IMAM ALI IBNA ABI TALIB SAYS :

Put faith in Allah. Seek His protection. Direct your prayers, requests, solicitations and supplications to Him and Him alone.
To give as well as to withold lies in His (only in His) power.
Ask as much of His favours as you can.
Know that Allah owns the treasures of the heavens and the earth. Not only He has given permission to ask for His mercy and favours, but also has promised to listen to your prayers. He has not appointed guards to prevent your prayers reaching Him. Invoke His help in difficulties and distress. Implore Him to grant you long life and sound health. Pray to Him for prosperity.
Think over it that by simply granting you the privilege of praying for His favours and mercy, He has handed over the keys of His treasures to you. Whenever you are in need, pray, and He gives His favours and blessings.

[When My servants ask you about Me, then (say to them that) verily I am very near, I answer the prayer of the supplicant when he beseeches Me. So they should hear My call, and believe in Me, so that they may be led aright. (Al Baqarah : 186)]

Sometimes you find requests are not immediately granted. Do not be disappointed. Fulfilment of desires rests with the true purpose or intention of the prayer. More often fulfilment is delayed because the Merciful Lord wants to bestow upon you suitable rewards. In the meantime bear patiently hardships, believing sincerely in His help. You will get better favours, because, unknowingly, you may ask for things which are really harmful to you. Many of your requests, if granted, may bring eternal damnation.
So, at times, withholding fulfilment is a blessing in disguise.

In addition to that which has been said about du-a'as in "Essentials" we like to tell the readers that though the supplications written in the Prayer's Alamanac were composed and taught by the Holy Prophet and his Ahl ul Bayt in the early days of Islam, yet they are useful and have every relevance for those who live today and those who will come tomorrow, because man is more than an animal, more than a competitor in the market economy and class struggle. Religion and wisdom ("We gave to the children of Ibrahim the book and wisdom" says Allah in Nisa : 54) help man to subordinate the temporal, the wordly, the secular to the spiritual, the eternal. The spirit of God in man, awakened by the supplications taught by the holy infallibles (ma'-somin), stimulates him to humanize and spiritualize the material gains. A terrible blindness afflicts every man at the personal level when he drifts away from the spiritual domain of godliness unto the matter-of-fact, power-loving, opportunistic pursuits, when evil, hatred, injustice, tyranny, betrayal and falsehood prevail over love, justice, mercy, loyalty, goodness, and truth.

"Prayer" in Islam is obligatory as well as voluntary. The daily canonical prayer (salat) is obligatory. Every Muslim must perform the salat five times a day. There are some other obligatory prayers such as the Jumu-ah congregational prayer etcetera. The voluntary prayers are prayed either as salat, d'ikr or du-a'a. Every worshipper is free to perform the sunna salats as he desires.

D'ikr means remembrance or mention of a name or names of Allah like LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH, SUBH'AANALLAAH, ALHAMDULILLAAH, ALLAHU AKBAR. D'ikr provides for human psychological and spiritual needs and influences activity, therefore spiritual teachers developed a system of different d'ikrs appropriate for all the states of the soul.

Dua'a means to call upon, and it is commanded by Allah in several verses of the holy Quran:

> And when My servants ask you about Me, then (say to them that) verily I am very near—I answer the prayer of the supplicant when he beseeches Me. [BAQARAH : 186]
> Call on your Lord humbly and in secret. [ARAF : 55]
> Call upon Allah, or call upon the beneficent (Rah'maan); whichever (name) you call upon (is same because) to Him belongs the most beautiful names.[BANI ISRAIL : 110]
>
> Call upon Allah, devoting religion exclusively to Him, [MUMIN : 14]
> Call to Me, I will answer you. [MUMIN : 60]

The Holy Prophet said:

> Allah says: O My servants, all of you are misguided except him whom I guide, so ask Me for guidance, and I will guide you. All of you are poor except him whom I enrich, so ask Me for riches, and I will provide for you. All of you are sinners except him whom I pardon, so ask Me to forgive you, and I will forgive you.

Imam Ali ibn abi Talib said:

Put faith in Allah. Seek His protection.
Direct your prayers, requests, solicitations and supplications to Him and Him alone.
To give as well as to withold lies in His (only in His) power.
Ask as much of His favours as you can.

He has not appointed guards to prevent your prayers reaching Him. Invoke His help in difficulties and distress. Implore Him to grant you long life and sound health. Pray to Him for prosperity.
Think over it that by simply granting you the privilege of praying for His favours and mercy, He has handed over the keys of His treasures to you. Whenever you are in need, pray, and He gives His favours and blessings.
Sometimes you find requests are not immediately granted. Do not be disappointed. Fulfilment of desires rests with the true purpose or intention of the prayer. More often fulfilment is delayed because the merciful Lord wants to bestow upon you suitable rewards. In the meantime bear patiently hardships, believing sincerely in His help. You will get better favours, because, unknowingly, you may ask for things which are really harmful to you. Many of your requests, if granted, may bring eternal damnation.
So, at times, withholding fulfilment is a blessing in disguise.

The private devotional lives of the Holy Prophet and the Imams of his Ahl ul Bayt act as models for other human beings. The sunna of the Holy Prophet is the highest exemplication of human goodness made into an ideal which every faithful (mumin) should emulate, therefore, as calling upon Allah, through dua'as, was his way of life (sunnah), we must also make use of such dua'as to beseech the almighty Lord of the worlds.

The dua'as composed and taught by the Holy Prophet and the holy Imams for every occasion are listed in the most widely employed prayer manual, known as Mafatih al Jinan.

LA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH (there is no god, save Allah), the essence of the Quranic message is the basis of all dua'as, known as shahada. It is the profession of Allah's unity (tawhid). It means that the supplicant is nothing and Allah is all. Everything positive that the supplicant possesses has been given to him by Allah, while every fault and imperfection refers to the supplicants specific attributes.
Every good and praiseworthy quality—life, love, wisdom, will, power, hearing, sight, speech, generosity, justice, and so on—is given by Allah. Every evil—ignorance, hatred, hardness, niggardliness, corruption, etcetera—is his own shortcoming. When this discernment is made, man is left with his own sinfulness and inadequancy, so he can only abase himself before his Lord, asking for His generosity and forgiveness. So shahada (bearing witness of Allah's unity) is the root of Islamic spirituality.

For those who devote themselves to worship of Allah, dua'a is the flesh and blood of the imagination. It provides a means through which the supplicant can think about Allah and keep the thought of Him present throughout his or her daily activities to develop a very intimate feeling of nearness to Him, which finally refines his/her sensibilities, emotions, thoughts and concepts—a reliable medium to establish personal relationship between man and Allah.

The dua'as composed and taught by the Holy Prophet and his Ahl ul Bayt seek to create an intimate yearning of the soul to reach the most possible nearness to Allah, the highest example of which is "Then he (the Holy Prophet) drew near, and nearer, (thus he) was at a distance of two bows, or nearer still" No one knows the neareness "near still" (aw adnaa) indicates. It is beyond human understanding. In a hadith qudsi Allah says:

> "My servant continues drawing near to Me through voluntary, optional and extra acts of worship (such as dua'as), until I love him, and when I love him, I am the hearing through which he hears, the sight through which he sees, the hand through which he grasps, and the foot through which he walks.'

To remove any misunderstanding that there may be a possibility of identity between the created and that which has been created, The Holy Prophet and the Imams of his holy Ahl ul Bayt, notwithstanding their infallibility, often used to ask Allah to forgive their sins. According to various hadiths, the Holy Prophet used to say ASTAGHFIRULLAH (I pray forgiveness from Allah) 100 times a day. The basic teaching of the shahada means that nothing and no one—not even the greatest of the prophets—stand on a par with Allah. The Holy Prophet is first abduhoo (His servant) and only then rasooluhoo (His messenger).

The Holy Quran says:

> Only those of His servants fear Allah who have knowledge (Fatir : 28).

Those who have knowledge of Allah and self, understand the infinite distance between "I" (the created being) and the divine reality (the creator). No true believer can ever think that he has reached a point where he no longer needs Allah's forgiveness, so "repentance" (tawba) and "asking forgiveness" (istighar) is the lifestyle of every mumin.

The pronouncement of tawba and istighfar again and again in the dua'as composed and taught by the Holy Prophet, Imam Ali ibn abi Talib and Imam Ali bin Husayn Zayn al Abidin, may appear contradictory to the unwary readers because according to shi-a faith the Holy Prophet and the Imams of his Ahl ul Bayt are sinless (ma'-sum).

The first category of seekers of forgiveness belongs to the faithful in general, who sin by breaking the commands of the shari-a, repent and ask Allah to forgive their sins, promising not to repeat the sin.

In the second category there are those who have dedicated their lives to Allah and in every walk of life they carefully observe the laws of shari-a, but repent and ask forgiveness for the heedlessness (ghaflat) of their souls, which are unable to remember

Allah at all times in order to feel His perfect presence. They do not repent for their acts but for their inappropriate thoughts and intentions and ask Allah to forgive these whenever they occur.

The third category, "those brought near to Allah", are beyond outward and inward sins. They see Allah's will, guidance, and mercy in every act and every thought. The "I", their own self, stand between man and Allah. They repent of the inadequacy of a created being and ask forgiveness for the fact that the existence of a created being is separate from the creator—the perfection of a finite being cannot be the absolute perfection of the infinite supreme being. The jurists and the theologians lay stress on the God of remoteness and transcendence. Since the shari-a concern itself basically with activity, it is directed towards the outward affairs which are governed by the laws of the remote King. To them Allah is a just and stern commander, concerned only with bringing His servants into a discipline so that they will follow His law. They ignore the fact that every chapter of the holy Quran (except Tawbah) begins with Bismillaahir rah'maanir Rah'eem, and that the holy Quran mentions Allah's names of mercy, compassion, kindness, generosity, forgiveness and love about ten times as often as it mentions His names of severity. The overwhelming Quranic picture is that of a God deeply concerned with the well-being of His creatures and ready to forgive almost anything, if only they will repent and acknowledge His sovereignty.

One day a companion of Imam Ali bin Husayn Zayn al Abidin told him that Hasan al-Basri had said: "It is not strange if a person perishes as he perishes. It is only strange that a person is saved as he is saved."
The Imam replied: "But I say that it is not strange if a person is saved as he is saved; it is only strange that a person perishes as he perishes, given the scope of Allah's mercy."
The Imam said:

> "My Allah my sins do not harm You and Your pardon does not impoverish You. Then forgive me what does not harm You and give me what You will not miss."

The Holy Quran says:

> "(As to) My mercy, it embraces everything." (ARAF : 156)

According to a famous hadith qudsi Allah says:

> "My mercy precedes My wrath,
> My mercy predominates over My wrath."

Therefore the dua'as place great emphasis upon man's inadequacy and sinfulness, acknowledging that he deserves Allah's displeasure, but, at the same time, when he takes refuge in Allah's mercy and forgiveness, it is hopefully expected that Allah would do with him as is worthy of such a merciful being, not as he himself deserves.

The more a man is aware of his inadequacy, the more he calls upon Allah to seek His mercy and forgiveness. Man is nothing compared to Allah who is fundamentally mercy.

> "Do not despair of the mercy of Allah; verily Allah forgives all sins. Verily He is oft-forgiving, most merciful." (ZUMAR : 39)

ESSENTIALS

The rules of conduct, or the commandments of the religion of Allah, Islam, a condensed form of laws, to regulate our day to day life in this world, are ten. They are binding and essential (wajib). We have to carry out each and every one of them.

In addition there is another aspect of behaviour known as sunnah muwakkidah (highly desirable but optional way of life), on the pattern of the lives of the Holy Prophet, his holy Ahl ul Bayt and the prophets and mesengers of Allah. The sincere faithfuls (muminin) willingly make a choice to act up to that which the "chosen friends of Allah" employed themselves in, day by day.

Highly respected religious scholars, Ibn Babwiyyah, Shaykh Tusi, Ka'-fimi, Majlisi, and others collected and published dua'as (special prayers), mainly composed by Imam Ali Ibn abi Talib and Imam Ali bin Husayn Zayn al Abidin, together with "highly desirable" mode of everyday conduct. The most reliable book available for us is Mafatih al Jinan.

We have brought out the English version of the Mafatih al Jinan under the title of "The Pray-er's Almanac", Selected Soorahs and Dua'as Volume One and Two, Dua'a Volumes Three and Four.

The Arabic word dua'a means call, request, supplication, invitation, invocation or prayer.

Allah has given us permission to call upon Him.

> "And when My servants ask you about Me, then surely I am near; I answer the prayer of the supplicant when he cries unto Me.
> So let them hear My call and have faith in Me, in order that they may be led aright." (Al Baqarah : 186)

In all dua'as request is made to Allah alone, but through the wasilah (means of approach)—the Holy Prophet and his holy Ahl ul Bayt.

Recitation of dua'as taught by the Holy Prophet and his holy Ahl ul Bayt are twice blessed.

Firstly they provide us the suitable words and proper form to approach and beseech the Almighty Allah.

Secondly, if the meanings are understood they leave a profound impression of the oneness of Allah and His attributes on our minds and souls, and as a result our character formation takes after and follows the pattern laid down by the religion of Allah, Islam.

These dua'as are also a proof of our pure faith in the "One and Only" Allah.

They make clear relationship between man and Allah, and reciprocal relations between human beings, and build up a collective discipline which can be used to set up the much desired ideal society based upon love, peace, harmony, fairplay, justice and freedom—the good free from evil.

Faithful servants of Allah turn repentant to Allah, seek His forgiveness, take refuge with Him, look for His mercy, ask for His blessings, and put forward their legitimate needs and wants for fulfilment.

Wholehearted devotion to the "Lord of the worlds" brings favourable results, purifies the soul, gives joy and confidence to the heart and sense of direction to the mind, cultivates refinement, builds up high-mindedness, self-control, understanding and equilibrium.

The best media are dua'as composed by the Holy Prophet and the holy Imams.

Man is free to make lawful efforts, day in and day out, in the sphere of worldly affairs, but should set apart whatever time may be spared, taking into account strength, moral and physical, legitimate involvement into day to day life, obligation to family and employment, to turn to the creator, the Almighty Allah, the beneficent, the merciful, never forgetting that unto Allah is the return.

Choose and pray that which is feasible.

The minimum shall benefit beyond expectations.

What the maximum has in store is behond imagination.

There are three kind of readers among the faithfuls:

(1) Those who know Arabic well, can read and understand.
(2) Those who know Arabic a little, can read but do not make out the meanings unless translation is available in the language they are aware of. They largely belong to Indo-Pak sub-continent.
(3) Those who do not know Arabic at all.

Our books are essentially for the readers in category (2) and (3). So we have included Arabic text alongwith the "Roman transliteration"

Here we must mention the unanimous opinion of all recognised religious scholars (ayatullahs) that it is the duty of every Muslim to learn the correct recitation of Arabic text, recited in salat and other prayers, but if on account of physical, regional or vernacular stress and strain, inspite of best efforts, it is not possible to overcome the handicaps, he or she, at all events, must recite the prayers in Arabic notwithstanding the affected accent and pronunciation.

So if one, as a sincere faithful, unable to read the Arabic, desires to turn to Allah for putting forward one's wants and needs to get satisfaction, or seek His forgiveness and mercy, can make use of the Roman transliteration, with the English translation, to approach the creator, the All-wise, All-knowing, merciful Allah.

We are not aware if, in any other language, except Persian, the translation of the Arabic text of dua'as is available. We are glad to have put at the disposal of our brothers, through this book, English version of each and every dua'a.

It is essential to know what one recites in Arabic. The substance of dua'as is multi-dimensional and many splendored, only next to the holy Quran and the Nahj al Balaghah in order of merit.

Word to word translation, or transfer of idiom or style of expression of one dialect to another, makes the text vague, and observe, unless the reader knows both the languages.

www.ziaraat.com Sabeel-e-Sakina

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

For example

> "He, who once burned his lips with hot milk, before drinking even the "cold yogurt syrup", cools it more by the air of his breath", is quite confusing for a reader who knows English only. For him "once bitten twice shy" is more reassuring

Instead of literal translation of words and sentences it was found suitable to take permissible liberties in order to convey the ideas and feelings which the Arabic text has in view

For example the exact translation of the Arabic phrase is "the lion of Allah", but after all "lion' is an animal, a lazy predator, hence unsuitable as a simile to glorify the "LAA FATAA". To make a meaningful adjustment, in view of the different shades of the meanings of the Arabic word "asad", "fearless courage to overpower an adversary" has been selected.

It is a fair presumption to conclude that only those who do not know Urdu, Persian or Arabic, will refer to English translations.

We frankly admit that it is almost impossible for a translator to put his version in equivalent class, especially the extraordinary literary artistry of form and style, the original Arabic dua's, we recite. take unto themselves and hold.

One thing is sure. The "Message" has been kept intact.

Arabic, written in Roman script. is an almost near-the-actual thing, if based on a system, carefully studied.

Some Arabic alphabets seem to sound alike, but each letter has its distinctive sound. As there is only one English letter with which two or more similar sounds are to be indicated, apostrophe, one or two after the letter, are used, to distinguish one from the other, because there is no other alternative available in the IBM electronic composer used for typesetting. We can not make use of the system in vogue on account of its inherent inadequacy to cope with the devices based upon electronics. It is possible to make the signs manually on or under the alphabet in a text where there are a few words but to mark thousands of letters by hand is simply impossible, therefore, we have prepared a separate system which is easily operable in electronic typesetting. In the key the equivalent signs of the "current system" have also been given.

Arabic alphabets (consonants) move (pronounced) with the help of vowels, known as desinental signs in Arabic. Each consonant has a vowel after it, and when there is no vowel after the consonant, it becomes stationary, like 'N' in 'GUN' and 'D' in 'BAD' etcetera.

Arabic is read in syllables. Every syllable must begin with a consonant. A syllable consists of a consonant and a vowel (short, long or extra long) or one consonant plus one vowel (short, long or extra long) and another consonant. The last consonant is always stationary. If Arabic is not read syllablewise, it becomes meaningless and ambiguous. Also correct sound of each alphabet, particularly the similar sounding alphabets should be distinguished and voiced correctly.

