Introduction:

All praise is for Allah Who sent down the Qur'an to His servant and messenger Prophet Muhammad (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) so that he may be a warner to the worlds. Blessings be on Prophet Muhammad (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) who was sent as a witness, and a bearer of good news and a warner, and as one inviting to Allah by His permission, and as a light-giving torch through Quran. Blessings be on his progeny (Ahlulbayt), from whom Allah kept away the uncleanness and whom He purified a thorough purifying, and whom Allah made the true interpreters of the Glorious Quran after the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny).

Holy Qur`an is a complete code of life

The Quran-e-Majid is the Word of Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) as revealed to His Prophet Muhammad (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) for man's guidance. The Qur'an comprehends the complete code from the Almighty Creator, for the human beings to live a good, chaste, abundant and rewarding life in obedience to the commandments of Allah, in this life and to gain salvation in the next. It is indeed the "chart of life" for every man, and it is the "constitution" of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.

Quran is for mankind, a "compass" in the turbulent voyage of life, as it has explained itself in the following verses:

قَدْ جَاءَكُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ نُورٌ وَكِتَابٌ مُبِينٌ - يَهْدِي بِهِ اللَّهُ مَنِ
اتَّبَعَ رِضْوَانَهُ سُبُلَ السَّلَامِ وَ يُخْرِجُهُم مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى

النُّورِ بِإِذْنِهِ وَ يَهْدِيهِمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ -

". . . Indeed, there has come to you light and a clear book from Allah; With it Allah guides him who will follow His pleasure into the ways of safety and brings them out of utter darkness into light by His will and guides them to the right path."

(Surah Al Ma`idah 5:15-16).

Historically, it is Qur'an which transformed the simple shepherds and wandering Bedouins of Arabia into the founders of empires, the builders of cities, the collectors of libraries. If a system of religious teachings is evaluated by the changes which it introduces into the way of life, the customs and beliefs of its follower, then Qur'an as a code of life is second to none. It is not strange then, that more studies on Quranic topics, translations and more commentaries of the Holy Qur'an have been published, than that of any other book claimed to be the Divine Revelation.

What is Quran?

However, before dealing with any other topics in the Quranic studies, e.g. its authenticity as the word of Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He), it is of paramount importance to have a glimpse towards better understanding of the book itself: The Glorious Quran. What is Quran? What is this book about? What are its contents? How is it a miracle? Why millions of believers still take this 14 centuries old book as their source of guide and salvation in their lives? How is it different from any other thousands of books penned by different authors? What is so unique about Quran? Is the Quran a book of history, or of poetry? Or is it a book about science and natural phenomena? Is it a book about Social manners and spirituality or a book about Allah's Creation? Is it a book of Law? What is its general theme?

In an attempt to answer these questions, the following narratives are presented, which need careful reflection for better understanding of the Qur`an:

Qur`an Describes Itself

Let us start by reflecting upon what Qur`an has to say about itself.

The Qur'an introduces itself as the guidance for the people "HUDAN LINNASI" (2:185); and the manifest light "NUURAN MUBIINA" (4:174).

According to Qur`an, Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) has laid down solution of every human problem in the Qur`an very clearly. Qur`an says:

وَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ تَبْيَانًا لِّكُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً وَبُشْرَىٰ لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ-

"and We have revealed the Book to you explaining clearly everything; and it is a guidance, mercy and glad-tidings for Muslims".

(16:89)

Also He has described the Qur'an in these words:

..... هُدًى لِّلنَّاسِ وَبَيِّنَاتٍ مِّنَ الْهُدَىٰ وَالْفُرْقَانِ-

"..... a guidance for mankind and clear evidence of guidance and discrimination (between wrong)".

(2:185).

The Qur'an is, accordingly, a guidance, an evidence, a discrimination between right and wrong and a manifest light for the people to guide them aright and help them in all their needs. Is it imaginable that it would not guide them aright in its own matter, while it is their most important need?

Again Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) says:

وَالَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا فِينَا لَنَهْدِيَنَّهُمْ سُبُلَنَا - وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمَعَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ-

"And (as for) those who strive hard for Us, We will most certainly guide them onto Our ways".

(29:69)

Which striving is greater than the endeavor to understand His Book? And which way is more straight than the Qur'an?

إِنَّ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ يَهْدِي لِلَّتِي هِيَ أَقْوَمُ وَيُبَشِّرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ الصَّالِحَاتِ أَنَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا كَبِيرًا-

"Lo! this Qur'an guides to that which is most upright. And it gives glad-tiding to the believers who do good actions that they have great rewards".

(17:9)

The Holy Qur'an is a book which by sound reasoning bestows insight upon man. It shows the right path to man by giving the accounts of the Prophets and the nations. It motivates him through parables, exhortations and admonitions.

تِلْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهَا إِلَيْكَ، مَا كُنْتَ تَعْلَمُهَا أَنْتَ وَلَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا، فَاصْبِرْ، إِنَّ الْعَاقِبَةَ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ-

"Such are some of the stories of the unseen, which We have revealed unto you, before this neither you nor your people knew them. So persevere patiently, for the end is for those who are righteous".

(11:49)

The Qur'an describes its other function as the presentation of the Prophetic mission, which is aimed at guidance of humanity, by delivering it from darkness and leading it towards light:

الرَّ- كَتَبْنَا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ لِتُخْرِجَ لِنَّاسٍ مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى
النُّورِ بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ-

"A Book We have sent down to you so that you may bring forth mankind from the darkness into the light, with the permission of their Lord, towards the path of the Glorious the Praiseworthy."

(14:1)

What is the meaning of darkness mentioned in the above ayah? Without doubt the darkness of ignorance is one of the vices from which the Qur'an emancipates humanity and leads it towards the light of knowledge and wisdom. However, if merely ignorance were regarded as darkness, then the philosophers could have accomplished this job. But there exist other evils more dangerous than the vice of ignorance, and to subdue them is beyond the power of sheer knowledge. Among them are the vices of worship of material benefits, egoism, enslavement to desires, and greed, which are considered to be personal and moral vices. Social vices like oppression and discrimination manifest the spiritual darkness of a society. In Arabic, the word zulm (injustice and oppression) is derived from the same root as zulmah (darkness), which shows that injustice is a form of social and spiritual darkness. To struggle against such forms of darkness is the responsibility and mission of the Qur'an and other heavenly books. Addressing Prophet Musa (as), the Qur'an says:

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا أَنْ أَخْرِجْ قَوْمَكَ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ
إِلَى النُّورِ وَذَكِّرْهُمْ بِآيِمِ اللَّهِ، إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ-

"And We sent Musa with Our signs (and told him) that you may bring forth your people from the darkness into the light and remind them on the days of Allah; indeed in it there are signs for all those who are patient and grateful."

(14:5)

This darkness, this shadow, is the darkness of Fir'aun's oppression and injustice and that of his clique. The light is the light of justice and freedom.

The exegetists of the Qur'an emphasize the point that whenever the Qur'an mentions darkness, it always uses it in the plural form although it always uses light in its singular form. This means that the word 'darkness' includes all sorts of darkness, all of the evil ways that lead towards darkness, and that 'light' signifies one single right path --the path of righteousness, whereas the ways of deviation and perversion are many. In Suurat al-Baqarah, the Qur'an says:

اللَّهُ وَلِيُّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا يُخْرِجُهُم مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ، وَ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَوْلِيَّتُهُمُ الطَّاغُوتُ يُخْرِجُونَهُمْ مِّنَ النُّورِ إِلَى الظُّلُمَاتِ، أُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ، هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ-

"Allah is the Protector of the believers; He brings them forth from the darkness into the light. And the unbelievers--their protectors are taghut, who bring them forth from the light into the darkness, these are the people of hell-fire, unto it they will dwell forever."

(2:257)

Thus the Qur'an determines its goal to be the breaking of the chains of ignorance, misguidance, moral and social corruption and destruction, or in other words, to dissipate all sorts of 'darkness' and to guide humanity in the direction of 'justice, goodness and light'.

هَذَا بَيَانٌ لِلنَّاسِ وَهُدًى وَمَوْعِظَةٌ لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ-

"This is a declaration for humankind, a guidance and admonition to those who ward off (evil)".

(3:138)

In other places, the Qur'an describes itself as under:

ذَلِكَ الْكِتَابُ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ، هُدًى لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ-

"This is the book; in it is guidance for sure without doubt, to those who fear Allah".

يُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى كِتَابِ اللَّهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ يَتَوَلَّى فَرِيقٌ مِنْهُمْ وَهُمْ مُّعْرِضُونَ-

"They are invited to the book of Allah to settle their dispute, but then a party among them goes back while they are turning away".

(3:23)

إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ لِتَحْكُمَ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِمَا أَرَاكَ اللَّهُ، وَلَا تَكُنْ لِلْخَائِنِينَ خَصِيمًا-

"We have sent down to you (O Muhammad) in truth so that you might judge between men as guided by Allah, and do not be an advocate for those who betray".

(4:105).

وَهَذَا كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ مُبَارَكٌ فَاتَّبِعُوهُ وَاتَّقُوا لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ-

"And this is a book which We have revealed as a blessing, so follow it and be righteous, that you may receive mercy".

(6:155).

كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ فَلَا يَكُنْ فِي صَدْرِكَ حَرَجٌ مِنْهُ لِتُنذِرَ بِهِ وَذِكْرَى لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ-

"A book revealed unto you, so that your heart be not in any difficulty on that account, (so that) with it you may warn (the sinful) and teach the believers".

(7:2).

وَمَا كَانَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ أَنْ يُفْتَرَى مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنْ تَصْدِيقَ الَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَتَفْصِيلَ الْكِتَابِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ-

"This Qur'an is not such as can be produced by other than Allah, on the contrary it is a confirmation of (revelations) that were sent before it, and a full explanation of the book, wherein there is not doubt from the Lord of the worlds".

وَمَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا لِتُبَيِّنَ لَهُمُ الَّذِي اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ-

"And We sent down the book to you for the express purpose that you should make clear to them those things in which they differ, and so that it should be a guide and mercy to those who believe".

(16:64).

لَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ كِتَابًا فِيهِ ذِكْرُكُمْ - أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ -

"We have revealed for you (O men) a book in which there is a message for you, will you then not understand".

(21:10).

تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ -

"These are the verses of the book that make things clear".

(26:2).

كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ وَلِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ -

"... A book which We have sent down unto you with full of blessings so that they may meditate on its signs and that man of understanding may receive admonition".

(38:29).

إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ لِلنَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ، فَمَنِ اهْتَدَى فَلِنَفْسِهِ، وَمَنْ ضَلَّ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا، وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ -

"Verily We have revealed the book to you in truth for instructing mankind. He that receives guidance benefits his own soul, but he that strays injures his own soul, and surely you are not set upon them to arrange their affairs".

(39:41).

The Excellence of Qur'an according to Ma'soomeen (a.s.)

No pen is capable of describing the excellence and magnificence of the Glorious Qur'an. This statement is absolutely correct, because while describing the Holy Qur'an, Prophet Muhammad (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) himself said:

"The superiority of the Speech of Allah over other speeches is like the superiority of Allah over His creatures."

