definition be expunged by court order: "Jew. v. colloq. trans. To cheat or overreach, in the way attributed to Jewish traders or usurers. Hence Jewish.." (volume 5, page 577).

LEVY, OSCAR.: 20th c. scholar in Britain.

There is no race in the world more enigmatic, more fatal than the Jews. The question of the Jews and their influence on the world past and present, cuts to the root of all things and should be discussed by every honest thinker.....

You point out, with fine' indignation the great danger that springs from the prevalence of Jews in finance and industry, and from the preponderance of Jews in rebellion and revolution. You reveal tile connection between the collectivism of the immensely rich International Financy.

HOLINSHEAD, RAPHAEL. 16th c. British historian. Chronicles of England, Scotland and Ireland was a classic drawn on liberally by SHAKESPEARE and other great writers. Holinshead remarks that the entry of the Jews into England "was one of the grievances which England sustained by the hard dealings of the Conqueror."

ROSS, ALEXANDER. 17th century British publicist. He helped arouse public opinion against Cromwell's plan to readmit the Jews. his View on the Jewish Religion asserted that Jewish sects regularly stole children, circumcised and crucified them, in a rite supposedly essential to Jewish magic and mysticism. Jewish life he averred, "is filled with the keenest attention to evil spirits." (See also WILLIAM PRYNNE and CLEMENT WALKER.)

WALKER, CLEMENT. 17th century British publicist. With WILLIAM PRYNNE, he was a staunch opponent of Cromwell's campaign to legalize the re-entry of Jews into England. His Anarchia Anglicana provided a resume of the Jewish situation in other European countries, as an object lesson as to why his own should continue to exclude Jews.

TAYLOR TOM. 19th century 'British dramatist. The Ticket-of-leave of the most obnoxious Jewish characterizations in recent English drama, in Melter Moss, a counterfeiter and fence for stolen property.

BOLINGBROKE , HENRY ST. JOHN. 18th century British statesman, writer. He took a pronouncedly anti-Jewish stand condemning the Talmudic Jewish religion as exploitative and discriminatory against the non-Jew.. (The Works of Lord Bolinbroke, vol. 2)

EDWARD I. 13th century king of England. After a ritual murder controversy, he expelled all Jews from his kingdom, to which, they were not readmitted until the Jewish-financed dictator, Oliver Cromwell, killed a later king and seized power.

READE, CHARLES. 19th century British novelist. Jews appear as or parasites in many of his works. In It is Never Late to Too Mend, Isaac Levi is shown taking' a terrible and unwarranted revenge upon a non-Jew.

FOX, JOHN. 16th century British theologian. Commenting upon the accusation Jews kill Christian children, he wrote:

In general it was their custom every year to snatch away a Christian boy from his parents and crucify him on Good Friday, in despite of our religion. (Acts and Monuments of the Church)

RADCLIFFE, ANN. 19th century British novelist. Jewish characters in her Gothic novels are portrayed as usurers, fences and slippery peddlers. See especially Gaston de Blondville.

TINDAL MATTHEW. 18th century British theologian. He attacked the Jews for their murderousness in destroying the Canaanites of God. (Christianity as Old as the Creation)

HOGARTH WILLIAM. 18th century British artist. In his The Harlot's Progress cycle of paintings (c 1733), Jews are shown as greedy pimps.

What the Talmud Really Teaches About Christians?

To know what the Talmud really teaches about the Christians, I reproduce below a few excerpts from the book entitled "The Talmud Unmasked" written by Rev. I. B. Pranaitis, Roman Catholic Priest; Master of Theology and Professor of Hebrew language at the Imperial Ecclesiastical Academy of the Roman Catholic Church in Old St. Petersburg, Russia, which was published by the Imperial Academy of Sciences in 1892.

The editor of this book, E. N. Sanctuary, in his editor's note writes:

"Many people today are keenly interested to know what the Jewish Talmud really teaches about Christians, and for an accurate, authentic treatise on this subject, there is no need to go further than the scholarly work of the Rev. Father I. B. Pranaitis, an able Roman Catholic Theologist and Hebraist, formerly on the staff of the Roman Catholic College of the Imperial Academy in Old St. Petersburg. His work is in Hebrew and Latin and bears the imprimature of his ecclesiastical superior.

This is an accurate translation of Father Pranaitis Latin text, and it is felt that it will be appreciated by 'those who are interested to know what this great scholar wrote on this important subject from original Talmudic sources. Father Pranaitis was one of those liquidated by the Cheka during the Bolshevik revolution in Russia.