To the best of our ability the sounds of Arabic consonants and vowels have been indicated in the 'how to voice' column, but it is preferable to learn the sounds from an Arabic-knowing person.

We advise you to read Arabic in syllables, by pronouncing each syllable separately.

For example:

BISMILLAAHIR–RAH'MAANIR– RAH'EEM

in syllables is:

BIS–MIL–LAA–HIR–RAH'–MAA–
NIR–RA-H'EEM

The syllable always begins with (1) a consonant and moves with the vowel (short, long or extra long); coming after it or (2) begins with a consonant and moves with a vowel (short, long or extra long) coming after it, and stops at another consonant, which is always stationery, at which the syllable ends. The next consonant, any other or the same (doubling) coming immediately after the last stationary consonant is the beginning of another syllable and so on.

Only consonants of phonetical symbols of A–I–U group (1), belonging to hamza, sometimes become syllable if the consonant coming immediately after it, has its own vowel.

CHAPTER (I)

LUNAR DAYS AND DATES

Through trustworthy reporters and scholars estimation of the peculiarities and worth of days and dates, computed by the Holy Prophet and his holy Ahl ul Bayt, have been made known to us; also special prayers, supplications and modus operandi (manner of working) for every day of the week, and every date of the month.

Characteristics of days and dates are generalized in the following terms, in view of the effects they may produce if other things remain unchanged.

BAD	ill-omened, ill-fated, unfavourable.
VERY BAD	sinister, disastrous, involving in deep misfortune.
FAIR	no ill-effects but not very favourable.
GOOD	Favourable, gainful, welfare-oriented.
VERY GOOD	blessed, highly favourable.

Lunar day begins after sunset and ends at sunset.

For example Thursday ends at sunset and immediately after sunset the night of Friday begins. The night and the following day is Friday which ends at sunset and after sunset Saturday night begins, and so on so forth.

Very good.

Have a bath, manicure (nail cutting), apply perfume, put on new or clean clothes.

It is a highly favourable blessed day for all types of works, particularly for marriage.

Do not go on a trip, or travel, from daybreak to afternoon because of "Friday prayers".

It is the best day among all days. It is highly blessed.

Imam Muhammad bin Ali al-Baqir said:

"Allah sends down His favourite angels to note down names of people who come in to pray "Friday prayers" in the masjids."

Imam Jafar bin Muhammad As Sadiq said:

"There are two occasions when Allah positively gives answer to supplicants:

(i) The time available, after the "Friday sermon" ends, and the actual salat begins,

(ii) In the evening of Friday before the sunset."

In the night of Friday whoso calls upon Allah gets what he or she wants–fulfilment of desires, acceptance of repentance, forgiveness of sins.

SATURDAY

Good.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

It is a favourable day for all types of works, particularly for journey, but for cutting of cloth to sew garments it is bad.
Do not go to sleep without dinner on Saturdays.
Imam Jafar bin Muhammad As Sadiq said that one who does not eat dinner on Saturday and Sunday, consecutively, loses strength and engery, equivalent to that which can be built up in 40 days.

SUNDAY

Fair.
For constrcuting house, tree planting and marriage is good.
For cutting cloth to sew garments is bad.

MONDAY

Very bad.
Extremely bad, sinister and disastrous if any type of work is carried out.
Monday is as bad as 10th of Muharram, the worst among all days of the year, because on Monday in 61 Hijra, Imam Husayn was martyred on 10th Muharram; and the Holy Prophet also left this world on Monday.
Whoso recites Sooratul "Hal Ataa" (AD-DAHR) is kept safe from the evil effects of Monday.

TUESDAY

Fair.
Good for journey; and for seeking fulfilment of desires.
For cutting cloth to sew garments is bad.

WEDNESDAY

Bad.
Bad for many employments but if a good (pious) work is undertaken it will be fruitful.
Good for cutting cloth to sew garments.

THURSDAY

Very Good.
Very good for all types of works.
Best day for cutting cloth to sew garments, and also for hair-cut.
The Holy Prophet prayed to Allah:
"O Allah make Thursdays and Fridays highly blessed for my followers."
It is highly desirable to call upon the graves of parents, believing friends and relatives on Thursday.
On Thursday give alms, charity, and distribute food among the poor and needy.
Highly suitable to fulfil obligations of nadr and fatihah.

BAD AND VERY BAD DATES

(i) 3–5–13–16–21–24–25
are very bad dates for all types of works.

(ii) (a) 3–4–5–8–13–16–20–21–23–24–25–26 are bad for going on a journey.

(b) 1–15–26–28–29–30
are bad for betrothal, marriage and rukhsatee, bridal send off for consummation).

(iii) Effects of bad and very bad dates become inoperative if any of them coincides with or falls on the day of birthday of any of the "14 Infallibles", or their pious and beloved children.
Treat them as very good.
For example:
13th is a very bad date but in the month of Rajab, on account of the birthday of Mawla Ali it is considered as very good.

(iv) TAH'THUSH SHUA–A' USH SHAMS (FADING AWAY OF THE MOON)

At the end of every lunar month, on 28, 29 and 30, moon becomes invisible and the nights are dark. So 28 and 29, and also 30 (if the month is of 30 days) are inauspicious.
This period is considered very bad for

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

betrothal, marriage and particularly for bridal send off for consummation (rukhsatee).

(v) QAMAR DAR A'QRAB (MOON IN THE ZODIAC SIGN OF SCORPIO)

Zodiac is an imaginary belt in the heavens extending for eight degrees on either side of the apparent path of the sun and including the paths of the moon and the principal planets:
It is divided into twelve equal parts or signs, each named for a different constellation.

1 Carpicon
2 Aquarius
3 Pisces
4 Aries
5 Taurus
6 Gemini
7 Cancer
8 Leo
9 Virgo
10 Libra
11 Scorpio
12 Sagittarius

It is an imaginary belt but the Holy Quran says:

"He (Allah) it is who has made the sun a splendour and the moon a light, and measured for her (moon) stages that you might know the number of the years and the reckoning (of time).."

(Yunus : 5)

The moon revolves around the earth once about every 27 days 7 hours 43 minutes and 11 1/2 seconds (nearly 28 days) and accompanies the earth in its yearly revolution around the sun.
The moon enters the sign of Scorpio every month and takes 2 1/3 days to pass it. These days are the ill-fated period of Qamar dar A'qrab.
Very bad for marriage (nikah) and rukhsatee (Bridal send off for consummation); and also avoid travel.
To know the exact time and period of iii, iv and v please refer to current calendar of every year, published by:
Imamia Jantari, Lahore, Pakistan,
Jafariyah Jantari, Hyderabad (A.P.), India.

vi) Days of martyrdom of the "Fourteen Infallibles' (Chawdah Masoomeen), their beloved pious and divinely blessed children, messengers and prophets of Allah, are very bad.
See "Calendar" in this book to know these dates.

vii) In the month of Muharram and the first 20 days of Safar, and on the days of martyrdoms of "Fourteen Infallibes", their beloved and pious children, and messengers and prophets of Allah, the believing men and women suspend application of good effects of days and dates, and avoid rejoicing even if happy events come in their stride.

PLEASE PAY CAREFUL ATTENTION

Effects of fair, good and very good days and dates become inoperative if they coincide with or fall on the days of martyrdoms mentioned above.

Treat such days and dates as very bad.

For example:

Friday is a "very good" day but if it falls on 28th Safar, 21st Ramzan, 10th Muharram, and so on, that Friday becomes "very bad"

Or 10th as a date is considered good but in the month of Muharram it should be treated as very bad, and in like manner the good effects of other dates will also be transformed into "very bad" effects when they coincide with days of martyrdoms.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

FAIR DATES

17 But unfavourable for many transactions, and for seeking fulfilment of desires.
Good for plantation.

20 Good only for travel, plantation, construction and for seeking fulfilment of desires.

GOOD DATES

6 Good for marriage, business transactions, travel, for seeking employment and fulfilment of desires.

7 Good for all types of works.

8 Good for all types of works.

11 Good for all types of works.
It is advisable to avoid travel and business transactions.

12 Good for marriage and for seeking fulfilment of desires.
Bad for travel.

22 Good for all types of works, particularly for seeking fulfilment of desires after giving alms and charity in the way of Allah.

23 Good for marriage, travel, business transactions.

26 Good for other works, but bad for marriage and travel.

27 Good for all types of works, but bad for marriage and travel because dates falling under Tahtush-Shua-a' Ush-Shams, 28-29-30 follow 27.

VERY GOOD DATES

(i) 1-2-4-9-10-14-15-18-19 are very good for all types of works except 4 which is bad for travel, and 15 which is bad for money transactions.

(ii) Birthdays of the "Fourteen Infallibles" (Chawda Masoomeen), their beloved pious and blessed children, messengers and prophets of Allah.

(iii) Days of rejoicing on account of historic events.

See "Calendar" in this book to know days of (ii) and (iii).

PLEASE PAY CAREFUL ATTENTION

Effects of bad and very bad days and dates become inoperative if they coincide with (or fall on) the birthdays mentioned above, or days of rejoicing on account of historic events.

Treat such days and dates as very good and blessed

For example

Monday is a "very bad" day but if it falls on 17th Rabi Awwal, 15th Shaban or 18th Dil Hijjah, and so on, Monday becomes "very good"

Or 3 and 13 are "very bad" dates but 3 in the month of Shaban and 13 in the month of Rajab should be treated as "very good" dates, and in like manner the bad effects of other dates will be transformed into "very good" effects when they coincide with days of other birthdays and days mentioned above.

POINTS TO REMEMBER

Ordinarily effects of days override the effects of dates.

(i) If date is bad, day is good, take it as good.

(ii) If date is good, day is bad, take it as bad, except in case of dates of birthdays, martyrdoms, historic events, explained earlier, which override the effect of days.
Treat date of birthday or day of rejoicing as "very good", whatever the effect of that day or date is.
Treat date of martyrdom as "very bad", whatever the effect of that day or date is.

VERY IMPORTANT ADVICE

It is advisable to make use of information given about the nature of days and dates, favourable and unfavourable.

If circumstances are pressing and there is no visible option, you may act in your larger interests, in good faith, of course, setting aside the effects of days and dates, because the all-wise almighty Allah is aware, merciful, but pay kaffarah (give charity and alms) according to your means in the way of Allah, as soon as possible, and recite special prayers and supplications to ask for Allah's forgiveness.

Please refer to "Selected Soorahs Volume One and Two" or "Dua'a Volume Four" to choose dua'as particularly suitable for asking forgiveness of Allah.

LUNAR CALENDAR

We have compiled the 12 months calendar with reference to:

Mafatihul Jinan,
Tuhfatul Awam,
Imamia Jantari, Lahore, Pakistan,
Jafariyya Jantari, Hyderabad (A.P.), India.

Dates of birthdays and martyrdoms of the "Fourteen Infallibles" (Chawda Masoomeen) and their children have been mentioned. In some cases two dates are given, as a precaution, if reliable religious scholars had reported such dates as possible day of birth or martyrdom of any of our beloved Imams or their children.

In the month of Muharram, and the first 20 days of Safar, till arba-e'en the believing men and women suspend application of good effects of days and dates and avoid rejoicing even if happy events come in their stride. Some very careful faithfuls observe this rule upto 8th Rabi-ul Awwal.

Therefore from 1st Muharram to 20th Safar we have treated all dates as bad.

CHAPTER (2)

DAY–WISE TABLE

SPECIAL PRAYERS AND SUPPLICATIONS (AA'–MAAL)

FRIDAY

Faithful servants of Allah observe Friday as the day of a'-maal.

They turn repentant to Allah, seek His forgiveness, look for His mercy, ask for His blessings.

Wholehearted devotion to "the Lord of the worlds" is the order of the day (Friday).

The Holy Prophet said:

"Allah has declared Friday 'the day of amnesty' "

Friday is a sacred day. It is full of privileges and claims. Do not let it go waste.

Imam Ali ibn abi Talib said:

"Allah has made a choice of Friday. Its night and day are equally blessed."

Imam Muhammad bin Ali al Baqir said:

"As soon as the sun sets and Friday night begins Allah asks:

'Is there a faithful servant, who, before the night ends, asks for safety in the world, peace in the hereafter;
turns repentant to Me;
in distress, seeks sufficient means of livelihood;
in sickeness, longs for health and fitness;
in captivity, looks for freedom, in loss, expects turn of fortune?
He gets what he wants, from Me, if he calls upon Me tonight.' "

In short man is free to make lawful efforts, day in and day out, whole week, in the sphere of worldly affairs, but Friday should be set apart to turn to the creator, the almighty Allah, the beneficent, the merciful.

Special prayers and supplications, taken from "Mafatihul Jinan", and other authentic books are given hereunder, for the benefit of faithful servants of Allah.

Obligatory worship, under all circumstances, has to be attended to but special prayers and supplications are mustahib (desirable), to seek nearness to Allah.

Pray as much as you can, taking into account your strength, moral and physical, your lawful involvement into day to day life, your obligation to your family and employment etcetera, never foregetting that unto Allah is our return.

Even the minimum will benefit you beyond your expectations. What the maximum has in store is beyond our imagination.

gave Thy word to him that Thou would make his religion prevail over all religions, however much the idolaters may be averse.
Thereafter acknowledged his atonement and provided good and perfection for his children, allotted for him and his children the first sanctuary appointed for mankind, at Becca (Mecca), a blessed place, a guidance to the people, wherein are plain and clear signs;

the place where Ibraaheem stood up to pray, and whosoever enters it is safe.
Thou said:
"Allaah's wish is but to remove uncleanness far from you, O "People of the House", and purify you with a thorough purification."
Thereupon Thou settled conclusively fee (recompense) of Muhammad (Thy blessings be on him and on his children) love for them, in Thy Holy Book.
So Thou said:
"Say (O Muhammad): I ask of you no fee (recompense) therefor, save Love of (my) Kinsfolk."
And Thou said:
"Whatever recompense (return) I have asked of you, (it) is only for yourselves."
And Thou said:
" I ask of you no reward for this, save that, whoso will, chooses a way unto his Lord."

Therefore They are the (only) means to (approach) Thee, the (only) medium to get Thy favours.

فَلَمَّا انْقَضَتْ اَيَّامُهُ	FALAMMAN-QAZ"AT AYYAAMUHOO	So Thou certainly did not let his hard work go waste,
اَقَامَ وَلِيَّهُ	AQAAMA WALIYYAHOO	and gave authority to his successor,

(The Holy Imaam used to recite the "Salawaat" 100 times)

(15) Aa'-maal of A'sr prayers:

(i) As mentioned earlier recitation of "Salawaat" throughout Friday (night and day) has been suggested by our Holy Imaams, but the prime time for reciting "Salawaat" is after A'sr prayers.

The following text of the "Salawaat" has come to us through Shaikh Kulaynee (R.A.):

(Recite as many times as possible)

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى مُحَمَّدٍ وَاٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ الْاَوْصِيَاءِ الْمَرْضِيِّيْنَ بِاَفْضَلِ صَلَوَاتِكَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَيْهِمْ بِاَفْضَلِ بَرَكَاتِكَ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَيْهِمْ رَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهٗ	ALLAAHUMMA S'ALLI A'LAA MUH'AMMADIN'W WA AALI MUH'AMMADINIL AWS'IYAAA-IL MARZ"IYYEENA BI-AFZ"ALI S'ALAWAATIKA WA BAARIK A'LAYHIM BI-AFZ"ALI BARAKAATIKA WAS SALAAMU A'LAYHI WA A'LAYHIM WA RAH'MATULLAAHI WA BARAKATUHOO	O Allaah bless Muhammad and children of Muhammad, the approved successors, with Thy superior-most blessings; and give joy and happiness to them, the highest degree of Thy approval; and peace be on him and them; and Allaah's tenderness and plentifulness be for them.

(ii) Recite 70 times:

"ASTAGHFIRULLAAHA WA ATOOBU ILAYH"
I seek Allaah's forgiveness and turn repentant to Him

(iii) Recite Sooratul "Qadr" 100 times after A'sr prayers.
(See Selected Soorahs and Dua'as Vol. One)

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

(iv) Recite Dua'a-ul-A'sharaat after A'sr prayers.
(See Dua'as Vol. Four P. 213)

(v) Shaykh Toosee says that twilight (at the time of sunset) is the best time for invoking Allaah to seek fulfilment of legitimate desires. Bibi Faatimah Zahraa (A.S.) always preferred this hour for reciting Dua'as.

The Holy Prophet (S.A.) used to recite the following:

سُبْحَانَكَ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ	SUBH'AANAKA LAA ILAAHA ILLAA ANTA	Glory be to Thee; there is no god save Thou;
يَا حَنَّانُ يَا مَنَّانُ	YAA H'ANNAANU YAA MANNAANU	O Compassionate; O Liberal;
يَا بَدِيعَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ	YAA BADEE-U'S SAMAAWAATI WAL ARZ"	O Creator of the heavens and the earth;
يَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ	YAA D'AL JALAALI WAL IKRAAM	O Lord of majesty and kindness.

(vi) In the dying moments of Friday recite Dua'a-us-Samaat.
(See Selected Soorahs and Dua'as Vol. One)

(16) Imaam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul A'abideen (A.S.) used to recite the following dua'a on every Friday.

(You can recite it after any obligatory prayer)

(14) Shaykh Kafaa'mee had advised to recite Dua'a "Hifzi Eeman" after every obligatory Salaat.
[See page 220 in Selected Soorahs and Dua'as Volume Two.]

(15) TAA'–QEEBAAT

To sit and recite the Holy Quran, or dua'as, narrated by the Holy Ahlul Bayt, after the obligatory Salaat, is called "Taa'–qeeb", the literal meaning of which is "delay".

It is "Sunnat-i-Muwakkidah" (strongly recommended) to recite "Taa'–qeebaat" after every obligatory Salaat.

"Taa'–qeebaat' have been given in our publication "Salaat".

CHAPTER (3)

DATE WISE TABLE

In Islam the system of determining the beginning, length and divisions of a year is based on the revolutions of the moon.

LUNAR DAY: the time between two sucessive transits of the moon on a given meridian, but for practical purposes one full day (one date) is from sunset to sunset, further one full day (date) is divided into day and night, day begins with the sunrise and night begins with the sunset.