Ayatullah Al-Marja' Marhum Sayyid Al-Khui (r.a.) said:

"What can a person say in describing the eminence of the Qur'an and its glory? What can he say to explain its excellence and sublimity? How can a contingent being perceive the greatness of the speech of the Absolute Being? What can an author write about this subject and what can a speaker say? Can a limited being describe anything that is unlimited?"

"It is sufficient greatness for the Qur'an, and sufficient eminence and glory, that it is the speech of the Almighty Allah, and the miracle of His noble Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny), and that its verses are the guarantee for the guidance of human beings in all their concerns and circumstances and at all times. This is their guarantee to reach the final goal and the great happiness now and later on.

"Indeed, it is better to hand over the elucidation of the excellence of the Qur'an to those comparable to the Qur'an.

They are Prophet Muhammad (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) and AHLULBAYT. They are the persons most knowledgeable about its status, and the best able to point out its lofty prestige, and they are its peers in excellence and its associates in guidance".

Absolutely true! Let us leave the M'asoomeen (peace be upon them) to explain to us the excellence of the Qur'an as they are the teachers of the Qur'an. Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) taught the Qur'an to His Prophet and appointed him as the teacher of the Book:

نَزَلَ بِهِ الرُّوحُ الْأَمِينُ - عَلَى قَلْبِكَ لِتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُنذِرِينَ -
بِلِسَانٍ عَرَبِيٍّ مُبِينٍ -

"The Faithful Spirit has descended with it upon your heart that you may be of the warners, in plain Arabic language."

(26:193-4)

وَ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الذِّكْرَ لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نُزِّلَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ -

"And We have revealed to you the Reminder that you may make clear to men what has been revealed to them, and that haply they may reflect"

(16:44)

.....رَسُولًا يَتْلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ -

"... an Apostle ... who recites to them His communications and purifies them, and teaches them the Book and the Wisdom."

(62:2)

Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) describes Qur`an..... Therefore, let us ponder and reflect upon what the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny), the teacher of the Qur'an, said about the excellence of the Holy Qur'an. He said about it in a sermon thus:

- ❁ "... Therefore, when mischief come to confuse you like the segments of darkened night, then hold fast to the Qur'an;
- ❁ as it is the intercessor whose intercession shall be granted;
- ❁ and it is a credible advocate;
- ❁ and whoever keeps it before him, it will lead him to the Garden;
- ❁ and whoever keeps it behind, it will drive him to the Fire;
- ❁ and it is the guide that guides to the best path;
- ❁ and it is a book in which there is explanation, particularization and recapitulation;
- ❁ and it is a decisive (word), and not a joke;
- ❁ and there is in it a manifest (meaning) and an esoteric (one);
- ❁ thus its apparent (meaning) is firm, and its esoteric (one) is knowledge;
- ❁ its exterior is elegant and its interior deep;
- ❁ it has (many) boundaries, and its boundaries have (many) boundaries;

- ✿ its wonders shall not cease, and its (unexpected) marvels shall not be old.
- ✿ There are in it the lamps of guidance and the beacon of wisdom, and guide to knowledge for him who knows the attributes.
- ✿ Therefore, one should extend his sight; and should let his eyes reach the attribute; so that one who is in perdition may get deliverance, and one who is entangled may get free;
- ✿ because meditation is the life of the heart of the one who sees, as the one having a light (easily) walks in darkness; therefore, you must seek good deliverance and (that) with little waiting".

After his death, the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) appointed his progeny Ahlulbayt to carry on this work after him - to explain the true meaning of Qur'an to the people. It is clear from his unanimously accepted tradition:

"I am leaving behind among you two precious things; as long as you hold fast to them you will never go astray after me: The Book of Allah and my progeny, my family members; and these two shall never separate from each other until they reach me (on) the fountain".

And Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) has confirmed, in the following two verses, this declaration of the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) that his progeny had the real knowledge of the Book:

إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَ

يَطَهِّرْكُمْ تَطَهِيرًا-

"Allah only desires to keep away the uncleanness from you, O people of the House! and to purify you a (thorough) purifying."

(33:33)

إِنَّهُ لَقُرْآنٌ كَرِيمٌ فِي كِتَابٍ مَكْنُونٍ لَا يَمَسُّهُ إِلَّا الْمُطَهَّرُونَ-

"Most surely it is an honoured Qur'an, in a Book that is hidden; None do touch it save the purified ones."

(56:77 -79) .

Now let us see what Ahlulbayt have said about the excellence of Qur'an:

Allama Majlisi in volume 19 of his multivolume work Bihar al-Anwar has reported that:

Al-Harith al-Hamadani related the following:

"I entered the mosque and some persons were in deep controversy about some hadith traditions. I went to 'Ali bin Abi Talib and said: 'Are you aware that people at the mosque are in dispute over hadith?' He said, 'So they have done it!' I said, 'Yes.'"

He (peace be upon him) said, 'I have indeed heard from the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) saying, "There shall be sedition (fitna) after me."' I asked: 'How do we avoid that?'

He (the Prophet, (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny)) said: 'The Book of Allah, the Book of Allah.

- ✿ In it is the information about those who were before you and what will come after you, and it will be the judge among you.

إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلٌ فَصْلٌ - وَمَا هُوَ بِالْهَزْلٍ -

- ✦ It is the final decision and not a jest.

(86:13-14)

- ✦ It is that which not even the might could forsake without being shattered by Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He).
- ✦ Whoever seeks guidance in anything other than it, Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) will lead him astray.
- ✦ It is the firm rope of Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He).

الذِّكْرُ الْحَكِيمُ -

- ✦ It is the wise remembrance.

(3:58).

- ✦ It is the straight path.
- ✦ With it, hearts will never deviate, nor will the tongues utter confusion.
- ✦ Scholars will never have their full of it; it will not wear out from constant use, nor will its wonders be exhausted.
- ✦ It is that which when the jinns heard it, they could not help saying:

إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا -

"We heard a marvelous Qur'an (recitation)."

(72:1)

- ✦ Whoever utters it speaks the truth, whoever rules by it is just; whoever abides by it will receive his just reward; and whoever calls for it shall be guided to the straight path. Follow it."

Imam `Ali (a.s.) Describes Qur'an

In another place, the Commander of the Faithful Imam `Ali ibn Abi Talib (peace be upon him) describes the Qur'an as follows:

"Then Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) revealed to him (the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny)) the Book.

- ✦ It is a light whose radiance shall not be extinguished;
- ✦ A lamp whose flame shall not die;
- ✦ An ocean whose depth shall not be fathomed;
- ✦ A path which shall not lead astray;
- ✦ A blaze whose brilliance shall not be darkened;
- ✦ A criterion whose evidence shall not be suppressed;
- ✦ An elucidation whose cornerstones shall not be demolished;
- ✦ A cure with which there is no fear of ailments;
- ✦ A power whose supporters cannot be defeated;
- ✦ A truth whose helpers will not be forsaken.
- ✦ Thus, it is the source of faith and its prosperity;
- ✦ It is the fountain-head of knowledge and its vastness;
- ✦ The meadow of justice and its flowing streams;
- ✦ The support of Islam and its foundation;
- ✦ The valleys of the truth and its fields;
- ✦ An ocean that shall not be drained by those who draw upon it;
- ✦ A spring that shall not be exhausted by those who draw from it;

- ✦ A watering place that shall not be depleted by those who come to it;
- ✦ A station whose road the travelers do not miss;
- ✦ A signpost which the wayfarers will always see;
- ✦ The hilltops that cannot be bypassed by those who seek them.
- ✦ Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) has made it the quencher of the thirst of scholars,
- ✦ A vernal season for the hearts of the jurists,
- ✦ A destination for the path of the righteous,
- ✦ A cure after which there is no malady,
- ✦ A light which does not alternate with darkness,
- ✦ A rope whose knots are firm,
- ✦ A stronghold whose peak is impregnable.
- ✦ It is power for whoever cultivates it,
- ✦ Peace for whoever dwells on it,
- ✦ A guidance for whoever follows it,
- ✦ A laudable act for whoever embraces it,
- ✦ An argument for whoever speaks for it,
- ✦ A witness for whoever fights for it,
- ✦ A sharp instrument for whoever bases his arguments on it,
- ✦ A support for whoever supports it,
- ✦ A means of deliverance for whoever employs it,
- ✦ A sign for the discriminating, a shelter for whoever seeks healing,

- ✦ A source of knowledge for whoever has sense,
- ✦ And the best narrative for its transmitters,
- ✦ And a means for the one who sits in judgment."

Subhaanallah! This brilliant oration reviews many important points which call for careful reflection. For instance, by saying that the Qur'an is 'a lamp whose flame shall not die,' Imam 'Ali (peace be upon him) means, as he does in many other statements in this oration, that the Qur'an is a book whose signification shall not be exhausted. It will remain fresh and new until the Day of Resurrection. A verse may have been sent down regarding a specific occasion or community, yet its relevance is not limited to that occasion, person, or community; rather, its signification and applicability are general.

Regarding the verse "For every people there is a guide."(13:7) al-'Ayyashi reports the following discussion with Abu Ja'far (Imam al-Baqir (peace be upon him)):

"The Imam said, 'Ali is the guide, and the guide is always one of us.'

I said, 'Then you - for whom may my life be a sacrifice - are now the guide.'

'You are right,' said the Imam (peace be upon him). 'The Qur'an lives and will not die; the verses live and will not die. If a verse were to die with the death of the persons concerning whom it came down, then the Qur'an would have definitely died. Rather, such a verse would continue to apply to those who are alive as it did to those who died.'

Another tradition reports that Imam al-Sadiq (peace be upon him) said,

"Certainly, the Qur'an lives, and has not died; and it is existent just as the day and the night and the sun and the moon are existent. And it will exist for the last among us as it has existed for the first."

Quran's Power of Attraction

Another aspect of the Qur'an which serves to indicate its unique and exceptional nature is the remarkable and inexhaustible attraction that it exerts.

Today, more than fourteen centuries after the revelation of the Qur'an, the captivating sound of the recitation of the Qur'an can still be heard in all the different parts of the world, leaving its impression on hearts and minds, and transforming the spirits of all who listen to it.

Its appeal overwhelms the soul and brings tears flowing from the eyes and makes the heart tremble.

الَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ هُمْ بِهِ يُؤْمِنُونَ۔ وَإِذَا يُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِهِ إِنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مُسْلِمِينَ۔

"Those to whom We gave the Book before this, believe in it, and, when it is recited to them, they say, 'We believe in it; surely it is the Truth from our Lord; even before it we were of those who surrender'."

(28:52-53)

This ayah describes a group of people who undergo a state of veneration and awe when the Qur'an is recited before them. They affirm faith in all the contents of the Book, declare everything in it to be nothing but truth and their veneration of it continues to increase.