Father Pranaitis writes under the caption "Epilogue" at page 87 of the book:

Kind readers: In this work I have quoted from only a very few of the Talmudic books which refer to the Christians. For the sake of brevity, and to spare your sensitive soul. I omitted many others which could have been included. These texts however, which I have quoted should be sufficient to demonstrate how false are the statements of the Jews when they claim that there is nothing in the Talmud which teaches hatred and enmity for Christians.

If it revolted you, Christian readers, to study the horrible blasphemies in this book, do not vent your anger on me. I did not state in the beginning that I was going to narrate something pleasant, but merely to show you what the Talmud really teaches about Christians, and I do not think I could have done so in a more suitable way.

I realize however, that, since the truth does not please everyone, there are many who will become my enemies for thus having borne witness to the truth. And I have been reminded of this, both by the law of the Talmud itself which threatens death to traitors, and more so, by the warnings of those who have had experience of the actions which Jews take against those who make known things which are not favourable to them. They all foretold that I would perish at the hands of the Jews. In trying to prevent me from going ahead with my work some begged me to remember the fate of Professor Charini who was suddenly killed after he had undertaken to translate the Talmud into true Vernacular. Others reminded me of the fate of the monk Didacus of Viina, a convert from Judaism, who was cruelly murdered; others of those who had been persecuted for having revealed secrets of the Jewish religion. Still others warned me of the danger to those dear to me. "But the Jews will kill you" was repeated to me hundreds of time.

The book you now hold in your hand is the best proof that I did not heed these warnings of my friends. I considered it unworthy of me to keep silent just for the sake of my own personal safety while the conflict rages between the two camps of "Semites" and "Anti-Semites", both of which claim they are fighting for the truth, while I know that the truth is not to be found in either camp.

But whatever befalls me because of what I have done, I shall gladly suffer it. I am prepared to lay down my life

THAT I MAY BEAR WITNESS TO THE TRUTH."

It is sadly significant to recall with regard to the above, that Father Pranaitis actually met his death as he foretold at the hands of his enemies during the Bolshevich revolution (E. N. Sanctury, the Editor of "Talmud Unmasked".)

The Talmud

THE TALMUD gets its name from the word LAMUD — taught, and means The Teaching. By metonymy it is taken to mean the book which contains the Teaching, which teaching is called Talmud, that is, the doctrinal book which alone fully expounds and explains all the knowledge and teachings of the Jewish people.

An important point to note is that this work has always been regarded by the Jews as holy. They have always held it, and still hold it, as more important than the Sacred Scriptures. The Talmud itself shows this very clearly:

In the tract Babha Metsia, fol. 33a, we read:

"Those who devote themselves to reading the Bible exercise a certain virtue, but not very much; those who study the Mischnah exercise virtue for which they will receive a reward; those, however, who take upon themselves to study the Gemarah exercise the highest virtue".

Likewise in the tract Sopherim XV, 7, fol. 135:

"The Sacred Scripture is like water, the Mischnah wine, and the Gemarah aromatic wine". -

The following is a well known and highly praised opinion in the writings of the Rabbis:

My son, give heed to the words of the scribes rather than to the words of the law".¹

The reason for this is found in the tract Sanhedrin X, 3, f.88b:

"He who transgresses the words of the scribes sins more gravely than the transgressors of the words of the law".

Also when there are differences of opinion between the Law and the doctors, both must be taken as the words of the Lord God.

In the tract Erubhin, f. 13b, where it is related that there was a difference of opinion between the two schools of Hillel and Schamai, it is concluded that:

"The words of both are the words of living God".

In the book *Mizbeach*², cap. V, we find the following opinion:

"There is nothing superior to the Holy Talmud."

Contemporary defenders of the Talmud speak of it almost in the same way.³

"What Christians have thought of the Talmud is amply proved by the many edicts and decrees issued about it, by which the supreme rulers in Church and State proscribed it many times and condemned this sacred Secondary Law Code of the Jews to the flames.

In 553 the Emperor Justinian forbade the spread of the Talmudic books throughout the Roman Empire. In the 13th century, Popes Gregory IX and Innocent IV condemned the books of the Talmud as containing every kind of vileness and blasphemy against Christian truth, and ordered them to be burned because they spread many horrible heresies.

Later they were condemned by many other Roman pontiffs — Julius III, Paul IV, Pius IV, Pius V, Gregory XIII, Clement VIII, Alexander VII, Benedict XIV, and by others who issued new editions of the index of Forbidden Books according to the orders of the Fathers of the Council of Trent, and even in our own time

JESUS CHRIST IN THE TALMUD

Many passages in the Talmudic books treat of the birth, life, death and teachings of Jesus Christ. He is not always referred to by the same name, however, but is diversely called "That Man", "A Certain One", "The Carpenter's Son", "The One Who Was Hanged", etc

Article I. — CONCERNING THE NAMES OF JESUS CHRIST

1. The real name of Christ in Hebrew is Jeschua Hanolsr — Jesus the Nazrene. He is called Noisri from the city of Nazareth in which he was brought up. Thus in the Talmud Christians also are called Nostrim — Nazarenes.