LUNAR MONTH: The interval from one new moon to the next, equal to about 29½ days. the time in which the moon completes one full revolution about the earth. The month begins after the visibility of the moon or after 30 days whichever is earlier.

LUNAR YEAR: The period of twelve lunar months, or about 354¼ days. The names of the twelve months of the Islamic Lunar year have been given from page (11) to page (22), in sequence, in this Book.

MUH'ARRAM

Muharram is one of the four months declared sacred by Allah in the Holy Quran.

The other three months are Rajab, D'ee Qaa'-d, and D'il Hijj.

There is no god save Allah. If someone claims to be a god or has faith in others' godhead, other than Allah, Allah does not make a compromise to take anyone as god, although He gives free hand even to such false pretenders; because:

"LAAA IKRAAHA FID DEEN"
[There is no compulsion in Deen]
(Al Baqarah: 2:56)

In verse 59 of Soorah An Nisaaa, Allah says:

> "O you who believe! obey Allah, and obey the Messenger and " "ULIL AMR" (Those who are authorised to command) from among you".

The believers (YAA AYYUHALLAD'EENAA AAMANOO) always obey Allah, obey His Messenger and the "ULIL AMR" appointed by Him. It is an open invitation. There is no compulsion. Those who (in truth) are not believers can do what they want.

Likewise Prophets, Messengers, sent down by Allah to guide and warn people, never accepted anyone at all as Prophet or Messenger, whatever the circumstances were, be it that they did not stop claimers of this kind, or opponents, with application of force or repression.

In the same manner Imam Ali ibna Abi Taalib (A.S.) did not recognise anyone as "ULIL AMR".

His elder son Imam Hasan (A.S.), like his grandfather, the Holy Prophet (S.A.) [Treaty of Hudaybiah], let Mua'awiyah be the ruler, but did not give up his rights of the "ULIL AMR", which he was at that time.

When Yazid became the ruler he threw to the wind the earlier policy of the rulers not to demand "Bay-a't" (oath of obedience) from the children of the Holy Prophet (S.A.), and began to exercise pressure upon Imam Husayn (A.S.) to swear lealty and acknowledge him as the "ULIL AMR", which the Holy Imam rightly refused. It is another aspect of the whole affair that Yazid was the meanest tyrant of the worst degree, but even if he was an ordinary ruler Imam Husayn could not swear lealty to him as the "ULIL AMR". So he did not. In the month of Rajab 61 Hijra, he left Medina and went to Mecca. From Mecca, before performing Hajj, he took his family with him, and with some friends and companions, true believers, he began the journey towards Iraq, with the expressed intention to cross the boundaries of the empire under the rule of Yazid, and settle down in some other country, Iran or India, because he wanted to make it clear to Yazid that he could not allege obedience to a "non-ULIL AMR" as he himself was an "ULIL AMR".

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

It was not to be. A large army of Yazid under the command of Umar bin Saad surrounded the caravan of Imam Husayn when he reached Naynawah, Karbala, on the 2nd of Muharram in 61 Hijra.

There are several other aspects of human relationship and behaviour in the events of Karbala that took place in the 10 days of Muharram, culminating in the Martyrdom of Imam Husayn, and his 72 friends and relatives, which come into sharp focus as we recount every minute, during the religious gatherings, each year, but, above all, the ultimate reason remains the same— the impossibility of taking "oath of loyalty" (Bay-a't), by an "ULIL AMR", to obey a "non-ULIL AMR".

After Imam Husayn, all his successors to "The office of the ULIL AMR", our holy Imams, refused to obey "Non-ULIL AMRS", and every ruler held each of them prisoner, used every trick, applied force and in the end killed every Imam, exactly as Yadiz did.

Muharram is a month of mourning for the lovers and followers of "Aali Muhammad". In this month, on the 10th day in 61 Hijra, Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), the grandson of the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and the younger son of Ali and Faatimah (A.S.), together with his family and friends, in all 72 men, were slain on the sands of the desert of Naynawa, Karbala. Since then, each year, the true followers of the Holy Prophet (S.A.), through grief, sorrow and tears, keep alive the message, cause and purpose of the greatest martyrdom in human history.

No doubt it is a holy and sacred month.

The believing men and women, in this month, suspend application of good effects of days and dates and avoid rejoicing even if happy events come in their stride.

The friends and followers of Aali Muhammad hold meetings (Majlis), they had been doing so, for last thirteen hundred years, in the name of Imam Husayn (A.S.), during the months of Muharram (and Safar), particularly in the first 10 days of Muharram, to give new life to the Divine Message of "LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH" as the beloved saint-poet of the Indopak subcontinent, Khawaja Moinuddin Chishti (of Ajmir) had said:

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

"Indeed Husayn is the architect of 'Laa ilaaha illallaah'; both are reciprocally related to each other".

and the philosopher-poet of Pakistan, Dr. Muhammad Iqbal, had said:

"Ismaee-e'el was the beginning (the first step), Husayn was the ultimate".

Each year (at the advent of Muharram) Islam turns over a new leaf.

In fact it is on account of Imam Husayn's remembrance, every year, we know who the Holy Prophet (S.A.), Ali ibna Abi Taalib (A.S.), Bibi Faatimah Zahraa (A.S.) are, and what were their true substance, style, and wisdom.

It is because of Imam Husayn's memory, we call to mind each year the Islam—original, and it becomes clearly visible from behind the blur of the dust of delusion, thrown into the eyes of Muslims in the name of Muslim rule.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

(2) The Holy Prophet (S.A.) said that whoso prays two Rak·a't Salaat on the first of Muharram, the first day of the year, and keeps fast, is like that person who does good deeds throughout the year, therefore, enjoys total protection under the safe custody of the Almighty, and when dies goes directly to Paradise.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

(3) Imam Ali bin Moosa Ar Rizaa (A.S.) said that whoso keeps fast today and invokes Allah receives full satisfaction and gets what he or she wants, just as Prophet Zakariyyah's dua'a was fulfilled by Allah.

(4) Another two Rak-a't Salaat to be prayed today is as under:

In the first Rak-a't, after the recitation of Soorah Al Faatih'ah, recite Soorah Al Ikhlaas 30 times.

In the second Rak-a't, after the recitation of Soorah Al Faatih'ah, recite Soorah Al Qadr 30 times.

After the "Salaam" recite the following dua'as:

(i)

NIGHT OF A'ASHOOR
TAASOO A'A

Imam Jaa'—far As Saadiq (A.S.) had said:

> A large army of Yazid, under the command of Umar bin Saad, surrounded Imam Husayn, his family and friends, from all sides on the 9th of Muharram, shouting for joy and uttering songs of triumph, in view of the presence of countless soldiers armed with swords, lances, arrows and stones, on their sides, against a handful of 72, among whom there were 90 years old men and a six month old child. Imam Husayn (A.S.) at that time had no support from any quarter; forsaken he was amid a most extraordinary and unheard of situation.

On the night of Aashoor, the Holy Imam had invited his companions and relatives to sit together, after Ishaa prayers, and hear his last address. As soon as the payers came to an end they sat around him

He said:

> Brothers! It is a misjudgement if, in one's heart of hearts, anyone expects to witness my victory in tomorrow's battle and gather the fruit of conquest. I tell you, in clear words, the enemy will slay me, beyond the shadow of a doubt, in a manner that will make blood run cold. Abbas, my brother, his both hands cut off, shall be killed on the slope of the shore, running along the river. A lance will pass through the heart of my son, Ali Akbar. The hooves of the enemy's cavalry will crush the wounded body of my brother's son, Qasim. Likewise whoso stays with me, be he a kin or a friend, will be killed in cold blood. I tell you, beforehand, an arrow, taking aim, on purpose, with afterthought, shall hit the throat of my six month old son, Ali Asghar. He shall die, on the spot, in my arms. My son, Ali, now in high fever, shall alone weather the storm, and bear through the aftermath, the worst and the meanest abuse, alongwith the womenfolk of the "Aali Muhammad".

Friends! Donot break your heart nor have qualms on account of the obligation of loyalty to me and my cause, you had declared upon oath. I, willingly, set you free from the sworn pledge. Leave me alone to that which lies in wait for me tomorrow. They will go after me and no other. The night is obscure. You can cut and run and disappear in the darkness unseen.

Then the Holy Imam asked his brother, Abbas, to put out the candles, to let the deserters show their heels and save their neck. In the darkness many escaped. The lamps again made a light and a final group of holy 72 was sitting here and there calm and quiet, willingly ready to meet the certain death next morning when the "Dibh'in A'z'eem" as promised by the Almighty, would become a fact.

"WA FADAYNAAHU BI—D'IBH'IN A'Z'EEM"
[And We (Allah) ransomed him (Ismaa-e'el) with a great sacrifice (Husayn)].

(S'aaffaat: 107)

It was a dark, dismal and deadly night.

The chosen godly group, men and women, passed the whole night, reciting the Holy Quran, worshipping Allah, praying Salaat, and their Guide, Imam Husayn (A.S.), was with them, all the time.

It is a proof of sincere devotion to Allah if we, his followers, too spend this night in Allah's worship.

"Whoso spends this night near the grave of Imam Husayn, awake, worshipping Allah, till the daybreak, Allah will raise him or her, on the day of judgement, alongwith the martyrs of Karbala"

There are several types of prayers and dua'as for this night. Some

DAY OF A'ASHOOR

Today is the day of Martyrdom of Imam Husayn(A.S.).

Today, in 61 Hijra, Imam Husayn (A.S.) fulfilled the promise made by the Almighty Allah in Soorah As' S'aaffaat—"WA FADAYNAAHU BI—D'IBH'IN A'Z'EEM".

It was the third day since water supply was disconnected to the Imam's camp. At dawn the small devoted group performed 'Tayammum' and assembled to pray the Fajr Salaat behind Imam Husayn (A.S.).

The first swarming flight of arrows shot by the enemy archers hit the Holy Imam and his devotees while they were saying the Salaam. 30 persons were killed on the spot. With "whatever is left" the Imam came into the battlefield and before attacking the enemy soldiers, addressed them to make known his rights and status with reference to the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and the Book of Allah. He warned them not to kill him as it would bring upon them destruction in this world and everlasting punishment on the Day of Judgement. The Holy Imam had again and again tried to make them understand the consequences of the events that would take place if they did not listen to him. He once again made the proposal to let him go away, leaving the jurisdiction of the muslim empire, together with his family and friends and settle down in some far off land. They listened to what he said, but declared:

> "We shall kill you if you donot agree to Yazid's overlordship by swearing loyalty to him"

Despite the hunger, thirst and wounds, one by one, the devotees went to fight the hordes of demons in human shape, displayed rare acts of bravery and courage, and gave their lives in the cause of Allah. On every occasion the Holy Imam together with his brother and son, dispersed the "blood hounds", carried the dead body, and laid down on the ground under a tent, now known as "Ganj—i—Shaheedan".

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

The sun had crossed the meridian.

The prime time for Zuhr prayers had begun. The renegades refused to let up the fight. The Imam therefore prayed Zuhr Salaat as "Namaaz of Khawf".

After the companions, friends and comrades of the Holy Prophet, Imam Ali, and his own, as foretold by him in his "Shab-i-Ashoor" speech, the turn of his relatives came. The two sons of Bibi Zaynab (Awn, 10, and Muhammad, 9) Qaasim, son of Imam Hasan, 14, Abbas, the standard bearer, the backbone of the Imam, Ali Akbar, his 18 years old son; the other sons of Ali ibna Abi Taalib; and the grandsons of Abu Taalib, one and all gave up their lives for bringing to life the Message of "LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH", and for keeping alive their Imam, Ulil Amr.

Then our beloved Imam stood alone.

Bruised, slashed, cut, gashed, thirsty, soaked in his own blood, and in the blood of his son, brothers, nephews and devoted friends, he went into the tent of his sister, Bibi Zaynab.

His 6 months old son, Ali Asghar, was in her lap, dying of thirst and hunger. He took him in his arm and slowly walked up to the array of heartless muslims up in arms.

He lifted the child up on his hands. The sad, sensitive, eloquent spectacle made even the devil's disciples curse the devil. Tears in their eyes they cried in deep anguish. Afraid of a revolt in the ranks, Ibna Saad looked at Hurmalah, who, reading the message in his commanders's eyes, took aim and shot the fatal arrow which, passing through the Imam's hand, went into the child's neck. Asghar stared at his father's face, smiled and rested in peace. The Imam dug a small grave and burried his son.

Then the Holy Imam paid his last visit to his kinfolk in the tents and came out stride his horse "D'ul Jinnah", wearing his grand father's garments, holding the "Zulfiqar" in his hand.

In the battlefield, clearly, he pronounced his last call:

"IS THERE A HELPER?"

There was no response. A fierce battle followed.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

Then "D'ul Jinnah" sat on the ground. The Holy Imam, every pour of his body a bleeding wound, slid over the burning sand of Naynawa. It was the time for A's'r prayers. He bent over and rested his forehead on the ground in prostration. Swords, arrows, spears, daggers, lances, stones, hit him from all directions. The sacred blood of Muhammad, Ali and Faatimah was flowing in a stream over the sandy soil.

Imam Husayn, our Mawlaa, and Mawlaa of every living being, thereupon whispered to his Creator:

> "O Merciful Lord of the worlds! Husayn, Thy Servant, has given out every thing he had had from Thee in Thy way
> Accept the humble sacrifice of Thy Husayn.
> If the grandson of Thy Messenger, I, had more, would have surrendered to Thee willingly.
>
> O my Lord! Be merciful, oft-forgiving to the "not so careful" among the faithfuls.
> O Lord! O Lord! O Lord!....."

The eternally accursed Shimr came close and severed the sacred head of the Holy Imam from his blessed body.

The heavens and the earth sank low into a quandry of hanging gloom. A dreary dismal darkness spread out everywhere. A cosmic cry of agony echoed in every nook and corner of the universe. Animals stopped in their stride, birds swerved in their flight, a chill shiver ran through trees, water, valleys, plains and mountains.

The demons, in devilish freezy, trampled the bodies of the devoted martyrs under the hooves of their horses, plundered, looted, and set on fire the tents. The bewildered children and tearful women ran unto Bibi Zaynab, the daughter of "ASADULLAH" (the fearless overpowering courage of Allah), and gathered around her.

From the 1st Muharram to the 9th we discuss the philosophy of Husayn's martyrdom, we look into and make clear every aspect of true Islam, we carefully identify the role and merits of the Holy Prophet (S.A.), Imam Ali ibna abi Taalib (A.S.), Bibi Faatimah Zahraa (A.S.), we expose and make known the real meanings of the "word of Allah", the Holy Quran, on the strength of the wisdom and knowledge of Muhammad and Aali Muhammad, we recount all the aspects of the character of Imam Husayn which goes a long way in making available to mankind the vision and the ideal for making efforts to establish a society free from submission to gods—in whatever form, idea or institution they try to enslave mankind—and obedience to Allah and His laws.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

But today

We, the friends and followers of Imam Husayn (A.S.), who love him and belong to him, and through him to his father, mother and grandfather, and through them belong to their Lord and the Lord of the worlds;

(1) Pray Fajr Salat. After Fajr Salaat carry out the Aa'-maal Ashoora"

(2) donot drink water, nor eat food,

(3) barefoot, bareheaded, attired in black, come out from the shade and shelter of our homes, in the open, under the sky,

(4) together, disciplined, row after row, reciting moment to moment events that took place in Karbala, move forward, till evening;

(5) pray Zuh'r and A's'r Salaat at their fixed times.

(6) Tears come to our eyes as the dry yellow leafs drop on the ground in autumn, it is an instinctive self-regulation; (we) weep, mourn, and cry; in the height of our love for the Holy Imam some of us scrape and cut ourselves (not others), to feel the pain and hurt the martyrs of Karbala suffered on the 10th Muharram in 61 Hijra. In no way there is any hint of self-torture or show-off, as Oways Qaranee broke all his teeth when he heard the news that in the battle of Uhad his "beloved", the Holy Prophet (S.A.) had lost a couple of teeth. It is the domain of love and passionate attachment, deep and abiding devotedness like the jump Prophet Ibraheem took into the blazing fire.

(7) Invoke Allah to lay curse upon the killers of Imam Husayn, his family and friends:

اَللّٰهُمَّ الْعَنْ تَتَلَةَ الْحُسَيْنِ وَاَوْلَادِهٖ وَ اَصْحَابِهٖ

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

"ALLAAHUMMAL–A'N QATALATAL H'USAYN WA AWLAADIHEE WA AS'H'AABIHEE."
(O Allah condemn and lay a curse upon the killers of Husayn (A.S.), his family and friends) and say:

يَا لَيْتَنِي كُنْتُ مَعَكُمْ فَأَفُوزَ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا

YAA LAYTANEE KUNTU MA–A'KUM FA–AFOOZA FAWZAN A'Z'EEMAA
Would that I were at your disposal, and had attained the much cherished success.

(8) Comfort and console each other with:

أَعْظَمَ اللهُ أُجُورَنَا وَأُجُورَكُمْ بِمُصَابِنَا بِالْحُسَيْنِ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ

AA'–Z'AMALLAAHU UJOORANAA WA UJOORAKUM BI–MUS'AABINAA BIL H'USAYNI A'LAYHIS SALAAM

Much and highly satisfying is the recompense from Allah for us (when) we are with Husayn, peace be on him, in his sorrow and grief;

وَجَعَلَنَا وَإِيَّاكُمْ مِنَ الطَّالِبِينَ بِثَارِهِ مَعَ وَلِيِّهِ الْإِمَامِ الْمَهْدِيِّ مِنْ آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ

WA JA–A'LANAA WA IYYAAKUM MINAT' T'AALIBEENA BI–THAARIHEE MA–A' WALIYYIHIL IMAAMIL MAHDIYY MIN AALI MUH'AMMADIN A'LAYHIMUS SALAAM

and surely He will make us and you to be among the good and worthy who will assist His cause and purpose under the leadership of His friend and representative the rightly Guided Guide (Imam Al Mahdi), the direct descendant of Muhammad, peace be on him.