Then in another verse, a group of Christians who believed and became Muslims on hearing the Qur'an are described in these words:

"And when they hear what has been sent down to the Messenger, you see their eyes overflow with tears, because of the truth they recognize. They say,

رَبَّنَا آمَنَّا فَاكْتُبْنَا مَعَ الشَّاهِدِينَ۔

"Our Lord we believe; so do You write us down among the witnesses."

(5:83)

In another place, while describing the believers, the Qur'an says:

اللَّهُ نَزَّلَ أَحْسَنَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابًا مُتَشَابِهًا مَثَانِيَ، تَقْشَعِرُّ مِنْهُ جُلُودُ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ، ثُمَّ تَلِينُ جُلُودُهُمْ وَقُلُوبُهُمْ إِلَىٰ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ، ذَلِكَ هُدَىٰ اللَّهِ يَهْدِي بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ، وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ

"Allah has sent down the fairest discourse as a book, similar (consistent in parts) yet repeating (its teaching in various aspects); whereat shiver the skins of those who fear their Lord; then their skins and their hearts soften to the remembrance of Allah, this is the guidance of Allah, He guides with it whom He wants, and whoever Allah leaves to stray, will have none to guide ...".

(39:23)

The rays of attraction exerted by the Qur'an was not confined to Mecca, its birth place, but spread outwards from Mecca together with the movement of the Muslims. To mention some examples: the rays of Qur'an shone in the heart of King Najjashi, in the Christian court of Ethiopia, thanks to the recitation of Ja'far bin Abitalib, despite the unfavorable situation prevailing there and the pressure brought to bear by the opponents of Islam.

Equally they shone in Madina, the base for the formation of a new Society, where the Qur'an was recited by Mus'ab bin Umayr.

Ibn Hisham writes in his life of the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny):

"So strong was the heartfelt desire of the people to hear the Qur'an that even some of the unbelievers of the Quraysh would secretly go near the Prophet's house at night, remaining there until dawn, in order to listen throughout the night to the pleasing melody of the Qur'an as recited by the Messenger of Allah. This happened many times".

(Sirat Ibn Hisham, Vol. I, p. 386)

So that the people would not fall under the influence of Quran's eloquence and power to attract, the nonbelievers would instruct a group of people to go and make a noise, to whistle and clap their hands, while the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) was reciting the verses of Qur'an.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَسْمَعُوا لِهَذَا الْقُرْآنِ وَالْغَوْا فِيهِ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تَغْلِبُونَ-

"The polytheists said: Do not listen to the verses of the Qur'an, and make a noise while they are being recited, perhaps you will thus triumph".

(41:26)

Qur'an as a Miracle

To every Prophet, Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) gave some miracles, but gone are the Prophets and their miracles. The Holy Prophet Muhammad (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) is the last prophet and Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) gave him a timeless miracle, and that miracle is the Holy Qur'an.

It has often been argued that the Qur'an is not only the first book, and the highest linguistic achievement, of the Arabic language, but that it is also Prophet Muhammad's (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) strongest argument against those who doubted his Message. The question that needs to be addressed here concerns the reason why a holy book, a composition of language, should be hailed as Islam's (and Prophet Muhammad's (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny)) strongest miracle and argument. The point has sometimes been made that other prophets had more tangible miracles. In the case of Muhammad, (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) however, the miracle was not comparable to Prophet Musa's staff or Prophet Issa's healing powers, but was more than that.

The Holy Qur'an is indeed a miracle in many aspects, some of which are described here below:

- A) The Exclusive eloquence of the Qur'an.
- B) The Inimitable Quality of the Qur'an.
- C) The Scientific Miracle of the Qur'an.
- D) The Accuracy of the Historical Records in the Qur'an.
- E) The Predictions in the Qur'an.
- F) The Challenge of the Qur'an.

Since the above points also constitute evidences on the authenticity of the Qur'an as the word of Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He), they are discussed in detail in the Qur'an Resource Paper no. 2, under the title of "Authenticity of the Holy Qur'an".

The Illustrative Themes of the Qur'an

Another aspect of the novelty of the Qur'an language has to do with its themes. These themes and topics represent a clear departure from those which had been hitherto familiar to the Arabs. As Taha Husayn explained:

"It does not deal with any such things as ruins, camels, or long journeys in the desert; nor does it describe longing for the beloved, love, or eulogy, topics most familiar to pre-Islamic Arabs. But rather it talks to the Arabs about such things as the oneness of Allah, His limitless power, His knowledge, which is unattainable, His will, which is unstoppable, and His creation of heaven and earth".

This passage underscores yet another innovative aspect of the Qur'an, namely the presentation of novel themes through an abundance of examples all aimed at illustration and persuasion. The use of illustration is one of the most effective stylistic techniques of the Qur'an. One can hardly read a verse without experiencing the impact of this technique.

The art of narrative style represents another innovative aspect of the Qur'an. It relates in astounding detail the stories of Prophet Nuh, Ibrahim, Yusuf, Musa, and Issa, among others. It presents the dialogues that took place in such stories and the claims and counter-claims made by each of the opposing parties. Story-telling may not have been totally novel in pre-Islamic Arabia given the significant quantity of parables, epics, and myths that were inherited from that period. What was novel; however, was the type of integrated, elaborate story involving such essential items as theme, plot, well-developed characters, and denouement which are to be found in the Qur'an, which refers itself to the benefit in telling such stories:

نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ أَحْسَنَ الْقَصَصِ بِمَا أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ، وَإِنْ كُنْتَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَمِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ-

"We do relate unto you the most beautiful stories, in that We reveal unto you this [portion of the] Qur'an. Before this you too were among those who knew it not".

(12:3)

The Central Theme of the Holy Qur'an

What is the central theme of Qur'an?

Since the advent of Islam and the revelation of the Qur'an in the early years of the seventh century AD, the Muslim Holy Book has been the subject of many extensive analytical studies. The focus of the great majority of these studies has been the theological and legislative aspects of the Holy Book, for the Qur'an provides Muslims with detailed guidance on their everyday problems. Together with the sayings, actions, and recommendations of Muhammad, (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) the Qur'an has been the ultimate source of legal authority for Muslims over the past fourteen centuries.

Muslim scholars have also painstakingly examined, analyzed and interpreted the various verses of the Holy Book, detailing the requirements the Qur'an imposes on Muslims in order for them to achieve spiritual purity. Thus, in addition to its legislative and theological value, the Qur'an has also served as a source of spiritual guidance for the followers of Islam.

Holy Qur'an is a complete code of life

However, we can not claim that the Central Theme of the Holy Qur'an is only legislation and spirituality; as human life is more complex and multi-dimensional. Since Islam is a complete way of human life and Qur'an being its source of guidance, to ascribe the Qur'an to be just the book of legislation and spirituality only will be misleading, because the Qur'an has dealt with a vast range of subjects.

Contrary to the opinion of some people who consider the Holy Qur'an to be of spiritual benefit only, or to be confined to worship, prayers and morals, we should point out that only one-twelfth (500 verses) relates to problems of Jurisprudence; while the larger part of it deals with matters pertaining to various issues including social, political, administrative, historical, cultural, faith and other related matters.

Among the recurring themes of the Qur'an is about the universe itself and its Creator. Another theme treated by the Qur'an is the purpose of the universe and its creation. Among the other general issues dealt by the Qur'an is the question about human being: Is man a despicable creature, or a personality with nobility and dignity etc.?

The other subject dealt with in the Qur'an is the issue of human society: Is the society considered to be primary and the individual as secondary, or whether it subordinates the society to the individual? Are societies, according to the Qur'an, subject to laws governing their life and death, their rise and decline, or are these conditions applicable to individuals alone?

The Qur'an deals with numerous other issues. One of them is the point of view of the Qur'an about itself. The other issue is related to the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) and its manner of introducing and addressing him. Another issue is its definition of a believer (mu'min) and his characteristics and so on.

Furthermore, each of these general issues possesses various branches and divisions. For example, when discussing mankind and its situation, it is natural to speak about morality. Or, when speaking about society, the problem of human relationships also unavoidably enters the discussion. The same is true of such notions as "enjoining good and forbidding evil," and the problem of social classes.

Now the question is: What is then the Quran's general theme? If pondered upon the multifaceted contents inside the Qur'an, one can safely reach to the conclusion that the central theme and aim pursued by the Qur'an is the 'training of the human being' as a being conscious of his duties. The main aim of the Qur'an is therefore to reinforce and accelerate the spiritual ascension, together with all the qualities of human being, toward a state of true loftiness and the dignity of which the human being is worthy.

In another words, we can say that the main purpose of Qur'an is to expound truths that are relevant to the 'life of the human being' and the exaltation of his being and conducive to his attaining a life of true happiness.

Imam Amirul Mu'miniin `Ali bin Abitalib (peace be upon him) narrated the following dua, from which we can derive very clearly that the Holy Qur'an is the 'chart of life for man'. He prayed: "O Allah! expand my breast with Qur'an, actuate my body with Qur'an, enlighten my sight with Qur'an, liberate my tongue by Qur'an, and help me to mould my life according to Qur'an, so long as You make me live".

Method used by the Qur'an in Training

Human being

As said earlier, the aim pursued by the Qur'an is the training of the human being as a being conscious of his duties. Now, the emergence of such a being requires a comprehensive reform of the human being, involving various changes such as the negation of false values and meaningless criteria, and fostering of a creative energetic spirit within him. The Qur'an can thus be said to melt the spirit of human beings and pour them into a new mould, where they acquire a different, richer and more valuable form.

Although this may be said to be the principal aim of the Qur'an, it summons the human being insistently, at the very same time, to reflect and to ponder, and to acquire a realistic view of the world; it guides him on to the path of thought, of teaching and learning.

The method used by the Qur'an in training human being is that of 'Inductive Method', i.e. the process of deriving general principles of life by using logic, reason and facts. According to Qur'an, there are four sources of human knowledge through which eternal truth can be derived, and they are:

- 1) Reason and logic.
- 2) Experience.
- 3) Study of Nature.
- 4) History.

All the other forms of sciences are offshoots of the above four sources, and the principal advances and developments in the natural sciences are all due these premises. Allama Iqbal, the famous Indo-Muslim thinker says: "The birth of Islam, as I hope to be able presently to prove to your satisfaction, is the birth of inductive intellect. The constant appeal to REASON and EXPERIENCE in the Quran, and the emphasis that it lays on NATURE and HISTORY as sources of human knowledge, are all different aspects of the same idea of finality".

Of course, there are traditions narrated from the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) and the Imams of Ahlul-bayt (peace be upon them) saying for example:

"Verily the Qur'an has an exterior and an interior, and its interior has an interior up to seven (or according to a version, seventy) interiors . . . "

And the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) and the Imams (peace be upon them) gave importance to its exterior as much as to its interior; they were as much concerned with its revelation as they were with its interpretation. That is why the Qur'an deserves to be evaluated from different points of view.

Some of the topics which call for examination in the Qur'an are:

- 1) The artistic and verbal beauty of the Qur'an and its style which is neither poetry nor prose.
- 2) The intellectual and scientific content of the Qur'an.
- 3) The reinforcement of the spiritual dimensions of man.
- 4) The appeal to reflect and ponder.
- 5) The appeal to the study of nature.
- 6) The tapping of the historical incidents for evaluation.