2. Since the word Jeschuo means "Savior", the name Jesus rarely occurs in Jewish books.¹ It is almost always abbreviated to Jeschu, which is maliciously taken as if it were composed of the initial letters of the three words Immach SChemo Vezikro — "May his name and memory be blotted out".²

¹ ex. g~. in IAaene ieschua. fol. 66b

² ci. I. Buxton en Abrev. Jeschu: The Jews among themselves do not say Jeechu. but Isschu. so neatly corresponding to the words at this curse. When talking to a certain Jew about this some years ago he told me that it not only meant this, but also Jeschu Scheket (liar) Utoebah (and abomination). Who would not be deeply horrified at this? This Jew lived at Frankfort and at Hanover and had travelled all over the world. When he saw how this horrified me. his faith en Judaism began to weaken, for he was not adverse to the Christian faith and had often discussed it with me and Dr. Amando Polano. I also discovered here and there two other secret words from the Jewish Cabala which have to

In the Talmud Christ is called Otho Isch — “That Man”, i.e. the one who is known to all. In the Tract Abhodah Zarah, 6a, we read:

“He is called a Christian who follows the false teachings of that man, who taught them to celebrate the feast on the first day of the Sabbath, that is, to worship on the first day after the Sabbath”.

3. Elsewhere he is simply called Peloni — “A Certain One”. In Chagigah, 4b, we read:

“Mary the mother of a certain one, of whom it is related in Schabbath (104b)

That this Mary is none other than the mother of Jesus will be shown later.

4. Out of contempt, Jesus is also called Naggat bar naggat — “the carpenter son of a carpenter”³ also Ben chavsch etaim — “the son of a wood worker”.

do with this name, It is well known that the Israelites are often warned in their sacred writings to shun the worship of Elohe Nekhar -- strange gods or god. What does Etche Nekhar really mean? By the numbering method of the Gammartria these letters equal 316, which taken together make the word Jeachu. This is found at the end of the book Abhkath Rokhel. They therefore teach that to dishonor God by the worship of Elohe Nekharis the name as to dishonor him by the worship of Jeschu. Behold the malice of the serpent I Antonius also found a marginal note in a book about the Jewish faith and religion. In a Jewish prayer book there is a certain prayer beginning with Alenu Formerly the wording contained certain things which were afterwards deleted for fear of the Christians. but the space remains vacant to warn children and adults that something is omitted there. The deleted words were hammischtachavim lehebbel varik umitpallelim lelo ioschia Those who bow down exhibit vanity and foolishness and adore him who cannot save. This is generally said about idols; but is secretly meant for Jesus whose name is hero signified by the letter

³ cf. Abhodah Zarah. 50b

5. He is also called Talui— "the one who was hanged". Rabbi Samuel, the son of a Meir, in the Hitch Akum of Maimonides, refers to the fact that it was forbidden to take part in the Christian feasts of Christmas and Easter because they were celebrated on account of him who was hanged. And Rabbi Aben Ezra, in a commentary on Genes. (XXVII, 39) also calls him Talui, whose image the Emperor Constantine reproduced on his banner..... in the days of Constantine, who made a change of religion and placed the figure of the one who was hanged on his banner".

Article II. — THE LIFE OF CHRIST

The Talmud teaches that Jesus Christ was illegitimate and was conceived during menstruation; that he had the soul of Esau; that he was a fool, a conjurer, a seducer; that he was crucified, burned in hell and set up as an idol ever since by his followers.

1. ILLEGITIMATE AND CONCEIVED DURING MENSTRUATION

The following is narrated in the Tract Kallah, lb (18b):

"Once when the Elders were seated at the Gate, two young men passed by, one of whom had his head covered, the other with his head bare Rabbi Eliezer remarked that the one in his bare head was illegitimate, a mamzer. Rabbi Jehoschua said that he was conceived during menstruation, ben niddah. Rabbi Akibah, however, said that he was both. Whereupon the others asked Rabbi Akibah why he dared to contradict his colleagues. He answered that he could prove what he said. He went therefore to the boy's mother whom he saw sitting in the market place selling vegetables and said to her: "My daughter, if you will answer truthfully what I am going to ask you. I promise that you will be saved in the next life". She demanded that he would swear to keep his promise, and Rabbi Akibah did so — but with his lips only, for in his heart he invalidated his oath. Then he said: "Tell me, what kind of son is this of yours?" To which she replied: "The day I was married I was having menstruation, and because of this my husband left me. But an evil spirit came and slept with me and from this intercourse my son was born to me". Thus it was proved that this young man was not only illegitimate but also conceived during the menstruation of his mother. And when his questioners heard this they declared: "Great indeed was Rabbi Akibah when he corrected his Elders" And they exclaimed: "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel who revealed his secret to Rabbi Akibah the son of Joseph".