(9) In the evening, at A'sr time, eat simple food in small quantity, after praying As'r Salaat, because, the whole world may glorify the Holy Imam in their own mood and style, but for us it is a very private grief.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

Today we pray and recite the following Salaats, dua'as and Ziyaarat, after Fajr Salaat but before Zuhr Salaat.

Imam Jaa'—far As Saadiq (A.S.) had advised the faithfuls to do the (following) aa'maal today:

(3) Take a few steps forward and say:

[Verily we are Allah's and verily unto Him we return. We are happy with His will and carry out His command]

(4) Then go back to your place where you were standing and recite:

اَللّٰهُمَّ عَذِّبِ الْفَجَرَةَ الَّذِيْنَ شَاقُّوا رَسُوْلَكَ	ALLAAHUMMA A'D'D'IBIL FAJARATAL LAD'EENA SHAAQQOO RASOOLAKA	O Allah! Condemn and punish the licentious profligates who made the life of Thy Messenger miserable;

وَاجْعَلْ صَلَوَاتِكَ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَيْهِمْ وَاسْتَنْقِذْهُمْ مِنْ اَيْدِي الْمُنَافِقِيْنَ الْمُضِلِّيْنَ	WAJ–A'L S'A'LAWAATIKA A'LAYHI WA A'LAYHIM WAS–TANQID'HUM MIN AYDIL MUNAAFIQEENAL MUZ"ILLEENA	bestow Thy blessings on him and on them, save them from the dangerous clutches of the undercover two-timers,

Today is the "Day of Martyrdom of Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul Aabideen (A.S.)" in 94 Hijraa—a sad day of mourning.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul Aabideen" published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaaz of Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul A'abideen (A.S.), [Please see page 55(vii) in this Book],
(4) Recite:

(i) "Ziyaarat", Dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Imam.

procedure" in this Book].

(5) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the 14 Infallibles. Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was, and still is, the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam–Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet and his descendants—an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

> This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind): "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);
> (SHOORAA:23)

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rule of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the footsteps of Aali Muhammad.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl" and "Imamate" are an integral part of the faith.
Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad".

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah–Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayers. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birthday of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is indentical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

[During the month of Safar the faithfuls give alms (Sadqah) to the poor in the name of Allah and recite the following dua'a, daily, 10 times.

Today Imam Moosaa bin Jaa'-far Al Kazim (A.S.) was born in 128 Hijra.

To know full well about the Holy Imam read the "Biography of Imam Moosaa bin Jaa'far Al Kazim", published by our Trust.

It is a day of happiness and rejoicing.

Please refer to page [para (1) to (5)] in this Book under "Rajab—25" for special prayers to be prayed today also. As mentioned in para (5) "Majlis" and "Jashan" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His Last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt. Today the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad meet together in the name of "Jashan" and sing the praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt.

It is highly desirable to keep fast today.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

[Due to the "period of mourning till Arba-e'en on account of the martyrdom of Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.) the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad do not make a show of rejoicing on this particular "Birthday"].

According to some historians today in 61 Hijraa Bibi Sakeenah Bintul Husayn, at the age of 6, died in a very small dark prison room where even the stars did not twinkle, so much so that the inmates, the "daughters" of the Holy Prophet (S.A.), could not see each other. Yazid bin Mus'awiyah had held them captive in Damascus. She, in fact, succumbed to the injuries inflicted on her by the Ummayad army policemen who brought the family of Aali Muhammad, in chains, from Karbala to Damascus. They had flogged and slapped her on the slightest pretext. At thet ime of her death her hands, feet and neck were tightly tied with coarse ropes.

ARBA–E'EN

20th Safar is observed as the day of Arba-e'en the 40th day after the martyrdom of Imam Husayn, his friends and relatives in Karbala on the 10th Muharram.

According to Imam Hasan bin Ali Al Askaree (A.S.) today it is highly desireable to:

(1) Pray 51 Rak–a't Namaaz during the 24 hours of the day of Arba-e'en, (17 Rak-a'ts in obligatory, and 34 Rak-a'ts in Naafilah Salaats).

(2) Be in Karbala for Ziyaarat of Imam Husayn and other martyrs, if not possible, recite Ziyaarat etcetra of the Holy Imam and other martyrs of Karbala.
[Please see chapter (4) in this Book under "Zaiyaarat of Imam Husayn (A.S.)"].

(3) To wear a ring in the right hand.

(4) To put the forehead on the earth (preferably on the earth of Karbala) in prostration.

(5) To pronounce "Bismillaahir-Rah'maanir-Rah'eem" in clear and loud voice while praying the salaats.

(6) Imam Jaa'–far bin Muhammad Al Saadiq (A.S.) had advised the faithfuls to recite the following "Ziyaarat" on the day of Arba-e'en:

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلٰى وَلِيِّ اللّٰهِ وَحَبِيْبِهٖ	ASSALAAMU A'LAA WALIYYILLAAHI WA H'ABEEBIHEE	Peace be on the favourite of Allah, His dearest darling!

Thou looked upto him and elected him in Thy cause, picked and chose him for the good fortune, selected for him the best purified parents, appointed him guardian, leader, and defender of rights, a true representative (inheritor and progenitor) of guardians, leaders and defenders of rights, gave him much and more from the inheritance of the Prophets, put him forward as a decisive argument, alongwith the other successors (of the Holy Prophet–the twelve Imaams) to the mankind. He met with deadly dangers, acted justly and fairly, made use of everything belonging to him to pay full attention to give sincere advice; took pains, made every effort, and put his heart, mind, soul and life at the disposal of Thy mission to liberate the people from the yoke of ignorance and evil of bewilderment,

Today is the day of martyrdom of:

(1) The Holy Prophet Muhammad bin Abdullah Al Mustafa (S.A.) in 11 Hijra,
(2) Hasan bin Ali Al Mujtaba (A.S.) in 50 Hijra, –a sad day of mourning.

To know full well about the Holy Prophet and the Holy Imam please read :

(1) The Biography of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.),
(2) The Biography of Imam Hasan bin Ali (A.S.), published by our Trust.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

Today sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaz of:

(i) The Holy Prophet (S.A.),
[Please see page 45(ii) in this Book],

(ii) Imam Hasan bin Ali (A.S.),
[Please see page 46(V) in this Book].

(4) (i) Recite Ziyaarat, dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Prophet.
[Please see Chapter (4) on page 849 in this Book].

(ii) Recite Ziyaarat, dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Imam.
[Please see Chapter (4) in this Book].

(iii) Recite Ziyaarat Jami—a'h Kabeer
or
Ziyaarat Jaami—a'h Sagheer
[Please see chapter (4) under "standard procedure" in this Book].

(5) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the 14 Infallibles. Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was, and still is, the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam—Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet and his descendants—an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind); "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives); (SHOORAA:23)

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rule of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the footsteps of Aali Muhammad.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl" and "Imamate" are an integral part of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad".

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah—Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayers. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birthday of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is indentical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the names of the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

Our Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.) lived in Mecca from the day he was born till he was in his 40th year. He was the Last Prophet and Messenger of Allah from the day he came into this world. As his parents died in his early childhood his uncle, Abu Taalib (A.S.), brought him up, watched over him and kept him safe from the hostile crowd of unbelievers.

And when the command of Allah "And warn your tribe of near relatives" was revealed the Holy Prophet (S.A.) called his kinsmen to that which is the best—Islam, and thereafter he invited the people of Mecca, and the whole mankind, to say "LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH".

Among women Bibi Khadijah (A.S.), among men Imam Ali (A.S.), were the first Muslims. Then the children of Abdul Muttalib and a few people of Mecca came into the fold of Islam, but the majority of the people of Quraysh persecuted him with implacable hostility. Abu Taalib took him alongwith his family to the cave known as "Shu—ib Abu Taalib". They lived there, completely cut off and boycotted, facing untold hardships, for 3 years. The seige was broken when the unbelievers found that as pointed by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) through Abu Taalib (A.S.) the entire text of the document, hanging in the Holy Kaa'—bah, was eaten away by the white ants, except the words "Bi—Asmika Allaahumma". Reluctantly the tribal chiefs of Quraysh agreed to cancel the boycott but intensified their intrigues. There was around him (the Holy Prophet) open hostility, wilfull persecution, social boycott and psyche of indepth infidelity. Abu Taalib (A.S.) and Bibi Khadijah (A.S.) died soon after the family of the Holy Prophet came out from the "Shu-ib Abu Talib". Abu Sufyaan, the chief of the branch of Ummiyah, succeeded to the principality of Mecca. A zealous votary of the idols, a mortal foe of the line of Hashim, he convened an assembly of the Quraysh and their allies. It was resolved that one man from every tribe should go together to the Prophet's house in the darkness of the night of 1st Rabee Ul Awwal and kill him. Cautioned by the Almighty he asked Imam Ali ibna Abi Taalib (A.S.) to sleep in his (Holy Prophet's) bed. Mawlaa Ali paying no heed to the naked swords of the infidels readily complied with his instructions. The unbelievers judged at random that the Holy Prohet (S.A.) was in his bed whereas he was on his way to Medina—the "migration" known as "Hijrat"

"And of mankind is he who sells his self (life even), seeking

(1) Today Imam Muhammad bin Ali Al Baaqir (A.S.) was born in 57 Hijraa.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Muhammad bin Ali Al Baaqir (A.S.) published by our Trust.

It is a day of happiness and rejoicing.

Please refer to (1) to (5)] in this Book under "D'ilh'ijj—7" for special prayers to be prayed today also.

As mentioned in para (5) "Majlis" and "Jashan" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His Last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt. Today the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad meet together in the name of "Jashan" and sing the praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt.

It is highly desirable to keep fast today.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

(2) OTHER AA'—MAAL OF TODAY ARE GIVEN BELOW:

(i) It is highly desirable to observe fast today.

(ii) Pray "Namaaz of Salamaan Farsi".

It is a 10 Rak—a't Namaaz. Pray it in 5 sets of 2 Rak—a't each.

In every Rak—a't recite:

Then recite:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَا مَانِعَ لِمَا اَعْطَيْتَ وَلَا مُعْطِىَ لِمَا مَنَعْتَ وَلَا يَنْفَعُ ذَا الْجَدِّ مِنْكَ الْجَدُّ

(b) ALLAAHUMMA LAA MAANI–A' LIMAA AA'–T'AYTA WA LAA MUA'–T'IYA LIMAA MANAA'–TA WA LAA YANFA–U' D'AL–JADDI MINKAL JADD

[O my Allah there is no obstacle when Thou gives, and there is no access to anything when Thou puts a stop; there is no profit in exerting one's self in a matter when Thou "looks the other way"].

Today is the day of martyrdom of Imam Ali bin Muhammad An Naqee (A.S.), in 254 Hijra———a sad day of mourning.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Ali bin Muhammad An Naqee (A.S.)", published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaaz of Imam Ali bin Muhammad An Naqee (A.S.). [Please see page 62 (xiii) in this Book].
(4) Recite:

(i) "Ziyaarat", Dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Imam.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

(Please see chapter (4) in this Book).

(ii) Ziyaarat Jaami—a.h Kabeer
or
Ziyaarat Jaami—a'h Sagheer
[Please see chapter (4) under "Standard procedure" in this Book].

(5) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the "14 Infallibles." Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was and still is the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam—Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet and his descendants—an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

> This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind); "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);
> (SHOORAA:23)

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rule of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the Aali Muhammad's footsteps.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl" and "Imamate" are the integral part and parcel of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) functionin in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad".

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah–Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayers. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birthday of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is identical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

According to some historians Imam Ali bin Muhammad An Naqee (A.S.) was born today in 212 Hijraa, but majority of "Ulama" (Religious scholars) agree that the Holy Imam was born on 15th D'ilh'ijj in 212 Hijraa.

[Please see page under "D'ilh'ijj–15" in this Book].

Today Imam Muhammad bin Ali At Taqee (A.S.) was born in 195 Hijra.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Muhammad bin Ali At TAqee (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

It is a day of happiness and rejoicing.

Please refer to para (1) to (5)] under "D'eeqaad–29" in this Book for special prayers to be prayed today also.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

As mentioned in para (5) "Majlis" and "Jashan" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His Last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt. Today the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad meet together in the name of "Jashan" and sing the praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt.

It is highly desirable to keep fast today.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

(iv) A'MAL UMMI DAA–WOOD (ON 15TH RAJAB)

Faatimah, mother of Daawood, learned this "A'mal" (special prayers) from Imam Jaa'–far bin Muhammad As Saadiq (A.S.). She was Imam's foster mother (wet nurse who suckled the Imam in his childhood). He put this "A'mal" in writing and gave to her when she came to him for safe return of her son, Dawood, from the prison in Iraq where he was held captive by Mansoor Dawanaqi. The Holy Imam told her that as soon as this A'mal (which contains the "Ismi–Aa'–zam") was completed Divine Mercy would envelop the "A'mal–doer" and under its own power fulfill every legitimate desire of the supplicant. She did as was told. Her son, Dawood, was, at once, set free with compensation for wrongful confinement.]

A'MAL UMMI DAWOOD IS CARRIED OUT AS UNDER:

(a) Observe fast on 13, 14 and 15.

I rely upon Thee, I approach Thee furtively, I call upon Thee--the prayer of a submissive, humble, low, frightened, worried, miserable, weak, modest, earthly, needy, refugee seeking asylum, confessing sins, asking for forgivesness and tranquillity from his Lord;

the cry of a supplicant who expected help but was betrayed and abandoned by his friends and therefore his agony is terrible, now sour, sad, sick, small, poor, and disgusted turns to Thee pleading for sanctuary.

(1) Today is the day of martyrdom of Imam Jaa'–far bin Muhammad As Saadiq (A.S.), in 148 Hijra–a sad day of mourning.

[Some historians say that on 15th or 25th Shawwaal in 148 Hijra the Holy Imam departed from this world].

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Jaa'–far bin Muhammad As Saadiq (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaaz of Imam Jaa'–far bin Muhammad As Saadiq (A.S.).

true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the "14 Infallibles." Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was and still is the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam—Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet and his descendants—an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

> This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind): "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);
> (SHOORAA: 23)

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rule of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the Aali Muhammad's footsteps.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl" and "Imamate" are the integral part and parcel of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad".

In fact ""to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah—Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every apsect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayers. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birthday of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is identical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

(2) Some historians say that Bibi Zaynab (A.S.) departed from this world on 15th Rajab but majority of the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad observe her demise on 16th D'il Hijj.

SHAA'–BAAN

The Holy Prophet said: "Shaa'–baan is my month".

Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul Aabideen (A.S.) told his companions:

> "The Holy Prophet (S.A.) used to observe fast during the whole month of Shaa'–baan. Therefore whoso, in love of the Holy Prophet (S.A.), wishes to seek nearness to Allah and receive bounties, favours and rewards in this world and in the Hereafter, must connect Shaa'–baan with Ramazaan (in the matter of fasting and special prayers).

EVERYDAY AA'–MAAL

[To be carried out on every day of the month of Shaa'–baan].

(1) Observe fast.

(2) Give Alms in the name of Allah.
[Giving alms in the month of Shaa'–baan has been strongly recommended].

(3) Recite 70 times: أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ وَ أَسْئَلُهُ التَّوْبَةَ

(i) ASTAGHFIRULLAAHA WA AS–ALUHUT TAWBAH
I seek forgivenss of Allah, and, repentant, beseech Him.

(ii) ASTAGHFIRULLAAHALLAD'EE LAA ILAAHA HUWAR RAH'EEMUL RASH'EEMUL H'AYYUL QAYYOOMU WA ATOOBU ILAYHI

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ الَّذِيْ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمٰنُ الرَّحِيْمُ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ وَأَتُوْبُ إِلَيْهِ

[I seek forgiveness of Allah who is "There is no god save He", the Beneficent, the Merciful; the Everliving, the Eternal, and I turn repentant to Him].

(Please note that according to many reliable traditions recitation of the abovenoted "Astaghfars" should be preferred to other dua'as, in this month].

(4) Recite the following 1000 times, not daily, but throughout the month; whenever the count reaches 1000, at any time within the month, the a'mal is completed:

LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAHU WA LAA NAA'–BUDU ILLAA IYYAAHU MUKHLIS'EENA LAHUD DEEN WA LAW KARIHAL MUSHRIKOON

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

[There is no god save Allah. We donot worship save "He" alone, making religion pure for Him (only), however much the disbelievers be averse.]

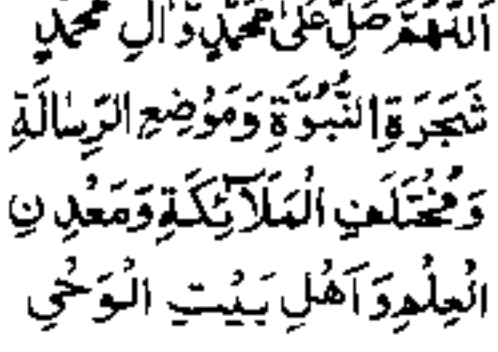

(5) On every Thursday pray a 2 Rak–a't Namaaz.

In every Rak–a't, after the reciation of Soorah Al Faatih'ah, recite Soorah Al Ikhlaas 100 times.

After the Salaam recite Salawaat 100 times.

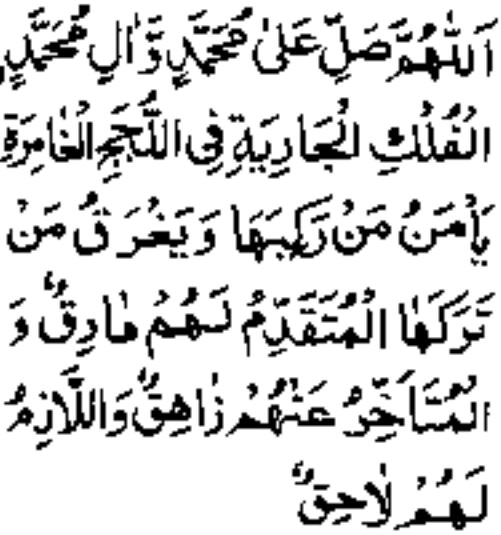

[Please note that fasting on Thursdays in this month is highly rewarding, if you are not fit to observe fast daily as stated above].