- 7) The expounding of the mysteries of the creation.
- 8) The mentioning of series of truths and principles that govern the human life, i.e. Sociology, Economics, Government, etc.

Revolutionary Transformation in the Society through the Qur'an

Another aspect of the miraculousness of the Qur'an which has had a great effect is the revolutionary transformation it brought about in human civilization. A matter calling for serious attention in the study of Islam is the fact that it received no assistance from factors external to itself when it began to create the nucleus of a universal society out of a scattered and disunited people that lacked all science and free thought and did not even seek to unify its constituent tribes; and when it began, moreover, to found a uniquely, vast and spiritual civilization.

All the factors for changing the world, for putting forward an international law with the slogan of unity among races, peoples, and social classes, for creating a movement for the liberation of thought and the ennobling of knowledge, were derived from the very text of the Qur'an, from the culture that emerged from the Qur'an and from the Islamic order. Islam never relied on a government or a power situated outside the society it had itself brought into being.

Even the aggressors, for example the Mongols, who attacked the Islamic lands and triumphed over the Muslims, thanks to their military superiority, lost their dominance in the end when they were confronted with the spiritual power of Islam, and they adopted the religion of the people they had conquered. This history of nations does not record any other example of a victorious aggressor adopting the religion of the people it had defeated.

Holy Qur'an can shape the destiny of the human race as a whole

Therefore, Qur'an is specially essential for those scholars who are interested in the study of man and society, since this book has been effectively instrumental not only in moulding the destinies of Islamic societies, but also in shaping the destiny of the human race as a whole.

A brief glance over history would be enough to provide sufficient proof of the claim that there has been no such book that has ever influenced human societies to the magnitude of the Qur'an. It is for the same reason that the Qur'an automatically steps into the precincts of sociological discussions, and becomes the elemental constituent of the subjects of research in this discipline. This means that any deep study and profound research in the field of world history of the last fourteen hundred years, is impossible without the knowledge of the Qur'an.

Smith writes in his - Muhammad and Islam:

"The teachings of the Qur'an, which mentions knowledge and the pen in its opening verses, brought about a tremendous transformation. Islam proclaimed study to be a religious duty, and made the blank ink of the scribe and the scholar to be superior to the red blood of the martyr.

"Thanks to the teachings of the Qur'an and its emphasis on the cultivation of knowledge, countless scholars made their appearance and wrote innumerable books. Different scientific disciplines were derived from the Qur'an and spread across the world by Muslim thinkers. The world was illumined with the light of the Qur'an and culture of Islam".

The Essentiality of the Study of the Qur'an

The study and knowledge of the Qur'an is essential not only for Scholars and Philosophers, but for everyone: an ordinary person, a student, a worker, a trader, a learned person as well as for all faithful believers.

The study of the Qur'an is essential for every committed Muslim, since it is the main source and foundation of the religious thought and faith. Whatsoever gives meaning, essence and sanctity to his existence lies in the Holy Qur'an.

The Qur'an is not just like other religious books which are content to discuss the problems of existence of Allah (Glorified and Exalted is He) and creation in cryptic tones, or like those which merely convey a series of simple moral advice and counsels, so that those who believe in them are hopelessly left to search for guidance in other sources. It is a book where all essential ingredients of life can be found.

Unlike other books, the Qur'an discusses and formulates all the ideas and views that are essential for a man's life, besides communicating the tenets of faith. Since the Qur'an is book of life, it also lays down all the principles of life including that of moral and ethical values for the purpose of individual, social and familial existence. Unfortunately, the study of Qur'an has been left for Scholars and learned people only.

Is Qur'an Understandable?

But the important question which is often asked is whether the Qur'an is understandable by an ordinary reader, or it requires scholarly background to comprehend its meaning?

Has this book been introduced for the purpose of studying and understanding it, or whether it is just for reading and reciting and obtaining reward and blessing? The student of Qur'an, possibly, may wonder at raising of such a question. To him it may appear beyond doubt that the Qur'an is meant for the purpose of knowing and understanding it.

Nevertheless, in view of various undesirable currents, which due to numerous reasons came into existence in the Muslim world regarding the question of understanding of the Qur'an, and which had an important role in bringing about the decline of Muslims, I shall discuss the necessity of studying and understanding the Qur'an in brief.

Is the purpose of Qur'an to obtain thawab only?

There are some people who think that the Qur'an is to be read merely for the purpose of obtaining spiritual reward (thawab) without need of understanding anything of its contents. They continuously recite the Qur'an, but if they are even once asked: "Do you understand the meaning of what you are reading?" they cannot answer. To recite the Qur'an is essential and good, being regarded as the first step necessary for comprehending its contents; and not merely as a means for gaining Divine reward.

Regrettably, the roots of those degenerate and dangerous notions still persist in our societies. So I consider it necessary to elaborate on this topic.

Qur'an must be read and studied with the intention of educating oneself. The Qur'an itself clarifies this point:

كُتِبَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبْرَكًا لِيَذَّبَرُوا إِلَيْهِ وَ لِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ۔

"A book We have sent down to you, blessed, that men possessed of mind may ponder its signs and so remember".

One of the functions of the Qur'an is to instruct and to teach. For this purpose, the Qur'an addresses human reason and speaks in logical and demonstrative terms.

Infact, not only the believers and the faithful, but even the infidels are invited by it to contemplate over its verses. The Qur'an demands that its verses should be first contemplated over, before forming any adverse opinion against them. Addressing the opponents, it says, why they don't ponder over the Qur'an, what sort of hearts they possess, they are as if shut close and sealed:

أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ أَمْ عَلَى قُلُوبٍ أَقْفَالُهَا۔

"What, do they not ponder the Qur'an? Or is it that there are locks upon their hearts?"

(47:24)

The Qur'an also says in one of its verses:

"(This is) a Book We have revealed to you abounding in good, that they may ponder upon the verses".

That is, We have not sent the Qur'an to be kissed, embraced and put on the niche to gather dust, but for men to read and to contemplate about its contents:

That those endowed with understanding may ponder its signs and so remember. (38:29)

Ayatullah Murtadha Mutahhari says: "Scores of verses in Qur'an emphasize the importance of contemplation in the Qur'an and interpretation of the Qur'anic verses, although not an interpretation based on personal caprices and bias, but a just, truthful and balanced interpretation free of all traces of selfish interests.

"If we try to comprehend the Qur'an in an honest and unbiased way, it is not at all necessary to solve all problems that we find in it. In this regard the Qur'an is similar to Nature. In Nature, too, a number of mysteries have neither been solved yet, nor can they be solved in present conditions, yet are likely to be solved in the future. Moreover, in studying and understanding nature, man has to tailor his ideas in accordance with Nature itself. He is forced to interpret Nature in accordance with its reality. He cannot define Nature in terms of his own caprices and inclinations.

"The Qur'an, like the book of Nature, is a book that has not been sent for a specific age and time. Had it been otherwise, all the secrets of the Qur'an would have been discovered in the past; this heavenly Book would not have presented its charm, freshness and vitality. But we see that the possibility of contemplation, reflection and discovery of new dimensions is inexhaustible in the case of this Holy Book".

This is a point that has amply been emphasized and clarified by the Prophet and the Imams. In a tradition, it is related from the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny) that the Qur'an, like the sun and the moon, will present its movement and continuity; that is, the Qur'an is not static or monotonous.

In 'Uyun akhbar al-Rida, from Imam Ridha (peace be upon him), it is quoted that Imam Ja'far Sadiq (peace be upon him) was asked about the secret of it that as the time passes and the more it is read and recited, the Qur'an increases in its novelty and freshness day by day. The Imam Sadiq (peace be upon him) answered: "Because the Qur'an is not for an exclusive age or for an exclusive people".

The Qur'an is for all - the learned as well as the ordinary person

The Qur'an has been sent for all ages and for all human beings. It is so composed that in spite of changes in knowledge, outlook and approach through various times and ages, it surpasses all learning and knowledge in all ages. While it encompasses mysteries and abstruse intricacies for the reader of every age, at the same time it presents a great feast of meanings and ideas that can satiate the needs of every one and every time in accordance with the capacity of that particular age".

Thus the Qur'an is for all: the learned as well as the ordinary reader. To make this concept clear, we can compare the Qur'an to an ocean. The less learned, like children, collect pebbles and shells from its shores. The Scholars and thinkers, like pearl divers, bring out from it the highest philosophy, wisdom and rules of perfect way of living.

Introduction

Who is the author of the Quran? Whatever the arguments of the non-believer critics, the Quran states explicitly:

تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ - أَمْ يَقُولُونَ
افْتَرَاهُ، بَلْ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ -

"(This is) revelation of the book in which there is no doubt, from the Lord of the worlds. Or do they say he has forged it? Nay it is the truth from the Lord."

(32:2-3)

From the time of its revelation till today, people have tried to cast doubts about the Divinity of the Holy Quran, and have tried to argue in vain that the author of the Quran is Prophet Muhammad himself; but they have not succeeded because of its inherent truth.

Our study of the Qur'an acquaints us with a distinguishing characteristic of this holy book. This distinguishing characteristic is the absolute authenticity of its source. That is, without the slightest need of any comparison between the oldest manuscripts, it is evident that what we recite as the verses of the Holy Qur'an, are exactly the same words presented before the world by the Almighty Allah (swt) through His messenger Muhammad ibn Abdallah (saww).

In another words, the distinguished feature of the Qur'an is the quality of its contents: its teachings are genuinely original and have not been adopted or plagiarized. Its teachings have been delivered to the Prophet from a world that transcends his thought and mind. The Prophet (saww) was only a recipient of this revelation and message. As Allah says:

..... وَالرَّسِخُونَ فِي الْعِلْمِ يَقُولُونَ آمَنَّا بِهِ كُلٌّ مِنْ عِنْدِ رَبِّنَا -

". . . and those who are firmly rooted in knowledge say: We believe in it, it is all from our Lord."

(3:7)

This paper attempts to present several logical arguments, textual analysis, historical evidence and scientific data to prove that the 'Source of Quran is God', in a simple way for Madrassa teachers to use as a Resource paper in the subject.

Due to magnitude of the subject matter, this paper will limit itself to one angle of discussion only: simple and straight forward evidences to prove the "Authenticity of the Quran as a Word of God". However, separate study paper will be required to discuss and make critical review and refutation of : "Authorship theories on the source of Quran as forwarded by the unbelievers", as the biased unbelievers have forwarded several baseless theories on the authorship of Quran, which require a detailed critique.

Similarly, altogether separate study papers are needed on the following themes:

1 Evidences on the "Originality and Genuineness of the Quran"
i.e. Quran has remained immune against any type of interpolation or transfiguration in its text and even its arrangement, contrary to other revealed books.