That the Jews understand this story to refer to Jesus and his mother, Mary, is clearly demonstrated in their book Toldath Jeschu — "The Generations of Jesus" — where the birth of our Savior is narrated in almost the same words.¹

Another story of this kind is narrated in Sanlzedrin, 67a:

'Of all who are guilty of death by the Law, he alone² is caught by a ruse. How is it done? They light a candle in an inner room and place witnesses in an adjoining room outside where they can see him and hear his voice; but where they cannot be seen by him. 'Please repeat here privately what you told me before'. If the seducer repeats what he said, the other asks him 'But how shall we leave our God who is in heaven and serve idols?' If the seducer repents, then all is well. But if he says 'This is our duty and it is right for us to do so,' then the witnesses outside, who have heard him, bring him before the judge and stone him to death. This is what they did to the son of Stada in Lud, and they hanged him on the eve of the Passover. For this son of Stada was the son of Pandira. For Rabbi Chasda tells us that Pandira was the husband³ of Stada, his mother, and he lived during the time of Paphus the son of Jehuda. But his mother was Stada, Mary of Magdala (a ladies' hairdresser) who, as it is said in Pumbadita, deserted her husband".

³ A marginal note says this — on of Stada was called alto, his father, not his mother, although he was illegitimate.

The meaning of this is that Mary was called Stada, that is, a prostitute, because, according to what was taught at Pumbadita, she left her husband and committed adultery. This is also recorded in the Jerusalem Talmud' and by Maimonides.¹

That the mention here is of Mary, the mother of Jesus, is verified in the Tract Chagigah, 4b:

"When Rabbi Bibhai was visited once by the Death Angel (the devil), the latter said to his assistant: 'Go and bring to me Mary the hairdresser' (that is, kill her). He went and brought Mary the children's hairdresser — in place of the other Mary".

A marginal note explains the passage as follows:

'This story of Mary the Ladies' hairdresser happened under the Second Temple. She was the mother of Peloni, 'that man', as he is called in the tract Schabbath", (fol. 104b).

Article III — THE TEACHINGS OF CHRIST

The Seducer and Idolater could teach nothing but falsehood and heresy which was irrational and impossible to observe.

1. Falsehood

In Abhodah Zarah (6a) it says:

"A Nazarene is one who follows the false teachings of that man who taught them to worship on the first day of the Sabbath".

2. Heresy

In the same book Abhodah Zar. (Ch. I, 17a Toseph) mention is made of the heresy of James. A little further on (27b) we learn that this James was none other than the disciple of Jesus:

"..... James Sekhanites, one of the disciples of Jesus, of whom we spoke in chapter I".

But James taught, not his own doctrine, but that of Jesus.

3. Impossible To Observe

The author of Nizzachon² argues as follows on this point:

"A written law of the Christians is: If a Jew strikes you on one cheek, turn the other also to him and do not in any way return the blow¹ And ch. VI, v. 27 says: Love your enemies; do good to them who hate you; bless them who curse you and pray for those who do you harm; unto him who strikes you on one cheek offer him the other. To him who takes away thy cloak do not forbid him to take thy coat also, etc. The same is found in Matthew ch. V, v. 39. But I have never seen any Christian keep this law, nor did Jesus himself behave as he taught others to do. For we find in John ch. XVIII, v. 22, that when someone struck him on the face, he did not turn the other cheek, but became angry on account of this one stroke and asked 'Why do you strike me?' Likewise in the Acts of the Apostles, ch. XXIII, v. 3, we read: that when the High Priest ordered them that stood by to strike him on the mouth, Paul did not turn the other cheek; he cursed him saying 'God shall smite thee thou whited wall, etc'. This is contrary to their beliefs and destroys the foundation upon which their religion rests, for they boast that the law of Jesus is easy to observe. If Paul himself, who may be called the Dispenser of Jesus, could not observe the precept of Jesus, who among the others who believe in him can prove to me that he can do so?"