(6) Recite the following Salawaat taught by Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul Aabideen (A.S.):

"Jashan" and "Majlis" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt.

It is highly desirable to keep fast today.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of Qasim bin Hasan (A.S.) we call to our memory today.

NIGHT AA'–MAAL

The Holy Prophet (S.A.) had said that during the night of 15th Shaa'baan the Almighty takes decisions in the matters of substenance, life and death and welfare of the people.

Next to the "Night of Qadr" the night of 15th Shaa'–baan is the most auspicious night (also known as "night of Baraat"). According to the Holy Imam Muhammad bin Ali Al Baqir (A.S.) and Jaa'–far bin Muhammad As Saadiq (A.S.) the Almighty Allah has promised to fulfil every legitimate desire put forward to Him tonight.

DAY AA'–MAAL

Today our Living Imam Muhammad bin Hasan Saahibuz Zamaan (A.S.) was born in 256 Hijraa.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of the Imam Muhammad bin Hasan Al Mahdi Saahibuz Zamaan (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

It is a day of happiness and rejoicing.

Recite:

[Please see chapter (4) in this Book].

(ii) Ziyaarat Jaami—ah Kabeer
or
Ziyaarat Jaami—ah Sagheer
[Please refer to chapter (4) under "Standard procedure" in this Book].

The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to celebrate the birth of Imam Muhammad bin Hasan Al Mahdi Saahibuz Zamaan (A.S.) in the name of Jashan" and sing praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt (A.S.).

"Jashan" and "majlis" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His Last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt.

It is highly desirable to keep fast today.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of Imam Muhammad bin Hasan Al Mahdi Saahibuz Zamaan (A.S.) we call to our memory today.

WA BIL KHAYRI A'WWAADAA
YAA ARH'AMAR

O Allah that which lay hold of my mind (from any of the following)–doubt, guilt, denial, despair, indiscipline, pride, insolence, vanity, disguise, hearsay, discord, hypocrisy, disbelief, corruption, crime, haughtiness, and everything Thou dislikes, (I implore Thee O Lord) may kindly be substituted with–true longing for Thy "Promise", sincerity to fulfil the obligations unto Thee readiness to accept Thy jurisdiction, temperance in day to day life and devoted inclination with courage and diligence in matters dear to Thee, and self fulfilment, peace of mind and sincere repentance– this I ask for O Lord of the worlds.

O my Allah because of Thy loving kindness the regulation of conduct becomes difficult and complicated, anu because of Thy generosity and liberality there is "worship of God" (alone), therefore it is, as if, no trangression has come to pass; I and he who did not disobey Thee dwell in Thy earth, so kindly do good to us

RAMAZ"AAN

To describe the objective and subjective merits of the month of Ramaz'aan, which justify its higher rank over other months, it is more suitable to refer to the words of the Almighty Allah, and His Last Prophet.

The Holy Quran says:

> O you who believe! Fasting is prescribed for you, even as it was prescribed for those before you, that you may ward off (evil);
>
> And (for) him who is sick among you, or on journey, (the same) number of other days; and for those who can afford it there is a ransom: the feeding of a man in need.
>
> But whoso does good of his own accord, it is better for him; and that you fast is better for you if you did but know---
> The month of Ramaz"aan in which was revealed the Quraan, guidance for mankind, and clear proofs of the guidance, and the criterion (of right and wrong); and whosoever of you is present, let him fast the (whole) month, and whosoever of you is sick or on a journey, (let him fast the same) number of other days. Allah desires for you ease; He desires not hardship for you; and (He desires) that you should complete the period, and that you should glorify Allah for having guided you, and that you may be thankful.
> (AL BAQARAH : 183 to 185)
> So hold intercourse with them and seek that which Allah has ordained for you, and eat and drink until the white thread (on horizon) becomes distinct to you from the black thread of the dawn. Then strictly observe the fast till nightfall and touch them not, but be at your devotions in the mosques.
> And men who fast and women who fast.....,Allah has prepared for them forgiveness and a vast reward.
> (AL AH'ZAAB : 35)

The Holy Quran was revealed to the Holy Prophet (S.A.) in the month of Ramaz"aan.

Fasting throughout the month has been made obligatory.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

Fasting is one of the "Waajib" (obligatory) rules of conduct laid down by Islam.

For all matters concerning "Sawm" (fasting) please see "Chiragh-i-Hidayat" published by our Trust.

Shaykh Suddooq (R.A.) quotes Imam Ali bin Moosaa Ar Rizaa (A.S.) that he received from his Holy ancestors, on the authority of Imam Ali ibna Abi Taalib (A.S.), the text of the speech the Holy Prophet used to deliver at the advent of the blessed month of Ramaz"zan:

The Holy Prophet (S.A.) said:

> O men and women! Draws near unto you the blessed month, overflowing with advantages, merciful, ready to put up your sins of omission and commission to Allah for obtaining His forgiveness. Its days, nights and hours, in the estimation of Allah, are more select, refined and important than the days, nights and hours of other months. It surpasses all months in merits and favours.
>
> In this month you are the guests of Allah, enjoying His hospitality, you are from among His favourites, your breathing is "praise of Allah", your sleep is His worship, your prayers receive His approval, your invocations are sanctioned. So, sincerely, free from evil and sinful thoughts and actions, with clear conscience, pray and request that He may give you heart and confidence to observe fast and recite the Holy Quran and dua'as throughout this month.
>
> He who does not receive mercy and forgiveness in this month is really an ill-fated unfortunate, condemned to everlasting unhappiness and deprivation.
>
> Thirst and hunger you undergo, feel and live through, here and now, bring to your memory the severity and sharpness of the drought and starvation that will be the order of the day on the Day of Judgement.
>
> Give alms to the poor and the destitute.
>
> Treat your parents and elders with respect.
>
> Be kind and loving to your children and juniors.
> Take care of and look after your kith and kin.

Keep from giving tongue to that which should not (even) be whispered.

Shut your eyes to that which is indecant to have an eye for.

Turn a deaf ear to that which is too slanderous to be all ears.

Be compassionate, gentle and benign unto orphans so that after you, your children, if need be, receive the same treatment from others.

Turn repentant to Allah and seek His nearness.

After every prayer recite dua'as to invoke His mercy and forgiveness because the most suitable time to get fulfilment of desires is when you have prayed a salaat, the Almighty gives answer to His servants who call Him in these moments.

O People! In truth and fact your bodies and souls are held in pledge, strike a bargain to set them free by asking forgiveness of Allah. Your backs are burdended with a hard to endure load of sins, prostrate yourselves in adoration of Allah, a great deal, to make the drag less heavy, because the Lord of the worlds has given His word, in the name of His might and honour, not to take to task those who pray and prostrate in this month, the flames of the fire will not frighten them.

O People! Whoso provides a meal to a faithful, at the time of breaking the fast, earns the recompense of setting an enslaved human being free.

O People! In this month, whoso makes better his or her morals will cross the "Bridge of Siraat" with ease and finesse, where people, at every step, would stumble and fall; whoso gives leisure and respite to his or her employees will receive equivalent leniency on the Day of Reckoning; whoso takes care of and looks after the orphans and relatives will be treated mercifully on the Day of Judgement; whoso prays optional salaats will get the immunity from Hellfire, and praying of obligatory salaats, in prime time, multiply the good in leaps and bounds; whoso recites even one verse of the Holy Quran, obtains the reward of a full recital of the whole Book in the other months.

O People! In this month, beyond a shadow of doubt, the doors of the everlasting bliss and happiness are thrown open, so beseech Allah not ever to shut them off to your face; and the traps of the eternal curse are unhinged, so make a request to Allah to remove them from your path for ever; the devils are held in chains, so pray to Allah not to set them free for leading you astray.

The month of Ramazaan is very dear to Allah. It is the most august of all months, pure, generous and merciful.

Do not let its nights go waste in slumber, its days in careless omission or loss of remembrance of Allah.

1ST NIGHT MOON

It is obligatory to see the first night moon of the Holy month of Ramaz"aan.

After seeing the 1st night moon turn towards Qiblah, raise your hands and recite:

O Allah pour out much blessings on us in this month, make available for us its generous good and assistance, and keep us safe from the harm, evil, misfortune and mischief that may try to trap us in this month.)

keeping aloof from anything unlawful, I rely upon Thee in connection with the hopes I look forward to realize. Whoso asks for help or assistance gets it freely on account of Thy liberal generosity, and the doors of invocations are open for beseechers. I know well that Thou gives favourable reply to a petitioner when he makes a request to Thee, and Thou comes to support the unfortunate when they long and sigh for Thy help. I know well that to long for Thy beneficence and to accept Thy will and judgement is the only way to get the compensation and approval (which the close-fisted misers deny), a vast open tract of plenty and affluence wherefrom those who follow the tracks obtain the benefits. I know well that for the travellers who set out unto Thee the destination is very near, and that verily Thou does not conceal Thyself from Thy creation unless they shut off Thee while carrying out their daily functions. I turn to Thee in my own interest, to put forward my wants and needs, to ask for help, to implore for getting a hearing though I do not deserve to draw Thy attention and obtain forgiveness yet on account of the confidence I have in Thy generosity, faith in the truthfulness of Thy promise, safety in the belief of Thy Oneness, certain security in the awareness that other than Thou there is no Lord and there is no god save Thou, the Single who has no partner.

O my Allah whatever Thou said is true. Thy promise is good. "Ask Allah of His bounty. Verily Allah is ever Merciful unto you". It is not one of Thy dispositions, O my Chief, to turn down a request or appeal. Thou has given liberal gifts and benefits to (some) people who are "men of means" and imposed taxes recurring in regular turns, on them, in exchange of Thy bounties.

O my Allah Thou brought up me, humble and submissive, amid Thy bounties and favours, and raised my name and reputation high up to the clouds, so keep me alive in this world under the shelter of Thy favours, bounties and mercy, and distinguish me signally for Thy mercy and forgiveness on the the Day of Judgement.

I am fully aware, O my Master, that the path I walk leading to Thee and the love I have for Thee are the ablest advocates who will obtain Thy pardon for me. I trust in and rely upon my right path I found through Thy guidance and I am confident of my advocates to get the release from Thee on my behalf.

I invoke Thee, O my Chief, confessing that I have drunk from the cask of sins. O Lord! I lay open my heart before Thee to show that I have transgressed Thy boundaries many times. O Lord! Terrified, eager, hopeful, afraid, I invoke Thee. O my Master when I look into my record of sins it frightens me, when I look up to Thy kind liberality I long for it greedily. Therefore, if Thou forgive me it is the height of mercy, and if I am punished it is not injustice. I plead my case, O Allah, by boldly beseeching Thee.

at the same time, my behaviour displeases Thee, Thou art liberal and kind, and also my preparation for the hour of severe trial alongwith my lack of conscience, provoke Thee. Thou art compassionate and Merciful. I hope that Thou will not disappoint me in the matter of that which I expect to get. So let my hopes take on form and become real, and please give answer to my prayers, O the Good. Whoso calls Him is heard. Superior is he who makes a request and is hopeful. O my Chief, my desires are many and my conduct is mediocre, so grant me according to my expectations from Thy bounties and do not take me to task for my bad conduct, for verily Thy liberal generosity shines out and sets aside the requital the sinners deserve, and Thy loving indulgence bears, endures and grows tall to repeal the punishment of the transgressors. And I, O my Chief, am healthy and wholesome on account of Thy bounties and favours, safe in Thy sanctuary, in hope of the fulfilment of the promise Thou made that Thou shall overlook the mistakes if one has a high positive opinion about Thy Goodness. What am I? O Lord and what importance do I have? Do a favour and forgive me and give Thy pardon to me as a charity. O my Lord! Cover me with Thy protective covering and forgive me instead of pulling me to pieces through Thy well-known kind and merciful tendency.

So, if someone other than Thou becomes aware of my sins, I do not commit them; and if I fear a quick reprisal I avoid them; or it is not because that I think Thou art shortsighted and badly informed concerning my deeds but because Thou, verily, my Lord, art the Best coverer, the Judge, the Most Merciful, the protector of defects, the Forgiver of sins, the Knower of the unseen, and Thou very kindly gives shelter to the wrongdoers, puts off punishment because of Thy loving indulgence. Praise be to Thee for Thy indulgence after having the full information, and for Thy pardon even though Thou has the absolute authority.

Thou was mild and gentle to me which gave me latitude to break Thy laws. Thou was kind and considerate which instigated my lack of abstinence. Thou protected me which made me rejoice in (my) boldness in the matter of Thy prohibitions.

I am aware of the boundless spaciousness and power of Thy mercy and magnitude of Thy forgiveness, O Indulgent, O Compassionate, supplications fails to coil itself up to Thy door, if praise is not sufficient, then for what reason I have dived deep into awareness of Thy generosity and kindness? Thou does what Thou wills. Thou punishes whomsoever Thou wants, for what Thou decides, and how Thou likes; and shows mercy to whomsoever Thou wants, for what Thou decides and how Thou likes. No one can challenge Thy will. There is no dispute in Thy authority. No one can contradict Thy order. There is nobody to criticise Thy method. Creativity and operation of creation are Thy exclusive domain. Blessed is Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

O Lord, this is the court of the Absolute Sovereign where one is not able to keep quite nor is prevented, but seeks refuge with Thy kind generosity and gains confidence by getting Thy favours and bounties. Thou art the Generous Liberal who does not shrink from awarding pardons, nor find Thy store of gifts diminished, nor ever Thy reservoir of mercy grows less. We have full confidence in Thee on account of Thy eternal habit of giving free pardons, boundless kindness and limitless

O Allah make me turn repentant to Thee till I put a stop to my transgressions, strive for good and act upon, and fear Thee day and night so far as Thou keeps me alive, O the Lord of the worlds.

O Allah each time when I spoke I got ready, took pains and stood up to pray salaat before Thee, and entered into familiar conversation with Thee, Thou overwhelmed me with slumber at the time of salaat, and restricted my supplication as soon as I began to entreat Thee. Why this is for me? Each time when I spoke, in my secret thoughts, I decided to be good, and sat in the comany of those who turn repentant to Thee, Thou gave me over to sorrow and grief, unsettled me, and created a gap between me and my desire to serve Thee. O my Master, perhaps I have been pushed away from Thy door and removed or dismissed from Thy services; or perhaps n my opinion I thought that Thy claim was of no importance and consequence, so Thou kept me at a distance; or perhaps I looked the other way avoiding Thee so Thou held me in contempt; or perhaps I tried to find what was lost in the company of liers so Thou left me in the lurch; or perhaps I showed ungratefulness for the bounties I received from Thee so Thou expelled and banished me; or perhaps I stopped visiting the gatherings of scholars so Thou forsook me; or perhaps I sat in company of the forgetful careless so Thou withdrew Thy mercy; or perhaps I enjoyed the conversation of vain jesters so Thou kept up my friendship with them; or perhaps I did not crave for what I asked for so Thou sent me away, or perhaps because of my offences I was chased away; or perhaps it was my lack of conscience that made Thee cut me off. If Thou forgive me, O Lord, it is a convenient respite. Thou had forgiven sinners before me. Because Thy compassion gets the better of Thy punishment I seek refuge with Thy favourable showed me the right path. I was low and plebeian. Thou lifted up me to higher regions of refinements. I was a frightened fugitive. Thou gave me asylum. I was hungry. Thou gave me food to eat. I was thirsty. Thou gave me water to drink. I was naked. Thou gave me clothes to wear. I was empty handed. Thou gave me enough means and resources. I was weak. Thou made me strong. I was insignificant. Thou made me important. I was feeble and weary. Thou made me wholesome. I made a request. Thou filled me with gifts. I sinned. Thou overlooked. I made mistakes. Thou took a lenient view. I was trifle and paltry. Thou provided plenty in abundance. I was helpless. Thou supported me. I was chased and pushed away. Thou gave me a hospitable shelter for rest and repose. It was I, O Lord, who, when I was alone before Thee, did not turn in repentance, ashamed falling on the knees, and in public did not bend my neck paying attention in respect and fear of Thee. It was I who showed myself bold against my Master, rebelled and resisted the Omnipotent controller of the heavens, allowed myself to be lured in to open defiance. A respite was granted but I did not desist from error. A covering was provided but I did not cover my shame; persisted in wrongdoing, overstepped and transgressed. Thou kept an eye on me but I did not get better, so Thou exercised restraint and granted me respite, covered my faults, as if I had been left alone, and kept away from the consequences of my transgressions; as if Thou was ashamed of me. O Allah I did not disobey Thee, while I contravened Thy commands, because I had not denied Thy overlordship nor I had thought that Thy commands were unimportant, nor I had tried to thwart Thy reprisal, nor I had taken Thy threat easy, but sins showed themselves desirable to my vain passions and they, in turn, overwhelmed me, impudence added fuel to the fire, and on top of all the way Thou put off reprisal deluded me, so I had tried to disobey Thee, and remained behind. Now who shall save me from Thy punishment? And from the clutches of the adversaries? Who shall extricate me out of the plight tomorrow? On whose friendship I could rely if Thy connection had been disconnected? Then shame comes over me. If had I not have hopes of getting Thy boundless kindness and mercy, and gave up hopes, in despair, keeping in view that which has been noticed and counted clearly in Thy "account books" regarding my conduct, the mere mention of it would have depressed me and frustrated my expectations.

we from the depth of our heart believed in Thee and made it known so that Thou may consider our case favourably, so make us follow that which we long for, register Thy love and fear in our hearts and minds, do not let our thoughts go astray after they have been directed towards the right path, and bestow upon us Thy mercy. Verily Thou gives in abundance. So give a sign if my inviting supplications have not at all reached Thy door, and is not sufficient my praise I sing in Thy glory, as my heart has been inspired to believe about Thy generosity and boundless mercy.

Unto whom the servant can go except to his Lord and Master? Unto whom the people can turn to for refuge except to their creator?