1 A study on
"Comparison between Quran and the other revealed books".

1 A paper on
"Process of Revelation, Compilation and Preservation of Quran".

Evidences on the Authenticity of the Quran:

As the opponents want us to believe, the Holy Quran is not the product of the holy Prophet's speculation and thinking, rather it is a revealed book in which every word is the word of the Almighty that was communicated to the Prophet through the process of revelation. While historical testimony in this regard is unquestionable, the Quran emphasizes it further with a view of showing the opponents of Islam that what came out from the sacred lips of the Prophet was a divine revelation:

تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ - أَمْ يَقُولُونَ
افْتَرَاهُ، بَلْ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ -

"(This is) the revelation of the book in which there is no doubt, from the Lord of the worlds. Will they say: 'He has forged it!' Nay, it is the Truth from the Lord...".

(32:2-3)

لَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَشْهَدُ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ إِلَيْكَ أَنْزَلَهُ بِعِلْمِهِ، وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ
يَشْهَدُونَ، وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا -

"But Allah bears witness that what He has revealed to you (O Muhammad), He has revealed from His own knowledge, and the angels bear witness (to it), but sufficient is Allah for witness".

(4:166).

وَمَا كُنْتَ تَتْلُوا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَلَا تَخُطُّهُ بِيَمِينِكَ إِذَا
لَأَرْتَابَ الْمُبْطِلُونَ -

"And you (O Muhammad) did not recite any book before this, nor you were able to transcribe one with your right hand. In that case, indeed those who talk vanity could have doubted."

(29:48).

Following are some evidences and arguments in brief, to prove the authenticity of the Holy Quran as the word of Allah (swt):

1. The Exclusive Eloquence of the Quran:

The Prophet of Islam began conveying his heavenly messages in the midst of society where people's minds revolved exclusively around eloquent speech and the composition of beautiful and attractive poetry and literary excellence. Under these conditions, God equipped His prophet with a weapon, the Quran, that apparently belonged to the same category as the literary works of the age but possessed unique and astonishing characteristics that were beyond the capacity of the human being to reproduce.

The Role of Poetry in the lives of the Pre-Islamic Arabs:

To understand why Muhammad's strongest argument or miracle was a book, the Holy Qur'an, it is necessary to understand the role language and linguistic composition played in the lives of the pre-Islamic Arabs. It is also important to understand the nature of the Arabic language itself during the pre-Islamic period. This understanding will help to show why the revelation of the Qur'an through Muhammad (saww) found attentive ears among his contemporaries, who not only were articulate users of the language but held those skilled in the arts of linguistic composition in high esteem.

Before the rise of Islam, Arabic was mainly a spoken language with an oral literature of elaborate poetry and, to a lesser extent, prose. Writing had not yet fully developed and memorization was the most common means of preserving the literature. Both poetry and prose in the pre-Islamic era dealt with a rather limited range of topics which included in the case of poetry praise, eulogy (panegyric), defamation, and love, and in the case of prose superstition, legends, parables, and wisdom tales.

Pre-Islamic Arabs took great pride in their language and in articulate and accurate speech, the latter being one of the main requisites for social prominence. On this particular point, Professor Hitti writes:

"No people in the world manifest such enthusiastic admiration for literary expression and are moved by the word, spoken or written, as the Arabs. Hardly any language seems capable of exercising over the minds of its users such an irresistible influence as Arabic".

Such was the role that the spoken word played in the life of pre-Islamic Arabs. With the emphasis placed on eloquent and articulate speech, the prominent position occupied by those who had the talent for linguistic composition, and the pride the early Arabs took in their language, it is little wonder that the Qur'an was revealed in the most eloquent, articulate, and elaborate style the Arabic language has known. The Qur'an has without doubt provided a level of linguistic excellence unparalleled in the history of the Arabic language.

Theologians explain this phenomenon as God's wisdom in addressing the articulate Arabs through the medium in which they were most adept and with which they felt most comfortable. The effectiveness of the Qur'an was thus ensured by the fact that it represented a level of eloquence unattainable even by their most eloquent speakers.

Miracles should be relevant to the time

God offered the Qur'an as the Prophet's sign in the same way as He offered signs for all the other prophets. He sent the things most appropriate to the time in which they were sent. Thus Prophet Musa (as) had the power to divide the sea with his hand and rod, and to let the rock burst forth with water in the desert, and all his other signs in a time of magic. And Prophet Issa (as) had the power to bring the dead back to life, to make birds out of clay, to cure those who had been blind from birth and the leprous, and all his other signs in a time of medicine. And Prophet Muhammad (saww) had the book and all his other signs in a time of eloquence.

If the Prophet had performed some miracle other than the Quran, it would have no meaning for that people, given their mental structure. The path would have been open for all kinds of doubt and hesitation. But the Arabs of that age who were addressed by the Quran could never have any doubts about its extraordinary eloquence, for they were all aware of all the mysteries of rhetoric and had living among them masters of language and literary composition, hence their admitting that the Quran could not have been the production of Prophet Muhammad (saww).

2. The Challenge of the Quran:

The Unbelievers failed to produce the like of Quran

When the revelations of the Quran began, the Most Noble Messenger clearly proclaimed the Quran to be the word of God, and said it was impossible for any human being to duplicate it. If anyone disagreed, he ought to make an attempt to copy it, and should feel free to seek help from any source in doing so. None was able to take up this challenge and produce even a short surah similar to the Quran.

The Qur'an remains a book of inimitable quality, not only from a linguistic but also from an intellectual point of view. When Muhammad was challenged by his fellow countrymen to present a miracle, in keeping with the tradition of other prophets, he presented the Qur'an to them. The inimitability of the Qur'an is repeatedly emphasized in the Holy Book itself.

The Quran issued a challenge not only to the contemporaries of the Prophet but also to men in all ages. In order to demonstrate the incapacity and impotence of people to imitate it, it issued the following universal proclamation:

قُلْ لَّئِنِ اجْتَمَعَتِ الْإِنْسُ وَالْجِنُّ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يَأْتُوا بِمِثْلِ هَذَا
الْقُرْآنِ لَا يَأْتُونَ بِمِثْلِهِ وَلَوْ كَانَ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ ظَهِيرًا-

"Were all mankind to come together and wish to produce the like of the Quran, they would never succeed, however much they aided each other".

(17:88)

It then modifies the challenge and reduces its scope by saying:

أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ، قُلْ فَاتُوا بِعَشْرِ سُورٍ مِثْلِهِ مُفْتَرِيَاتٍ وَّادْعُوا
مَنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ۔

"Do people imagine that this Quran is not from Us, and that you, O Prophet are falsely attributing to us? Tell them that if they are speaking truly they should produce ten surahs resembling the Quran, and that they are free to call on the aid of anyone but God in so doing."

(11:13)

Then, at the third stage, the scope of the challenge is reduced still further: the deniers are called on to produce only a single surah resembling the Quran:

وَإِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِي رَيْبٍ مِمَّا نَزَّلْنَا عَلَىٰ عَبْدِنَا فَأْتُوا بِسُورَةٍ مِثْلِهِ، وَّادْعُوا شُهَدَاءَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ۔

"Oh people, if you doubt the heavenly origin of this Book which We have sent down to Our servant, the Prophet, produce one surah like it."

(2:23)

A yet stronger challenge occurs in another chapter:

أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ، قُلْ فَاتُوا بِسُورَةٍ مِثْلِهِ وَّادْعُوا مَنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ۔

"Or do they say: 'He forged it'? Say: 'Bring then a sura like unto it and call [to your aid] anyone you can'."

(10:38)

Since we know that some of the shorter surahs consist only of a few brief sentences, this final challenge constituted a definitive proof of the human being's inability to imitate the Quran. Can the person of today take up the challenge of the Quran and produce a Surah like it, thereby conquering the stronghold of Islam and invalidating the claim of its Prophet?

Let us not forget that this challenge was issued to a people whose leaders were threatened by the devastating attacks of the Quran - their lives, their property, their ancient customs, their ancestors, their whole social position. If it had been at all possible for the Arabs to respond to the challenge of the Quran, they would have taken it up immediately, with the unstinting aid of the masters of eloquence that were by no means rare in that age. Thus they would have invalidated the proofs of the Quran and won an everlasting victory.

Quran has proposed a very simple challenge to those who oppose it. Why do then the deniers of prophethood choose roundabout ways, avoiding this direct method of confronting and defeating Islam? Is not because the door is firmly closed on meeting the challenge posed by the Quran?

It is not that they did not try to mute the challenge. Infact, they called into play all their resources in an effort to meet the challenge of the Quran, but all their efforts came to naught. They were unable to point even to a single error or defect in the Quran, and were obliged to admit that its words were situated on a higher plane than the thought and speech of the human being.

3. The Scientific Miracle of the Quran:

The Quran is definitely not a Science book, but since the Quran is intended to be an eternal miracle, revealed to make science and learning blossom among human beings, it is also a scientific miracle. It has expounded, in the most eloquent fashion, truths of a physical nature together with everything that touches. Although those who are not acquainted with the scientific truths cannot fully appreciate its miraculousness, they can perceive the miraculous nature of the meanings and truths it contains.

Holy Quran is everlasting Miracle

The limitation in time of the miracles performed by the earlier Prophets was an indication of the impermanence of their religions and the laws that they brought. By contrast, the miracle attesting to the prophethood for the Prophet of Islam cannot be temporally limited, because his message is universal and represents the culmination of all preceding religions; his prophethood requires an eternal miracle, a brilliant and eloquent proof of its immortality embedded with the ongoing scientific discoveries.

A permanent message must display to mankind a permanent and everlasting miracle, one which advances with time, so that just as it offered convincing proof to people of the past, it may do the same to people of the future. A short-lived miracle that is imperceptible to later generations cannot be a source of reference or judgment for the future.

For this reason, the Quran is presented as a permanent and everlasting miracle, the final manifestation of God's revelation. The Quran itself says:

وَتَمَّتْ كَلِمَةُ رَبِّكَ صِدْقًا وَعَدْلًا لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمَاتِهِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ -

"The true and well-formulated message of your Lord has now been completed, and none is able to change it. And He is All-Hearing and All-Knowing".

(6:116)

For Muslims, the miraculousness of the Quran is not only a matter of religious belief, but for scholars and researchers it is a matter of scientific belief. The Quran possesses a remarkable comprehensiveness and richness, with respect to its world view and scientific content, and its ability to guide not only the individual and society in spiritual aspect, but also in the realms of natural environment and mysteries of life. There are still many matters contained in the Quran that call for investigation and await discovery by further research.

Holy Quran is in total agreement with modern scientific data

Throughout ages, mankind has undergone numerous changes, and passing through repeated stages of development and growth, it has attained a more comprehensive awareness of the mysteries of creation. Nonetheless, the Quran has at all times retained its proud and dignified presence on the stage of human history and scientific discoveries.

Dr. Maurice Bucaille, the French scientist, writes as follows:

"A crucial fact is that the Quran, while inviting us to cultivate science, itself contains many observations on natural phenomena and includes explanatory details which are seen to be in total agreement with modern scientific data....."

"These scientific considerations, which are very specific to the Quran, greatly surprised me first. Up until then, I had not thought it possible for one to find so many statements in a text compiled more than thirteen centuries ago referring to extremely diverse subjects and all of them totally in keeping with modern scientific knowledge. A thorough linguistic knowledge is not in itself sufficient to understand these verses from the Quran. What is needed along with this is a highly diversified knowledge of Science."