The author, however, who had the Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles under his hand, could not have failed to understand in what sense Christ commanded his followers to turn the other cheek to him who would strike them, since in another place he commanded his followers to cut off a hand or an arm, and to pluck out an eye if these should scandalize them. No one who has had the least acquaintance with Holy Scripture ever thought that these commands should be taken literally. Only deep malice and ignorance of the times in which Jesus lived can explain why the Jews, even to this day, use these passages to detract from the teachings of Jesus Christ.¹

CHRISTIANS MUST BE EXTERMINATED

The followers of "that man", whose name is taken by the Jews to mean "May his name and memory be blotted out", are not otherwise to be regarded than as people whom it would be good to get rid of. They are called Romans and tyrants who hold captive the children of Israel, and by their destruction the Jews would be freed from the Fourth Captivity. Every Jew is, therefore, bound to do all he can to destroy that impious kingdom of the Edomites (Rome) which rules the whole world. Since, however, it is not always and everywhere possible to effect this extermination of Christians, the Talmud orders that they should be attacked at least indirectly, namely: by injuring them in every possible way, and by thus lessening their power, help towards their ultimate destruction. Wherever it is possible a Jew should kill Christians, and do so without mercy.

Article I. — HARM MUST BE DONE TO CHRISTIANS

A Jew is commanded to harm Christians wherever he can, both indirectly by not helping them in any way, and also directly by wrecking their plans and projects; neither must he save a Christian who is in danger of death.

I. Good Must Not Be Done To Christians

In Zohar(125b) it says:

eslanhisch o, lhodozen Oreiricheie, Kollegluib. p. 16. 1884.

*At times it is permitted to do good to Christians, but only in order to help Israel, namely, for the sake of peace and to hide hatred of them. Maimonides in Hilkhoth Akum (X6) says:

"Needy Gentiles may be helped as well as needy Jews, for the sake of peace... 7

In lore Dea (148,12 Hagah) it says:

"Therefore if you enter a town and find them celebrating a feast, you may pretend to rejoice with them in order to hide your hatred. Those, however, who care about the salvation of their souls should keep away from such celebrations. You should make it known that it is a hateful thing to rejoice with them, if you can do so without incurring their enmity".

2. It is Not Permitted To Praise A Christian In Abhodah Zarah (20,a, Toseph) it. says:

"Do not say anything in praise of them, lest it be said: How good that God is!"²

In this way they explain the words of Deuteronomy (1.11.2) and thou shalt show no mercy unto them [Goim], as cited in the Gemarah. Rabbi S. Iarchi explains this Bible passage as follows:

"Do not pay them any compliments; for it is forbidden to say: how good that God is".

In lore Dea (151, 14) it says:

"No one is allowed to praise them or to say how good an Akum is. How much less to praise what they do or to recount anything about them which would redound to their glory. If, however, while praising them you intend to give glory to God, namely, because he has created comely creatures, then it is allowed to do so".

3. A Jew is Not Allowed To Mention The Things Which Christians Use For Their Idolatrous Worship

² Maimonides (in Hilkh. Akum X.5) adds: Moreover, you should seek opportunity to mix with them and find out about their evil doings.

In Hilkhoh Akum (V,12) it says:

"It is also forbidden to make mention of the Akum; for it is written (Exodus XXIII, 13): and make no mention of other gods".

4. Their Idols Must Be Spoken Of With Contempt

In lore Dea (146,15) it says:

"Their idols must be destroyed, or called by contemptuous names

In Babha Bathra (54b) it says:

"All things pertaining to the Goim are like a desert; the first person to come along and take them can claim them for his own".

5. Christians Must Not Be Told If They Pay Too Much To A Jew

In Choschem Hammischpat (183,7) it says:

"If you send a messenger to collect money from an Akum, and the Akum pays too much, the messenger may keep the difference. But if the messenger does not know about it, then you may keep it all yourself".

6. Lost Property Of Christians Must Not Be Returned To Them

In Choschen Ham. (266,1) it says:

"A Jew may keep anything he finds which belongs to the Akum, for it is written: Return to thy brethren what is lost (Deuter. XXII,3). For he who returns lost property [to Christians] sins against the Law by increasing the power of the transgressors of the Law. It is praiseworthy, however, to return lost property if it is done to honor the name of God, namely, if by so doing Christians will praise Jews and look upon them as honorable people".

7. Christians May Be Defrauded In Babha Kama (II Sb) it says:

"It is permitted to deceive a Gol".

And in Chosehem Ham. (156,5. Hagah) it says:

"If a Jew is doing good business with an Akum it is not allowed to other Jews, in certain places, to come and do business with the same Akum. In other places, however, it is different, where another Jew is allowed to do to the same Akum, lead him on, do business with him and to deceive him and take his money. For the wealth of the Akum is to be regarded as common property and belongs to the first who can get it. There are some, however, who say that this should not be done".

In Choschem Ham. (183,7 Hagak) it says:

if a Jew is doing business with an Akum and a fellow Israelite comes along and defrauds the Akum, either by false measure, weight or number, he must divide his profit with his fellow Israelite, since both had a part in the deal, and also in order to help him along".