O Allah if I had been yoked to and tied with chains and cut off from the flowing stream of Thy bounties in presence of witnessing people, and they were all eyes to see how I was exposed to infamy and disgrace, and I was ordered to proceed to the Hell, and a barrier was put between me and the blessed pious, even then I would have not ceased to have hope and it would not stop me from expecting Thy pardon, and would not take away Thy love from my heart, I have not forgotten the bounties and the protection Thou made available for me in this world. O my Master kill the longing of worldly pleasure my heart so ardently desire, and join me with Mustafa and his children, the best among Thy creation, the Last Prophet Muhammad, blessings of Allah be out there. Why should not I cry? Where to am I heading? I find myself reduced. Ups and downs of life put me in disorder and confusion, and left me in a lurch. The wings of death flutter over me and give a tap on my back. So how could I stop tears? I am sad on account of my departing soul. I cry in fear of the darkness of the grave. I cry in dread of the narrowing walls (distress) inside the dugout hole. I cry in awe of the questioning "MunKar and Nakeer" would direct at me. I cry over my plight when I will come out naked, in shame, from my grave, loaded with burden on my back. I will turn my eyes to my right, I will glance at my left. Behold! Every body, lost in his own thoughts, will pay no attention to any one. On that day every man shall have cares and worries of his own to make him heedless of others. Some faces, on that day, will be clean, smiling, cheerful, and some faces, on that day, will be putrefied, worried, devilish and humiliated.

O my Master, in Thee I have confidence, I rely upon Thee, I ask for everything from Thee, I confide my affairs to Thee, I adhere firmly and hold on to Thy mercy, so let me have my fill of Thy mercy. Whoso desires is guided aright through Thy kindness. Whoso loves Thee, praise be for Thee, Thou cleanses his heart and mind by sucking the marrow of polytheism out the system. Praise be for Thee for giving power of expression to my tongue. To sing tirelessly Thy praise (thankfully), and by trying to the best of my ability to set right my conduct, call Thee to obtain Thy consent. Is my tongue able to sing Thy praise (thankfully)? Are my good deeds proportionate to the bounties and favours Thou bestows on me? O Lord!
O my Allah, certainly Thy grants liberally satisfy my desires, my thankful praises help me to obtain Thy approval for my deeds. My Master I call humbly and fervently on Thee, I devote myself to Thee, I look long and attentively at Thee. My desires, directed unto Thee, are made productive. My aspirations hover round and attach themselves to Thee, O Single and Unique; while my inclination cheerfully stretch out before Thee, my hopes and fears reach Thee safely, my love is familiar with Thee, I extend my hands before Thee to reach out the daily provisions. Tied with the rope of Thy obedience,

I prolong the life of my devotion to Thee. O Master Lord in Thy remembrance my heart takes delight, with prayers I hold communion with Thee, it freezes the pain of fear that torments me. Therefore, O my Master Lord, O my Trusty Patron, O the Ultimate Hope, separate me from my trangressions which prevented me from Thy obligatory obedience, because I beseech Thee on account of my eternal trust in Thee, and due to the limitless desires, I long for, which Thou, out of compassion and mercy, satisfies necessarily.

requests to Thy abundant beneficence, I begin my supplications to prompt Thy kind generosity, O Lord, my helplessness, hopeful, asks for everything from Thee, my destitution receives gifts from Thy power and wealth and becomes enriched, I stand right under the shed of Thy forgiveness, I look up to Thy liberality and kindness, I presistently and continuously try to remain in Thy obedience, so do not let the flames of the Fire consume me. Thou art my ultimate hope. Do not throw me down in the deep black abyss. Thou art the apple of my eyes O Master. Do not let my assured high opinion about Thy favouring disposition and obligingness go wrong. So then, O Trustworthy, do not deprive me of Thy rewards, as Thou art well aware of my reduced circumstances.

O Allah if my death is drawing near and my conduct has not drawn me near Thee, then take into consideration my confession of sins, as a valid reason for having mercy on me. O Allah if Thou forgives who is there more worthy than Thou to forgive; and if Thou punishes who is there more competent then Thou to give righteous judgement! Have mercy on my misery in this world, on my painful restlessness at the time of death, on my loneliness in the grave, on my unbearable melancholy in the underground hole; and when I stand before Thee for the accountability, in a humble unenviable posture. Treat me with the indulgence with which Thou kept my misdeeds concealed from the people. Accomodate me with the reconciliatory disposition through which Thou kept my conduct covered. Have mercy on me when I am thrown on the death bed, my friends trying to calm down my restlessness; do a favour to me when I am laid stretched on the naked floor for the religious washing, my neighbours performing the necessary functions; move with compassion when I am carried to the grave-yard, my kith and kin accompanying my funeral; be with me when I am put into the grave, alone and abandoned; take piety on me in that new abode where I will be a forsaken miserable, because continously I did not cultivate friendship with any one other than Thou O my Master. If I rely upon myself it would surely be my anihilation O Master. Unto whom I may turn to ask for support if Thou does not take a lenient view of my stumbling? To whom may I run for help if Thou withdraws Thy patronage when I am pressed down? To whom I turn to cry for help if Thou does not save me from my troubles? O my Master! Who is mine? Who shall have pity on me if Thou does not have pity on me? From whom may I expect to get benefits if Thou prevents Thy benefits from me when I am in distress? Unto whom may I run to take refuge, avoiding my sins, when death pulls me down, O my Master do not punish me. I turn to Thee hopeful. My Allah prove my hopes true and dispel my fear. No doubt my sins are many and there is no hope of discharge unless Thy pardon is available. My Master I ask for that which I do not deserve but Thou art aware of the governing bounderies and Oft-forgiving, so forgive me and wrap me with the garment made of Thy kindness and benevolence, let the consequent punishment hide in darkness, and keep (my sins) away from me concealed and do not confront me with them, verily, Thou art the Eternal Owner of mercy and favours, the Most Liberal Pardoner, the Most Kind Indulgent. O my Allah Thou art He whose favours and bounties flow freely for those who do not make a request and Thou gives the daily bread and provisions even to those who oppose Thee. So, O my Master, what about those who turn to Thee to ask for everything firmly believing that whatever has been created belongs to Thee and follow Thy Will and Command? All kneel down before Thee and give solace to their hearts by praising Thee O the Lord of the Worlds!

O my Master, I, Thy servant, broken and needy, am knocking at Thy door, pleading for Thy favour, so do not withdraw Thy generous means from me, and give consent to that which I ask for through this supplication. I am hopeful that Thou will not disappoint my confident belief I have in Thy compassion and mercy. O my Allah Thou art He who does not send away any supplicant, nor ever Thou art found short of gifts and bounties.

as Thou Thyself has said which is more conclusive than what we say O Allah I beseech Thee to give me self-control, good manners, open boundaries of intellect; friends, truthfulness and satisfying rewards. O Lord, I ask for everything good which I know and which I do not know. O my Allah I ask for the good which Thy highminded and upright servants had asked for. O Good to whom requests are made and who gives openhandedly to whomsoever He gives, give me (because) I beseech Thee on behalf of myself, my family, my parents, my children, my comrades and brothers-in-faith, bless us with everything that is good to let us live in joy and contentment, make more distinctly visible our refined manners and love of humanity and set aright all our affairs. Include me among those who live long and vie in beauty and goodness and upon whom Thou bestows the best benefits, a sign of Thy approval, and to whom Thou gives a life of purity and refinement, eternal joy, liberal highmindedness and total contenment. Verily Thou puts in effect what Thou wills. No one other than Thou can do what Thou does not want.

and give me enough means of livelihood through Thy boundless resources. Spare me, O my Master, from abominable evils. Pull me out from debts, money obligations and disorderly conditions, so that because of any of these I may not be put to trouble. Seize the power of hearing and seeing of my enemies, and those who envy me or are planning to oppress me. Help me against them. Open my eyes. Give joy and confidence to my heart. Disperse and send away from me pains and sorrows. Let he who has evil plans against me come under my thumb. Make me selfsufficient to turn the tables on the evil schemes of the devil and the tyrant and withstand the lure of sins. Cleanse me thoroughly from the dirt of sins, through Thy pardon save me from the Fire, through Thy mercy admit me in the land of eternal bliss, give me a wife from the beautiful women of the Paradise, through Thy kindness let me cling to Thy pure and pious friend, Muhammad and his children, the purified, chaste, and virtuous blessed, Thy blessings be on them, body and soul.

in the name of Thy Might and Majesty that if Thou calls to account my record of sins I shall repeatedly ask for Thy pardon, if Thou scolds and rebukes me for my transgressions I shall move Thy compassion, if Thou throws me in the Fire the more experienced among the dwellers of the Hell will declare how much I love Thee. O my Allah and Master if Thou does not provide indulgence except to Thy friends and those who obey Thee, then to whom the sinners will flee for help? If Thou does not show kindness except to the sincere fulfillers of promise, then from whom the fallible will seek help? O Allah, if I am thrown in the Fire, Thy enemies will go wild with joy and if I am welcomed in the Paradise it will be a source of comfort to Thy Prophet, and, by Allah, I am sure that happiness of Thy Prophet is more dear to Thee than the satisfaction of Thy enemies.

O Allah let me follow the path of those honest people who went farther in the matter of truth and penetrated more deeply, let me keep the company of the upright who set out and lead to the path of the Good. Help me to have control over my vain desires as Thou had helped the good people in their efforts to discipline their style and substances. Make my conduct, in every aspect and detail, a beautiful model, on account of it as a reward grant me a place in the Paradise, through Thy mercy. Help me to commit myself to the good which let me be guided by and stand firm, persevering and enduring. O Lord, do not bring back the evil near me as I have been set free from its clutches, O Lord of the worlds.

IFTAAR (BREAKING OF FAST)

Iftaar (Breaking of Fast) after Ishaa prayers is highly desirable, preferably with water, milk or dates.

At the time of Iftaar:

(1) Recite the following dua'a:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ صُمْتُ وَعَلٰى رِزْقِكَ اَفْطَرْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ
تَوَكَّلْتُ

(i) ALLAAHUMMA LAKA S'UMTU WA A'LAA RIZQIKA AFT'ARTU WA A'LAYKA TAWAKKALTU

[O my Allah, for Thee, I fast, and with the food Thou gives me I break the fast, and I rely on Thee.]

(ii) Ameer ul Moo-mineen Ali ibne Abi Taalib (A.S.) used to recite the following dua'a before Iftaar:

O Allah let us bear out and hold up that which Thou makes known to us as the truth, and let us be fully aware of that which we fall short of doing. O Allah, through him, set in order our disorder; gather and unite our flock; stitch together our ripped open separation; turn our want and poverty into enough, lift us up from our degradation; free us from our misery, pull us out from our debts, help us to get out from the ditch of cares and sorrows; fill the gap created by confusion among us; let our difficulties be easy to deal with; refine our substance and style, untie our ropes and straps; let our efforts succeed well and secure success; make us fulfil our promises; give answer to our prayers; listen to our requests; cause us to obtain the good of this world and the hereafter; give us much and more than our expectations O the Best of givers and bestowers; and cleanse our hearts, unburden our emotions from hate and anger, and in the event of dispute in the matter of truth show us the right path, verily Thou guides whosoever Thou wills to the Right Path.

Let us, through him, get the better of Thy enemies and our opponents, O the True God.

pick and choose us for receiving Thy bounties in the "Night of Qadr", for going to Thy "Sacred House" for giving life in Thy cause, give favourable answer to our legitimate invocations and requests, and when Thou brings together all the people, wherever or whenever they lived, on the Day of Judgement, have mercy on us, keep us safe from the fire, let not the flames of the Hell seethe and boil us, let not Thy anger and contempt swallow us up, do not make us eat the "Zaqqoom" and "Zaree" (the thorny bitter fruits-bearing trees of the Hell), do not put us up with the devils, donot throw us with the face to the ground in the Hell, do not wrap us with the flames of the fire and the burning fluid tar.

Deliver us from all the evils O "There is no god save Thou", for the sake of "There is no god save Thou" holy month of Ramzaan are given below:

(1) The best "A'mal", in its days and nights, is the recitation of the Holy Quran. The Holy Prophet and the Holy Ahl ul Bayt used to recite one complete recitation every third day throughout the month. Whoso recites the complete recitation and submits, as hadiyaa, to any one of the 14 Infallibles, will find him (her)self in the company of that Maa'soom on the day of Judgement.

(2) Recite a great deal, as much as possible, throughout the month:

(ii) ALLAAHUMMA S'ALLI A'LAA MUH'AMMADIN WA AALI MOH'AMMAD
(iii) ASTAGHFIRULLAAHA RABBEE WA ATOOBI ILAYH

(3) Pray "day and night nawaafil" regularly.

[O that One who is (Everexisting) Supreme Being and was there before any and everything, then (after that) He created all things. He is eternal and all that has been created is mortal. O that One like unto Him there is nothing. O that One who is such that no one in the high heavens, nor in the low earths, nor above, below and in between, worship anyone other than Him as a God. Praise be to Thee. It is not possible to count up, remember and narrate Thy praise in all its dimensions. Thou alone can do it. Therefore send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, blessings that no one other than Thou has the capacity to count, remember and narrate its meaning and true purpose.]

And give me all that I have asked for as a gift, keep alive my longing, fulfil my desires, strengthen my will and intention. Keep away from me that which is horrid and loathsome, frightening and dangerous, but keep me linked with that which does not threaten me. Away from family, possession, brothers and children,

I beseech Thee in Thy name "BISMILLAAHIR RAH'MAANIR RAH'EEM", (if Thou has decided that in this night (Qadr) the Angels and the Spirit descend therein) to send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, and include my name among those who are blessed, and my best blessing would be to be with those who strived in Thy way and testified Thy truth with blood. For me the best favour would be a place at the summit, and forgiveness of my sins. Give me the gift of belief which will give me joy, heart and confidence. And give me the gift of faith which will not cause uncertainty and doubt. And give me (Thy) approval which will become my destiny. Give me that which is good in this world and that which is good in the Hereafter and save me from the torment of the Fire. If Thou does not settle my affairs favourably in this night wherein the Angels and the Spirit descend therein, then which is the night when the delayed action will be taken in my case?

[O Allah I beseech Thee to send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, and that which Thou has decided and made ready, through the unchallengable commands, irrevocably, in the "Night of Qadr", is a decision as well as an execution which, neither can be changed nor kept in abeyance, so write down my name in the list of pilgrims who shall go to Thy "Sacred House" for Hajj, the pilgrims whose performance of Hajj is appreciated, their efforts cut off their link with the sins and atone for their wrongdoings. In this night please decide and make ready for me long life, enough means of livelihood, and it is my wish that I pay back my debts and things deposited with me as a trust. So be it, O Lord of the worlds. O Allah let happiness and freedom from care be my routine, and give me the daily bread from that which I can compute and also from that which I cannot measure, and protect me through that which I watch over myself and also through that which I cannot use for my safety, and send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, and thoroughly keep them in peace.]

A peculiar and singular privilege shared by no other from among Thy creation Thou bestowed on Muhammad. The good that Thou gave to him has not been given to anyone, much more superior in number and power, countless, no one other than Thee can comprehend.

Master it must surely have been Thy intention that what I ask for would be given, what I hope for would be made available in large quantity, of better quality, regularly, and would be kept safe from that which I avoid and run from unto Thee.

May be I do not deserve to get Thy mercy, but certainly Thy mercy has the right to reach me and promote my cause.

May be I am not entitled to satisfaction; but Thy generosity and kindness is able to encompass all things, therefore it will surely cover me also.

O my Allah, O Compassionate, I beseech Thee in the name of Thy kindest disposition to send blessings on Muhammad and on his family, and remove my hardships, dispel my sorrows and troubles, have mercy on me through Thy mercy and keep me alive amidst Thy liberal bounties.

Verily Thou art the Hearer of prayer, Nigh, Responsive.

{O Allah, the Lord of the month of Ramazan, the Revealer of the Quran. This is the month of Ramazan, in which Thou revealed the Quran and revealed the "signs" that render clear the guidance and teachings to distinguish between good and evil. O Allah make us observe fast in its days and remain awake in its nights to pray. O Allah let it be peaceful for us, keep us in sound condition for it, let it take upon itself the supervision of our affairs to give us ease and happiness and while taking decisions, in the "Night of Qadr", and rendering possible things and events decisively (decisions which cannot be changed or bypassed) write my name in the list of those pilgrims of Thy "Sacred House" whose pilgrimage receive Thy approval, whose wrongdoings are overlooked, and while making decisions and rendering possible things and events make possible for me long life, and enough lawful means of livelihood.}

Thou has made "Fasting" obligatory on each day of this month, and in this month Thou sent down the Quran, a guidance to mankind, wherein are Sings to distinguish between good and evil. O Allah make us observe fast, respond to its calling, let it take care of our affairs, and keep us in good condition and look after our welfare and comfort through Thy consent. Verily Thou art able to do all things.]

Whoso, for seeking nearness to Allah alone, without uterior motives or hypocrisy, recite this dua'a, shall be kept safe from turmoil and tyranny, and also from going astray.

(6) Pray a 50 Rak–a't Salaat as under:.

In every Rak-a't, after the recitation of Soorah Al Faatih'ah, recite Soorah Al Zilzaal.

DAY

(1) Today, in 40 Hijra, Ibna Muljim attacked Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) from a concealed position; while he was praying the Fajr Salaat, with the poisoned blade of his sword. It was a deadly blow. Imam Ali (A.S.) left this world on 21st Ramazan in 40 Hijra. Therefore from 19th to 21st we observe "Ayyamul Zarbat".

(2) It must be kept in mind that the day is as auspicious as the night, so recite the Holy Quran and dua'as of Imam Ali ibna Abi Talib (A.S.) and Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul Aabideen (A.S.) mentioned in Selected Soorahs and dua'as Volume One and Two and Dua'as Volume Four, during the daytime on the 19th Ramazan.

(3) Recite the following dua'a taught by the Holy Prophet (S.A.):

(6) Pray an 8 Rak-a't Salaat as under:

In every Rak-a't recite Soorah Al Faatih'ah and any other Soorah.

(7) It is reported that Imam Jafar As Saadiq (A.S.) used to pray "Tahajjud" tonight till Fajr Salaat.

(8) Recite "Durood" as many times as possible; and for the purpose ofAa'–maal and prayers this night is as fullfilling as the night of A'ashoorah.

(9) It is highly desirable to have a bath every night from 21st to the last date of Ramazan.