..... The hypothesis advanced by those who see Muhammad as the author of Quran is quite untenable. How could a man, from being illiterate, become the most important author, in terms of literary merit, in the whole of Arabic literature? How could he then pronounce truths of a scientific nature that no other human being could possibly have developed at the time, and all this without once making the slightest error in his pronouncements on the subject?

"The ideas in this study are developed from a purely scientific point of view. They lead to the conclusion that it is inconceivable from a human being living in the seventh century A.D. to have made statements in the Quran on a great variety of subjects that do not belong to his period and for them to be in keeping with what was to be known only centuries later. For me, there can be no human explanation to the Quran".

Holy Quran encourages seeking of science and knowledge

No other revealed book praises and encourages science and knowledge as does the Qur'an and it is for this reason that the Qur'an names the age of the desert Arabs, together with their pagan cultures, before Islam as the "age of ignorance." In over a hundred verses reference is made to science and knowledge in a variety of ways; and many of these verses praise the value of scientific knowledge.

In Quran, God indicates the favour he has done man by bringing him out of his state of ignorance.

عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ-

"He teaches man what he did not know."

(96:5)

Likewise, we read in Quran,

يَرْفَعُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ أُتُوا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجَاتٍ-

"God will exalt those who believe among you and those who have knowledge to high ranks,"

(58:11)

and Allah (swt) also says,

هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ-

"Are those who know equal to those who do not".

(39:9).

Besides the many verses in the Qur'an concerning knowledge, there are also countless traditions of the Prophet and the Imams on this subject which rank second only in importance to the Qur'an.

In verses too numerous to mention, the Qur'an invites one to reflect upon the signs of creation: the heavens, the shining stars and their astonishing celestial movements, and the cosmic order which rules over them all. Similarly, the Qur'an urges one to reflect upon the creation of the earth, the seas, the mountains, the desert, and the wonders contained below the surface of the earth, the difference between night and day and the changing cycle of seasons. It urges mankind to meditate on the extra ordinary creation of the plants and the order and symmetry governing their growth, as well as the multiplicity of the animal kingdom.

The Qur'an invites one to witness the interdependence of beings and how all live in harmony with nature. It calls upon man also, to ponder on his own make-up, on the secrets of creation which are hidden within him, on his soul, on the depth of his perception, and on his relationship with the world of the spirit.

The Qur'an commands man to travel in the world in order to witness other cultures and to investigate the social orders, history and philosophies of past people. Thus it calls man to a study of the natural sciences, mathematics, philosophy, the arts and all sciences available to man, and to study them for the benefit of man and the well-being of society.

The Qur'an strongly recommends the study of these sciences on the condition that it leads to truth and reality, that it produces a correct view of the world based on an understanding of God.

Knowledge, which merely keeps a man occupied and prevents him from knowing the reality of his own existence, is equated with ignorance. Allah (swt) says in Quran :

يَعْلَمُونَ ظَاهِرًا مِّنَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا، وَهُمْ عَنِ الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ غَافِلُونَ-

"They know only some appearance of the life of one world and are heedless of the Hereafter"

(30:7).

أَفَرَأَيْتَ مَنْ اتَّخَذَ إِلَهَهُ هَوَاهُ وَأَضَلَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ وَخَتَمَ
عَلَىٰ سَمْعِهِ وَقَلْبِهِ وَجَعَلَ عَلَىٰ بَصَرِهِ غِشَاةً، فَمَنْ يَهْدِيهِ
مِنْ بَعْدِ اللَّهِ، أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ-

"Have you seen him who makes his desire his god, and Allah sends him astray purposely and seals up his heart and sets a covering on his heart. Then who will lead him after Allah. Will you not then be mindful".

(45:23)

However, one important point which should be considered while discussing the Scientific miracles in Quran is that: Scientific interpretations are always unstable due to the instability of the hypotheses and the theories adopted by the theoreticians. Since no hypothesis is the last one, every new invention requires a new theory for its interpretation or explanation. Therefore, scientific theories are subject to change. Like the Einstein's theory of relativity that changed the Newton's physics, or the results of archaeological studies cannot be taken for granted to be the definite meaning.

Some brief examples of Scientific data in the Quran:

A) The Earth and Heavens were joined together:

All scientific circles in the world today agree that the planets were originally composed of a mass of Sodium gas and that first the heavens and the earth were joined together as a single entity and then they separated from each other. Centuries ago, the Quran referred to this scientific theory.

It says when describing the creation of the heavens:

ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَهِيَ دُخَانٌ-

"Then God turned to the creation of the heavens (the planets), when they were but a smoky substance."

(41:11)

أَوَلَمْ يَرِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ كَانَتَا رَتْقًا
فَفَتَقْنَاهُمَا، وَجَعَلْنَا مِنَ الْمَاءِ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ حَيٍّ، أَفَلَا يُؤْمِنُونَ-

"Do the unbelievers not see that the heavens and the earth were joined together before we separated them, and that We brought all living things into existence from water? Why do they still not believe in God?"

(21:30)

Thus the Quran unveils one of the great mysteries of nature: the planets were originally composed of smoky substance (mass of Sodium gas), and the separation of the planets from a huge object and then their separation from each other. Since at the time of revelation of the Quran, the general level of knowledge and science was extremely low, does this not constitute a proof of the heavenly nature of the Quran?

B) Expansion of Universe:

One of the most subtle discoveries in science concerns the expansion of universe, its tendency constantly to extend its boundaries. This was something completely unknown to the human being until the last century. This mystery is, however, mentioned by the Quran in the following terms, which again bear witness to its remarkable profundity when discussing such matters:

وَالسَّمَاءَ بَنَيْنَاهَا بِأَيْدٍ وَإِنَّا لَمُوسِعُونَ

"We created the heavens with Our strength and power, and constantly expand them".

(51:47)

C) Force of Gravity:

We know that before the time of Newton, that great scientific personality, no one was aware of the force of gravity. Newton proved that the falling of objects to earth, the rotation of the moon and the Venus, the motion of the planets, and other instances of attraction are all subject to the single law, the law of universal gravity.

The Quran describes the above mentioned gravitational force as 'invisible pillars':

اللَّهُ الَّذِي رَفَعَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ.....-

"God it is Who raised up the heavenly bodies to invisible pillars"

(13:2)

In conveying this scientific truth, the Quran has used an expression that is comprehensible for the men of all ages. Are these 'unseen pillars', which prevent the planets from colliding with each other or falling, anything other than the mysterious and invisible force of universal gravity, a law to which the Creator of the universe has subjected all of the heavenly bodies?

D) Production of Milk in animals:

The Quran describes the factors which give rise to milk in animals in a way that is entirely compatible with the data of modern science.

This is what God's book has to say:

وَإِنَّ لَكُمْ فِي الْأَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةً، نُسْقِيكُم مِّمَّا فِي بُطُونِهِ مِنْ بَيْنِ فَرْثٍ وَ دَمٍ لَبَنًا خَالِصًا سَائِغًا لِلشَّارِبِينَ-

"There is in truth for you a lesson in your animals and flocks. We give you to drink a pure milk derived from that which is contained in their bodies, from the merging of what is held in their intestines with blood. The drinking of that is then made easy for those who drink it."

(16:66).

Dr. Bucaille writes in his book:

"From a scientific point of view, physiological notions must be called upon to grasp the meaning of this verse. The substances that ensure the general nutrition of the body come from chemical transformations which occur along the length of the digestive tract. These substances come from the contents of the intestine. On arrival in the intestine at the appropriate stage of chemical transformation, they pass through its wall and towards the systemic circulation (of blood)..... This very precise concept is the result of the discoveries made in the chemistry and physiology of the digestive system. It was totally unknown at the time of the Prophet Muhammad and has been understood only in recent times."

E) In Pairs:

It is only recently that researchers have come aware of insemination in plants and learned that every living being including plants comes into existence as the result of the merging of a male and female parts.

In verses that are totally free of ambiguity, the noble Quran, sets forth clearly the principle of gender in the gender world, together with the existence of male and female parts even in plants.

وَمِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ جَعَلَ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ -

"..and of all fruits He has made it in pairs of two (genders)".

(13:3)

F) Role of Wind:

The Quran also mentions the role and operation of an important factor in the bringing of things to fruition: the wind.

وَأَرْسَلْنَا الرِّيحَ لَوَاقِحَ فَاَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَاسْقَيْنَاكُمُوهُ،
وَمَا أَنْتُمْ لَهُ بِخَازِنِينَ

"We have sent the winds as a means of insemination and impregnation, and then sent down rain from the heavens. We give it to you to drink from it. It is not you who store it up."

(15:22)

In this verse, the Quran unveils another a great mystery of creation, the fundamental role played by the wind in the fertilization of plants.

G) Light in the Moon is merely a Reflection:

It is known that the sun is a star that generates intense heat and light by its internal combustion, and that the moon which does not give off light itself, merely reflects the light received from the sun.

The Quran testifies the above fact:

تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ فِي السَّمَاءِ بُرُوجًا وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا سِرَاجًا وَ
قَمَرًا مُنِيرًا -

"Blessed is the One Who placed the constellations in heaven and placed in it a lamp (SIRAJ) and a moon, giving light (MUNIIRA)".

(25:61)

Here the moon is defined as a body that gives reflection of light (Muniira), while the sun is compared to a blazing lamp or torch (Siraj).

H) High Altitude:

It is infact a highly common place reflection on the discomfort experienced at high altitude, which increases the higher one climbs, that is expressed in the Quran verse 125, sura 6:

فَمَنْ يُرِدِ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَهْدِيَهُ يَشْرَحْ صَدْرَهُ لِلْإِسْلَامِ وَمَنْ يُرِدْ أَنْ
يُضِلَّهُ يَجْعَلْ صَدْرَهُ ضَيِّقًا حَرَجًا كَأَنَّمَا يَصَّعْدُ فِي السَّمَاءِ
كَذَلِكَ يَجْعَلُ اللَّهُ الرَّجْسَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ-

"Those whom God wills to guide, He opens their breast to Islam. While those whom He wills to let straying, He makes their breath closed and constricted, as if they had to climb up the skies. Thus does Allah lay uncleanness on those who do not believe."

(6:126)

Who informed the Prophet that by climbing up in the skies, the pressure increases and breathing becomes difficult?

I) Honey Bees:

Concerning bees, the Quran says:

وَ أَوْحَىٰ رَبُّكَ إِلَى النَّحْلِ أَنْ اتَّخِذِي مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا وَمِنَ
الشَّجَرِ وَمِمَّا يَعْرِشُونَ- ثُمَّ كُلِي مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ فَاسْلُكِي

سُبُلَ رَبِّكِ ذُلُلًا، يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بُطُونِهَا شَرَابٌ مُخْتَلِفٌ أَلْوَانُهُ
فِيهِ شِفَاءٌ لِلنَّاسِ-

"Your Lord inspired the (female) bee, choose your dwelling in the hills, in the trees and in what (man) build. Eat of all fruit and follow the ways of your Lord in humility. From within their bodies comes a liquid of different colours where is cure for men".