8. A Jew May Pretend He is A Christian To Deceive Christians

In lore Dea (157,2 Hagah) it says:

"If a Jew is able to deceive them [idolaters] by pretending he is a worshipper of the stars, he may do so.¹

9. A Jew is Allowed To Practise Usury On Christians

In Abhodah Zarah (54a) it says:

"It is allowed to take usury from Apostates² who fall into idolatry".

And in lore Dea (159,1) it says:

"It is permitted, according to Torah, to lend money to an Akum with usury. Some of the Elders, however, deny this except in a case of life and death. Nowadays it is permitted for any reason".

Articel III — CHRISTIANS TO BE HARMED IN LEGAL MATTERS

1. A Jew May Lie And Prejure Himself To Condemn A Christian

² The Jews call Baptism Schomed. and an apostate baptized Jew. a Meschunirnad.

In Babha Kama (113a) it says:

"Our teaching is as follows: When a Jew and a Gal come into court, absolve the Jew, if you can, according to the laws of Israel. If the Gal wins, tell him that is what our law requires. If, however, the Jew can be absolved according to the gentile law, absolve him and say it is due to our laws. If this cannot be done proceed callously against the Gal, as Rabbi Ischmael advises. Rabbi Akibha, however, holds that you cannot act fraudulently lest you profane the Name of God, and have a Jew committed for perjury".

A marginal note, however, explains this qualification of Rabbi Akibha as follows:

"The name of God is not profaned when it is not known by the Gal that the Jew has lied".

And further on, the Babha Kama (113b) says:

"The name of God is not profaned when, for example, a Jew lies to a Gal by saying: 'I gave something to your father, but he is dead; you must return it to me', as long as the Gal does not know that you are lying".

2. A Jew May Prejure Himself With A Clear Conscience

In Xallah (Ib. p. 18) it says:

"She (the mother of the mamzer) said to him, 'Swear to me'. And Rabbi Akibha swore with his lips, but in his heart he invalidated his oath".¹

A similar text is found in Schabbuoth Hagahoth of Rabbi Ascher (6d):

If the magistrate of a city compels Jews to swear that they will not escape from the city nor take anything out of it, they may swear falsely by saying to themselves that they will not escape today, nor take anything out of the city today only".

Article IV — CHRISTIANS MUST BE HARMED IN THINGS NECESSARY FOR LIFE

They must fight Christians with astuteness and do nothing to prevent evil from happening to them; their sick must not be cared for, Christian women in childbirth must not be helped, nor must they be saved when in danger of death.

1. A Jew Must Always Try To Deceive Christians In Zoliar (I, 160,a) it says:

"Rabbi Jehuda said to him [Rabbi Chezkiā]; He is to be praised who is able to free himself from the enemies of Israel, and the just are much to be praised who get free from them and fight against them'. Rabbi Chezkia asked, 'How must we fight against them?' Rabbi Jehuda said, 'By wise counsel thou shalt war against them' (Proverbs, ch. 24. 6). By what kind of war? The kind of war that every son of man must fight against his enemies which Jacob used against Esau — by deceit and trickery whenever possible. They must be fought against without ceasing, until proper order be restored. Thus it is with satisfaction that I say we should free ourselves from them and rule over them".

2. A Sick Christian Must Not Be Aided In lore Dea (1.58,1) it says: -

"The Akum are not to be cured, even for money, unless it would incur the enmity".

3. A Christian Woman In Childbirth Must Not Be Helped
In Orach Chaiim (330,2) it says:

"No help is to be given to an Akum woman in labor on the Sabbath even in a small way, for the Sabbath must not be violated".

4. A Christian in Danger Of Death Must Not Be Helped
In Choschen Ham. (425,5) it says;

"If you see a heretic, who does not believe in the Torah, fall into a well in which there is a ladder, hurry at once and take it away and say to him 'I have to go and take my son down from a roof; I will bring the ladder back to you at once' or something else. The Kuthaei, however, who are not our enemies, who take care of the sheep of the Israelites, are not to be killed directly, but they must not be saved from death".

And in Iore Déa (158,1) it says:

"The Akum who are not enemies of ours must not be killed directly, nevertheless they must not be saved from danger of death. For example, if you see one of them fall into the sea, do not pull him out unless he promises to give you money".

Maimonides, in Hiikhohi Akum (XI) says:

"Do not have any pity for them, for it is said (Deuter. V 11,2): Show no mercy unto them. Therefore, if you see an Akum in difficulty or drowning, do not go to his help. And if he is in danger of death, do not save him from death. But it is not right to kill him by your own hand by shoving them into a well or in some other way, since they are not at war with us".

Article II — CHRISTIANS ARE TO BE KILLED

Lastly, the Talmud commands that Christians are to be killed without mercy. In the Abhodah Zorah (26b) it says:

"Heretics, traitors and apostates are to be thrown into a well and not rescued".