DAY

(1) It must be kept in mind that the day is as auspicious as the night, so recite the Holy Quran and dua'as of Imam Ali ibna Abi Talib (A.S.) and Imam Ali bin Husayn Al Zaynul Aabideen (A.S.) mentioned in Selected Soorahs and Dua'as Volume One and Two and Dua'as Vol. Four, during the daytime on the 21st of Ramazan.

(2) It is highly desirable to go into "Itikaaf" (Spiritual retirement or retreat) from today. The Holy Prophet (S.A.) and the Ah' ul Bayt (A.S.) used to move over to the Masjid for the worship of Allah during these last days of this month.

(3) Recite the following dua'a taught by the Holy Prophet (S.A.):

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ لِّيْ فِيْهِ اِلٰى مَرْضَاتِكَ دَلِيْلًا وَّلَا تَجْعَلْ لِّلشَّيْطَانِ فِيْهِ عَلَيَّ سَبِيْلًا وَّاجْعَلِ الْجَنَّةَ لِيْ مَنْزِلًا وَّمَقِيْلًا

[O Allah, in this month, show the way to my behaviour unto Thy approval, do not let the devil (Shaytan) attract my attention unto his ways and means, lead me to the blissful resting abode–paradise, O He who actualizes the desires of the seekers of fulfilment.]

(4) Today Imam Ali ibna abi Talib (A.S.) left this world to meet his creator in 40 Hijra–a sad day of mourning.

To know full well about the Holy Imam read the Biography of "Imam Ali ibna Abi Talib (A.S.)", published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(i) Take bath and put on clean clothes.

(ii) Give alms in the name of Allah.

(iii) Pray Namaz of Imam Ali ibna Abi Talib (A.S.)
[Please Dua'as Volume Four.]

(iv) Recite:

(a) "Ziyaarat", dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Imam.
[Please see Chapter (4) in this Book.]

(b) Ziyaarat Jaami–a'h Kabeer
or
Ziyaarat Jaami–a'h S'agheer.
[Please see Chapter (4) under "Standard Procedure" in this Book.]

(v) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the 14 Infallibles. Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine Leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

"Majlis" is an institution. It was and still is the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam–Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his descendants–an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind): "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);

(SHOORAA:23)

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rules of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the Aali Muhammad's footsteps.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl" and "Imamate" are the integral part and parcel of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad"

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah–Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosque of Medina, after the Jumah prayers. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birthday of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is identical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

In every Rak-a't recite Soorah Al Faatih'ah and any other Soorah.

it teaches to distinguish between good and evil, bifurcating the lawful and the unlawful;

(it is) a Quran, explaining and analysing the framework and substance of Your commands;

(it is) a sacred document in the hands of Your servants, fully and thoroughly made clear in detail,

(it is) a divine abiding revelation, communicated to Your prophet Muhammad (Your blessings be on him and on his children);

(it is) a true basis of knowledge and education, by following which we steer clear of disorderly lawlessness and stupid ignorance;

(it is) a remedy for those who after receiving the information,

O Allah just as You helped us to attain proficiency in its recitation, and made the pronunciation easy for our tongues to manifest the beauty of its style,

It is Thou who willingly offers a higher price to Thy servants in order that they sell with profit to get more in exchange of the merchandise they trade with Thee, and in this way add and accumulate more and more after coming in contact with Thee. for the reason that Thou gives (freely) more than any one unto whom (people) turn to ask for favours,

وَأَكْفَى مَنْ تُوُكِّلَ عَلَيْهِ وَأَعْطَى مَنْ سُئِلَ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَأَنْتَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

WA AKFAA MAN TUWAKKILA A'LAYHI WA AA'–T'AA MAN SU–ILA MIN FAZ"LIHEE WA ANTA A'LAA KULLI SHAY–IN QADEER

Thou more adequately satisfies demands and claims than any one upon whom (people) rely for a just settlement,
Thou more liberally bestows benefits than any one who is approached with a request for granting favours, (because) Thou art able to do all things.

D'EE QAA'–DAH

This is the first of three sacred months mentioned in the Holy Quran.

In this month supplications made for fulfilment of crucial and very necessary needs are heard and accepted.

GENERAL AA'–MAAL

(1) ANY SUNDAY

It is stated on the authority of the Holy Prophet (S.A.) that if a 4 Rak–a't Salaat is prayed on any Sunday during this month, it will be a certain source for obtaining acceptance of repentance and forgiveness of sins. The pray–er of this Salaat will remain a believer till his death, will receive his parent's blessings, have enough means of livelihood; and he will have a peaceful sojourn in his grave, also Allah will have mercy on his children.

PRAY THE 4 RAK–A'T SALAAT AS UNDER:

In every Rak–a't recite:

(i)	SOORAH AL FAATIH'AH	Once
(ii)	SOORAH AL IKHLAAS	3 times
(iii)	SOORAH AL FALAQ	Once
(iv)	SOORAH AL KAAFIROON	Once
(v)	SOORAH AL NAAS	Once

After the Salaam say 70 times:

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ رَبِّي وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ

ASTAGHFIRULLAAH RABBEE WA ATOOBU ILAYH
[I ask forgiveness of Allah, my Lord–Nourisher, and unto Him I turn repentant.]

Then say:

لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظِيمِ

LAA H'AWLA WA LAA QUWWATA ILLAA BILLAAHIL A'LIYYIL A'Z'EEM

[O Magnificent, O Oft-forgiving, forgive my sins and the sins of all faithful men and faithful women, because, verily, sins can not be forgiven unless Thou grants the amnesty.]

(2) FAST

It is highly desirable to keep fast on Thursday, Friday and Saturday consecutively (once during one of the 3 sacred month).

11

Today Imam Ali bin Moosaa Ar Riza (A.S.) was born in 148 Hijra.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Ali Bin Moosaa Ar Rizaa (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

It is a day of happiness and rejoicing.

Please refer to "D'ee Qaa'–dah–23"on 523 para (1) to (5) for special prayers to be prayed today also.

As mentioned in para (5) "Majlis" and "Jashan" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt. Today the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad meet together in the name of "Jashan" and sing the praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt.

It is highly desirable to keep fast today.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

NIGHT

On the authority of the Holy Prophet (S.A.) it is reported that tonight is highly suitable for praying and seeking fulfilment of legitimate desires.

23

Today is the "Day of martyrdom of Imam Ali bin Moosa Ar Rizaa (A.S.)" in 203 Hijra—a sad day of mourning.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Ali bin Moosa Ar Rizaa (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad'

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaaz of Imam Ali bin Moosa Ar Rizaa (A.S.), [Please see (xi) page 60 in this Book],
(4) Recite:

(i) "Ziyaarat", Dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Imam. [Please see chapter (4) in this Book],

(ii) Ziyaarat Jaami—a'h Kabeer
or
Ziyaarat Jaami—a'h Sagheer
[Please see chapter (4) under "Standard procedure" in this Book.]

(5) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad. gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the 14 Infallibles. Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was, and still is, the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam—Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet and his descendants—an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

> This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind): "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rule of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the footsteps of Aali Muhammad.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl and Imamat" are an integral part and parcel of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad"

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah—Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayer. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birthday of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is identical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

(or 29)

Today is the "day of martyrdom of Imam Muhammad bin Ali At Taqee (A.S.)" in 220 Hijra—a sad day of mourning.

[The day of Martyrdom should be observed on the 29th as if this month is completed in 29 days because on account of the appearance of the moon on the 29th we would not have the opportunity to commemorate the martyrdom of the Holy Imam. In case this month extends to 30 days than we should do the aa'-maal on the 30th also].

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Muhammad bin Ali At Taqee (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaaz of Imam Muhammad At Taqee (A.S.), [Please see (xii) on page 61 in this Book].
(4) Recite:

(i) "Ziyaarat", Dua'a after Ziyaarat and Salawaat of the Holy Imam.
[Please see chapter (4) in this book],
(ii) Ziyaaraat Jaami—a'h Kabeer
or
Ziyaarat Jaami—a'h Sagheer
[Please see chapter (4) under "Standard procedure" in this Book.]

(5) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the 14 Infallibles. Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was, and still is, the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam—Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his descendents— an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

> This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servents who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind): "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophethood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rules of conduct (Furoo-of-Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the footsteps of Aali Muhammad.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl and Imamat" are an integral part and pacel of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad"

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah—Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayer. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the birthy day of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan"; but the purpose is identical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

The sacred month of D'il H'ijjah is one of the highly blessed months. The pious and upright companions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and their first generation followers used to spend this month in prayers and supplications, particularly the first ten (10) noteworthy days which have also been distinguished in the Holy Quran.

The Holy Prophet (S.A.) had said that supplications made in these 10 days get a positive reply from the Almighty.

COMMON AA'–MAAL FOR THE FIRST 10 DAYS

(1) Keep fast on the first 9 days (not on the 10th).

(2) In the nights of the first 10 days, between the Maghrib and Ishaa Salaats pray a 2 Rak–a't Salaat as under:

In every Rak–a't, after the recitation of Soorah Al Faatih'ah, recite Soorah Al Ikhlaas, and the following verse:

رَبِّهِ أَرْبَعِينَ لَيْلَةً وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِأَخِيهِ هَارُونَ اخْلُفْنِي فِي

[And when We did appoint for Moosa thirty nights, and added to them ten; and he completed the whole time appointed by his Lord of forty nights; and Moosa said unto his brother: "Take my place among the people. Do right, and do not follow the way of the mischief-makers".]

Today is the day of martyrdom of Imam Muhammad bin Ali Al Baaqir (A.S.) in 114 H'ijra—a sad day of mourning.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Muhammad bin Ali Al Baaqir (A.S.)", published by our Trust.

Today the sincere friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad":

(1) Take bath and put on clean clothes.
(2) Give alms in the name of Allah.
(3) Pray Namaaz of Imam Muhammad bin Ali Al Baaqir (A.S.). [Please see (viii) on page 56 in this Book].
(4) Recite:

or
Ziyaarat Jaami–a'h Sagheer.
[Please see chapter (4) under "Standard procedure" in this Book]

(5) The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad" gather today to hold "Majlis" (a gathering of the faithfuls). A learned scholar gives a talk on the principles, facts and philosophy of the true religion of Allah with special reference to the lives of the 14 Infallibles. Oneness of Allah (Tawheed), His Justice (Adl), Prophethood and Imamat (Divine leadership) are discussed and made clear by bringing up the verses of the Holy Quran and the authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

"Majlis" is an institution. It was, and still is, the only medium available to the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad, since the post martyrdom days of our Holy Imam Husayn bin Ali (A.S.), to keep alive the true spirit of the "Islam–Original". It gives expression to our indepth feelings of love by which we are passionately attached with the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his descendants– an essential spiritual as well as material function in the light of the following verse of the Holy Quran:

> This it is which Allah gives the glad tidings to His servants who believe and do good deeds; say (O Muhammad to mankind): "I ask you no recompense therefor (the toils of the Prophet-hood) save love of (my) kinsfolk (relatives);"
> [SHOORAA : 23]

It binds us firmly with the principles (Usool of Deen), and Rules of conduct (Furoo of Deen). It makes us know and learn the meanings of the verses of the Holy Quran and follow in the footsteps of Aali Muhammad.

It makes clear to the faithfuls that belief in the Oneness of Allah, Prophethood and Day of Judgement is not the true Islam unless their intellect and senses are brought round the conviction that "Adl and Imamat" are an integral part and parcel of the faith. Then alone that inbuilt discipline takes roots which regulates the conscious and instinctive behaviour of a man in accordance with the laws made by Allah and carried out by the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his "Ahlul Bayt". The institution of "Majlis" has been doing this (essential) function in the face of active opposition by the rulers and the enemies of the "Aali Muhammad".

In fact "to give talk" on the eternal way of life approved by the Almighty Allah–Islam dates back to the days Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) used to give lectures on every aspect of knowledge, in the mosques of Medina, after the Jumah prayer. According to all genuine historians its impact emerged in full force in later age of enlightenment among the Arab and Muslim scholars.

So "Majlis" is a sacred and essential institution for the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad.

The friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad hold meetings on the "day of Martyrdom" in the name of "Majlis", and on the Birth day of any of the 14 Infallibles or their children in the name of "Jashan", but the purpose is identical.

We can give expression to our grief in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of the "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

8

Today is known as the day of "Tarwiyah".

It is highly desirable to observe fast today.

inclination towards me that Thou did not bring me out during the rule of "unbelieving in God" leaders who pulled apart the bounds of obligation unto Thee and denied Thy Messengers, but made me come out when, well in advance, the true guidance had been made available to (the mankind) which rendered my task easy, and amid that (facility) I grew up.
Earlier than that Thou made generous use of Thy limitless resources and very lovingly gave shape to Thy beautiful design,
Then the beginning of my growth started in the discharged sperm, and I passed (dwelling for a time) through three intricacies– flesh, blood and hide, unable to see my own growth, and there was nothing which I could do on my own;
thereafter I was commissioned to enter this world, complete in all respects, with an "end" in view, in the midst of true guidance, sent down ahead of my arrival.
I was taken care of in the cradle when I was a suckling infant, nursed on easily disgestable wholesome milk, brought up in the lovingly caressing arms and bossoms, loved and cherished by mothers, kept safe from the clutches of demons, steered clear of ebbs and tides;
so, let Thou be praised and glorified O Merciful, O Compassionate,
so far it is possible to use words.

the body; and flesh, blood, hair, skin, muscles, ducts, bones, marrow, sinews, and all limbs of the body; and that which had been pieced together in addition to above, in the earliest stage of my development, and that which had been handed over to me by the earth;

and my sleep, wakefulness, and rest;

performance of bowing down and prostemation.

If I resolve and make efforts, over the years, in a lifetime, to thankfully express my obligation and gratitude to Thee for even a single favour, I cannot find the words to make it possible, except to do what Thou has very kindly made obligatory upon me in order to be able to turn thankful unto Thee, always, day and night; again and again to be praised for newly–acquired rare gifts, devotedly with perseverance, in the future life.

If I crave for more, taken up with greed, to have an idea about Thy bounties, given and to be given (with the help of expert accountants), we shall neither be able to fance in the sum total, nor reckon, (nor) agree with each other;

also from where and how all that was made available!

Thou Thyself made known in Thy rational Book, and Thy information was true: "If you would count the bounty of Allah you cannot reckon it."

O Allah, Thy book is true, and also Thy information.

i.e, they would have not been favourably inclined towards me, and would have renounced, forsaken and rejected me.
Look at me. It is I, O my God, who stands before Thee, O my Master, submissive, humble, helpless, small.
I do not have any means to demand acquittal, so accept my apology, nor do I have any ability to rely upon, so help me,
I do not have any plea to put forward as an argument,
(as) it cannot convince,
I cannot try to maintain that I had not sinned.
How can it be denied?
Supposing that I deny,
O my Lord–Master,
(then) how and where will it benefit me?
All parts of my body give testimony to that which I carried out and vouch for the belief I was aware of;
not entertaining any doubt that, verily, Thou would question me about the important issue, and that, verily, Thou art a just judge who does not unjustly bear hard upon (people), and Thy just action against me would have destroyed me.
Afraid of Thy justice I sink in the ground, O my God, because if Thou takes me to task for my sins, Thou art justified in view of the decisive warning given in advance, and if Thou grants me a pardon it would because of Thy indulgence, generosity and kindness.
There is no god save Thou.
Be Thou glorified!
Verily I have been of the wrongdoers.

All of you are my advocates to obtain remission for my wrongdoings and lapses.
I believe in Allah and in that which has been given to you, the last of you is as dear and near to me as the first.

I separate myself from gods of magic, sorcery; and the idols of Lat and Uzzaa.
O my masters, I make my peace with those who submit to you,

I take the field against those who wage war on you,
I oppose those who commit injustice to you,
I make friends with those who stand by you,
till the Day of Judgement.
May the curse of Allah be on those who took liberties with you and usurped your rights.
May the curse of Allah be on their comrades, their followers and on those who propagate their idealogy.
I take refuge with Allah and (all of) you.

Today Imam Ali bin Muhammad Al Naqee (A.S.) was born in 212 Hijra.

To know full well about the Holy Imam please read the "Biography of Imam Ali bin Muhammad Al Naqee (A.S.)" published by our Trust.

It is a day of happiness and rejoicing.

Please refer to page 265 Para (1) to (5) under "Rajab–3" in this Book for special prayers to be prayed today also.

As mentioned in para (5) "Majlis" and "Jashan" are the two sides of one coin. We use this coin to seek nearness to Allah, His Last Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahlul Bayt. Today the friends and followers of the Aali Muhammad meet together in the name of "Jashan" and sing the praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet and his Holy Ahl ul Bayt.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles", and the tenets of Islam, but at all events obligatory rules of conduct (Namaz and other essentials) have to be carried out; and in addition special prayers and dua'as must be prayed in the name of the Holy Imam we call to our memory today.

GHADEER KHUM

A huge caravan of nearly one hundred thousand Muslims alongwith the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and his Ahl ul Bayt, was returning to Medina, after the "Hajjatul Widaa'."

When they reached Ghadeer ul Khum, a place between Medina and Mecca, the Holy Prophet (S.A.) ordered a halt to the marching caravan, called back those who had gone ahead, and waited for those who were coming behind.

He had received the following verse from Allah:

> O Our Messenger! Deliver what has been sent down unto you from your Lord; and if you do not, then (it will be as if) you have not delivered His Message (at all); and surely Allah will protect you from (the mischief) of men."
> [The Holy Quran 5 : 67]

A tall pulpit of the "Kajawas" (sent used for sitting on the back of the camels) was prepared.

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

The Holy Prophet (S.A.) mounted the pulpit and delivered a long sermon, recounting his services towards the fulfilment of his mission as the Messenger of Allah (S.A.).

He asked the audience if he had conveyed to them the commands of Allah, enumerating them one after another. The huge gathering unanimously said "Yes".

Then he asked:

> "Do I wield authority over your souls more than you do?"
>
> "Certainly it is so, O Messenger of Allah", they said in one voice.

He asked Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) to come up.

Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) mounted the pulpit. Holding Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) in both his hands he raised him high, so much that the whole assembly of men and women saw him clearly.