(16:68-69)

Quran refers that the worker-bees who are searching for food are females. The verbs used in Arabic refer to female bees. This is very amazing. For all along, until only recently, people imagined that the "soldier-bees" were males.

J) Development of the Embryo:

The Quranic description of certain stages in the development of the embryo corresponds exactly to what we today know about it. After 'the thing which clings', the Quran informs us that the embryo passes through the stage of 'chewed flesh', then tissue appears and is clad in flesh:

ثُمَّ خَلَقْنَا النُّطْفَةَ عَلَقَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْعَلَقَةَ مُضْغَةً فَخَلَقْنَا
الْمُضْغَةَ عِظْمًا فَكَسَوْنَا الْعِظْمَ لَحْمًا ق ثُمَّ أَنْشَأْنَاهُ خَلْقًا آخَرَ ط فَتَبَرَّكَ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنُ الْخَالِقِينَ-

"Then We fashioned the seed into a thing which clings (Alaqatan). We fashioned the thing which clings into a chewed lump of flesh and We fashioned the chewed flesh into bones, and We clothed the bones with intact flesh. Then We caused it to grow into another creation, so blessed be Allah, the best of the creators."

(23:14).

It was only during the nineteenth century that people had a slightly clearer view of this question.

All the afore mentioned and many other modern scientific concepts found abundantly in the Glorious Quran, that was revealed 14 centuries ago, with utmost accuracy and free from any error, prove beyond any iota of doubt the divine source of its revelation.

4. Accuracy of Historical Records in the Quran:

Many ancient historical anecdotes and geographical regions have been mentioned in the stories of the holy Qur'an such as : the river or sea through which the Bani Israel passed, the land of Ashab-e Hijr, Dhul Qarnayn Dam, Ashab-e Kahf's Cave, earthy paradise of Dhat al-`Imad etc., not forgetting the detailed stories of past Prophets.

The hypothesis advanced by those who see Muhammad as the author of Quran is untenable. How could a man from being an unlettered, become the most important author, in terms of Historical literature in the whole world, and pen down historical facts with pinpoint accuracy?

Holy Quran says:

تِلْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهَا إِلَيْكَ، مَا كُنْتَ تَعْلَمُهَا أَنْتَ
وَ لَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا، فَاصْبِرْ، إِنَّ الْعَاقِبَةَ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ۔

"Such are some of the stories of the unseen, which We have revealed unto you, before this neither you nor your people knew them. So persevere patiently, for the end is for those who are righteous".

(11:49).

Research on historical records in the Holy Quran and finding their traces is very effective in understanding the Authenticity of the Qur'an. In addition, being involved in exploring the past would provide a good background to take lessons from the past on which the holy Qur'an in the following verses to persuade us to do so:

أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ
مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ، كَانُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً۔

"Have they not travelled in the earth and seen how was the end of those before them? They were stronger than these in powers..."

(30:9)

قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ سُنَنٌ فَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ۔

"Indeed there have been examples before you; Therefore travel in the earth..."

(3:137)

To appreciate the accuracy of historical records advanced in the Quran, few examples are cited here below, not mentioning the detailed information on past Prophets' history:

A) Ashabe Kahf:

While narrating about the duration of which 'As-habe Kahf' (the Sleepers of the Cave) stayed in the cave, the Quran says:

وَلَبِثُوا فِي كَهْفِهِمْ ثَلَاثَ مِائَةٍ سِنِينَ وَازْدَادُوا تِسْعًا

"So they stayed in their cave three hundred years and ADD nine..."

(18:25).

The wording is quite significant. The verse does not say "three hundred and nine years" but uses the apparently cumbersome wording of "three hundred years and add nine". Why add nine? This is because their stay was 300 years if one used the solar calendar and 309 years by the lunar calendar. The lunar year is 11 days shorter. Now 11 days times 300 years divided by 365 years is 9 years.

B) City of Iram:

Another example of historical record can be found in chapter 89 of the Quran which mentions an ancient city called Iram:

أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِعَادٍ - إِرَامَ ذَاتِ الْعِمَادِ -

"Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Aad (people), of the (city of) Iram, with lofty pillars, the like of which were not produced in (all) the land?"

(89:6-7).

Apart from its being mentioned in the Quran, there were no historical record about this city - Iram. The name itself was obscure even during the time of the Prophet himself, which led to a number of speculations about its possible geographical location. Some commentators of the Quran went to the extent of suggesting that probably Iram was the name of a hero of the Aad.

The research findings of published by the official journal of the American National Geographic society in December 1978 have conclusively shown that Iram was a city. In 1975, Dr. Paulo Mathias of the University of Rome, director of the Italian Archeological Mission in Syria 'hit an archeological jackpot'. In the ruins of a palace apparently destroyed in the 23rd century B.C., he came upon the greatest third millennium archive ever unearthed. More than 15,000 'cuneiform tablets' were discovered. Among the rich details revealed by these tablets is the fact that Ebla used to have trading links with Iram....

It is inconceivable how Muhammad could describe accurately in the Quran the physical features and the level of architecture of a people who lived in an ancient city which was destroyed 3000 years before he was born.

C) The body of Fir'aun:

The Quran has explicitly recorded about what has become of the body of Fir'aun.

فَالْيَوْمَ نُنَجِّيكَ بِيَدِنَا لِيَتَكُونَ لِمَنْ خَلْفَكَ آيَةً، وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ عَنَّا لَعَفْلُونَ۔

"This day We save therein your body so that you become a sign for those who come after you. But verily, many among mankind are heedless of our signs....."

(10:92).

In this verse, the God's intention of bringing the body of Pharaoh out of water rather than leaving it decaying or being eaten by the sea animals is to give a lesson to future generations.

What is amazing that when the Quran was transmitted to man by the Prophet, the bodies of all the Pharaohs were in their tombs in the Necropolis of Thebes, on the opposite side of the Nile from Luxor. At the time however, absolutely nothing was known of this fact, and it was not until the end of the nineteenth century that they were discovered there.

As the Quran states, the body of the Pharaoh (Fir'aun) of the Exodus was in fact rescued: visitors may see him in the Royal Mummies Room of the Egyptian Museum, Cairo. How did the Prophet, who lived in Arabian desert come to know that the body of Fir'aun would be rescued for future generations to learn a lesson?

5. Predictions in the Quran:

The Holy Quran predicted and foretold several events with total confidence and categorical details. Can we ascribe this precise knowledge of the future to the knowledge of Muhammad as a person living in the dark ages of Arabia? It is totally unrealistic to attempt to analyse these predictions from a purely materialistic point of view. The only justified answer to the cause of the precise accuracy of the predictions is that it was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (saww) from the All-Knowledgeable Lord and the Master of the Universe, the past, present and future, Allah (swt).

Please ponder over the following splendid moments of the Quranic predictions:

A) The Descendants of the Prophet:

In Surah Kawthar, the Quran informs people that the descendants of Prophet will ultimately be numerous, this despite the fact that in his lifetime his enemies were hopeful that he would die without issue, since all the sons of the Prophet had died in infancy, and only one of his daughters survived.

إِنَّا أَعْطَيْنَاكَ الْكَوْثَرَ۔ فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَأَنْحِر۔ إِنَّ شَانِئَكَ هُوَ الْأَبْتَر۔

"To you We have granted abundance. Therefore to Your Lord turn in prayers and sacrifice. For he who hated you, will be cut-off".

(Sura no. 108)

Today, the descendants of the Prophet (Saadat and Ashraf) can be found everywhere, while the progeny of Abu Jahal and Abu Sufyan, the enemies of Prophet Muhammad (saww) have become extinct. Given this, was it possible for any other than God, that eternal reality and fixed pivot of truth, to predict that matters would unfold in a sense completely opposed to existing circumstances.

B) Defeat of Persian Empire:

In 615 AD, Khusru Parviz of Persia attacked Byzantium (Roman) empire and gained control of Syria, Palestine and North Africa. He ransacked Jerusalem, set fire to the Holy Sepulcher and destroyed numerous cities. The war ended in clear victory for fire-worshippers of Persia.

News of the defeat of Byzantine worshippers of God was received with satisfaction by the idolaters of Mecca. This was grievous to the Muslims and caused them much anxiety about the future course of the events. It was then that a revelation came foretelling the renewed triumph of the Byzantine over the Persians within few years.

These are the relevant verses of Surat Ruum in the Quran:

الْمَّ- غُلِبَتِ الرُّومُ- فِي آدْنَى الْأَرْضِ وَهُمْ مِّنْ بَعْدِ غَلِبِهِمْ
سَيُغْلِبُونَ- فِي بَضْعِ سِنِينَ، لِلَّهِ الْأَمْرُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ مِنْ بَعْدُ، وَ

يَوْمَئِذٍ يَفْرَحُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ- بِنَصْرِ اللَّهِ، يَنْصُرُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ، وَ هُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ- وَعَدَّ اللَّهُ، لَا يَخْلِفُ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ وَ لَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ-

"The Romans have been defeated in a land nearby. But in the future they will triumph over their enemies, within a period of few years. All affairs, both earlier and later, are in the hands of God. And on the day when the Romans triumph, the believers and the followers of Islam will rejoice. God assists to whomsoever He wills, and He is Powerful and Compassionate. This is the promise of God, a promise which can not be violated, but most of the people know not".

(30:1-6)

Within less than 10 years, this Prophecy of the Quran was fulfilled in the year 624 A.D. corresponding to year 2 A.H. How can we explain the confident and categorical prediction of the victory of a defeated people over a victorious people, in the absence of any factors pointing to the likelihood of such an event? A realistic approach to the state of society and the course of events would definitely have contradicted this prophesy. The Prophet of Islam foretold a definite military victory at a certain point in the future. How did he know it was going to occur?

C) Conquest of Khaybar and Mecca:

The Quran has also foretold the conquest of Mecca and the triumph of the Muslims over the polytheists as follows:

لَقَدْ صَدَقَ اللَّهُ رَسُولَهُ الرُّسُلَ بِالْحَقِّ، لَتَدْخُلَنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ
الْحَرَامَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ آمِنِينَ مُحَلِّقِينَ رُءُوسَكُمْ وَمُقَصِّرِينَ لَا
تَخَافُونَ، فَعَلِمَ مَا لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا فَجَعَلَ مِنْ دُونِ ذَلِكَ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا۔

"That which God inspired in his prophet by means of a dream is true and veracious: Without any doubt you will enter the sacred mosque (in Mecca) in safety and security. You will shave your heads and shorten your hairs without any fear or anxiety. God knows what you do not know. And you will win a victory near at hand".

(48:27)

These predictions were made at a time when no military expert or adviser could have predicted the occurrence, given the difficult circumstances of the Muslims and the unfavorable situation in which they found themselves.

In the same verse (48:27), the Quran also mentions the future occurrence of another historical event, namely the triumph of the Muslim warriors at Khaybar, and their conquest of its formidable fortresses. Hard blows had been inflicted upon the Muslims from Khaybar, but in the end the army of Islam triumphed over the Jews, and the predictions of the Quran was completely fulfilled. Can we ascribe this precise knowledge of the future to the knowledge and speculation of the Prophet?