And in Choschen Hammzschpai (388,10) it says:

"A spy is to be killed, even in our days, wherever he is found. He may be killed even before he confesses. And even if he admits that he only intended to do harm to somebody, and if the harm which he intended is not very great, it is sufficient to have him condemned to death. He must be warned, however, not to confess to this. But if he impudently says 'No, I will confess it' then he must be killed, and the sooner the better. If there is no time to warn him, it is not necessary to do so. There are some who say that a traitor is to be put to death only when it is impossible to get rid of him by mutilating him, that is, by cutting cut his tongue or his eyes, but if this can be done he must not be killed, since he is not any worse than other who persecute us".

And in Choschen Hamm. (388,15) it says:

"If it can be proved that someone has betrayed Israel three times, or has given the money of Israelites to the Akum, a way must be found after prudent consideration to wipe him off the face of the earth".

Even a Christian who is found studying the Law of Israel merits death. In Sanhednn (59a) it says:

"Rabbi Jochanan says: A Gal who tries into the Law is guilty of death".

And in lore Dea (158,2 Hagah) it says:

"Renegades who turn to the pleasure of the Akum, and who become contaminated with them by worshipping stars and planets as they do, are to be killed".

Likewise in Choschen Hamm. (425,5) it says:

"Jews who become epicureans, who take to the worship of stars and planets and sin maliciously; also those who eat the flesh of wounded animals, or who dress in vain clothes, deserve the name of epicureans; likewise those who deny the Torah and the Prophets of Israel — the law is that all those should be killed; and those who have the power of life and death should have them killed; and if this cannot be done, they should be led to their death by deceptive methods".

Rabbi Maimonides, in Hilkhoth Teschubhah (111,8), gives the list of those who are considered as denying the Law:

"There are three classes of people who deny the Law of the Torah: (1) Those who say that the Torah was not given by God, at least one verse or one word of it, and who say that it was all the work of Moses; (2) Those who reject the explanation of the Torah, namely, the Oral Law of the Mischnah, and do not recognize the authority of the Doctors of the Law, like the followers of Tsadok (Sadducees) and Baithos; (3) Those who say that God changed the Law for another New Law, and that the Torah no longer has any value, although they do not deny that it was given by God, as the Christians and the Turks believe. All of these deny the Law of the Torah.

Article III — CHRISTIANS ARE TO BE KILLED BECAUSE THEY ARE TYRANTS

In Zohar (I,25a) it says:

"The People of the Earth are idolators, and it has been written about them: Let them be wiped off the face of the earth. Destroy the memory of the Amalekites. They are with us still in this Fourth Captivity, namely, the Princes [of Rome] ... who are really Amalakites".

1. These Princes Are To Be Killed First

For if they are allowed to live, the hope of the liberation of the Jews is in vain, and their prayers for release from this Fourth Captivity are of no avail. In Zohar (I,219b) it says:

"It is certain that our captivity will last until the princes of the gentiles who worship idols are destroyed".

And again in Zohar (II, 19a) it says:

"Rabbi Jehuda said: Come and see how it is; how the princes have assumed power over Israel and the Israelites make no outcry. But their rejoicing is heard when the prince falls. It is written that: the King of the Egyptians died and soon the children of Israel were released from captivity; they cried out and their voice ascended to God".

2. The Principedom Whose Chief City is Rome is The One To Be Hated Most Of All By The Jews

They call it the Kingdom of Esau, and of the Edoinites, the Kingdom of Pride, the Wicked Kingdom, Impious Rome. The Turkish Empire is called the Kingdom of the Israelites which they do not wish to destroy. The Kingdom of Rome, however, must be exterminated, because when corrupt Rome is destroyed, salvation and freedom will come to God's Chosen People".¹

Rabbi David Kimchi writes as follows in Obadiah:

"What the Prophets foretold about the destruction of Edom in the last days was intended for Rome, as Isaiah explains (ch.34,1): Come near, ye nations, to hear ... For when Rome is destroyed, Israel shall be redeemed".

Rabbi Abraham also, in his book Tseror Hammor, section Schoflim, says the same:

"Immediately after Rome is destroyed we shall be redeemed".

Article IV — LASTLY ALL CHRISTIANS, INCLUDING THE BEST OF THEM, ARE TO BE KILLED

In Abhodah Zarah (26b, Tosephoth) it says:

"Even the best of the Goim should be killed"

The Schuichon Arukh, after the words of lore Dea (158,1), that those of the Akum who do not harm Jews are not to be killed, namely those who do not wage war against Israel, thus explains the world Milchoamah — war:

"But in time of war the Akum are to be killed for it is written: 'The good among the Akum deserve to be killed, etc.'"