He again addressed them:

> "O men and women! Allah is my Mawlaa (Lord Master). I am the Mawlaa (Lord Master) of the believers. I exercise authority over their souls more than they do, and of whomsoever I am the Mawlaa, Ali is his Mawlaa.
>
> O Allah! Be Thou a friend of him who is a friend of Ali.
>
> Be Thou an enemy of him who is an enemy of Ali.
>
> Help him who helps Ali.
> Forsake him who forsakes Ali."

At the end of this declaration, the following verse was revealed:

> "This day I have perfected for you, your religion, and have completed my favour on you, and have chosen for you Islam (to be) the Religion."
> [The Holy Quran 5 : 3]

Then the Holy Prophet (S.A.) commanded everyone to pay allegiance to Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) as "Ameerul Momineen", a title used by the Messenger of Allah for the first time.

The Holy Prophet had declared (according to Imam Jaa'-far As Saadiq) the "day of Ghadeer" as a day of rejoicing for all Muslims, in addition to Jumu—a'h, Fitr and Ad'h'aa.

Imam Ali bin Moosa Ar Rizaa (A.S.) said:

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

It is highly rewarding to be in Najaf Ashraf today for performing the Ziyaarat of Imam Ali ibna Abi Talib (A.S.).
Give today as much as you can, in the name of Allah, to the less fortunate, because, the "day of Ghadeer" is particularly specified for helping deserving people.

(4) Recite Dua'a Nudbah
[Please see (13) on page 66 in this Book.]

(5) It is a day of rejoicing. The friends and followers of the "Aali Muhammad "today celebrate the declaration made at Ghadeer. Khum, and meet together in the name of "Jashn" to sing the praises of Allah, the Holy Prophet, Imam Mawlaa Ali and the Holy Ahl ul Bayt.

We can give expression to our joy and happiness in whatever manner available or suitable to us keeping in view the life style of our beloved "14 Infallibles" and the tenets of Islam.
It is highly desirable to make the faithfuls (Moomineen) happy, to do favours to relatives, to give gifts, and invite friends and relatives to eat meals together, and above all to send blessings on Muhammad and Aali Muhammad as many times as possible.

(6) Pray a 2 Rak—a't Salaat, just before sunset, as under:
In every Rak—a't, after the recitation of Soorah Al Fatih'ah, recite:

i) Soorah Al Ikhlaas	10 times.
ii) Aayaat ul Kursee	10 times.
iii) Soorah Al Qadr.	10 times.

(ii) After the Salaam go into Sajdah and say 100 times:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ شُكْرًا لِلّٰهِ

ALH'AMDULILLAAH SHUKRAN LILLAAH

(ii) Then sit and recite the following dua'a:

MUBAHILAH

The event of Mubahilah took place in the 9th year of Hijraa. A deputation of 14 scholars came to discuss the truth of Islam with the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

Arguments were put forward by both sides.

Several days went by. The Christians did not listen to reason.

Then Allah revealed the following verses:

> Verily, the likeness of E'esaa with Allah is as the likeness of Aadam. He created him of dust, then He said unto him: "'Be, and he was"
>
> (This is) the truth from your Lord (O Muhammad), so be not of those who doubt.
> And whoso disputes with you concerning him, after the knowledge which has come unto you, say (unto them); "Come! We will summon our sons and you your sons, and our women and you your women, and our 'selfs' and your 'selfs', and then will pray humbly (to the Lord) and invoke the curse of Allah upon those who lie.
> (The Holy Quran, 3 : 58, 59 and 60)

The Christians agreed to this contest.

Early next morning, on the 24 of the month of Zilhijjah, the Holy Prophet (S.A.) sent Salmaan to the selected site, outside the city area, to set up a shelter for those whom he would take with him, as his sons, women and "selfs".

Presented by www.ziaraat.com

A large number of companions assembled in the masjid making themselves available for the selection. On the opposite side of the field, selected for the contest, the Christians, with their selected men, women and children, appeared on the scene.

At the appointed hour, a huge crowd, standing in wait, saw the Holy Prophet (S.A.) coming in, Imam Husayn (A.S.) in his arms, Imam Hasan (A.S.) holding his index finger, walking beside him, Bibi Faatimah Zahraa (A.S.), close to his heels, and Mawlaa Ali (A.S.) just behind her.

The group stopped under the canopy set up by Salmaan. The Holy Prophet (S.A.) looked at the heavens and said:

> "O my Lord! These are the people of my house."

The chief monk looked up and down at the faces of the pure "Five" (Panjatan-e-Pak), spreading out brilliant, sacred, active light all around; and the sight filled him with awe and anguish. He cried out aloud:

> "By Jesus! I see the faces that if turn upwards to the heavens and pray, the mountains shall move. O believers in Jesus of Nazareth, I tell you the truth. Should you fail to come to some agreement with Muhammad, he alongwith the godly souls with him, will wipe out your existence forever, if they invoke the curse of God on you."

The Christians saw the wisdom of their chief and readily agreed to arrive at a settlement.

1. The seriousness of the occasion demanded absolute purity, spiritual as well as physical, to take part in the fateful event.

2. Only the best of Allah's creation were selected by the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

3. It, beyond all doubts, established the purity and sublime holiness of the Ahl ul Bayt.

4. It also unquestionably made known as to who were the members of the family of the Holy Prophet (S.A.).

Also today, Ali ibna abi Taalib (A.S.) gave his ring to a destitute in the position of Rukoo, while praying "Salaat", in the Masjid Nabawwee. Actually all the companions were praying behind the Holy Prophet. The destitute came in and asked for alms. No one paid any attention. Being disappointed, he was going away. At that moment Ali (A.S.) held out his hand. The destitute saw and took the ring. The companions expressed doubt about the concentration of heart and mind in worship of Allah when this event took place.

In reply the All-Knowing, All-Aware sent down this declaration.

> Verily your "Walee" is Allah; and His Messenger and those who establish "Salaat", and pay "Zakaat" while they be in "Rukoo", O Allah send blessings on Muhammad and on the children of Muhammad, and decide to give me (my share) in every joy, loveliness, substantiality, opportunity, welfare, peace, bounties, sustenance (lawful pure and plentiful), gifts, and possessions which had been directed or will be directed from the heaven unto the earth, in this hour, in this night, in this day, in this month, and in this year.

O Allah, although, my lapses have disgraced me in front of Thee, set up a barrier between me and Thou, and lowered my position, still I beseech Thee—in the name of the Light of Thy disposition which never grows dim, in the name of the aspects of Muhammad, Thy dearest, chosen friend, in the name of the style and substance of Ali, Thy close, trusted friend, and for the sake of Thy select friends whom Thou has honoured,

Today the Soorah "Hal Ataa" was revealed to glorify the Ahl ul Bayt.

One morning Bibi Fatimah Zahra (A.S.) found out that both her sons were ill. Her father came and advised her and Mawla Ali (A.S.) to make a promise to Allah that they would observe fasts for three consecutive days if their sons got well. Soon the children returned to normal health. Mawla Ali (A.S.), Bibi Faatimah (A.S.), Imam Hasan (A.S.), Imam Husayn (A.S.) and Fizza fasted three successive days. Each day a different person came at the time of breaking the fast and knocked at the door.

The man who came on the first day said:

"O Ahl ul Bayt of the Messenger of Allah I am a poor man, am hungry. Give me something to eat."

All that was there to eat was given away to him.

The man who came on the second day said:

"O Ahl ul Bayt of the Messenger of Allah! My parents are dead. I am a destitute. Will you satisfy my hunger?"

All that was there to eat was given away to him.

The man who came on the third day said:

"O Ahl ul Bayt of the Messenger of Allah! I am a just-now freed slave. Give me some food."

All that was there to eat was given away to him.

Each night they drank water and went to sleep without food.

After this event Soorah Hal Ataa was revealed.
So it is highly desirable to keep fast today, and, in the name of Allah, give alms to the poor and needy, as our blessed Ahl ul Bayt did.

LAST DAY

Pray a 2 Rak—a't Salaat.

In every Rak-a't, after the recitation of Soorah Al Faatih'ah, recite Soorah Al Ikhlaas 10 times, and Aayat ul Kursee 10 times.

(7) ON EVERY DAY OF THE MONTH A SEPARATE DUA'A, TAUGHT BY IMAM ALI IBNA ABI TALIB (A.S.), IS RECITED.
[Please refer to "S'ah'eefah A'alawwiyah" published by our Trust.]

E'ED NAWROOZ

According to the Persian calender it is the New-Year's day on which the sun enters Aries, initiating a week of festivites.

It corresponds with the 21st March. This E'ed is celebrated in the Syrian month of "Naysaan", a month of spring rain.

According to the Holy Prophet (S.A.) and Imam Jaa'-far As Sadiq (A.S.), the rain water of this month is very useful for curing many ailments.

They said:

Take the rain water, drops from the clouds in this month, and recite over it:

i)	Soorah Al Faatih'ah	70 times.
ii)	Aayaat ul Kursee	70 times.
iii)	Soorah Al Ikhlaas	70 times.
iv)	Soorah Al Falaq	70 times.
v)	Soorah Al Naas	70 times.
vi)	Soorah Al Kaafiroon	70 times.
vii)	Soorah Al Qadr	70 times.
viii)	Allaahu Akbar	70 times.
ix)	Laa Ilaaha Illallaah	70 times.
x)	Salawaat	70 times.

And drink it in the morning and afternoon daily for 7 consecutive days.

{It is also said that this water causes fertility in women. So if a childless female drinks this water she may give birth to a child.}

CHAPTER (4)

Essential instructions for performing the "Ziyaarat" of any of the "14 Infallibles" have been given in the "Standard procedure", which must be followed, step by step.

Additional recitations and functions have also been written under the heading assigned to every "Maa'-soom" separately, which should be carried out with reference to the "Standard Procedure". If any recitation or function has not been mentioned in the text assigned particularly to a "Maa'-soom", refer to the "Standard procedure" and do as advised therein. For example, in case, "ID'N DUKHOOL" or "Dua'a after Ziyaarat" or "Salaatul Ziyaarat", or "Dua'a ul Widaa" is not mentioned, then, the text of these, mentioned in the "Standard procedure" should be recited. So also the functions like how to enter and approach the "Haram Mubarak", or the Holy "Rawzah" etcetra.

It is highly desirable to recite the Holy Quran, pray Salaat, and say dua'as written by Imam Ali ibna Abi Talib and Imam Ali bin Husayn Zayn Al Aabideen [Please refer to Selected Soorahs Volume One and Two and Dua'as Volume Four], a great deal, as much as possible, during the stay inside the "Haram Muberak", and near the Holy "Rawzah".

There is no better place or occasion than that which is at hand, near the Holy "resting place" of the "14 Infallibles", to invoke and beseech the Almighty Merciful Allah for fulfillment of legitimate desires and wants.

So pray, invoke and beseech the Almighty, through the medium of "Muhammad and Aali Muhammad", as much as you want and can.

If there is an imminent danger, as has been recommended by our Holy Imams, it is permissable to avoid that which may harm us. Under such circumstances you may perform the Ziyaarat from a safe distance, unnoticed.

ZIYAARAT
[A Religious Visitation]

It is highly desirable and strongly recommended to call upon the "resting places" of the Divinely chosen "14 Infallibles", and their pure and pious children.

Merits and blessings of the "Ziyaarats" of the "14 Infallibles" are many, in fact, it is beyond the mastery of wordpower to describe the joy, heart and confidence it gives to a faithful pilgrim. It is a sure medium for getting deliverence on the Day of Judgement.

Many traditions agree on the following benefits receiveable as recompense:

(1) Acceptance of requests made to Allah.

(2) Long, healthy and meaningful life.

(3) Availability of sufficient means of livelihood.

(4) Respect in this world and abode near to "Muhammad and Aali Muhammad" in the life of the Hereafter.

(5) Protection from hardships and sorrows.

Not to make sincere efforts for going to the Ziyaarats of the "14 Infallibles" is the sign of lack of faith, because as per the Holy Quran love of the "Ahl ul Bayt" is the recompense of the toil of prophethood (Allah thanks those who love the Ahl ul Bayt), therefore, it is the prerogative of the Holy Prophet (S.A.) to demand, as a right, Ziyaarat of his children, which he had made obligatory for the faithfuls,; particularly it is a must for those whom Allah has given enough means of sustenance.

The two said: "We cannot give (our flocks) to drink till the shepherds return from the water; and our father is a very old man."

So he watered (their flock) for them. Then he turned aside into the shade, and said: "My Lord! I am needy of whatever good Thou sends down for me." Then there came to him one of the two women, walking shyly. She said: "Verily, my father calls you, that he may reward you with a payment for that you did water (the flock) for us." Then, when he came to him and told him the story, he said: "Fear not; you have escaped from the wrongdoing people."

One of the two women said: "O my father, hire him. For the best of (men) that you can hire is the strong, the trustworthy."

He said: "Verily, I intend to marry you to one of these daughters of mine on condition that you serve me for (the term of) eight years, and if you complete ten then it will be of your own accord, for I would not make it hard for you. Allah willing, you will find me of the righteous."

STANDARD PROCEDURE

[A true friend and follower of "Muhammad and Aali Muhammad" always keeps to the lawful and keeps from the unlawful, in the light of the injunctions of the religion of Allah; and, in day-to-day life, takes after and abides by the life style of the beloved Imams. It is more auspicious and rewarding to do like that in the course of pilgrimage.]

(1) Before leaving the residence:

i) Perform Ghusl (ceremonial bath)
ii) and Wuz"u (Ablution)
iii) Put on clean clothes.

[Please see our publication "The prayers" (صلوٰۃ) for Ghusl, Wuz"u and cleanness etcetra.]

(2) Display refinement, dignity and demureness, and walk gently while covering the distance from the residence to the "H'aram Mubarak" (the blessed precinct).

(3) Recite the following a great deal during the walk:

اَللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ
اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ
سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ
لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ
اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى مُحَمَّدٍ وَّاٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ

i) ALLAAHU AKBAR
ii) ALH'AMDU LILLAAH
iii) SUBH'AANLLAAH
iv) LAA ILAAHA ILLAALAAH
v) ALLAAHUMMA S'ALLI A'LAA MUH'AMMADIN WA AALI MUH'AMMAD

(4) At the entrance of the "H'aram Mubarak" stand still and recite the following, known as "ID'N DUKHOOL" (permission to enter):

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ وَقَفْتُ عَلٰى بَابٍ مِّنْ اَبْوَابِ بُيُوْتِ نَبِيِّكَ صَلَوَاتُكَ عَلَيْهِ وَاٰلِهٖ وَقَدْ مَنَعْتَ النَّاسَ اَنْ يَّدْخُلُوْا اِلَّا بِاِذْنِهٖ فَقُلْتَ يَا اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَدْخُلُوْا بُيُوْتَ النَّبِيِّ اِلَّا اَنْ

O Allah ! stand still at one of the doors of the houses of Thy Prophet , (Thy blessings be on him and on his children), because people are not allowed to enter without his permission.

So Thou said: "O you who believe! Enter not the dwellings of the Prophet unless permission be granted you."

O Allah, I hold (as an article of faith) this honoured place of pilgrimage as sacred, in his invisibility just as I was certain and sure of his sanctity in his presence.

I know that Thy Messenger and Thy Representatives (peace be on them) are alive, by Thy leave, and are preserving, seeing my place of halting, hearing my words and answering my "Salaam"

Although Thou has shut off their speech from my hearing but has unbolted the door of my understanding, because of my delightful recitation of their merits.

First I ask for Thy permission O my Lord, and then seek Thy Messenger's leave (Blessings of Allah be on him and on his children), and take permission from Thy representative, obedience unto whom has been made obligatory on me,

(. . . . .)

[Mention the name of the Holy person whose "Ziyaarat" is being performed alongwith his father's name. For example "Husayn bin Ali A'layhis Salaam", or "Ali bin Moosa Al Riza A'layhis Salaam".]

Then say:

وَالْمَلَآئِكَةَ الْمُوَكَّلِيْنَ بِهٰذِهِ

NAMAAZ OF AMEERUL MOOMINEEN ALI (A.S.)

Imaam Jaa'far Saadiq (A.S.) said that whoso prays the 4 Rak-a't Namaaz of Ameerul Moomineen (A.S.), comes out of the evil whirlpool of sins, as a baby comes out from the womb.

The Holy Prophet (S.A.) said that whoso prays this Namaaz and recites the Dua'a at the end, is absolved from the accountability of all his sins (provided no more sins are committed).

Pray this 4 Rak-a't Namaaz exactly like any 4 Rak-a't obligatory Namaaz (Zuhr, Asr or Ishaa) on Friday or during the night of Friday, with the following adjustments:

(i) In each Rak-a't, after recitation of Sooratul Faatih'ah, recite Sooratul Ikhlaas' 50 times.

(ii) After Salaam, recite the following Tasbih of Ameerul Momineen (A.S.):–

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى مُحَمَّدٍ وَّ اٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ	ALLAAHUMMA S'ALLI A'LAA MUH'AMMADIN'W WA AALI MUH'AMMAD	O Allaah, send blessings on Muhammad and on the progeny of Muhammad.
بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ	BISMI'LLAAHIR-RAH'MAANIR-RAH'EEM	In the name of Allaah, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

سُبْحَانَ مَنْ لَّا تَنْقُصُ خَزَآئِنُهٗ	SUBH'AANA MAL LAA TANQUS'U KHAZAAA-INUHOO,	Glory be to He Whose reserves never grow less.

سُبْحَانَ مَنْ لَّا يَنْفَدُ مَا عِنْدَهٗ	SUBH'AANA MAL LAA YANFADU MAA I'NDAHOO	Glory be to He Who never suffers loss in what He has.
سُبْحَانَ مَنْ لَّا انْقِطَاعَ لِمُدَّتِهٖ	SUBH'AANA MAL LAA INQIT'AA–A' LIMUDDATIHEE	Glory be to He in whose range and reach there is no gap!

سُبْحَانَ مَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ غَيْرُهٗ	SUBH'AANA MAL LAA ILAAHA GHAYRUHOO	Glory be to He, except Whom, there is no god.