D) The Final Outcome of Abulahab:

The Quran also predicts with clarity the final outcome of the life of a given individual, Abu Lahab, the obstinate enemy of Islam. It proclaims categorically that he will refuse the religion of monotheism until the very end of his life, and that for this reason his painful destiny will be to enter the fire of God's wrath.

These are the verses of the Quran:

تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ۔ مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُ مَالُهُ وَمَا كَسَبَ۔
سَيَصْلَىٰ نَارًا ذَاتَ لَهَبٍ۔

"May Abulahab perish, and may his two hands be cut off. The wealth he accumulated to destroy Islam has not availed him or saved him from destruction; he will soon fall into the flaming fire of Hell".

(111:1-3).

All historians agree that Abu Lahab closed his eyes on this world as an unbeliever, and that he persisted in his obstinate hostility to the prophet of Islam until the final moments of his life. The verses revealed concerning the events mentioned above constitute a further proof that the sacred book of Islam is from God.

E) The Return of Prophet to Mecca:

Likewise, the prediction that the Prophet would return to Mecca, his home, made at a time when he abandoned it for Medina because of the pressures of the polytheists, is also an indication of a higher consciousness:

إِنَّ الَّذِي فَرَضَ عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ لَرَادُّكَ إِلَىٰ مَعَادٍ، قُلْ رَبِّي
أَعْلَمُ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَمَنْ هُوَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ۔

"God Who made incumbent on you the recitation of the Quran will return you to your birthplace. Say: My Lord knows best him who has brought the guidance and him who is in manifest error."

(28:85).

All the afore-mentioned predictions of future events are inexplicable unless they be ascribed to the source of revelation, to the infinite knowledge of Allah (swt).

6- Lack of Contradiction in the Quran:

The Noble Quran contains profound and exact statements on a wide variety of subjects. It establishes and legislates principles and regulations for the practical and ethical duties of the human being and for the ordering and administration of society. It gives accurate account of future predictions, anecdotes of past communities and Prophets, as well as Scientific truths unknown at the time of revelation. However, slightest variation or contradiction whatsoever is not to be seen in this great mass of material.

Every scientist and researcher is liable to change from time to time, his attitude to scientific topics under investigation and the opinions he bases on them. Relying on the knowledge and conclusions he has accumulated, he may express a certain opinion on a given topic at one time and later repudiate that opinion in the light of continuing and more extensive research and the solution of certain problems. However, as regards to Quran, although it was revealed over a period of twenty three years, it is completely uniform and lacking in contradiction. The uniformity, unity and the consistency of the ideas in the Quran signify its coming from the Unique One, Allah (swt).

Quran says:

أَفَلَا يَتَدَبَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ، وَلَوْ كَانَ مِنْ عِنْدِ غَيْرِ اللَّهِ لَوَجَدُوا فِيهِ
اِخْتِلَافًا كَثِيرًا۔

"Do they not reflect on the Quran? If this book were from other than GOD, they would certainly find much variation and contradiction in it".

(4:82)

Since everything in the world is in a state of growth and self-perfection, then the Qur'an would of necessity lack harmony since it was revealed over a period of twenty-three years; it would lack harmony that is if we were to suppose that it was the work of a man rather than of a prophet. Thus, lack of contradiction in the Quran proves a Divine hand in the its authorship.

7. Prophet Muhammad (saw) was Unlettered:

It is impossible for this Quran to have been produced by a single individual or to have been borrowed by him from other sources, particularly an individual who was unlettered, had not even studied, and had grown up in the degenerate environment of the Arabian peninsula at that time, an environment which was totally alien to science and philosophy.

All historians are unanimous that the Prophet was an unlettered man who had never known books or teachers and never learned how to write. The Quran itself addressed him as follows:

وَمَا كُنْتَ تَتْلُوا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَلَا تَخُطُّهُ بِيَمِينِكَ إِذًا
لَأَرْتَابَ الْمُبِطِّلُونَ-

"Before this, you did not read any book, nor did you write anything with your hands. For then those who utter falsehood may might have doubted".

(29:48).

Before the revelation of the Holy Quran, the Holy Prophet could neither write with his own hand nor could he read anything written by the others, and this is a fact vouched by one and all of the age of the Holy Prophet. No opponent in the life time of the Prophet ever raised his voiced to challenge this verse, since for the forty years they stayed with him, they knew he was unlettered. How could have then the prophet authored such an unmatched book by himself. With this fact in view, it would be sheer absurdity to say that what he delivered as the Quran was not the revelation from God, but a reproduction of what he read in the other scriptures and what he wrote, i.e. composed of and memorised.

One may wonder why God, the Almighty commissioned one who was deprived of the capacity of reading or writing as His Apostle? Was not the Prophet supposed to be the most knowledgeable one who was required to teach the people the Book and the wisdom? The answer is that inability to write and read does not mean ignorance, as the Holy Prophet was gifted divine knowledge through miracle, and according to some researchers, the Prophet knew how to read and write not through learning from a teacher but through divine inspiration and miracle.

Infact, the immediate next verse of the Holy Quran asserts that the Prophet was granted knowledge:

بَلْ هُوَ آيَاتٌ بَيِّنَاتٌ فِي صُدُورِ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ، وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا الظَّالِمُونَ-

"Nay! It (Quran) is the clear signs in the breast of those who have been granted the knowledge and none contradict our signs except the unjust."

(29:49).

The Prophet (saww) confirmed this by saying:
"I am the city of Knowledge and Ali is its door".

Whatever the case, the obvious fact remains the same: the one who had never learnt from any human teacher how to read or write, to present this incontestable and universally recognised truth - the Quran - which never before was revealed even to the great apostles in the past, could not have possibly been without its source being from above. Unfortunately, there were some who accused the Prophet that he learnt the contents of Quran from the others. But this is refuted by the Quran eloquently:

قُلْ نَزَّلَهُ رُوحُ الْقُدُسِ مِنْ رَبِّكَ بِالْحَقِّ لِيُثَبِّتَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَ هُدًى وَ بَشْرًا لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ - وَلَقَدْ نَعْلَمُ أَنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ إِنَّمَا
يُعَلِّمُهُ بَشَرٌ، لِسَانُ الَّذِي يُلْحِدُونَ إِلَيْهِ أَعْجَمِيٌّ وَ هَذَا لِسَانٌ
عَرَبِيٌّ مُبِينٌ -

"Say (O Muhammad)! The Holy Spirit (Jibriil) has brought it (Quran) down from your Lord with the truth, that it may establish those who believe, and as a guidance and glad tidings unto those who submit (themselves to God). And indeed We know what they say: 'It is only a man that teaches him'. The tongue of him whom they falsely hint at, is outlandish (foreign language, not eloquent, slang), while this language is Arabic (pure and) plain".

(16:102-103).

However, it is remarkable that such a man who had never studied from any mortal being, was given the most eloquent book: The Glorious Quran, and became the standard-bearer of a movement calling for science and free thought. It is said that the mystic object in keeping the Prophet unaware of the art of reading and writing was to help the people to recognise the Quran as a Word of God.

8. No Resemblance Between the Words of Quran and Hadith:

After Quran, the second source of doctrine and legislation in Islam is the Ahadith (utterances) of the Holy Prophet (saww) himself. A very large number of collections of the Prophet's words thus appear under the title of Ahadith, and thousands of Ahadith and traditions attributed to the Holy Prophet are recorded in the Ahadith books.

The amazing remarkable point here is the fact that all these utterances of the Prophet (Ahadith) which were also in pure Arabic language like that of Quran, and the Prophet whose tongue would recite the Arabic Quran, bore no resemblance whatsoever to the Quran. What must be heavily stressed over here is the disparity between these two groups of texts - Quran and Ahadith - from a literary and stylistic point of view. It would be unthinkable to compare the style of Quran with that of the Ahadith. This itself is a convincing proof that the Quran originated from a source other than the mind of the Prophet.

9. Non-Muslims Admit:

Even the non-Muslim scholars admit to the authenticity of the Quran. For example, Laura Vaccia Vaglieri, professor at the University of Naples, has the following to say:

"The heavenly book of Islam is miraculous and inimitable. Its style is totally unprecedented in Arabic literature, and its peculiar impact on the spirit of the human being derives from its special and superior characteristics. How is it possible that such a book should be the work of Muhammad, an Arab who had never studied? We find in this book a treasury of knowledge beyond the capacity of the greatest philosophers and statesman, and for this reason it is also impossible to regard the Quran as the work of an educated person".

Smith writes in his book: Muhammad and Islam:

"I boldly assert that one day the loftiest of human philosophers and the most veracious principles of Christianity will confess and bear witness that the Quran is the Word of God. An unlettered and unlearned Prophet was chosen by God to bring the Quran to Mankind, a book that has in the course of history produced thousands of other books and treatises, brought libraries into being and filled them with books, and placed before mankind laws and philosophies and educational, intellectual and ideological systems.

"He arose in an environment where there was no trace of learning and civilization. In the whole of Madina, there were only eleven people who knew how to read and write, and in all the branches of Quraysh, in Mecca and its environs, not more than seventeen people were literate.

"The teachings of the Quran, which mentions knowledge and the pen in its opening verses, brought about a tremendous transformation. Islam proclaimed study to be a religious duty, and made the black ink of scribe and the scholar to be superior to the red blood of the martyr.

"Thanks to the teachings of the Quran and its emphasis on the cultivation of knowledge, countless scholars made their appearance and wrote innumerable books. Different scientific disciplines were derived from the Quran and spread across the world by Muslim thinkers. The world was illuminated with the lights of the Quran and the culture of Islam."

Numerous other non-Muslim Scholars have attested to the fact that Quran is the word of God. However, we shall not mention them for the sake of brevity.

CONCLUSION:

The Holy Quran is not the product of the Holy Prophet's speculation and thinking. Rather every word of the book is the word of God, which was communicated to the Prophet through the process of revelation. Communicated to the Holy Prophet not as mere inspiration but as recitation and clear guidance in plain Arabic Language. Descended upon the heart of 'heart' of the Prophet not metaphorically but literally - namely in the form of language known by the people who subsequently transcribed it under the guidance of the Prophet himself.

Being the revealed word of Allah, Quran imparts knowledge which is immune from all possibilities of doubt and every form of discrepancy. It is the substantiation of Truth and guidance that leads humanity from darkness towards the light. It is an embodiment of mercy and glad tidings from God to those who follow it faithfully, and a criterion which distinguishes clearly the right from the wrong. It emphasises that all unbiased persons dedicated to knowledge are bound to uphold its truth at the time of its revelation and to attest it in later age as the horizons of human knowledge expand further and further.

However, biased persons tried to doubt the authenticity of the Quran being the word of God and attested it to various misgivings. But they failed to prove their false claims, and the Quran stood high in all ages as the bearer of Divine Light unaffected by the whims of the mischief-mongers. A truth-seeker always bowed down his head in front of the afore-mentioned evidences which unequivocally prove the authenticity of the Quran as the word of God, the Almighty.