Article V — A JEW WHO KILLS A CHRISTIAN COMMITTS NO SIN, BUT OFFERS AN ACCEPTABLE SACRIFICE TO GOD

In Sepher Or Israel (177b) it says:

"Take the life of the Kliphoth and kill them and you will please God the same as one who offers incense to Him".

And in Ialkut Sinoni (245c. n. 772) it says:

"Everyone who sheds the blood of the impious is as acceptable to God as he who offers a sacrifice to God".

Article VI— AFTER THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE AT JERUSALEM, THE ONLY SACRIFICE NECESSARY IS THE EXTERMINATION OF CHRISTIANS

In Zohar (II,227b) the Good Pastor says:

The only sacrifice required is that we remove the unclean from amongst US".

Zohar (II,43a), explaining the precept of Moses about the redemption of the first-born of an ass by offering a lamb, says:

"The ass means the non-Jews, who is to be redeemed by the offering of a lamb, which is the dispersed sheep of Israel. But if he refuses to be redeemed, then break his skull.....They should be taken out of the book. of the living, for it is said about them: He who sins against me, I shall take out of the book of life".

Article VII — THOSE WHO KILL CHRISTIANS SHALL HAVE A HIGH PLACE IN HEAVEN

In Zohar (I,38b and 39a) it says:

"In the palaces of the fourth heaven are those who lamented over Sion and Jerusalem, and all those who destroyed idolatrous nations and those who killed off people who worship idols are clothed in purple garments so that they may be recognized and honored".

Article VIII — JEWS MUST NEVER CEASE TO EXTERMINATE THE GOIM; THEY MUST NEVER LEAVE THEM IN PEACE AND NEVER SUBMIT TO THEM

In Hilkhoth Akum (X,1) it says:

"Do not eat with idolaters, nor permit them to worship their idols; for it is written: Make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them (Deuter. ch.7,2). Either turn them away from their idols or kill them".

Ibidem (X,7):

"In places where Jews are strong, no idolater must be allowed to remain...

Article IX — ALL JEWS ARE OBLIGED TO UNITE TOGETHER TO DESTROY TRAITORS AMONGST THEM

In Choschen Hamm. (338,16) it says:

"All the inhabitants of a city are obliged to contribute to the expense of killing a traitor, even those who have to pay other taxes".

Article X— NO FESTIVAL, NO MATTER HOW SOLEMN, MUST PREVENT THE BEHEADING OF A CHRISTIAN

In Pesachim (49b) it says:

"Rabbi Eliezer said: it is permitted to cut off the head of an 'Idiot' [one of the people of the Earth] on the feast of the Atonement when it falls on the Sabbath¹. His disciples said to him: Rabbi, you should rather say to sacrifice. But he replied: By no means, for it is necessary to pray while sacrificing, and there is no need of prayers when you behead someone".

Article XI— THE ONE OBJECT OF ALL THE ACTIONS AND PRAYERS OF THE JEWS SHOULD BE TO DESTROY THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION

Thus the Jews picture their Messiah and Liberator whom they expect, as a persecutor who will inflict great calamities upon non-Jews. The Talmud lists three great evils which will come upon the world when the Messiah comes. In Schabbath (118a) it says:

"Whoever eats three meals on the Sabbath shall be saved from the three evils: from the punishments of the Messiah, from the pain of the hell and from the war of Magog; for it is written; Behold, I shall send you Elias the Prophet before the coming of the 'Day' of the Lord, etc."

Article XII — IN THEIR PRAYERS THE JEWS SIGH
FOR THE COMING OF THE REVENGEFUL MESSIAH, ESPECIALLY ON THE EVE OF THE PASS OVER

"Pour out the anger upon the nations that know thee not, and upon the kingdoms which do not invoke thy name; Pour out thy Indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them; Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the Lord".

¹ No day more holy than this could be Imagined.

They also pray as follows:

"How long will thy strength remain captive and thy beauty lie under the hand of the oppressor? O God! Show forth thy strength and let them be confounded"

And again:

"Cut off the hope of unjust; let all heretics perish at once; root out, break up and destroy the Proud Kingdom; hasten to make all peoples subject in our days".

WELCOME TO THE PARTICIPANTS OF INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FABC OFFICE OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS AFFAIRS

A Muslim-Christian dialogue, for the first time in the history of Pakistan, was held at Multan between 19th and 24th October 1992, which was attended by some of the most eminent Muslim and Christian scholars from all over the world. After detailed discussions it was unanimously decided to work together for creating harmony in the God's world.

On the right side of the Ambassador of Vatican is standing Prof. Dr. M. A. Younis of Temple University, Philadelphia, an Arab American (in black suit), and on the left side is the writer of this article (Khurshheed Warsi).
